III. Mo Senhor D. Gaspar Affonso, da Companhia de Jesus, 4th Bishop of Mylapore — (24th November 1708).
Ex. Mo e Rev. Mo Senhor Dom Fre Bernardo de Santo Caetano Religioso Eremita de Santo Agostinho, Bispo de Meliapor— (4th November 1780).
Andrew Ross, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for Madras, aged 79 years. He arrived at Madras in 1752 and was named an Alderman of the Mayor's Court in the original Charter granted that year; an active and useful member of the community. He devoted his time with unremitting attention to public objects of utility and benevolence—(22nd August 1797).
Anna Popham, wife of Stephen Popham, daughter of Sir William Thomas, Baronet, aged 37 years—(25th December 1787).
Stephen Popham, late Solicitor to Honorable the East India Company at the Presidency of Madras—1795.
William Dawson, Captain of H. M.'s Ship La Piedmontese , to which command he had been appointed by the Board of Admiralty in reward for his brave and skilful conduct when First Lieutenant of H. M.'s Ship San Fiorenzo in the three days' action near the Coast of Ceylon, aged 28 years—(29th September 1811).
.....	Lieutenant-Colonel James Walker, 3rd Regiment, Madras Light Infantry, who was killed when leading a column of Madras troops to the storm of the Burmese intrenched lines near Rangoon.	...
Thus fell in the moment of victory at the age 42, a man whose name is recorded in the annals of his country as "One of India's best and bravest soldiers." Erected by the officers of the Regiment and a few other military friends—(5th December 1824).
Lieutenant Walter Cook, 22nd Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, Sub-Assistant Commissary-General in the Army at Ava, who fell mortally wounded in the assault on Pegu and died at Rangoon in the 29th year of his age. One who, as a youthful soldier, gave high promise of future distinction; and who, as a gentleman and Christian, justly endeared himself to all who knew him. This tablet is erected by a few of his more intimate friends—(5th December 1852).
Major-General Thomas McGoun, of the Madras Army, who died at Marseilles, on his way to England, in the 62nd year of his age, after an almost uninterrupted service in India of 42 years—(19th April 1868).
He served with his Regiment (6th Madras Native Infantry) in Goomsur in 1837, and was present with it at the storming of Chin Kiang Foo and other engagements in the Chinese War of 1841-42. His services were especially conspicuous in the Judge Advocate and Military Finance Departments, in the former for 20 years and in the latter (specially appointed Controller by the Government) from 1860 until his death.

Born 1779, Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble, c.b., founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras Establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service, he returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory—(16th July 1827).
The Right Rev. Thomas Dealtry, D.D., of St. Catherine's Hall, Cambridge, third Bishop of Madras. Having laboured in India with singular fidelity and unsparing devotion for more than 30 years, first as Chaplain in the H.E.I.C.S. and Archdeacon of Calcutta and subsequently as Bishop of the Diocese, he entered into rest in the midst of his work in the 66th year of his age and the 12th of his Episcopate. "Preaching Peace by Jesus Christ, "He is Lord of all".—Acts, x 36. —(5th March 1859).
Hujus Ecclesiæ Archidiaconus Primus, aged 48—(31st August 1819).
The remains of Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel Dalrymple, c.b., of the Madras Artillery are interred here. The memorial of his worth is inscribed on a cenotaph erected by his brother Officers at the Artillery Cantonment at St. Thomas' Mount, in testimony of their sense of his public services and private virtues—(May 1821).
Lieutenant-Colonel of 10th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, and Commandant of the Cantonment at Pallavaram, who, after an honorable career of 33 years in the Indian Army, during which he was frequently employed, both on the general staff, and confidentially under General McDowell, Commander-in-Chief, and the Honorable W. Petrie, Governor of Prince of Wales' Island, was mortally wounded at the Cantonment of Pallavaram while returning from ball practice with his brigade by a Havildar of the 5th Regiment, who, infuriated by passion and blinded by intoxicating drugs, mistook the person of his intended victim, and aiming at the life of another, sacrificed that of his best friend and protector. The assassin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer to the Government which he served with fidelity and zeal?—(10th October 1833).
Francisco Marques DeSouza Lisboa, second son of the Chevalier Joze Marques Lisboa, ex-Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil to Her Britannic Majesty and of Dona Johanna Marques DeSouza Lisboa. He was born at Brussels on 21st September 1834. Belonged to the Imperial Navy of Brazil, and was admitted as a Midshipman into the Royal Navy of England, where he served with honor and distinction from the 1st June 1848 until his death—(19th November 1852).

