Dear Friend,

I am very much grieved at your great loss. The loss is certainly an irreparable one, but what cannot be cured must be endured. Though his death is sad one, but it would be a consolation to know that he is not dead but gone ~~to~~ before to serve the will of his maker. I am unable to write words of comfort. My heart too is heavily shocked. I trust that Heaven's blessings will be showered upon your heart and ~~His~~ His love will dry your eyes.

With deep sympathy and affliction,

Yours most lovingly,

Uma Shanker
