Some opinions The "Abhyudaya"

DR. RAJENDRA PRASAD JI President Indian Republic

"There are so many gifts which the Revered Pandit Malaviyaji has made to the country that it is very difficult to select any one of them and praise it more. Amongst them the Abhyudaya is one of the best which he dedicated to the Hindi-world in a lofty spirit of sarvice.

PANDIT JAWAHARLALJI NEHRU Prime Minister, Indian Republic

"I am glad to learn that the Abhyudaya is going to re-appear. For a very long time it has played its part in the fight for our freedom. It was because ot this fight that the Abhyudaya had to suspend its publication. There was something wanting in Allahabad. It is a matter of congratulation that that gap is going to be filled

SRIMATI SAROJANI NAIDU

"Any venture associated with the revered name of Pandit Madan Mohan revered name of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya carries its own guarantee of lofty ideals and ensures respect and sincere response. The Abhyudaya has been sof ortunate as to have in addition to Pandit Malaviya's great name, the names of other distingui-shed patriots of outstanding merit also associated with it to rouse the people associated with it to rouse the people to a proper consciousness of duty and to champion all fine causes for the nation's welfare. I hope the Journal will continue to maintain its high standard and serve the country in accordance with the changing needs of the times and circumstances. You have a heavy burden of responsi-bility as successor to so eminent a series of editors "

RAJARSHI BABU

PURUSOTTAM DASS TANDON "Under the care of its revered founder Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya and even afterwards, the Abhyuviva and even atterwards, the Abhyu-daya has rendered genuine services to the country. Inspite of minor differences of opinion none amongst us can deny that the Abhyudaya has always remained a sincere champion of the cause of Independence. My relaof the cause of Independence. My relaold. I myself had a little hand in the paper at the time of its birth and in bringing it up. It is therefore quite natural for me to derive pleasure in seeing the Abhyudaya moving lough seeing the Abhyudaya moving, laugh-ing and sometimes even fighting."