.....	Sacred to the memory of Captain Andrew French, Captain John Spottiswoode Trotter, Captain Thomas Howell, Captain John Randall, Lieutenant Phillip Cook and John Cochrane, Esq., M.D., of the 16th Regiment, Native Infantry. The former was killed on the 29th March 1825 in the attack on the fortified heights of Arracan, the others fell victims to the fever which in 1824 and 1825 proved so fatal to His Majesty's and the Honorable Company's troops employed during the war against the Burmese. This slab has been erected by their brother officers in testimony of their esteem and regard.	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of Right Rev. Daniel Corrie, LL.D., consecrated at Lambeth, 14th June 1835, first Bishop of Madras. "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord JESUS CHRIST, by whom the world is crucified unto me and I unto the world." With these words this faithful servant of CHRIST entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1816 as a Chaplain of the Honorable East India Company and from them he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See. By the grace of the Holy Ghost his light increasingly shone before men, as a preacher of salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the Scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of Missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the Divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten His Kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras.	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-Colonel James Drever of the 6th Regiment, Madras Infantry, who died from the effects of a coup de soleil whilst gallantly leading his regiment at the storming of the fortress of Chinkeang Foo in China, aged 43 years, and was buried on its ramparts. Also to the memory of Lieutenant and Adjutant James Forsyth of the same regiment, who died of cholera on the expedition to China on board the Honorable Company's Transport Walmer Castle at sea, 12th April 1842, aged 31 years. As a token of esteem and regard this tablet is erected by their brother officers.	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of John Dent, Esq. Civil Servant and Provisional Member of Council of this Presidency. He died at Calcutta on the 17th January 1845 in the 50th year of his age. Lamented in his public capacity as one who in the course of 30 years' uninterrupted service had gained the complete confidence and respect of those officially connected with him and the distinguished approbation of both the Home and Indian Governments. In private life, by his amiable and generous disposition, his overflowing kindness, his untiring zeal for the good of all classes and his high integrity of character, he won the hearts of all who knew him. This monument is erected by the numerous European and Native friends to whom he was thus endeared, in testimony of their affection and esteem and as a memorial of his public and private virtues. "Whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." Phil. iv 8.	...

.....	Sacred to the memory of William Griffith, Esq., F.L.S., Madras Medical Service, born at Ilam in the county of Surrey, March 1810. He had attained to the highest eminence in the scientific world and was one of the most distinguished botanists of the age. He acquired his knowledge by personal investigation in the different provinces of British India, and in the neighbouring kingdoms from the banks of the Helmund and Oxus to the Straits of Malacca, where, in the capacity of Civil Assistant Surgeon, he died in the 35th year of his age and the 13th year of his public service in India. His early death is deeply deplored by numerous private friends and his loss to the cause of science elicited a public and emphatic expression of regret from the Governor-General of India. This tablet is erected as an humble tribute to his memory by a few of his brethren of the Medical Service—(9th February 1845).	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of Major George Broadfoot, C.B., 34th Madras Light Infantry, of Kirkwall in the Orkneys, and of London. His valour, foresight, and science mainly contributed to the success of the glorious defences of Jellalabad; and in the ensuing Afghan Campaign, he with his brave corps of Mountain Sappers acquired enduring renown. His diplomatic and military services as Commissioner of the Tennesseerim Provinces and as Governor-General's Agent on the North-West Frontier at a most important crisis of our Indian Empire, called forth the eloquent eulogy of Sir H. Hardinge, that he was as brave "as he was able and second to none in all the great qualities of an accomplished officer." He fell at the battle of Feroeseshar in his 39th year, acting as Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General. "Though severely wounded, he continued heroically to lead and animate the troops in the assault until mortally wounded in the Sikh Camp at the moment of victory," the last of three brothers who died for their country on the battle-fields of Asia. Raised by public subscription throughout the Presidency of Madras—(21st December 1845).	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of Major-General Sir Robert Henry Dick, K.C.B., K.C.H., of Tullymet. N.B.—One of the heroes of the Peninsular War, who, after distinguished services in Her Majesty's 42nd Regiment, Royal Highlanders, which regiment he brought out of action at Quatre Bras, closed a long and brilliant military career on the memorable field of Sobraon. Raised in grateful admiration by the public of the Presidency of Madras, where, for some time, he held the Chief Military Command—(10th February 1846).	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of Henry Valentine Conolly, Esq., of the Madras Civil Service, Collector and Magistrate of Malabar and Provisional Member of Council, who, after nearly 12 years devoted to the improvement of the province committed to his charge, fell by the hands of a band of fanatics on the 11th September 1855, aged 49 years. His friends, desirous of commemorating his services and Christian virtues, have erected this tablet and founded the scholarships which bear his name.	...
.....	To the memory of Ralph Horsley of the Madras Civil Service, who was cut off by the hand of an unknown assassin at Bellary on the night of 4th July 1856 in the 26th year of his age. This tablet has been erected by several of his College friends.	...

