LIST OF STATUES, MONUMENTS AND BUSTS ERECTED IN MADRAS IN HONOUR OF DISTINGUISHED SERVANTS OF THE STATE.

Municipal division, street, &c.	Description of statue, &c.	Transcript of any inscription thereon.
1. Chepauk Park, south of the Senate House, door No. 1, Seventh Division.	Statue of the Queen-Empress in bronze, set on a smoothly-dressed stone pedestal with a basement of Sholinghur stone; hood of zinc sheeting supported by ornamental cast-iron brackets and columns.	On south side— Victoria Queen-Empress of India. This statue is erected in token of his loyalty, respect and admiration of Her Majesty's many virtues by Her faithful subject Rajah Goday Narayanan Gujputee Rao of Sree Goday Family, Vizagapatam. East side— Unveiled by the Right Honorable The Lord Connemara, Governor of Fort St. George, June 20th, 1887. West side— Presented to the City of Madras in commemoration of Her Majesty's Jubilee.
2. South-west of the Senate Hall, Chepauk Park, Seventh Division.	Bust of Lord Hobart in white marble set on an offset pedestal of black stone squared and polished.	Inscription in Hindustanee, Tamil and English. Vere Henry Lord Hobart, Governor of Madras from A.D. 1872 to 1875, Defender of the Poor. The following were Lord Hobart's last words to the Presidency College on April 19th, 1875:— "Education brings with it a sense—a delighting and ennobling sense—of power and freedom, but brings with it also a sense of the great duty of political subordination and enlightened liberality of thought, which can appreciate the value, understand the difficulties, and make allowance for the defects of a firm and liberal administration. This invitation of the West to the East, this call to the intellectual association will prove (as I firmly believe) to have been the knell of every painful feeling that ever marred or impeded their intercourse. Misunderstanding, which is another name for ignorance, lies at the root of every kind and degree of national antipathy. Religious animosity, which is another name for unreasoning folly, cannot breathe in the pure atmosphere of mental advancement. The prejudice which could resist both time and civilization melts away before the sympathy of thought. Men learn that the mere accident of race or faith can never affect either the motive or the obligation of mutual friendliness and respect, and that whether born in England or in India, and whatever may be the creeds and dogmas which have kept them so long and so lamentably asunder, their duty and interest for the present and their hope for the future is in reality the same." On the 27th of April, eight days later, Protestant Catholics, Roman Catholics, Mussulmans and Hindus knelt in united prayer round their Governor while his spirit passed away. As a memorial of Lord Hobart's efforts to diminish taxation and establish a system of elementary education throughout the Presidency of Madras, this bust is presented by his widow Mary Catherine Hobart.
