The Upanisads are a class of Sanskrit writings which meet the highest spiritual needs of man. Nearly every civilized country in the world may be proud of her spiritual seers and spiritual literature, but the unfathomable depths of spirituality were never so profoundly sounded, and the mystical truths of the soul so highly elaborated, as by the authors of the Upanisads. The message of self-realization and spiritual edification which they convey to mankind is perhaps more needed in the present age of weary and heart-burning strife for hollow things than in many former periods of human history. Let the reader open the pages of the Upanisads, not merely to feed his scholarly curiosity, but to receive life in the truest sense of the term.

The fundamental theme of the Upanisads is plain and simple.

(b) Their fundamen-tal theme.

The Spirit (Atman) is the sole reality. The world of phenomena has only a borrowed existence-derived from the Atman, the Reality of realities (usual

It is by the light of this Atman that all phenomena in the सत्यम्). Universe, the sun, the moon, the stars, and so forth, shine as well as appear (Svetisvatara VI. 14), and to this Atman every object owes its existence, appearance, and attraction (Sve. IV. 10). Eternal happiness is only theirs who see this Supreme Reality, the Spirit (Sve. VI. 12). They are childish fools, however, who pursue external objects of desire. and so are ensnared in the vast net of death (पराच: कामाननयन्ति वाला:, तेसचोय-न्ति विततस्य पाशम्). In short, the true Heaven of man's aspirations is within. not without, and that Heaven is the Spirit (Åtman).

The word "Upanisad," according to Satkara, is derived from the root sad with the prefixes upa and ni. Now the The word " Upaniroot sad has three meanings-(1) to destroy, (2) to Bad " lead or go, (3) to remove. All the three meanings are implied by the word Upanisad, as it destroys ignorance, leads to the Supreme Brahman, and thus removes all evils.

उपनिषदित्यपिनिषर्वस्य सदेविंशरगगत्मवसादनार्थस्य रूपामाचल्रते । अविजादेविंशरगाडिनाशात परमहा गमयितृत्वात्, गभांच पद्रवावसात्यितृत्वात्, उपनिषत् समाख्यया महाविधोपनिषटच्यते ॥

The above derivation shows a very clever and bold etymology. characteristic of a great scholar like Sankara, though it does not bring to light the significance of the word as it is historically implied by the Upanisads themselves. There is another derivation of the word which is probably more consistent with historical facts. The root sad with the prefixes upa and ni also means " to sit by," whence the word Upanishad may imply "sitting, or session." This significance of the word suggests the method of imparting spiritual instruction during the Period of the Upanishads. It has been noticed that this mystical culture was imparted in forests (cf. the Aranyakas) to the disciple (अन्तेवासिन्) lit., one dwelling near) who sat in solitude by the side of his teacher for spiritual instruction. The word Upanisad, as Dr. Deussen has shown, is often explained by the word Rahasya (secret) and this "Secret doctrine" " supremely confidential in the Vedanta" (Sve. VI. 22) was not to be imparted to every chance visitor, not to one who was neither a son nor a disciple, and not to one who did not possess a tranquil mind (Sve. VI. 22). Thus the method of teaching the Upanisad Doctrine was essentially confidential. The word Upanişad occurs twice in the Svetasvatara Upanişad ; firstly, in I. 16, where Brahman is said to be "supremely mysterious" (तद्वव्योगनिषत्परम), and 2ndly, in V. 6, where the Supreme Being is said to be hidden in the " confidential " Upanisads of the Vedas (यह व्युद्धोपनिषस्यगृहम्). Both these texts confirm the view that the word Upanisad originally meant " confidential session," as Max Muller names it, and that subsequently the name Upanisad was also bestowed upon the knowledge which was the result of confidential sessions, as described above. The word Upanisad, then means the Science of Spirituality (and which the sages originally imparted to their disciples in confidential sessions.

The Svetáśvatara is a short Upanisad of six chapters and belongs to the Black Yajur-Veda. The title of the book

The Svetåsvatara Upanișad, means the Upanişad propounded by Švetåsvatara. The word Švetåsvatara literally means one whose orgaus of sense are very pure(रवेत = pure; याय = an organ of sense; (रवेता सबदाता सामा इन्द्रियाचि यस्य स रवेतायः । अतिशयेन रवेतायः रवेतायतः) and is evidently the name of a sage. The only reference to the author in this book is in Sve (VI. 21) where it is stated that, 'Svetásvatara," having known Brahman, by the power of his penance and by the grace of God, expounded it to the Sannyásins called the Paramahainsas."

It may be admitted that among the Upanisads the Svetäsvatara does not occupy such a lofty position as the Brihadits distinctive features. Aranyaka and the Chhandogya, but none the less it is one of the most popular Upanisads. What then, are its distinctive features? It the first place, as Dr. Deussen aptly remarks, the Svetåsvatara Upanisad is "a monument of Theism," as we shall presently elucidate. And secondly, not only its method of handling the abstruse problems of Spiritual Philosophy is plain and direct, but it also ministers to the spiritual needs of the ordinary man with a realistic and hence truly sympathetic and fruitful insight, as we shall presently show.

Several scholars of eminence have divided the Age of the Upanisads

The period to which it belongs.

T OF INDIA

into four Periods; to the first period belong the prose Upançads like the Brihadâranyaka and the Chhândogya, and to the second Period belong the metrical

Upanisads like the Katha and the Svetasvatara. The Svetasvatara is certainly later than the prose. Upanisads mentioned above, because (1) its style is far more direct, simpler, (cf. Sve. VI. 7-9) and more modern than that of the Chhândogya. The style of the latter and its associates is often cumbrous, much more archaic, and frequently very allegorical, thus bearing the influence of the style employed in the Age of the Brâhmanas. Secondly, the treatment of various subjects in the Svetasvatara is direct and simple, and the mediocre reader is spared the trouble of studying the allegorical and philosophical interpretations of ritualism and mystical readings of natural phenomena which confront him in the larger Upanisads and which may prove as barriers to the comprehension of fundamental conceptions. In fact the Svetasvatara Upanisad may be called a short Manual of Upanisad Doctrine for the beginner. Moreover, the metrical style, and simple, eloquent, and beautiful poetry (cf. I. 15, II. 8, II. 17, VI. 14) of this book stirringly appeal to the spiritual needs of the average seeker, and hence its wide popularity.

In order to facilitate the thorough comprehension of the general as

The main Divisions of its subject-matter. well as the distinctive features of the Svetasvatara Upanisad, let us indicate the main divisions of the subject-matter which it treats of :--

- I. The fundamental theme of the Upanişads-the Reality of the Spirit (Åtman).
- II. The nature of Brahman, Essential as well as Relative.
- III. The nature of the individual soul (jiva).
- The means and methods of attaining spiritual enlightenment (jñana.)

We have already quoted Sve. VI. 14 and Sve. IV. 10 to show that this book forcibly teaches the sole reality of the Atman. Similarly Sve. I. 9 after speaking of the three entities, Mâya, the individual soul, and the Supreme

GOVER REFIT OF INDIA

Spirit, says that the knowledge of the three means the knowledge of Brahman. अयं यदा विन्दते बसमेतत). This verse indicates, as our commentaries explain, that the underlying Reality of all these manifold entities is Brahman, the Supreme Being, and that they borrow and derive their existence from Him. Similarly I. 12. In Sve. III. 15 the basic Reality of the Past, the Present, and the Future is said to be the Supreme allpervading Spirit (पुरुष प्वेदं सर्व यद्भूतं यद्य अत्यम्)

Most of the misunderstanding and unfortunately bitter controversy in. The nature of Brahman, essential, as well as relative. on the Vedânta Philosophy is due to inadequate comprehension of the distinction between the Essential and the Relative Aspects of Brahman. Let us consider these aspects carefully before we handle the details thereof in the Švetåsvatara Upanişad.

In the early pages of his great commentary on the Vedanta Satras, Sankara cites the example of a person, say Devadatta, bearing different. relationship to different persons. Thus Devadatta may be the father of X, the husband of Y, the brother of Z, the son-in-law of W, and so forth, and hence when considered from various standpoints he is father, husband, brother, and son-in-law at the same time. It should be noted, however, that this relationship is conditional; for Devadatta cannot be called a father if he has no son ; this relationship, then, depends upon external personalities or entities. What, then, is Devadatta? He is not essentially a father, teacher, brother, etc., because his teachership, etc., are hypothetical, cannot be considered independently, apart from the idea of a pupil, etc. Devadatta, however, as such, is not a mere bundle of relations, but has an individuality of his own. Nor does it indicate, on the other hand, that the various relationships that he bears to others are baselessly imaginary; the fact is that his essential individuality is far more important than, and over and above, his relative and contingent attributes.

The nature of Brahman also may be considered in the light of this example. In various relations to the Universe, Brahman is often called Creator, Preserver, Providence, Judge, Destroyer, etc. These attributes, however, are contingent, and not independent or essential; for the idea of a Creator involves and depends upon the idea of creation; the conception of a judge presupposes the existence of the parties or persons to be judged, and so on. If these were the only attributes of Brahman, He would be a mere bundle of relations, with no essential attributes of his own. Many philosophers and theologians teach only the Relative attributes of Brahman. They cannot conceive of the Supreme Being apart from or over and above the universe; they make Him exactly coincident with the Universe. It is these low conceptions which have led philosophers like Hegel to state that the Infinite without the finite amounts to zero. The distinctive glory of the Upanişads is that they have most searchingly realized and forcibly taught the absolute and essential aspects of Brahman. They strongly teach us that to make the Deity coincident with the universe is to dethrone Him from His transcendental and independent position. Not that they have in any way denied the existence of His relative attributes; they have eloquently preached even these, as we presently show; but they, especially the larger Upanişads, have much more emphasized the essential and the Absolute, because the latter are likely to be missed by the mediocre mind, and because exclusive attention to the Relative may lead to atheism.

Let us now consider the bearing of this discussion on the Svetasvatara Upanisad. We have called the Svetasvatara Upanisad a short Manual of Upanisad Doctrine for the beginner. The reader should not think, however, that it is a mere summary of the Upanisads, like so many "Abstracts" of History that are sold in the market at the present day. It has a distinct message of its own to convey to the ordinary mind struggling for spiritual progress. We have already pointed out that Dr. Deussen calls this Upanisad "a monument of theism," and justly so. Theism is belief in One Personal God, as the Creator, Judge, Preserver, etc., of the universe, in a word "the Relative Brahman" as explained above. In this Upanisad the Relative aspect of Brahman has been greatly emphasized and glorified, while there is also a considerable number of prayers addressed to Him. Now, considering the fairly large number of prayers here addressed to Personal God, Dr. Deussen in his "Philosophy of the Upanisad" (p. 78) remarks that the Svetasvatara contains " a theism that has wandered far " from the original Upanisad doctrine. He holds that the fundamental object of the Upanisads is to grasp and teach the Real, Essential, Absolute, Unqualified Brahman, and that theism and prayers to a Personal God are opposed to the basic principles of spirituality propounded by the Upanisads. Now, with all deference to this great scholar, we urge that the difference, certainly noticeable here, lies not in the doctrine but in the emphasis. The older Upanisads frequently describe the highest stage of mystical realization which, as an English poet says, "is above the infirmities and imperfections of prayer," in which prayer is unnecessary and superfluous, in which the universe is sunk in God (synamulated Ida I. 1), in which the difference between the subject and the object, the knower and the known, is nullified, and in which the world of relations, seems to dwindle into nothingness before the Absolute. But is there no help for those who, inspite of sincere and weary struggle for spiritual progress, are unable to attain spiritual enlightenment? The Svetaśvatara Upanişad, which we may call the gospel of grace, comes to them with the message of prayer to the One Personal God. Realizing that the ordinary mind is yet unable to penetrate beyond the Relative Brahman, it brings to light the deep experience of the sages in the subject of prayer, and emphasizes the grace of God as the most important means to that spiritual enlightenment, as we will presently show.