.....	Sacred to the memory of James Stephen Lushington, Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service, who died at the early age of 28 years, second son of the Right Honorable S. R. Lushington, M.P., late Governor of Madras, and of Anne Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Lord George Harris, late Governor of Madras. Distinguished on his arrival in India by superior talents and acquirements and passing with rapid success through his studies in the College of Fort William, he gave early promise of that intellectual and moral worth which is recorded with admiring friendship by the pious and accomplished Heber and which his short but brilliant career in this Presidency developed and matured as the Private Secretary of the Governor. He acquired by his impartial courtesy the esteem of every branch of the public service, while his many virtues and endearing qualities secured the approbation and realized the hopes of his affectionate and bereaved father. This monument is erected by the society which he adorned, as a just tribute to his departed excellence, 12th September 1832.	...
.....	In memory of Norman Robert Pogson, C.I.E., F.R.S.A., Government Astronomer at Madras for 30 years. Born at Nottingham on the 23rd March 1829, died at Madras on the 23rd June 1891. By his valuable contributions to astronomy and by his discoveries and observations of Stellar Phenomena, especially of minor planets and variable stars, he earned an enduring name. "Thine eyes shall see the King in His beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off"—23rd June 1891.	...
.....	Sacred to the memory of The Right Rev. Robert Caldwell, D.D., LL.D., Fellow of the University of Madras, who for 53 years devoted his eminent talents to the furtherance of the Gospel and the building up of Christ's Church among the Tamil people in Tinnevely; the last 14 of those years as Assistant Bishop to the Bishop of Madras. Excelling as a Scholar and Philologist, intimately acquainted with the Tamil people, their history, language, religion and customs; a ready and elegant writer; he attained a wide reputation, bringing honour thereby to the Missionary's calling, and strengthening the cause of Missions in the Church at home. But all his attainments and fame did not divert him from his great purpose and the simplicity of the Missionary life. He continued to be an earnest, sympathizing, vigilant watcher of souls. By his apostolic labours and example he trained many Native agents, brought thousands of heathen into the Church of Christ, raised the character and status not of the Christians only, but also of those without the church, and won their attachment and reverence. He was born near Belfast, of Scotch parents, on the 7th May 1814, and died at Kodaikánal on the 28th August 1891. His body rests beneath the Chancel of Holy Trinity Church, which he built at Idaiyangudi, Tinnevely—(28th August 1891).	...

Here are deposited the remains of General Sir Alexander Campbell, Bart. and K.C.B., Commander-in-Chief of the Madras Army. Died 11th December 1824, aged 64 years. Also of Olympia, his first wife, daughter of Sir John Morehead, Bart., of Trennent Park, Cornwall, who died 24th December 1794, aged 38 years.

