Government House.	Full-sized marble figure on a white marble pedestal.	Marquis Wellesley, Governor-General of India, from 1798 to 1805. Erected by the British inhabitants of Bengal in testimony of their high sense of the wisdom, energy and rectitude of his administration.
Ditto	Marble busts (12)	These busts are said to be those of twelve Cæsars of Rome seized from a French Man-of-War in the Indian Ocean in the beginning of the nineteenth century.
Town Hall	Full-sized marble statue on a marble pedestal.	To the Right Hon'ble Warren Hastings, MDCCCLXXX.	See also No. 16.
Ditto	Full-sized statue on marble pedestal over marble platform with steps.	In honour of the Most Noble Marquis Cornwallis, K.G., Governor-General of India, from September MDCCCLXXXVI to October MDCCXCIII, who, by an administration uniformly conducted on the principles of wisdom, equity and sound policy, improved the internal resources of the country, promoted the happiness of its inhabitants, conciliated the friendship of the native powers, confirmed the attachment of the allies of the Company, and established the reputation of the British name in Hindustan for good faith and moderation by fixing in perpetuity the public demand for the landed revenue. He gave to the proprietors of the soil for the first time a permanent interest in it, and by the formation of a code of regulations for every department of the Government, he bestowed on the natives of India the benefit of a constitution and a security before unknown in the enjoyment of their rights and property. Forced into a war by the unprovoked aggression of Tippoo Sultan, his eminent military talents in the conduct of it were no less conspicuous than his moderation in victory. As a lasting memorial of these important services, and as a testimony of their respect and esteem for a Governor-General under whose administration public spirit was encouraged and merit liberally rewarded, this statue was erected by the British inhabitants of Bengal, A.D. MDCCXCIII.

77	Hare School ...	A white marble full-sized figure standing on a marble pedestal.	In honour of David Hare, who, by steady industry having acquired an ample competence, cheerfully relinquished the prospect of returning to enjoy it in his native land, in order to promote the welfare of that of his adoption to the close of his irreproachable and useful life. He made the improvement, intellectual and moral, as well as the condition in sickness no less than in health, of the native youths of Bengal the object of his constant care and unwearied solicitude, and they, in token of gratitude and veneration for the memory of their constant, generous and most disinterested benefactor, have erected this statue.
78	Sanskrit College	A white full-sized seated figure on a pedestal of marble.	To the sacred memory of— Pandit Iwar Chandra Vidiyasagara, O.E.S., who, from a pupil, became the Principal of the Sanskrit College. This statue has been erected, with subscriptions raised by the public, as a token of their profound respect for his great virtues, and a tribute to his eminent services to the country, as scholar, author, educationist, reformer and philanthropist.

Hindu School ...	Marble tablet inserted in the wall.	This Tablet is erected to the memory of— Gopal Kristo Ghose, late student of this College, whose early attainments reflected credit upon himself, upon the Institution, and upon his countrymen; who, having on two successive occasions eminently distinguished himself in the annual examination of this College, was on the last deprived, by an untimely death, of the rewards that he merited, but for which this Tablet has been substituted by the Committee of Public Instruction as a mark of regret for his loss and of the desire to perpetuate the memory of his example.
Ditto ...	Marble tablet inserted in the wall.	To the memory of— Sarvesware Bhattacharya, M.A. Born 30th April 1854. Died 18th August 1895 A.D., at Ichapore. Fifth Teacher of the Hindu School, whose mild and genial disposition, unbrink devotion to his work, and the very keen interest he took in the welfare of his pupils, won the love and gratitude of them all, and their deep regret at his untimely death.	1841.
		This Tablet is raised by his pupils, Hindu School, 21st December 1895.