Let us now descend to particulars. It is well known that the

1. The Essential Brahman.

GOVER MEET OF INDIA

Upanisads speak of the Essential Brahman-i.e., Brahman as he is—as being only negatively knowable, as embodied in the famous formula, neti, neti (नेति, नेति). The so-called positive attributes, sat (being) chit (consciousness) and Ananda (bliss), are only the denial of empirical being, empirical thought, and empirical pleasure, as Dr. Deussen has ably shown. Several passages from the Svetasvatara on this point may be quoted. In III. 14 the Supreme Being is figuratively spoken of as rising above the Universe by the measure of a span. This passage indicates, as we have shown above, that the Essential Brahman is not coincident with the universe, but is over and above it. In III. 20 the Supreme Being is called the minutest of the minute and the vastest of the vast, indicating that Brahman is beyond space. V. 1 speaks of Brahman as the imperishable-thus suggesting his freedom from change and (as Dr. Deussen infers) from all becoming and causality. V. 13 calls him without beginning and without end, thus He is above time. Similarly, VI. 2 calls him "the Creator of Time or Death " (कालकारि). VI. 5 speaks of Him as beyond the three times (unformation) and without parts (up:) which suggests that He is above both time and space, because both of these are divisible; VI. 6 refers to Him as beyond the body, time and form; VI. 11 gives Him the epithets "Spectator, knower, free, and without qualities": VI. 14 (already quoted) describing his pure and basic consciousness says that by His light every thing shines ; and to crown all, VI. 19 describes Him negatively,-without parts, without action, without faults, without ignorance or misery.

Thus, though the nature of the Essential Brahman was profoundly 2. The Relative realized by the authors of the Upanisads, it could be described only negatively. It was easier to describe Him in relation to the universe and its phenomena. The Svetäsvatara GOVERNMENS

Upanisad describes the phenomenal aspects of the Supreme Being in various ways :---

(a) The whole universe, compared to a wheel (I. 4), or to a river
 (a) As embodied in (I. 5) with all its phenomena, is a form of the Supreme phenomena. Being (विश्वह्य I. 9). He is one God hidden in all creature (VI. II); He is the one (b) His Unity. Controller of numerous individual souls (VI. 12); He being one governs all the worlds with His ruling powers, who alone is one at the time of creation and destruction (III. 1); who is one and does not stand for a second, i.e., has no rival (III. 2).

He creates with a purpose in His mind (IV. 1); He is the Protector (e) As Providence and Preserver. (c) As providence (IV. 15); He brings to maturity the actions of the soul, and "guides all, apportioning to each his peculiar gifts" (V. 5).

His form is not terrible, but promotes good (III. 5); He is the Friend and Refuge of all (III. 17); He is the giver of desired objects (IV. 11); His face is benevolent (IV. 21).

This attribute of the Supreme Being introduces us to one of the most remarkable features of the Svetasvatara Upanisad.

The Gospel of grace.

MINISTRYON

remarkable features of the Svetasvatara Ophinica. The sages realized that the path of spiritual progress is "harder than the sharp edge of a razor," and they have revealed a most valuable fact of deep spiritual experience—the fact that the grace of God is the surest and the best instrument of spiritual enlightenment. And no Upanisad has emphasized this point so much as the Svetåsvatara Upanisad, which, therefore, may be designated "The Gospel of grace." Thus, man, when favoured by God, attains freedom from death (Sve. I. 6); God is the root-cause (i.e., the chief helper in the attainment) of spiritual knowledge and asceticism (I. 16); self-control depends upon the grace of the Creator (II. 2); He is the Encourager of the heart for the attainment of spiritual blessedness (III. 12); one sees the Supreme Spirit by the grace of the Creator (III. 20); He is the Bringer of righteousness and the Remover of sins (VI. 6), and Švetåsvatara, the author of this Upanisad, realized Brahman by the power of his penance, and by the grace of God (VI. 21).

The reader will now fully appreciate the significance of Dr. Deussen's remark that the Svetasvatara Upanisad is a "monument of theism," and it is confirmed by the consi-A monument of Theism. derable number of theistic prayers met with in this book. Let us quote a few of them as specimens. "May that God, who creates and destroys (the universe) endow us with good wisdom " (IV. 1). "One afraid (of the miseries of the world) resorts to Thee O God ! save me always by Thy benevolent face" (IV. 21). "O God ! Reveal thyself in that benevolent and righteousness-promoting form of thine" (III. 5). "May we know that Supreme Ruler of Rulers, the Supreme God of gods" (VI. 7). "Being desirous of salvation, I resort to the shelter of that God who creates Brahma, and who is the light (or with another reading,--- 'the grace' (जसाद) of the soul and the intellect" (VI. 18). The concluding verse (VI. 23) of the Svetasvatara Upanisad is also very significant on this point. "These (spiritual) truths are revealed to him who has supreme devotion to God." Moreover, we have already pointed out that theism implies belief in One Personal God. The modern Sanskrit word for the Supreme Personal God is Isvara; now it is a significant fact that the words Isa, Isana, and Isvara, occur in several verses (III. 12, 11. 13, 11. 15, 11. 17, VI. 16) of the Svetasvatara Upanisad. These frequent words bear testimony to the prevailing theistic tendency of the book.

The conception of the individual soul given in the Svetåsvatara III. The individual Upanisad is perfectly consistent with the doctrine soul (jiva). For the idea of a Personal God as an object of worship naturally involves the distinct existence of a worshipper,

1. As distinct from God. the soul. In Sve. IV., 6 7 God and the soul have been compared to two beautiful-winged birds occupying the same tree, the one (i.e., the soul) tasting the fruit thereof, while the other simply gazes down. When, worshipping God, the soul sees Him, its grief departs. The distinction is further particularized in I. 8, where the soul is said to be protected by God, and in I. 9 which states that the individual soul possesses limited knowledge, while the Supreme Soul is Omniscient.

The nature of the individual soul has been further described in a considerable portion of the fifth chapter. The soul is a doer of actions for the sake of fruit and enjoys the fruit of that action which it performs (V. 7).

GOVERNMEN

It is very subtle, and has been compared to the ten thousandth 3. Its subtlety and portion of the edge of a hair. Although so subtle, capacity for infinity. it has vast capacities for infinity (V. 9).

After death it has to travel, in accordance with its merits either of the three paths (V. 7), the path of the gods (acquired by higher knowledge), the path of the fathers (acquired by merely good deeds) and the lower path, which evil-doers are made to travel. It is also subject to transmigration, and acquires various bodily forms in accordance with the nature and degree of its desires, associations, etc. (V. 11). It is released from all these bonds, however, by knowing the Creator (V. 13).

We have already remarked in the early portion of this introduction that the Svetasvatara Upanisad ministers to the IV. Means of eman--spiritual needs of ordinary man with a sympathetic cipation and enlightenment. and realistic insight. Unlike Wordsworth's Skylark, it is not confined to "the privacy of golden light": it is not exclusively transcendental; it realizes the frailties and difficulties of the ordinary man, ever-struggling and yet repeatedly beaten in the battle of life. It. therefore, without departing from its fundamental doctrine, descends to meet the seeker on his own ground, and gives him short. beautifully simple, and practical hints on the methods of spiritual enlightenment and emancipation. Freedom from Death and other Evils of life depends only upon the knowledge of the Supreme Being : there is no other path to salvation (III. 8). This spiritual enlightenment being the only means to emancipation, a further question arises, what are the methods of attaining this spiritual enlightenment which is the exclusive condition of real freedom ?

We need not now repeat in greater detail that the Svetasvatara

Divine grace.

Upanisad considers the grace of God to be the most potent and infallible factor of spiritual enlightenment. It should be noted, however, that Divine grace is not subject to the whims of an unprincipled, capricious aristocrat, and so does not descend upon man in a haphazard way, but is regulated by definite, divine laws, which are indispensably associated with human effort. Here comes the need of Yoga, the glorious speciality of our sages. Thus Sve. VI. 13 says that the Supreme Being can be known through self-examination and Yoga. Just as modern Psychology describes mental states in terms of brain conditions. so Sve. II. 6 describes the state of a perfectly enlightened mind in terms of co-ordinate physical conditions. In ordinary persons a peculiar physical energy, which is the co-ordinate of (latent) spiritual energy, is latently stored in a central portion of the body called the muladhâra. In the perfect Yogi this energy is discharged from its centre, passes through the sugumna canal (which is closed in ordinary persons) and reaches the brahmarandhra, a portion of the head, the innervation of which is the culminating co-ordinate concomitant of the highest spiritual vision. In I. 4 the untraceable motives and various other phenomena e. g., the 28 kinds of infirmity, eight kinds of contentment etc., of the human mind have been most minutely and elaborately analysed with remarkable subtlety and ingenuity. The details of Yoga and its methods are given in Sve. II. 8-15, which prescribe pure and quiet ground, erect and easy sitting posture, the suppression of the breath, and meditation on the syllable Om.

In addition to these regular practices, the candidate for spiritual enlightenment is required to be equipped with a high type of morality, self-control, righteousness, and a peaceful mind (II. 1, 2, I. 15, VI. 22).

Some scholars of eminence (e. g., Prof. Mac Donnel) are of opinion that the Svetåsvatara Upanisad is an attempt to reconcile the Vedânta Philosophy with the Yoga and the Sâtikhya systems. Its connection with the Yoga is clearly evident from what has been said above about Yoga, and from the fact, also pointed out, that the İśvara or Personal God of the yoga philosophy is frequently mentioned or indicated by several passages of the Svetasvatara Upanisad. The connection with the Sankhya, however, is more doubtful, and has been strongly challinged by Sankara and several other scholars of the Vedânta. Thus the advocate of the Sankhya refers to Sve. VI. 13, where the Supreme Being is said to be knowable by Sankhya and Yoga (सांख्यप्रोगाधिगम्य) while it has been argued in reply by the Vedantists that the word. Saakhya here means self-examination, and the mere mention of a word which conveyed a different sense subsequently is no sufficient indication that the book is attached to the Sankhya system. Again, the word Kapila occurs in Sve. V. 2, and it has been surmised that here is a reference to Kapila, the founder of the Sânkhya system. It has been ably shown by Sankara, however, that Kapila here means brown or gold-coloured, and refers to Hiranyagarbha; the word "tam" "(that)" in this verse. and the words following refer to exactly similar words in IV. 12, which evidently refers to Hiranyegarbha. The connection with the Sankhya, however, is less doubtful in IV. 5, where a she-goat (referring to Mâyâ or Prakriti) of three colours, corresponding with the three gunas of the Sânkhya Philosophy, has been mentioned. But it has been again forcibly urged by Sankara that the three colours here refer to fire, water and earth, the original three elements of the Upanisads. Moreover. the Prakriti of the developed system of the Sankhya Philosophy is independent, while Sve. I. 3 speaking of Mâyâ as "God's own power" and IV. 10 describing God as the Lord of Maya clearly indicate that the Prakriti mentioned in IV. 10 is an entity dependent upon the Supreme Being and is thus essentially different from the independent Prakriti of the developed system of the Sankhya Philosophy.

Connection with the Yoga and the Sânkhya.

We close the introduction to this Gospel of grace, "this monument of theism" with the fervent prayer that the Almighty Spirit, the "Encourager of the human heart," may enable all of us to live out and glorify ancient Hindu Theism in its pristine and dignified majesty.

(a) The above cannot be the causes of the Universe (पूरो न इतनः)

(b) Nor can the combination of these be the cause. (एषां संयोगः समुदाये। दिपि न हेतुः)

आरमभावत्—On account of the existence of the soul. This is the reason why the combination of Time, &c., cannot be the cause. Each of these objects is unconscious and inanimate, while the soul is conscious and animate. The former, therefore, cannot be independent, and all their movements must depend upon the guidance and control of a conscious and animate being. For, no regulated and orderly movement of an unconscious being can take place without the guidance of a conscious being. Time, &c., therefore, being the dependents of the soul for all regulated movements, cannot independently combine to create the world, and their union to produce phenomena cannot thus be called strictly a combination (for that implies free co-operation), but should be named a regulation by the directing master, the Soul. इत:—आरमभावाद । आरमवरवेतनस्य विद्यमाव-रवात्याखादीनां अचेतनस्वात् चेतनानधिष्टितानां प्रयुत्धरंभवात् आस्वातच्यात् आस्वान्य कर्तृत्वमचुचितय् ॥

NOTES.

ते-They, the Knowers of Brahm. (झ्झाविदः)

भ्यानयोगानुगतः---भ्यानं means mental concentration (चित्तेकाम्र्यं) Yoga is of several kinds, thus, Hathayoga consists mainly of certain physical feats; but, here, they devoted themselves only to that yoga whose characteristic feature is mental concentration. ध्यानसेव योगः न ध्यानलचययोगः ।

अनुगताः-Resorting to ; devoted to. (अनुप्राप्ता:, समाहिताः वा) (ध्यानलख-यायोगमनुप्राप्ताः ध्यानयोगानुगताः)

देवात्मशक्तिं (a) The power of the self-luminous Soul. देव means all-shining (from the / दिव् to shine.) (देवस्य स्वयंप्रकाशस्य आत्मनः शक्तिम्)

(b) The self-luminous Being's own Power or Mâyâ. This is said to be an important expression, because it brings to light the Vedantic Theory of ultimate causality.