Near this stone are deposited the remains of Major-General Sir Thomas Munro, Bart., K.C.B., Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George, who, after 47 years of distinguished civil and military services, seven of which he passed at the head of that Government under which he first served as a Cadet, was suddenly called from his labours on the 6th of July 1827 at a moment "when," in the language of the Honorable Court of Directors, "he was on the point of returning to his native land in the enjoyment of well-earned honors from his Sovereign and from the Company, having recently manifested a new proof of his zeal and devotion in retaining charge of the Government of Madras after he had intimated his wish to retire therefrom and at a period when the political state of India rendered the discharge of the duties of that high and honorable station 'peculiarly arduous and important.'" Ætat 65. Sir Thomas Munro was from the earliest period of his career remarkable amongst other men. All those who were associated with him at the commencement of his service, many of whom have since become illustrious in the annals of India and of their country, yielded to him with common consent that pre-eminence which belonged to the ascendancy of his character. The resources of his mind rose superior to every emergency of civil government or military enterprise, and he united to these great qualities an unpretending modesty (that exalted sign of innate worth) which courted no applause and which would have obstructed his advancement had not his transcendent merits in the cabinet and in the field forced him into public notice and elevated him to the highest office of this Presidency.

Beneath are interred the remains of His Excellency Sir Henry George Ward, Kt., G.C.M.G., Governor of Madras, who died at Madras on the 2nd of August 1860.

Sacred to the memory of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble Vere Henry Lord Hobart, Governor of Madras, who died at Madras on the 27th April 1875, aged 56 years. Fortis vir sapiensque. "The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy"—James III, 17. "If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of Him"—I, John ii, 29. "Where I am, there shall also my servant be"—John xii, 26.

In memoriam — Lieutenant-General Sir Herbert Taylor Macpherson, K.C.B., K.C.S.I., V.C., Commander-in-Chief of the Army of Madras, ob. Oct. 20, A.D. 1886. Æt. 59. He died near Prome, on the Irrawaddy, of fever contracted through exposure in Upper Burma while commanding the Forces in the field during the Third Burmese War. His remains lie in the cemetery at Rangoon. A most able leader in the field. In quarters devoted to the welfare of his men. He was beloved and respected by all. This tablet is placed here to mark his too brief command of the Madras Army, and the regretful sense of their loss by his friends in this Presidency.

.....	Sacred to the memory of Rev. Fredrick Christian Swartz, whose life was one continued effort to imitate the example of his Blessed Master, employed as a Protestant Missionary from the Government of Denmark, and in the same character by the Society in England for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge. He, during a period of fifty years, "went about doing good," manifesting in respect to himself the most entire abstraction from temporal views, but embracing every opportunity of promoting both the temporal and eternal welfare of others. In him religion appeared not with a gloomy aspect, or forbidding mien, but with a graceful form and placid dignity. Among the many fruits of his indefatigable labours was the erection of the church at Tanjore. The savings from a small salary were, for many years, devoted to the pious work and the remainder of the expense supplied by individuals at his solicitation. The Christian Seminaries at Ramanadpuram and in the Tinnevely Province were established by him. Beloved and honored by Europeans, he was, if possible, held in still deeper reverence by the natives of this country of every degree and every sect, and their unbounded confidence in his integrity and truth was on many occasions rendered highly beneficial to the public service. The poor and the injured looked upon him as an unfailing friend and advocate. The great and powerful concurred in yielding him the highest homage ever paid in this quarter of the globe to European virtue. The late Hyder Ally Cawn, in the midst of a bloody and vindictive war with the Carnatic, sent orders to his officers "to permit the Venerable Father Swartz to pass unmolested and show him respect and kindness, for he is a holy man and means no harm to my Government." The late Tuljajee, Rajah of Tanjore, when on his death-bed desired to entrust to his protecting care his adopted son Serfojee, the present Rajah, with the administration of all affairs of his country. On a spot of ground granted to him by the same Prince, two miles east of Tanjore, he built a house for his residence and made it an Orphan Asylum. Here the last 20 years of his life were spent in the education and religious instruction of children, particularly those of indigent parents, whom he gratuitously maintained and instructed. And here on the 13th of February 1798, surrounded by his infant flock and in the presence of several of his disconsolate brethren, entreating them to continue to make religion the first object of their care and imploring with his last breath the Divine blessing on their labours, he closed his truly Christian career in the 72nd year of his age. The East India Company, anxious to perpetuate the memory of such transcendent worth, and gratefully sensible of the public benefits which resulted from its influence, caused this monument to be erected. Ann. Dom. 1807.	...
Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-General Sir S. F. Whittingham, K.C.B. and K.C.H., Colonel, H.M. 71st Highland Light Infantry, and Commander-in-Chief of the Madras Army, who departed this life on the 19th January 1841, aged 66.
