III - ARRIVAL AT THE PARLIAMENT HOUSE.

8.27 a.m. The Presidential State Coach arrives at the north porch, and the President alights from the off side, followed by his SP and MSP.

The President takes the Salute of the PBG. The State Coach is immediately withdrawn from the portico.

The President thereafter proceeds towards the steps where the Prime Minister receives him.

The following are then presented to the President by the Prime Minister:-

The Vice-President-elect,
The Chief Justice of India,
The Speaker of Parliament.

Introductions over, the Prime Minister leaves for the Central Hall.

The procession forms with two AsDC forming the head of the column. Behind them will be two Staff Officers; next the Vice-President-elect and the Speaker; then the President and the Chief Justice; and the rear will be held by the SP and MSP.

The procession will slowly proceed through the corridor across the lawns through the north door of the hall. As the procession enters the hall, a fanfare will be sounded and will continue till the procession has reached the dais.

As the procession enters the hall, five Lancers of the PBG will take their stand in a row between the pillars behind the dais.

The disposition of the procession will be as below:-

|                |   |   |               |

| PRESIDENT |    |   |   |    |     |     |

11 - Vice-President

12 - Chief Justice

13 - Speaker

When the fanfare is sounded, all present in the hall will rise from their seats.

IV - ARRIVAL AT THE DAIS AND THEREAFTER.

8.30 a.m. On arrival at the dais, the band will immediately strike the NATIONAL ANTHEM.

NOTE:- Ex.Engr(Shri Bhojwani)--required number of seats for Band Orchestra in the right recess.

8.32 " The Home Secretary will come forward, take his stand in front of the microphone on the floor, bow and ask for the President's permission to read out a letter from the Election Commission announcing the name of the elected President.

The President will be pleased to give his assent with a nod.

The Home Secretary thereupon will read out the letter and thereafter he will bow and retire to his seat.

8.33 " The Chief Justice will step forward, take his stand turning a quarter circle to the left, and will administer the oath of office.

The President will rise from his seat and with face forward will take the oath in Hindi in the presence of the Chief Justice.

NOTE:- Suptdg.Engr(Shri Bhatia)--two microphones on the dais.

Immediately the oath-taking is over, signal will be despatched by the officer detailed for firing 31 Gun Salute.

NOTE:- Ex.Engr(Shri Bhojwani)--three officers of Army Headquarters Signals will occupy a place on the left-hand recess with their apparatus.

It will take approximately 1½ minutes to complete the Gun Salute - the sound inside the hall will be muffled.

8.35 " The President rises to make a short speech. The speech will be made in Hindi first, which will take about five minutes; and thereafter in English which will take roundabout four minutes. On conclusion of the speech, the President resumes his seat and immediately rises again and looks to the right for the Vice-President-elect who will be seated immediately behind.

8.45 " The Vice-President steps forward on the right side (where the microphone will already be located) and the President administers the oath of office to the Vice-President. Thereafter, the Vice-President returns and resumes his seat.

8.47 " The Home Secretary steps forward, bows and asks permission of the President for announcing of necessary Proclamation. The President gives his assent with a nod; and thereafter the Home Secretary reads out the Proclamation.

8.49 " The Home Secretary then retires to his seat, to come up again immediately to the same place, bows and asks permission of the President for closure of the ceremony. The President gives his assent sitting.

8.50 " The NATIONAL ANTHEM is struck. The President rises, and all will rise.

V - DEPARTURE.

- 8.51 a.m. After the ANTHEM, the procession re-forms in the same order as it entered, and the President, flanked by the Chief Justice and others forming the procession, proceeds towards the North Porch through the north door.
- On arrival at the top of the steps, the President may be pleased to take leave of the Prime Minister, who will by then have joined the party, and later the Vice-President, the Chief Justice and the Speaker, and proceed down the steps towards the front arch of the portico, preceded by two AsDC, who will promptly fan out near the pillars.
- 8.54 " The President takes the Salute of his Body Guard and boards the Coach from the far side, followed by his SP and MSP.
- 8.55 " The Coach pulls out of the North Gate and is driven in State towards Rashtrapati Bhavan via Parliament Street.
- NOTE:- The following cars, as a special case, will be parked at some convenient place near the north porch:-
- The Prime Minister's car,
  - The Vice-President's car,
  - The Chief Justice's car,
  - The Speaker's car, and
  - Two Rashtrapati Bhavan cars.

VI - ARRIVAL AT RASHTRAPATI BHAVAN.

- 9.05 a.m. The President drives in through the main gate of Rashtrapati Bhavan and alights in the forecourt.

NOTE:- AsDC 1 & 3 will by then have reached the forecourt in car via Church Road and Brassey Avenue.

(The Photographers may be given a lift).

Preceded by two AsDC, the President arrives at the dais in front of the combined Guard of Honour drawn up in the forecourt.

The President takes the National Salute and thereafter, escorted by the Commander, and preceded by two AsDC, inspects all the rows of the Guard.

NOTE:- Inspr. R.B. Police Guard - this ceremony will be open to the public. Sentries at the main and side gates will therefore be accordingly informed.

After the inspection is over, the President returns back to the platform and takes the Salute again. Thereafter, the car is pulled up alongside the platform. The President boards the car to leave for Rashtrapati Bhavan.