The expression देवात्मशक्तिम् shows that Brahm in itself can neither be the cause nor the non-cause of the Universe. It is his Power called Maya (meaning Productive Power according to Max Muller) which the sages saw as the cause of the world. But there is a further important reservation and distinction from the Sâńkhya Philosophy. This Mavâ is not independent, as the Sankhya Philosophy holds, but depends upon the Supreme Soul, as the expression आस्त्रशक्तिम clearly shows, which means (God's) "own power." So, according to Vedanta Philosophy, Mâyâ, under the guidance (vide अधितिष्टलेक: further) of the Supreme Being, creates the Universe. In a way, therefore, Brahm also may be called the cause of the universe, because he gives form and appearance to His dependent Mava, and existence, appearance and attraction to all the other subordinate causes. But, it ought to be repeated again, that Brahm in itself is not the creator of the world, according to Vedanta Philosophy, because it emphatically holds that Brahm does not perform any action, as He is When Brahm is spoken of as a Creator. He is not then the real Brahm, but Phenomenal Brahm (Max Müller), which consists of the real Brahm being apparently limited by the obstruction (उपाधि) of Maya. So it is the Phenomenal Brahm (also called int) which governs the various causes of the world. ब्रह्म न कारणं नापि अकारणम् । अहितीयस्य परमात्मने न स्वतः कारयात्वम् । यदुपाधिकमस्य कारयात्वादि तदेव कारयां निमित्तमुपपाध तदेव प्रयोजकं दर्शंयति । वेवस्य धोतनाठियतस्य मायिनेा महेरवरस्य प्रसातमनः आत्मभूताम् अस्वतंत्राम् व सांख्यपरिकच्पितप्रधावा-

In this verse " (they beheld)" is to be understood from the last verse. (अपरयन्निति कियापदमनुवर्तते)

In the last verse, the Phenomenal Brahm is said to be the cause of the Universe. This verse establishes another very important truth of Vedanta—the identity of cause and effect. In opposition to the Nyâya Philosophy, the Vedanta holds that cause and effect are identical in essence, that the effect is only a form or aspect of the cause appearing to be different on account of delusion (or Mâyâ). The above verses had only pointed out that Brahm (controlling Mâyâ) is the cause of the world. This verse goes further and says that the world is Brahm in another form, so, Brahm is said to have taken the form of the wheel of this world. परमासनः शक्तिरुपेय कारयाल्वम् आभिहितम् । इदानीं तमेव सर्वास्मानं दर्शयति । कार्य्यकारयायो-रान्त्यात्वप्रतिपादनेन, "वाचारम्भर्ण विकारो नामधेयं मृत्तिका इत्येव सत्यम्" इति दद्यान्तवत् । तं वस्तत पुरु रूपं मायया प्राप्तावेकरूपसंसारचकरूपमपि विश्वितवन्तोऽपरयन् ।

एकनेभिय ----नेमि is the circumference of a wheel on which the spokes or radii stand. The नेमि here is Avidyâ or Mâyâ, on which this world and wordliness mainly depend. Whence, once this Avidyâ is gone, the Samsâra (which, according to Vedanta, is a mere mirage-like illusion) vanishes, and Brahm, in its true reality is realized. एकाऽविद्या नेसिः अराणां बहिः प्रतिष्टास्यलं वलयाकारम् । एकाऽविद्या नेसिय्येस्य संसारचकस्य स एकनेसिः ।

द्विनिसित्तेकमोहम Having delusion which is the one cause of two. These two are "good and evil" (पुण्य पाप) or happiness and pain (सुख दुःख). According to Vedanta Philosophy the conditions of good or evil and either of happiness and pain are undesirable, because these are relative things, and so bind a man to the world, for, only the Absolute can free us from the world. सर्वाजीवे सर्वसंस्थे वृहंते तस्मिन् हंसो भ्राम्यते ब्रह्मचके । पृथगात्मानं प्रेरितारं च मत्वा जुष्टस्ततस्तेनामृतत्वमेति ॥६॥

6. In this mighty wheel of Brahm, which is (the receptacle of) the life of all and of the stability (or death) of all, the individual soul is revolved. Having known Him as a separate and controlling Self, and having then been beloved by Him, the individual soul attains Immortality.

NOTES.

This verse states the causes of bondage and salvation. So long as there is Avidyå, the जीव or individual soul wanders from birth to birth. But it gets salvation by knowing the Supreme Being. अविया सकावा जीवस्य बन्धेा महाज्ञाने च तस्य मुक्तिइतुरित्याह !

सर्वाजीवे—in which there is the life of all. आजीवः means life. (सर्वेषाम, आजीवनम् यस्मिन्)

सर्वसंख्ये संख्या means stability (or standing) or death.

प्रथक मत्वा= झात्वा Having known as separate. This expression has been variously interpreted. Some commentators have associated the third line with the above two lines, thus प्रथक मत्वा आम्यते i.e., the individual soul wanders in the wheel of the world because it thinks the आस्मानं (= जीवात्मानं) and the मेरितारं or the Controller i.e., (ईश्वरं) as separate or different from each other. So long as identity of God and the soul is not realized, bondage remains and salvation is yet far off.

(प्रात्मानं जीवात्मानं प्रेरितारं चेश्वरं प्रथग्भेदेन मल्वा जीवेश्वरभेददर्शनेन संसारे परिवर्तते)

Other commentators have associated the third line with the fourth line, thus प्रयक् मत्वा अस्तव्यमेति. The individual soul gets salvation when it realizes God as different from the world. In this case, आत्मान means the Supreme Self.

संसारचकात् से।पाधिकात् च अन्यरूपमात्मानं संवैधियतमं ज्ञात्वा इति मे।जोपायं ब्रह्मज्ञानमाह प्रेरितारं = Controller, director, God. नियन्तारं प्रवर्तयितारं ईश्वरं

7. Sung (in the Vedânta) as an exalted Being, this is the Supreme Brahm; in Him the three fold universe lives; He is the good support (of all); (and yet) imperishable; the knowers of Brahm, having realized Him as immanent in this Universe (or the body), and being devoted to Him, were completely absorbed in Brahm, and so released from birth.

NOTES.

In this verse the real Brahm, as differentiated from the phenomenal Brahm expounded in the above verses, has been described. तमेकनेमिसिसादिना सप्रपंत्तं ब्रह्म प्रतिपादितम् । अधुना प्रपंत्वधर्मरहितं ब्रह्म प्रतिपाद्यते ।

उद्गीतम्-Sung as differentiated from the phenomenal world. (उद्ध्य गीतमुपदिष्टं प्रपंचात् वेदान्ते:)

त्र=implies emphatical certainty. (अवधारयार्थे) "This is the Supreme Being "

त्रयम् The whole universe considered in its three aspects in various ways. Thus, with its qualities sattva, rajas and tamas, with its Gods Brahmâ, and &c. described in त्रिवृतम् in the 4th verse. त्रयं सन्दरजस्तम आस्यं बहाविष्णुशिवास्यं जाप्रस्वमसुपुप्त्यास्यं लोकत्रयास्यम् ।

युप्रतिष्ठा Good support (of all the three above described).

Another reading is स्वप्रतिष्ठा the support of the phenomenal world which is conceived to be in itself. (स्वसिन, कविपतस्य प्रपंचस्य प्रतिष्ठा)

8. God sustains this whole universe connected (by cause and effect) the perishable (creation) and the imperishable (Mâyâ), the manifested (phenomena) and the unmanifested (cause, Mâyâ). But the individual soul, which is not God, is shackled on account of its nature (or condition) of an experiencer, and having known the self-luminous God, he is released from all bonds.

NOTES.

In the last verse, the real Brahm, has been described. In this verse is stated the function of the Phenomenal Brahm in the practical world, the nature of the individual soul and the way of its bondage and Salvation. =यवद्दारावस्थायां जीवास्मपरमेश्वरयोभेदं दर्शयित्वा आस्मनः संसारित्वप्रकारं मे।जप्रकारं च दर्शयति ।

संयुक्तम् --Connected by cause and effect. This world would appear entirely disconnected but for the phenomenon of cause and effect. (संयुक्तम् कार्यकारयभावेन संवदम्)

ज्रम्-Perishable things, the five elements or the whole group of effects in the world चिनाशि, कार्यम, आकाशादि.

अज्ञरम्--Imperishable, Maya, which remains even after the destruction of the phenomenal world. न चरतीति अचरं साया प्रकृतिर्महाप्रजयादावपि स्थितव्यात् ।

अन्यक्तम --- Maya, the original, germinal condition of the universe, when it is neither manifested in name nor in form. (अनसिव्यक्तनासरूपदीजावस्था प्रकृतिरच्यक्तम्)

भरते-Sustains, maintains, protects. (विभति)

अनीश:-Not God, that which does not realize that it is God. (अनीथा:, अज्ञातेश्वरमाव:)

बध्यते--Is shackled or bound. Another reading is उष्यते--From / उष् (4th conjugation Atm. P) knows itself as the experiencer of happiness and pain. कर्ता भोका सुखी दुःखी इति भोकुभावात् उष्यते अनुभवति ।

भोकुमाबात = भाव means spirit or existence of a feeling or nature or condition भोक means the recipient of joy or sorrow, experiencer. In its bondage stage the soul imagines itself to be मोका.

MANTRA I. 9.

9. (There are) two uncreated beings, (one) the Omniscient (and the other) ignorant, (one) the Lord and (the other) not Lord, (there is) one uncreated (entity) which is engaged for the things of experience and the experiencer. The (supreme) Soul is unlimited, having all forms and is not a doer; (when a man) knows these three to be Brahma (he gets salvation).

NOTES.

This is one of the most important verses in the book. This is the verse which most clearly expounds and lays down the prominent theory of Vedanta—that All is God. The last line of this verse may be called the keynote of the Vedanta Philosophy. The three great entities, soul, matter and God are seen to be One (Supreme Brahma) by the true seer. ugagai (uumuni जीवं मक्टविं च) यदा बहा बहामाज्ञतया विन्दुते जभते तदा कुतकुलो सवतीति वाक्यरोधः)

ज्ञाज्ञो-=ज्ञ: + अज्ञ: । ज्ञ:=Omniscient God (सर्वज्ञ:). अज्ञ:=Of little or limited knowledge; the individual soul (किंचिज्ज्ञ:). अज्ञा=Uncreated. (जन्मरहिती)

ईशनीशो = ईश + अनीशो । The आ is shortened owing to the peculiarity of Vedic Grammar. (इस्वत्वं झान्द्रसम्)

अजा = Uncreated entity, Maya. (प्रकृतिः)

भोक्तुभोग्यार्थयुक्ता=The भोक्तु is the worldly individual soul, भोग्य means all the things of experience in general, pleasant or painful.

प्रयो = For the sake of (difference). An important Vedantic theory is expressed in this line also. All diversity is the work of Mâyâ, which, alone, is ever engaged in the pursuit of creating this division between the experiencer and the things of experience. In ultimate reality, there is neither any experiencer nor any thing experienced. भोका संसारी वस्तुतः चिदानन्दरसे। भोग्यं सुखदुःखे तदयं भाक्तुभोग्यादिभेदार्थं युक्ता उद्यमवती स्वयंत्रकारोकारसे भेदव्यवद्यारसिद्धयर्थं परिकदियतेस्पर्थः ।

ह अकता = This दि means "because" and it has been variously applied by different commentators :---

(a) Because he is unlimited soul and has all forms, therefore, he is not a doer. यतः अनन्तो विश्वरूप आत्माऽत प्वाकर्ता कर्तृत्वादिसंसारधर्मरहितः इत्यर्थः ।

(b) Because He is not a doer, therefore he is God. (यस्मात् कर्तृंत्यरहितोऽयं ततोऽयमीशः)

(c) Because he is not changeable (জৰিকাৰ্যী), therefore, any man knowing the three to be Brahm gets salvation. জকবাঁ অবিকাৰ্য হি यस्मात् विद्यते तस्मात् प्रतत्रयं यदा यिन्दते कृतकृत्यो भवति ।

जयं यदा विन्दते महासेतत् ---This has already been partially explained. When he knows these three to be Brahma, then he gets salvation. (यदा एतत् त्रयं महाविन्दते तदा युच्यते)

Another version, (b) After thorough contemplation of these three entities, the true Reality that remains is Brahmam. (बाधानन्तरं यस्वरूपमवशिष्यते वारोवेतत्)

नवास is the Vedic Grammatical peculiarity and stands for नवा. ("नवास" इति मकारान्तं डान्द्रसम्)

10. Mâyâ (Pradhâna) is perishable, God (Hara, the dispeller of ignorance) is deathless and imperishable. One Luminous Being governs the perishable Mâyâ and the individual soul. By thorough meditation on and communion with Him, and by the realization of true Reality, (there is) again, the destruction of all nescience (just) after death.

NOTES.

This verse lays down the non-eternity of Maya, the eternity of the soul, and the control of both by God.

वरं प्रधानम = प्रधान means Maya or Prakriti, the one cause on which are placed, as it were, the various illusöry forms other, &c., (वियत् प्रमुख सर्वसरिमन् विवर्तत्वेन प्रधीयते इति प्रधानस्-माया)

चरं perishable (by knowledge). In the 8th verse Mâyâ has been called imperishable; this 10th verse indicates that Mâyâ is perishable when true knowledge is gained. प्रवंत्र सम्यरज्ञानं विना प्रकृतेनांश्यत्वायोग्यतां विवजित्वाउद्धरसिति निर्यत्वमुक्तम् । अन्न सम्यक्ज्जानेन नाश्यत्वयोग्यतां विवज्ज्तिवाहरसिति अनित्यत्वमुच्यते ।

अमृताचरं = अमृत + अचरं (qualifying हर:) (अमृतं च अचरं च)

असतं means free from what is popularly called death, i.e., the release of the life-breath from the body. (असंगत्वात् प्रायावियोगवज्ञथा सृतिनांसि)

अचर imperishable, i.e., whose true nature is indestructible (साहित्यात् स्वरूपनाशोऽपि न अवतीति अचर)

ET:-He who removes or dispels ignorance salaui stalla st:

चरात्मानी = चरं + आल्मानी; Maya and the individual soul (प्रधानपुरुवी)

ईशते=ईप्टे rules or governs. The Grammatical form ईशते is Vedic.

अभिष्यानात = by thorough meditation or chiefly remembering (लर्वतः चिन्तनात् आभिमुख्येन समस्यात् वा)

वोजनात् - by communion through Yoga (योजनंसवीजयोगविषयत्वम्)

तत्त्वभावात्-by the realization of true reality or one's true nature तत्त्वभावे। यथार्थस्वरूपभावनम् । स प्वाहमिति भावनं वा

भूवः (a) by contemplation, &c., again and again (भूवः पुनः प्रसाध्या-नादिना)

or भूयः with जन्ते

(b) The Vedântic Theory is that although Avidyâ is entirely destroyed in form by realization of Brahm, its impressions still linger owing to the effects of the existence of the fruits of deeds which have been begun.

The destruction of all nescience or ignorance.

meditated on Him (the thinker) after death, reaches the third Almighty Being, (where, knowing the true Brahm) he becomes quite free, and has attained all his desires.

NOTES.

This verse describes the fruits of meditation and knowledge respectively. Meditation is the first stage, and by it, the thinker, first, reaches the (Almighty) Phenomenal Brahm, where, getting (knowledge) he attains the true Brahm. ध्यानस्य सहसा न निराकारे बुद्धिः प्रवतेते इति ध्यानेन सविशेषविश्वेषय्यं खन्ज्या नसाप्राप्त्या विश्वेरवर्य मनुभूय तत्र निविधियं नसा ज्ञात्वा सुक्ता भवति । इति ज्ञानध्यानद्वतं फलाभेदं दर्शयति ।

सर्वपाशापहानि=अपहानि means abandonment, breaking, throwing off-सर्वपाशानां अविद्यादीना अपहानिः परित्यागः the release from all bonds of Avidyâ, &c.

चीय-destroyed.

जन्म च सृत्युश्च जन्मसृत्युः तयोः प्रकर्षेण हानिः ।

त्तीयं -This word has been variously interpreted ; thus :--

(a) The Phenomenal (Almighty) वय (ईथर). Three stages of Brahm's form have been mentioned: (1) हिरण्यगर्भ or Brahmâ (2) चिराट् (higher than हिरण्यगर्भ) (3) ईरवर, the Phenomenal Almighty Brahm. So this last is the त्तीयस.

(b) The salvation stage. Three good (desirable) stages have been stated: (1) The moon stage. The performers of good actions reach the moon and enjoy there. (2) The salvation stage. Those who meditate on Brahm reach there, and attain the Phenomenal Brahm. (3) The salvation stage in which the knowers realize the true Brahm.

So (a) explanation corresponds to (2) stage of explanation (b).

(This Supreme Being) should always be realized as present in one's own soul, because there is nothing further than this which may be worthy to be known; having considered the nature of the soul, the objective world (of experience) and God, this whole three-fold (is known as) Brahmam—this has been chiefly declared (by the Vedânta).

NOTES.

This verse, by way of conclusion, puts the whole theory of the Vedânta in a nut-shell, and says that the Highest object of knowledge is Brahm. डक्तमर्थमुपसंहरति । आस्मतत्त्वस्यैव पुरुषार्थस्वात् डपनिषत् प्रमेयतां जीवेश्वरममेदस्य चिन्मा-त्रतां चाह ॥

MANTRA I. 13.

13. The form of fire present in the fire producing wooden stick is not seen; yet there is no destruction of the form. Just as that (form of the fire), again, can be obtained by means of (another) wooden stick; like this, both (forms of Brahm) (can be grasped) in this body by means of Om.

NOTES.

So far, knowledge, the chief and only means of Salvation, has been described. Now this verse and the following describe the method of getting this saving knowledge. The method is meditation on the syllable Om, which reveals the Hidden Brahm. जलज्जानात् सेएन कर: । इदानीं बल्जानोपायसाइ । बासिज्यानाइत्वेन प्रयावं द्वीयति.

योनिगतस्य--- योनिः here means the fire-producing wooden stick (अरचिः)

तिंगनाय:-- तिंग means (a) the body or subtle form of fire or of its nature, heat (तिंगस्य सूक्ष्मदेवस्य; जप्मयो ना); or, (b) indications which logically point out the presence of fire i.e. symptoms शुण्कान्धत्यसजातीयत्वादि । अतपुव तदेव मध्यते न यत्किंचित् ॥

इन्धन योलिः --Here योनिः means instrument, इन्धनं, means (another) wooden stick. (i.e., by means of friction with another stick) योनिशन्दोऽत्र कारयावचनः । इन्धनं योनिः कारयामस्य स इन्धनयोनिः । गृह्यः चषुषा प्रहणायोग्यः, इन्धनयोनिक्ष असा गृह्याध इति इन्धनयोनि गृहाः ॥

रहर = to be obtained or grasped (visibly). तहा = like that. वा = इव. इवायों वा राज:

प्रयावेन = By means of Om. प्रयाव = Om (जॉकारेग)

उमय'=(a) Both forms of Brahm, Real and phenomenal (परमपर' ज जहा) ॥

Or, (b) both the pre-knowledge and after-knowledge conditions are thus illustrated, just as there is no fire visible before the friction of both the sticks, but it is visible after the friction, in the same way knowledge of Brahm is not revealed before meditation on Om, but is revealed after that meditation. तबोभवं तदुभयमिव मयनात् प्राङ् न गृहयते, मयनेन च गृह्यते | तद्रदात्मा वहिस्थानीयः प्रयावेन उत्तरारयिस्थानीयेन मननात् गृहयते देईऽधरारयिस्थानीये ॥

Âtmâ is compared to fire.

Body is compared to fire-producing (first) wooden stick. Meditation is compared to friction.

Om is compared to second fire-producing wooden stick.

14. Having made one's body (as it were) the (first) fire-producing wooden stick, and the syllable Om as the second wooden stick, (one) should see, by means of repeated friction in the form of meditation, the Luminous God like fire (which was) extremely hidden (before friction).

NOTES.

निगृढ्वत् = (a) नितरां गूडाग्विवत् or (b) नितरां गूडकोशादिवत् like fire or treasure, &c., extremely hidden. But fire is better, to be consistent with the perfect simile.

15. As oil in sesamum seeds, clarified butter in curd, water in hidden springs, and fire in fire-producing woodensticks (is obtained), so the (Supreme) Self is grasped in one's own mind (by him) who tries to see It with truth and mental concentration, and control of the senses.

NOTES.

This verse further illustrates and strengthens the same view. There are means of obtaining the Unseen Supreme Self, not somewhere outside, but in one's own mind. Just as oil can be obtained by pressing sesamum seeds, butter by churning milk, water by digging, and fire by friction, so the Supreme Self can be obtained by meditation. बाहरगोऽपि चपायैर्जन्या । प्रसत्क नैव आस्पर्शनं न तु परोचतया अवेत् इति उक्तार्थस्य द्रढ़िग्ने इप्रान्तान् वहून् दर्शयति । यथा तिलेषु पीडनेन तैलं दशिनि मयनेन सपिं:, आपः लोतःसु सू खननेन, अरयीषु चाझिर्मयनेन,पुवसात्मा स्वात्मनि मननेन पुद्यते ॥

स्रोतःसु = in hidden springs or dried up streams सूस्यायन्तहि तेषु गुष्कासु, वदीषु वा ॥

आत्मनि -in one's own soul or mind (स्वात्मनि, बुद्धौ, अन्तःकरयो वा) ।

युञ्जानः प्रथमं मनस्तत्त्वाय सविता धियः। श्रग्नेज्योतिर्निचाच्य पृथिव्या म्रध्याभरत् ॥१॥

1. The Creator, first concentrating the mind (on His designed creation) (for becoming that) assumes the form of a (collective or universal) mind, as well as the form of sensepowers, having (then) seen the light of the soul (in the mind) He introduces (or divides) that mind (individually or separately) among created beings.—(Nârâyaṇa)

Or

The Creator, first concentrating the mind on the Supreme Being for the manifestation of the truth, and (checking) the organs of sense (from evil inclinations) and having then realized the Supreme Light of Lights, introduced that Light in the whole of creation.—(Vijfiânabhagavat).

NOTES.

The subject of this chapter is meditation and its methods. In the last Chapter, meditation has been pointed out as a means to knowledge. In this Chapter meditation has been further elucidated.

ध्यानमुक्तम् । इदानीं तद्पेचितसाधनविधानार्थं द्वितीयेाऽध्याय आरम्यते ॥

Four different interpretations have been given on the first verse of this Chapter. All are agreed, however, that the verse deals with meditation and its glory. This verse and the four following occur in the Sukla Yajur Veda XV. 1-5. The verse has been given, says Narayan, in order to show the Vedic authority for yoga and meditation. According to Vijñanabhágavat, this verse shows God to be the Source or Cause of meditation, as already pointed out in unrafamatingan. According to Sankarachárya, this verse constitutes a prayer to the Creator for power of yoga, and, in his opinion, it means. :--

"The mind (as well as other breaths or senses) must be first concentrated on the Supreme Being. The Creator, having seen the light of the Divine Fire (by introspection) (2nd meaning of uu) for the revelation of truth, has introduced the light in this body. (May He bestow on our senses illuminating powers!")

Or

Having employed, with (a controlled) mind, the Gods, Indra, &c., who go to Brahm, the abode of bliss, and who manifest, by their insight or wisdom, the Light (of) the Self-Luminous Brahm, the Creator commands those gods.

तत्र संजायते मनः ॥६॥

6. (During the condition of yoga) the mind becomes (concentrated on its object of thought) (in that part of the body) where heat is inflamed, where wind is checked, and where the moon is greatly melted (or emptied) (or becomes plentiful).

Or

(The mind of an unprayerful man) becomes only absorbed in ceremonial actions, in which fire is burnt, where the wind (makes noise) when checked, and where the Soma juice is greatly emptied.

S. Vivekananda :---Where the fire is churned, where the air is controlled, where the flow of Soma becomes plentiful, there a (perfect) mind is created.

NOTES.

This verse has been quite differently interpreted. According to Vijñanabhagavat this verse and some following verses describe the condition of yoga. According to Narayana, it treats of the birth of the human body and (mind) an instrument of Yoga. According to Sankaracharya, this verse describes the condition of unspiritual and unprayerfulmen, who, therefore, deprived of the grace of God, are merely drowned in the performance of external ceremonies.

अग्रिमय आसिमध्यते—(a) where (यत्र) in the स्ताधारे—a mystical circle above the organs of generation, fire (in the supposed अग्निमंडले, according to Yoga Philosophy) is inflamed during the condition of yoga. असिमध्यते = agitated or inflamed. (यत्र स्ताधारेऽग्निः अग्निमण्डले चेाम्यते) ॥

(b) where, fire as in a यज्ञ, is burnt (आधानादे) ॥

Vivekananda's Raja Yoga—pages 53-55, Longman, Green & Co. वायुर्थंत्रेव सूलाधारात् सुपुग्नायास् अधि उपरि अवरूध्यते ।

(b) where, during the course of a sacrifice, called प्रवग्य, &c., the wind is checked, and so makes a clear loud noise. (वायुर्यजाधिष्ठध्यते प्रवग्याँदे।। सचित्रा प्रेरितः शब्दमभिव्यक्तं करोति) ॥

सोमो यत्रातिरिच्यते (a) During the course of Yoga, the Yogi contemplates on the moon as if standing on the portion of his head called, हादशान्त (यत्र), and this contemplation gives him the bliss of nectar. The moon (साम) is said to be full of nectar; and, as the Yogi meditates on the moon he feels the moon actually dropping its nectar throughout his body, and so giving him blissful joy. साम: चन्द्र मण्डलं यत्र द्वादशान्ते ध्यातमतिरिच्यते ग्रतिशयेन रिच्यते । यत्र युद्यमायामामूला-धाराष् अग्रतं स्वद् माच्यते ॥

(7) One should win the love of the Creator who is the Chief Cause of the world. Thou shouldst practise faith in that Being who is Brahm, existing from time without beginning; in that case no (need of) doing public works (i.e., Karma in general) will disturb thee.

Or

One should serve Brahm, existing from time without beginning, with nectar produced from the moon (during the practice of Yoga); in that place (called मुलाचल) thou shouldst make a locality called (जन्मित्रंडल) for the worship of Brahm. In that way the fruit will not be delayed to thee.

NOTES.

This verse has been differently interpreted. According to Sankarâchârya, it exhorts a man to win the grace of God, for, without that grace, he will not understand Yoga and will remain drowned in Karma. According to Vijũânabhagavat, it describes the method of meditation.

(b) filled, born, fruit-i.e., Brahm as a fruit appearing (to the thinker) in the place called मुलाधारपूर्त पुरितं फलितं मुलाधारप्यं वहा । π x first (a) does not throw or bind; does not disturb your attention from Brahm towards external things. When true knowledge is realized, all necessity of Karma is gone. For Karma is binding only so long as there is no realization of one's unity with the Over-Supreme Soul.

Another reading is प्रांस-previous actions-actions of the past and this life.

NOTES.

This verse describes the place where to perform yoga (योगानुष्टानयेग्य देशमाह) ।

शर्कशवह्विवालुकाविवर्जिते-Free from शकराः = Pebbles (चुद्रोपनः) fire (बह्रिः) and sand (वालुका) ।

NOTES.

This verse describes that stage, when, after Pranâyam, has been fairly practised, and the organs of sense have been mastered, the vision of Brahm is not far off. During this stage visions of Bright things appear to the yogi—things the brightness of which is but the dimmest reflection of the dazzling Light of the Self-Luminous Being. प्राण्यायामै: प्राण् जिले सर्वेन्द्रिययूत्तीनां मनसि प्रसाहतत्वात् अनेकेड्यां: स्पुरान्ति । प्रतद्र्यप्रादुभांने व्याप्रादुभांनोऽतिवृरे ॥

NOTES.

14. Just as a disc (of gold or silver), covered with dust, shines full of lustre when it is well-washed; in the same way, man, having thoroughly realized the Reality of the Spirit, and being one with God, becomes free from sorrow and attains his (desired) object.

ŚVETASVATARA UPANISAD.

This verse describes the second stage of Yoga called घट in which man becomes divine. द्वितीयायां घटीकृत्य वार्युभवति मध्यमः । टढासनेा भवेद्योगी ज्ञानी देवसमस्तदा ॥ इति लचितां द्वितीयां घटावत्थां सिद्धिमाह—

MANTRA II. 15.

यदाऽऽत्मतत्त्वेन तु ब्रह्मतत्त्वं दीपोपमेनेह युक्तः प्रपश्येत् । त्रजं ध्रुवं सर्वतत्त्वेर्विशुद्धं ज्ञात्वा देवं मुच्यते सर्वपाशेः ॥१४॥

15. When (a man) of self-control sees here (in his heart) the Reality of Brahm only by his own self, as if with a lamp, he is released from all bonds, having known the Self-Luminous Being, who is without beginning, unchangeable, and untainted with all things of Mâyâ.

NOTES.

This verse describes the third stage of Yoga, called परिचय, in which the least traces of duality disappear, and unity is thoroughly realized. "स्तीयायां ततो सूरवा सिंहस्येव महाव्यति: । महाश्रूच्यं तता भाति सर्वसिद्धिसमाश्रयम् ॥" इति जण्तितां पश्चियावस्थामाह, जीवपरयोरैच्यं च दर्शयति ॥

MANTRA II. 16.

एषोऽह देवः प्रतिशोऽनु सर्वाः पूर्वो ह जातः स उ गर्भे ग्रन्तः । स एव जातः स जनिष्यमार्ग्यः प्रत्यङ्जनांस्तिष्ठति सर्वतोमुखः ॥ १६ ॥

16. It is this Luminous Being alone who pervades all the directions. It is He who was first-born (as Hiranyagarbha); it is He who is immanent in the womb (of the Universe as Vîrâț); whatever is born (as individual soul) is He; and whatever will be born will be He with faces everywhere, He is present within (as the self of) all human beings.

NOTES.

(a) This verse most forcibly describes the unity of the individual soul with the Supreme Soul indicated in the above verse.

(b) According to Nåråyan, the verse indicates the 4th stage of Yoga called निष्यत्ति:।

"परमात्मानमात्मत्वेन विज्ञानीयात्" इत्युक्तं तदेव महारूपपुरुषाभिन्नान् अस्मान् जलाह् (b) निष्पत्यवस्थामाह ।

सर्वतोग्रुख :--- (a) Present everywhere (सर्वत्र संमुखः)

(b) Whose faces are the faces of all creatures. सर्व प्राधिगतानि मुखानि प्रस्य ॥

(c) Whose faces are everywhere. सर्वांसु दिवु मुसानि यस्य ॥

MANTRA II. 17.

17. Salutation, salutation to that Luminous Being who pervades fire, who pervades the waters, who pervades the whole universe, who pervades plants, and who pervades trees.

Here ends the Second Chapter.

CHAPTER III. तृतीयोऽच्यायः ॥३॥

MANTRA III. 1.

य एको जालवानीशत ईशनीभिः सर्वाँह्वोकानीशत ईशनीभिः। य एवेक उद्भवे संभवे च य एतद्विदुरमृतास्ते भवन्ति ॥१॥

1. Those become immortal who know Him who, the one Lord of the web of Mâyâ, governs by his (Sovereign) powers, governs all the worlds by his (Sovereign) powers; who alone remains one (without a second) and the same at the time of Creation, Destruction, and the interval between them.

NOTES.

The Second Chapter dealt mainly with yoga. This third Chapter deals specially with the knowledge of Brahm and other technical terms used in the Vedanta. This verse describes the meaning of Brahm. पूर्वे योगस्य सिद्धिरुत्ता । तत्र वाक्यार्थज्ञानं च नसाहेंपदार्थयोज्ञौनमन्तरेग न सवतीति पदार्थ-ज्ञानायायं अध्याय आरम्यते । तत्र प्रथमं नसपदार्थमाह ॥

जालवान्-The Lord of Mâyâ. The word jâla means (a) a web, like a spider's, showing the vast spread of the web and the skill of its master. So the web is Mâyâ, whose Lord is Brahm. आविया महेन्द्र जालवान् जुताकीट हुआ जतातंतुजालवान् प्रसाव विद्यासदेग्रजालम् ॥

(b) Snare or net, i.e., Maya, so called because, like a net, it is hard to get rid of and people are entangled in it. जार्स माया दुर्भेदरवात् जीवाय्य मारद्यस्य वन्ध्रकरवात् तद्वान् अस्य स्वरूपस्प्ररुपाप्रदत्वेन ।

ईचते-Rules or governs. Second conjugation-Vedic peculiarity. The s of the first conjugation is optionally retained even in verbs of the 2nd conjugation in the Vedas (बहुल इन्स्सीहि जुगमावः)

ईयानीभिः--by the powers of a Governor (raling or sovereign powers). ईरवते ग्राभिः इति ईशिन्यः ''करवाधिकरवाये।रच'' इति ल्युट् । ईशिन्यः ईश्वाक्तवः ।

Although His power is only one, yet, on account of manifold effects, the power-cause is poetically described as many. वयपि प्रकेंव शक्तिः, तवाफि कार्य भेदात नानारवं दृष्टव्यम् ॥ phatically (पुनरादानं कर्मनिवेशार्थम्) ॥

डद्भवे-literally, rising up into many, manifestation, creation. (डद् जध्वंमनेकघा भवनं, उत्पत्ती) ॥

संभवे—संभव- ordinarily means birth, but here it means destruction, literally a collapse or reversion of effect to the Original Cause. The cause acquiring its real, correct, original condition. सम्यक् स्वारमरूपेय भवनं सत्तामात्रेय वर्तमानत्वं संभवः संहार इत्यर्थः ।

चिदु:--know. The verb विद्, to know, optionally gets the Perfect Tense terminations in the sense of the Present Tense. (जानन्ति---''विदो बाटो वा")।

MANTRA III. 2.

एको हि रुद्रो न द्वितीयाय तस्थुर्य इमाँछोकानीशत ईशनीभिः । प्रत्यङ्जनास्तिष्ठति संचुकोपान्तकाले संस्टज्य विश्वा सुवनानि गोपाः ॥ २ ॥

2. As Rudra (Destroyer of the world or of pain) is one, therefore (they) did not wait for a second. (He) who governs these worlds by His ruling powers, and is present within all human beings as their self, having created all the worlds, and (remained) as their Protector (during their existence) showed his wrath (or withdrew the world), on the occasion of Universal Destruction.

NOTES.

This verse further explains the last verse, as its meaning is rather intricate (पूर्वोक्तमधैमेव प्रपंचयति दुःखगाइयत्यात्) ॥

te-because, as (वस्मात्)॥

रुद्र:-Destroyer (lit. one who makes men weep) of the world or of pain. सर्व शेदयति संहरति प्रजयादौ इति स्दः, रुजं संसारदुःखं द्रावयति विनाधयति इति वा स्दः ॥

and to be understood. Several subjects of this verb are said to be

(a) All phenomena, the effects of the One Supreme Cause, i.e., all created things, cannot stand as second or rival to Rudra. सवे कार्य कारयाङ्गाः वहावा: हरूस्य समितीयव्यापादकलेन स्थार्तु न साफा : ॥ b) The counter-theories against Vedanta cannot stand, as they try to prove the existence of a Second Being. All these theories are untenable (द्वितीयाय प्रसायानि न्यायारच न तस्यु:) ॥

(c) The gods and sages, therefore, did not believe and see in any second (इन्द्रादयः द्वितीयमुखावजोकिनो न वभूदुः)॥

(d) तस्वो or तस्ये is another patha, and then it clearly refers to Rudra. Being One, he does not require or wait for a second, or, as He does not wait for a second, therefore, He is one (यसाज द्वितीयाय तस्ये तस्मादेक इयन्वयः)।

संतुकोप-showed His wrath. Perfect Tense of कुए | Another reading is संतुकोच i.e., withdrew or destroyed the worlds (संकोच कृतवान् संहतवान्) ।

बन्तकाले = at the time of universal Destruction (प्रलयकाले) ॥

गोपाः-Protector, during the existence of the worlds. गोसा इत्येव व्याख्येयम् । गोशाव्दवाच्यं सचराचरं विश्वं पातीति वा गोपः स्थितिकाले ज्ञानन्द प्रदत्से च गोपः भवति॥

So, according to the above explanation, गोपाः is either the Vedic form for गोहा or it may be explained as one who protects (पाति) the world (गो) ॥

विषा = Vedic form for विश्वानि (All) Declensional terminations in Vedic Grammar are optionally dropped, and the previous vowel is lengthened. (सुपां सुलुङ्ग) ॥

MANTRA III. 3.

विश्वतश्चज्जुरुत विश्वतो मुखो विश्वतो बाहुरुत विश्वतस्पात्। सं बाहुभ्यां धमति संपतत्रेर्चावाभूमी जनयन्देव एकः ॥३॥

3. He has eyes everywhere, He has also faces everywhere, He has also arms everywhere, and He has also feet everywhere. (He), the One Luminous Being, while creating heaven and earth, fits (human beings) with arms, (and birds) with wings.

NOTES.

This verse strongly lays down that God is the only and real master of all created things, and that even the organs of sense, which man calls as his own, are God's. For, according to the Vedanta Philosophy, God pervades the whole body of creation and innumerable animate bodies in the form of the individual soul. जसादिसम्बद्धं-तानां प्रायित्तां कार्यं करयानीरवरस्येव कार्यं करयानीति प्रतिपादयति—कार्यं करयानि सङ्घा तेष्ठ अभुभविषय जीवसब्दासिखप्यत्वेव ईश्वरस्येव स्थितत्वात् ।

ŚVETASVATARA UPANISAD.

विश्वतरचतुः--Having eyes everywhere, or on all sides. The eyes of all creatures are His eyes, as He is the Self of all. सर्वप्राधि गतानि चतुंचि प्रस्य इति सर्वात्मकत्वात् (एतदात्मकत्वात् सर्वस्य). The others are to be similarly explained (उत्तरत्र समानेव योजना) ॥

विश्वतस्पाद् --- The अ of पाद is dropped at the end of a compound, except after the words इस्तिनन, etc. (पादस्य जोपोऽइस्त्यादिभ्य:) ॥

जत= also (प्रापि)।

स Upasarga before जनयन् or before धमति ।

धमति=(a) fixes, applies, fits, supplies, attaches (संयोजयति) ।

(b) creates or animates.

(दीपयति प्रवर्तयति). When this is the meaning, बाहुभ्याम् = according to the actions and knowledge of living beings (विद्याकर्मभ्याम्) and पतन्नै: =desires (वासनारूपै:) (जीवनिष्ठ विद्याकर्मवासनादिभिरीश्वरो जगत् प्रवर्तयति) ॥

- (c) creates noise or words in the beginning of creation. सगाँदी राज्यान् उत्पादयति ॥
- (d) gives happiness or misery (मुखदुः ले अदाति) ॥
- पतवः -(a) with wings; (b) with feet पतनसाधनैः पादैः पर्चवां ॥
 - (c) with five elements, creating sky and earth. (पञ्चभूतैर्धावासूमिं जनयन्) ॥

बाहुभ्यास् (a) with arms (b) according to good or bad actions (gives happiness or misery, घमति) (धर्माधर्माभ्यां सुखदुःखकारिष्यम्) ॥

MANTRA III. 4.

यो देवानां प्रभवश्चोद्भवश्च विश्वाधिपो रुद्रो महर्षिः । हिरगयगर्भं जनयामास पूर्वं स नो बुद्धया शुभया संयुनक्तु ॥४॥

4. May He, who is the Cause of the birth and prosperity of Gods, who is the Protector of Creation, who is the Destroyer (of pain or of the world), Mighty, and Omniscient, (and) who created Hiranyagarbha in the beginning of creation, equip us with good wisdom.

NOTES.

This verse points out : --

Not only He is the creator of inanimate things, but also of the animate, and of the gods. न केवलमचेतनानां किंदु चेतनानां देवादीनां च उत्पत्त्यादिरेतुरित्याद ॥ प्रभवः -- the cause of birth (उत्पत्तिहेतुः) ॥

प्रमाण वर्भवः----the cause of prosperity, stability, or ascendancy. The च after वर्भवः stands for the cause of destruction also. ऊर्ध्व भवनस् वर्भवः। ऐरवर्ष हेतुः। द्वितीयः चकारः संहारस्याकि समुखयार्थः॥

विश्वाधिपः-Protector of the whole creation (विश्वस्य अधिपः पालयिता). Another reading is विश्वाधिपः-Greater than all or the universe. (विश्वस्तात् अधिकः)॥

महर्षिः= महान् च असौ ऋषिरच ॥ ऋषिः = All knowing or seeing; the great seer, from ऋष् to see (महादृष्टा) महान् च सर्वज्ञो वा ॥

पूर्व - in the beginning of creation (सगाँदे) ॥ संयुनक् - may fit, equip or fill (संयोजयत्त) ॥

MANTRA III. 5.

या ते रुद्र शिवा तनृरघोराऽपापकाशिनी । तया नस्तनुवा शंतमया गिरिशन्ताभिचाकशीहि ॥४॥

5. O Rudra, O Spreader of happiness, from Thy joygiving nature, look at us (or shine on us) with that happiest personality of Thine,—that personality which is benevolent, righteousness-revealing, and not terrible.

NOTES.

This verse and the one following are prayers to Rudra, for the manifestation of his Being . पुनरपि तस्य स्वरूपं दर्शयन् आभिनेतमर्थं आर्थयते मंत्रद्वयेन ॥

शिवा-benevolent or pure (मंगला शुद्धा जडतद्विशेषमलरहिता) ॥

अधोरा-not terrible, cheerful (अरोदा, प्रसना) ॥

अपापकाशिनी-अपाप=sinlessness, goodness, righteousness. काशिनी-Revealer, manifester (पुण्यमकाशिनी) ॥

तनुवा (Vedic form) = तन्वा ॥

शंतमया-शंतम = greatest happiness, and, as an adjective qualifying तनुवा it means "having the greatest happiness" (युषतमया) ॥

गिरिशन्त -- गिरिः in the Vedanta, stands for that being, source or abode which gives happiness to gods and living beings. शंत -- that which spreads happiness, शं stands for happiness, and त for तनाति (spreads). गिरी स्थितः शं सुखे तनेति इति । गिरिः कैंबासाख्यपर्वतः, गिरिशब्दो वेदान्ते मध्य झादीनां सर्वेयां सुखमदातृत्वेन मसिद्ध इति वा ॥

fift; also may refer to the Kailas mountain, the abode of Siva, though this thought belongs to a later stage, and does not directly pertain to the Vedânta. अभिचाकशीह--look or shine strongly. It is the Intensitive Imperative form of काय to shine (यह जुगन्त) ॥

This is, therefore, really a prayer for Gods' grace, that He may give us all that is good. (अभिपश्य निरीचस्व प्रकाशस्व वा) ॥

MANTRA III. 6. यामिषुं गिरिशंत हस्ते बिभर्ष्यस्तवे । शिवां गिरित्र तां कुरु मा हिथ्सीः पुरुषं जगत् ॥ ९॥

6. O Spreader of happiness, from Thy joy-giving nature, O Protector, abiding in Thy joy-giving nature, make that arrow peaceful (i.e., withdraw) which thou holdest in hand in order to throw it (on the world). Do not destroy the world, which is a form of the Supreme Being (or which is a combination of all the means of true knowledge.)

NOTES

This verse contains a prayer (on the part of the salvation-seeker) to the Phenomenal Brahm for the perfection of true knowledge. He prays for the non-destruction of those means and opportunities which complete a man's spiritual knowledge on this earth.

धुष्य-Although दुत्र in modern Sanskrit is masculine, here in the Vedic form it is feminine, as the adjective shows. The arrow of Rudra is well-known as his destructive flat. द्रुष्ट खियास-शास वु सर्वसंदारसमर्थरवेन प्रसिद्धम् ॥

बिमबि --- holdest (चारयसि) ॥

8. I know that perfectly pervading Being, Mighty, Luminous, and beyond darkness. Having known Him alone, (a man) can conquer death; there exists no other path leading to salvation.

12. Verily, the (Perfect Being) is the mighty Lord, Controller of the heart, the Lord of this very holy attainment of (peace or salvation), the Light, and Imperishable.

NOTES.

This verse indicates that God is the giver of purity, of true knowledge resulting from that purity, and of salvation resulting from that true knowledge. अन्तःकरवाद्यदिपूर्वेक ज्ञानस्य तःकवायोजस्य वेश्वर एव प्रदाता इलाह 1

13. The All-pervading Being (situated in the hole), about the size of the thumb, the inner Soul (of all), has thoroughly entered the heart of all human beings; He is known (through reason), the ruler of the mind and situated in the heart, and through meditation. Those who know him become immortal.

NOTES,

This verse explains the thought, given in the 11th verse, of God's presence in the cave of the human heart (सर्वभूतगुदाययस्वमुपपादयति) ॥

• जंगुष्टमान्न:---It is believed that God is revealed to man in the cavity (about the size of a thumb) of his heart. So जंगुष्टमान्न: may be translated in two ways : (a) situated in the cavity (about the size of a thumb) of a man's heart, (b) metaphorically, God himself may be called as being about the size of a thumb, as He is revealed in such a small place. जनित्यक्तिस्थानड दयदिव्यक्तिस्थानडद्यदिव्यक्तिस्थानड

सनीपा—ruler or controller of the mind—an attribute of reason (सनः सनसः (वा) ईच्टे) ; or another reading :—सन्वीशः—the Lord of knowledge (ज्ञानेशः)।

मनसा-mind or meditation. According to Vijnanabhagvat, सनस् is the Lower Reason by which the Supreme Being can be only reflected on, (संकल्पित) बुद्धि is the Higher Reason by which it is realized. सनसा सननरूपेस । सनसा संकल्पितो बुद्धया निश्चितः ॥

14. That Perfect Being is one having thousands of heads, thousands of eyes and thousands of feet. Having encompassed the earth on all sides, He rises above it by the measure of a span.

NOTES.

This verse is a complement to the last verse. The 13th verse describes the minute size (about a thumb) of God; this, the 14th verse, describes His Greatness and immanence everywhere. अंगुष्टमात्रत्वाभिधानेनालपत्वं प्राप्त तत्सर्वात्मकत्वकथनेन वारयति ।

15. All that is past, present or future is only the Perfect Being. He is also the Lord of Salvation, and transcends whatever world of phenomena (there is).

NOTES.

This verse strongly lays down the Unity of God and the identity of the Phenomenal world with God. The 14th verse declares God as transcending the Universe. This transcendental view may suggest that there are two entities, God and the Universe. This suggestion is removed by the 15th verse, which lays down that the world of phenomena is false, that it has no existence of its own, and that whatever exsitence, or reality there is in the world, is the basic Reality of God. ननु यययसिदमतीत्य स्थितो नदीमिन कूवं तथा च अयमस्मान्तद्वदेव भिन्नः स्यादित्यत आह । यतो सर्वं भूतभावि वर्तमानात्मकत्वात् स्वप्नभंचवत् आविधात्मकमेव इत्युक्तम, ततोऽविधात्मकप्रपंचे निरूप्यमायो सर्वकरूपनाधिष्ठानपुरुषमात्रमेव इत्याह ॥

This verse vividly describes the Supreme Being as the Self of all. ईश्वरस्य सर्वकार्यकरखेषु प्रत्यपूर्ववाऽवस्थानं सर्वात्मकर्ता चाह ॥

सर्वतः पाशिपादं-whose hands and feet are everywhere. (सर्वतः पाश्वथः पादाश्व यस्य)॥

17. He is the Light of all the organs of sense, their faculties and their objects; He is free from all the organs of sense; He is the Lord and Governor of all, the Great Refuge of all.

NOTES.

This verse removes a suggestion which the 16th verse may hint, that God has really hands and feet, &c. He himself is not bound to the organs of sense; on the other hand, He is their Life-giver and their sole master. He it is through whose power they can do their work. He only seems to have the organs of sense.

प्रसु ईशान-Lord and Governor. (स्वासित्व नियन्त्वे प्रन्योन्येन विवाऽपि भवव इत्युभवोत्त्वानम्) A Lord may not be a Governor and vice versa, therefore, both the attributes have been put. The neuter attributes have been put in the nominative case. मसु ईशाने mean the nominative, though the form is accusative-a Vedic peculiarity.

18. In the body having nine openings, or in the (city having nine gates) the soul, connected with the body, wanders out (in the world). He is the Controller of the whole world, animate as well as inanimate.

NOTES.

This verse describes the individual soul, and its identity with the Supreme Being.

NOTES,

Several of the above verses (as सर्वतः पायिषारं) have described the Phenomenal Brahm as connected with and related to the world. This verse describes the true reality of Brahm, absolute, and disconnected with the world.

जवनः-literally, quick, reaching far, owing to omnipresence, quickly (सर्वव्यापित्याच् दूरगामी) ॥

प्रतिता - grasper, though having no hands (आदाता, अपाधिरपि)।

CHAPTER III, 20.

20. Minuter than the minute, and greater than the great, the Soul is situated in the heart of this creature. By the grace of the Creator one can see that Mighty Controller who is free from appetites, and is redeemed from sorrow.

NOTES.

This verse lays down that spiritual vision depends upon the grace of God (आत्मसाज्ञात्कारे ईश्वरकटाजः कारयामित्याह)।

अयोः -- than the minute (अल्पाव, सुद्माव) । अयोयान् -- minuter, subtler (अल्पतरः, सुद्मतरः) । सहीयान् -- greater (महत्तरः) । जन्तोः -- group of all creatures (प्रायिजातस्य) । निहितः -- placed, present, situated (निचिन्नः, स्थितः) । गुद्दायाम् -- in the heart or mind (हृदये, बुद्धो वा) । अकतुम् -- free from sensual passions or appetites (विषयमोगसंकरपरहितन्द्र) ।

mg = passion. Another pâtha is umg : which means the same for the seer.

धातुः मसावात् \Rightarrow (a) By the grace (मसाद) of the Creator (धातु) or (b) by the purification (मसाद) of the organs of sense or the heart (धातु in compound, meaning इन्द्रियs which support the body).

CHAPTER IV.

चतुर्थोऽध्यायः ॥ ४ ॥

MANTRA IV. 1.

य एकोऽवर्णों बहुधा शक्तियोगाद्रर्णाननेकान्निहिताथों दधाति । विचैति चान्ते विश्वमादौ स देवः स नो बुद्धचा शुभया संयुनक्तु ॥१॥

1. He is the Luminous Being, who, being One and without form and name, creates, by connection with Mâyâ, and keeping the words and forms (in His thought), numerous forms and names of many kinds, in the beginning (of creation), and at the end destroys the Universe. May He fit us with good wisdom.

NOTES.

This Chapter mainly repeats the thought of the previous Chaptere, in order to emphasize it. This verse contains a prayer to God for true knowledge.

गहनत्वादस्यार्थस्य भूयेा भूयेा वक्तव्य इति चतुर्थोऽध्यायः आरभ्यते । ईइवर-स्वरूपप्रतिपादनेन मुमुक्षोः परमेश्वरात् सम्यग्ज्ञानप्रार्थनमाह् ।

अवर्षे:---(a) वर्षे: means name (literally, that by which anything is described) or form (lit., that which is described). So the whole means, 'without form or name.'

(b) and also means caste and said will, therefore, mean, without (i.e., having no) any caste or attribute (unqualified).

(c) Another reading is वर्ष instead of अवर्थ. In this case, वर्ष means Om, which is described as being the cause or germ of the whole of Vedic and Sanskrit Literature (or holding several letters, as, अ, र and स)

(d) state also means the letter st, which being the first letter of the Sanskrit Alphabet, is further changed into many forms, (short, long, etc.)

(a) वर्ण्यतेऽनेन इति वर्णो नाम तेन शून्यः । वर्ण्यते इति वर्णे रूपं तेन शून्यः । नामरूपशून्य इत्यर्थः । (b) अवर्णो जात्यादिरद्वितो निर्विशेष इत्यर्थः (c) वर्णयति आत्मस्व-रूपं वर्णे ओंकारः । अनेकान् वर्णान् अकारादीन् दघाति घारयति (d) अधवा य एका वर्णो अकारो बहुप्रकारान् हस्वादिभेदेन वर्णान् दघाति प्राप्नोति ।

बहुधा-Of many kinds, referring either to वर्षांत् or to शक्ति (बहुप्रकारान् वर्षांत् बहुप्रकारशक्तियोगाल् वा)

शक्तियोगात्-On account of connection with (or meaning) माया (सामर्थ्य योगात गब्दस्य) वा सायासंबन्धात्। autiq—(a) (as explained above) forms or names (b) qualities (c) letters.

निद्दिताये:—(a) Having kept the Word or Design (and forms). This expression embodies an important Theory of the Vedânta, according to which the "Word" has created the world. This belief is held by other religions also. (Compare the Bible—"In the beginning was the word, etc."). Now this Word really means the design of God which He keeps in mind before creating the world. आये stands both for forms (literally, that which is used) and names or the word (that by which is meant). निदित means kept (in thought).

निहितार्थो यस्य लएव्य विषयेक्षणे निहितो निक्षिप्तोऽर्थः । अर्थ्यते इति अर्थो अभिवेयं रूपम् । अर्थ्यतेऽनेन इति अर्थोऽभिधानं । पूर्वं स्वेक्षणेन नामरूपं व्याकृत्वा ।

(b) निद्ति—Not accepted or cared for. अये: = selfish motive (i.e., creating the world without any selfish motive) (निदितायों अगृहीतप्रयोजनः स्वार्थनिरपेषः इत्यर्थ:)

(c) Having kept the meaning in itself, referring to ओकार or वर्यi.e., full of meaning. (निहिताभिधेयप्रधोजनः)

आदौ द्याति-Creates in the beginning विदयाति आदौ

व्येति च- and destroys-non-cansal for causal (यन्त आवितण्यर्थः । विगमयति विश्वेषयति उपसंहरति)

MANTRA IV. 2.

तदेवाग्निस्तदादित्यस्तद्रायुस्तदु चन्द्रमाः। तदेव शुक्रं तद्वह्य तदापस्तत्प्रजापतिः ॥ २ ॥

2. He alone is fire, He is the sun, He is air, He is also the moon, He alone is the bright group of planets, He is Hiranyagarbha, He is the waters, He is virât.

NOTES.

This verse and the two following strongly declare the Pantheistic Dootrine of the Vedanta philosophy - that all is God. (स एव सर्वे न तता विभक्त-मलीवाह संग्रहरेख)

पुत-alone, is connected with every word in the verse (एव शब्द: सर्वन्न संवण्यते, तदेव ग्रुकसिति दर्शनात्). इ also (इ अपि)

राकं-(a) the bright group of planets दीसिमत् नजत्रमंडलं

(b) the bright Brahma (दोसिमन नवा)

(c) semen (वीयम्)

ब्रब-(a) Brahmâ or Hirannyagarbha (दिरण्यगभांत्मा)

(b) Brahm (जस जगत्कारण)

प्रजापतिः---Virat (विराडात्मा)

MANTRA IV. 3.

त्वं स्त्री त्वं पुमानसि त्वं कुमार उत वा कुमारी । त्वं जीर्गो दराडेन वंचसि त्वं जातो भवसि विश्वतोमुखः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Thou art woman, thou art man, thou art the young man, thou art even the young woman, thou art the old man who goest with a staff, (in short) thou art born in all forms.

NOTES.

This verse further strengthens the Pantheistic view, and lays down that the Supreme Soul is the only reality, while the division of Age and Sex is only imaginary. (क्षीपुरुषादिसेदेाऽपि जात्मनि करिपत इलाह)

त्वम्-Thou, the Supreme Soul itself or God (स्वयसानन्दारसा, परसेरवरो वा).

वंबसि = अंचसि goest or wanderest (one Commentator also says, deceivest). गच्छसि, परिआमसि, दंडेन दमेन [self-control] (दुष्टान् जुजयसि)

विश्वतामुखः—in all forms or in all conditions (नानाकारेग, नानाऽवस्थासु वा) God appears to be born, as it were, in different forms by the Power of his Maya, just as the reflection of the moon makes the moon appear to have many forms, while the moon itself is unchanged घटे आकाशवन जले जन्द्रवन् कार्थकरणाडपाधिषु प्रविश्य हे परमेश्वर त्वमेव नानाविधाकारेगा मायया जात हव तक्ष्यले हल्याँ:

4. Thou art the black bird (or bee); (Thou art) the green (bird), the red-eyed (bird), the cloud, the seasons, and the oceans. On account of Thy transcending all Time and Space, Thou art without beginning, from whom all the worlds are born,

NOTES.

This verse, while further strengthening the Pantheistic view, declares that God also appears in the Lower Animal forms (तिर्वगादि रूपेगापि ईश्वरस्येवऽवस्थानमाह).

नीताः पत्तकः-black bird or bee (कृष्याः पत्ती अमरादिः).

हरितः-green bird, like parrot (शुकादि).

बोहिताचः-red-eyed bird (रकाचः पद्य).

तडिद्रगर्भः---तडित् गर्भे यस्य in which there is lightning, i.e., cloud (मेघः). विभुत्येन---on account of Thy transcending all Time and Space (देराकालते।ऽनवच्छिन्नत्वेन).

MANTRA IV. 5.

5. One male goat (or uncreated being) follows, while serving, one female goat (or unborn entity) which has red, white and black colours, which produces many various creatures of similar forms. Another he goat (or uncreated Being) abandons her by whom pleasure has been enjoyed,

NOTES.

This verse metaphorically describes the causes of bondage and salvation, and the difference between an unwise and a wise man. It is the unwise man, who, being a slave of Prakriti (like a he-goat slavishly following a female goat) suffers bondage; while the wise man, keeping himself aloof from maya, and abandoning all attachment to material things, remains free. In this verse there is also a reference to the (individual soul) or fig., which only becomes as such by being mastered by maya, while the Supreme Soul is never affected by Prakriti.

मजास--A she-goat or an Uncreated Being ; Mâyâ, being also held unborn in the Vedanta Philosophy (क्रागस्थां मुलामहतिम्). aileaussauit-Having the attributes red, white and black :-

(a) The red stands for fire, the white for water, and the black for the Earth. The attributes of fire, water and earth must lie hidden in their Prime Cause, $M\hat{a}y\hat{a}$, because the attributes of an effect must be present in its cause.

(b) The red, white, and black stand also for the three Gunas, Rajas, Sattva, and Tamas respectively.

(a) छोदितगुरूरुष्णां तेजेाउवलल्क्षणाम्, कार्याणां तेजेावलानां यानि रूपाणि तानि मायायामपि सन्त्येव । (b) लेदितां रज ग्रात्मिकां, गुल्लां सत्त्वात्मिकां रूष्णां तम ग्रात्मिकाम् । बह्री: many (अनेकाः).

मजा: -- creatures or offsprings (born in many divisions) (प्रविभक्तरूपेश बायग्ते इति प्रजाः).

सङ्गः-having forms similar to the forms or attributes (of fire, water or earth) possessed by her.

सरूपाः समानरूपाः स्वेन ठोहितगुह्रहण्णात्मकत्वेन समानरूपाः सत्त्वरजस्तम गात्मकत्वेन वा समानरूपाः ।

- (c) exists while following (material things) (मकृतिप्राकृतांश्य अनुस्तय योते वर्तते).

जहाति-abandons or destroys (परित्यजति नारायतिवा).

धुकसीयाय-She who has enjoyed the pleasure. This expression embodies the Vedantic theory that the Soul does not really enjoy the pleasures of the world. It is mâyâ and her creations that enjoy. The Supreme Soul (which is the only real Soul) is unaffected by Mâyâ, and therefore does not enjoy the pleasures of the world-the creation of Mâyâ.

भुक्तः संसारभोगो यया, विकारित्वात् इयमेव संसारभोगकत्रीं । आत्मा निःसंग-सुखमात्रैकरसत्वात न भोगकर्ता ॥

बजोडम्य:--Another he-goat, different from the false individual soul, i.e., the Supreme Soul or God (अन्यः कृता देखरः) or the wise man, differing from the unwise (अज्ञानिवाइन्ध्र).

MANTRA IV. 6.

द्रा सुपर्णा सयुजा सखाया समानं वृत्तं परिषस्वजाते । तयोरन्यः पिप्पलं स्वाद्रत्त्यनश्रन्नन्योऽभिचाकशीति ॥ ६ ॥

6. Two beautiful-winged birds (or two beings of good movement) ever-connected, and friends, resort to the same tree (or body); of these the one eats the fruit of varied or (attractive) taste, while the other shines (or looks) without eating (the fruit).

NOTES

This verse explains the thought of the last verse in another metaphor. The individual Soul and the Supreme Soul have been compared to two friendly birds, occupying the same tree, one eating the fruit and the other avoiding it. The individual Soul acquires its characteristic attributes of worldliness, because it tastes the fruits of the world—pleasure and pain—and attributes pleasure and pain—(really the qualities) of Maya)—to itself. So it is bound to the world. The Supreme Soul, however, not tasting the fruit, remains quite free from the world. A similar thought is expressed in other religious books (as the Bible and the Quran) where Adam is said to have fallen from Heaven on account of having eaten the fruit of a tree.

इदानौं जीवपरमात्मानौ उपन्यस्येते । जीव उपाधिधर्मान् स्वधर्मेण स्वीकृत्य पार्धादमलकछुषिततत्फलमोकृत्वेन संसारीव वर्तते, ईश्वरः संसारदोषानास्कन्दित स्वयं प्रकाशाऽनवच्छिन्नस्वरूपेण सर्वप्रकाशकत्वेन वर्तते ।

7. The individual soul, entangled in the same tree (or body), being deluded, grieves on account of powerlessness, when he sees another Being, i.e., God, pleased (or served by Him) and His greatness, he is freed from sorrow.

NOTES.

This verse is a complement to the last verse, which described chiefly the cause of bondage. This verse says that Salvation can be attained by the realization of God and his Unity with the individual soul.

तीवस्वरूपं परमात्मस्वरूपं चानूच जीवस्य परमात्मेकत्वज्ञानात् येाझसिद्धिमाह । पुरुषः----the individual Soul (जीवः).

निमग्नः-Exceedingly drowned, forgetting his real happy self, identifying itself with the body, entangled (नितरां सग्नः, तिरस्कृतान-दारसरूपः, तादात्म्यापजः)

अनीशया (a) owing to powerlessness (b) owing to self-abasement (c) on account of forgetting his divine nature which is overshadowed by जीवेशा खसामर्थ्येन, द्वीनभावेन, अविद्यान्धुन्नेवर भावान्.

NOTES.

This verse emphasizes the oft-repeated thought that only the knowledge of the Supreme Being, and not merely the study of the Vedas, can bring salvation to man (परमात्मविदां कृतार्थतां दश्रांथति)

च्चनः-The Rig and other Vedas. The word Rig stands for the other Vedas also (ज्ञज इति सर्ववेदेगपतजग्राम । ज्रगादिसर्वे देवाः) and (a) in the imperishable or Eternal.

(b) in the Omnipresent Being (न परतीति अचरम्) (सर्वमरचुते इति धा

9. The Vedas, the Sacrifices without Soma, the Sacrifices with Soma, the vows, the Past, the Future (and the Present), (in short) whatever the Vedas speak of, is born from the Supreme Being. (He), accompanied with Mâyâ, created this universe, and in that (universe) the other (individual soul) is fettered by Mâyâ.

NOTES.

This verse speaks of the Supreme Being as a Creator in a special sense, viz., when He is accompanied with Mâyâ (इदानों तस्यैवादरस्य मायोपाधिक नगरसप्टरन दर्शयति).

बन्दांसि-(a) The Vedas (वेदाः).

(b) The Vedic Metres, as Gayatri, etc. (गायत्र्यादीनि).

यज्ञाः (a) special kinds of sacrifice in which Soma is not drunk or used (आवेमका:).

न or (b) those sacrifices (in which the animal is not slaughtered), in which the sacrificial post (to which the animal is fastened) is not used यूपसंबन्धरहिताः).

कतवः---(a) the SOMA sacrifices, i. e., sacrifices in which Soma is used or drunk---like the Jyotistoma sacrifice, (सलोमकाः ज्योतिष्टोमादयः).

(b) Sacrifices in which the sacrificial post is used. quarterseftar: four:

(c) worship (various kinds of) जपासनानि.

वतानि-vows or fasts चान्द्रायगादीनि यमनियमादीनि वा).

अस्मात् is born (from this Brahm understood) अस्मात् वद्यया एतल्प्तोक्तं सर्वे समुत्यचते इत्यधाहत्य योजयितव्यम.

Some Commentators read अस्मान्-standing in apposition to all the things mentioned above-" He creates all these things or all these sages " अस्मान् वेदाध्येतुन् अयीन्).

मायी—The Lord of Mâyå, accompanied with Mâyá. This is an important statement, as it lays down that Brahm, being Himself quite free from action, can be taken as a creator only in a special sense, i.e., when He is conceived of as the Lord of Mâyâ or as accompanied with Mâyâ मायी मायाची । कूटखास्यापि मायोपाधिकान् खमायाशक्तिवधान् सर्वसष्ट्रसमुपपक्षम् ॥

त्तसिन्-in this universe (विश्वप्रपंचे).

ज्ञन्य:-the other, i. e., the individual soul (जीवः)

संनिरुद्धः-bound, fettered, obstructed बद्धः, सम्यङ्निरोधं प्राप्तः, ज्ञासभेषरयेाः तातात्म्यज्ञानहीनः इत्यर्थः ।

MANTRA IV. 10.

मायां तु प्रकृतिं विद्यान्मायिनं तु महेश्वरम् । तस्यावयव-भूतेस्तु व्याप्तं सर्वमिदं जगत् ॥१०॥

10. The material cause (of the universe) should be known as Mâyâ alone, and the supereme God should be known as only the Controller (or Life-Giver) of Mâyâ. By His portions this world is pervaded.

NOTES.

This verse gives a definition of Mâyâ and its Lord (ननु का च माया करच मायावीत्यत आह)

मकृति — The material cause or origin of the Universe. Wherever, in this book, the material cause of the Universe is spoken of, that cause should be technically known as Maya. (मक्कति जगदुपादानकारयाम् । तत्र तत्र जगरमकृति स्वेन उक्ता या तां मायां विद्यात् जानीयात्.)

त---Is an excluding or limiting particle. Should be known as Maya only, and not anything else (तुराबद्रोऽवचारय)

विद्यात्-Should know. Potential mood of √ विद् "to know." second conjugation जानीयान्

मायिन-The Lord, Controller, or the Support of Maya.

मावायाः स्वामिनं, नियन्तारं, अधिधानमूतं स्वरूपहकुरखप्रदतया ।

Máyâ therefore, is not independent, but depends even for its own existence on God.

तस्यावयवय्ते:-By this portion. The human mind supposes two of the Supreme attributes of Brahm (सन् चित् and आजन्द) existence and appearance, to be separate conceptions divided into innumerable portions. "This is silver;" "This is the sky;" "The silver appears," "The sky appears"; in such infinite expressions the attributes "thisness" or existence and appearance are supposed to be different portions—an imaginary division. So this whole world is full of these divisions ("Existence and appearance") of Brahm,—divisions imagined by the human mind.

Or, these divisions may be Mâyâ and its Powers. The Supreme Being gives existence and appearance to Mâyâ and its powers. So the human mind imagines as if the qualities of Brahm, existence and appearance, have been divided in the form of Mâyâ and its Powers.

तस्य (अस्य) मायिनः अवयवभूतैः "इदं रजतम्" इत्यन्न इदंस्थानैः सत्तास्फुरण्यैः "आकाशादिः सन्" "आकाशादि स्फुरति" इति व्यासम्— अध्यस्तत्वेनैव व्यासम् न तु स्वपरिणामत्वेन । अथवा मायायाः सत्तास्फुरण्यप्रदत्त्वेनाऽवववभूतैः तस्मिन् अध्यस्तत्वात् तदंगभूतैर्मायातत्सामर्थ्यैः तद्विवर्तत्वेनैव व्यासं सर्वमिदं जगत् ।

MANTRA IV. 11.

यो योनिं योनिमिधितिष्ठत्येको यस्मिन्निदं संच विचेति सर्वम्। तमीशानं वरदं देवमीड्यं निचाय्येमां शान्तिमत्यन्तमोति ११

11. (One) attains this highest peace, having thoroughly known Him, the Governor, the Giver of gifts, (including salvation), the Luminous and praiseworthy Being, who, being one, governs (or supports) every cause, (primary as well as secondary), in whom this whole world is absorbed (by destruction) and assumes various forms (at the time of creation).

NOTES.

This verse describes the place and relation of the Supreme Being with regard to creation. He is the independent Governor and Support of the whole world (सायातत्कार्यादियोने: कूटस्थस्य स्वयातीऽधिष्ठानुःवं दर्यायति).

योनि योनि-Every cause (योनि = cause), primary, viz., माया, and, secondary, the five elements. (मूल मकृत्तिं मार्या विषदाचवान्तरप्रकृतीक्ष) or अयोनिं योनिं ----tbe causeless cause, i. e., माया कारगमस्या न विद्यत इत्यवेानिं योनिं प्रकृतिम् अनादिसिद्धाय इति यायत्)

अधितिप्रति-Governs, or supports by giving appearance and Reality (सकारक्रुति रूपेयाऽधिष्ठाय तिष्ठति जन्तयांभिरूपेया).

सं + प्ति = समेति goes together, i. e., is absorbed by destruction (संगच्छते जयं प्राप्तोति).

Another Commentator translates it as " gets stability " (स्थिति करोति). वि + पुरि = व्येति goes to or assumes variety.

Becomes of various forms at the time of creation (सृष्टिकाले विविधस पुति आकाशादिरूपेख नाना सवति).

Another Commentator translates it as " undergoes destruction " (विनाशमुपैति इत्यर्थः).

वरदं-Giver of gifts including salvation, (मेाचपर्यन्तानां वराणां दातारम्). ईल्यम्-praiseworthy (खुत्यम्).

निचाय-Having realized by faith (निश्चयेन साचात् कृत्य).

जलान्तम्-Perfect, highest, whence there is no return (adverb or adjective) गान्ति = salvation (पुनराष्ट्रतिरहिसाम, गोजाख्याम,).

MANTRA IV. 12.

यो देवानां प्रभवश्चोद्भवश्च विश्वाधिपो रुद्रो महर्षिः । हिरएवगर्भं पश्यत जायमानं स नो बुद्धचा शुभया संयुनक्तु ॥१२॥

12. This verse has already been translated and annotated in verse 4, Chap. III.

It is the same verse as 4, Chap. III.

Except this change-

Instead of "who created Hiranyagarbha in the beginning of creation," translate-

"Who saw Hiranygarbha being born."

परयत = अपरयत्-In the Vedic Grammar अ as an augment does not necessarily precede the Imperfect Tense. Another peculiarity of Vedic Grammar in this word is the use of Atmanepada instead of Parasmaipada.

बहुळं कुन्द्स्यमाङ्योगेऽपि इत्यहभावः, व्यत्ययेन ग्रारमनेपदम् ।

'Saw' is used in the sense of "Felt a desire that Hiranyagarbha should create the secondary creation, and introduce or propagate the Vedas."

अवान्तरसर्गस्थितिमलयकर्तृत्वेन वेदप्रवर्तकत्वेन च निरीक्षणं इतवान् इत्यर्थः

Another Commentator translates प्रयत = जानीत --- "Know the Hiranyagarbha (being) born as really the Supreme Being" (जायसनी दिरण्यतभौतवि तमेव परवत जानीत) !

MANTRA IV. 13.

यो देवानामधिपो यस्मिँछोका अधिश्रिताः । य ईशेऽस्य द्रिपदश्चतुष्पदः कस्मै देवाय हविषा विधेम ॥१३॥

13. May we worship with oblations that Luminous and Blissful Being who is the Lord of Gods, on whose support (all) the worlds exist, who governs this (world of) the biped (man, &c.) and the quadruped.

NOTES.

This verse declares that the Supreme Being is Lord of the Gods, and that salvation-seekers should worship Him (देवान् प्रति स्वासित्वं सुसुद्धनिस राष्यस्व च ईश्वरस्याह)।

प्रधिपः-Lord or Master (स्वामी) ।

प्रधिश्रितः-depend upon ; are supported by (अधि-डपरि, श्रिताः)।

ईसो-the Vedic form for ईप्टे, त being dropped by a peculiarity of Vedic Grammar-governs (तकारतोप: झान्द्स:)।

द्विपदः-Biped, man, &c.,- Genitive case, governed by the verb ईश् । चतुत्पदः-quadruped, animals, &c. (परवादेः) ।

 $\overline{\mathfrak{sch}} = (-\overline{\mathfrak{sra}})$ Him, who is bliss itself. This word $\overline{\mathfrak{s}}$ is not a Pronoun, yet, owing to a peculiarity of Vedic Grammar $\overline{\mathfrak{sra}}$ is added to it. $\overline{\mathfrak{s}} =$ happiness—(some Commentators take $\overline{\mathfrak{s}}$ as an interrogative Pronoun, in which case the verse will involve a question—" Whom should we worship—"? and the answer will be the other portions of the verse] ($\overline{\mathfrak{sras}}$

हविपा = with offerings or oblations (आराधनभूतद्वच्ये:) ।

विधेम-should worship. Potential mood of विध् to worship विधेः परिचयाकर्मय (पुतद्वपम् परिचरेम)।

MANTRA IV. 14.

सूक्ष्मातिसूक्ष्मं कलिलस्य मध्ये विश्वस्य स्नष्टारमनेकरूपम्। विश्वस्यैकं पारिवेष्टितारं ज्ञात्वा शिवं शान्तिमत्यन्तमेति ॥१४॥

14. One attains the highest peace, having known that Blissful Being, who, being One, pervades the Universe, who (assumes) many forms, who is the Creator of the world: (who is present) in the midst of this dense, confused mass (of worldly phenomena), and who is minuter than the minute.

This verse repeats the same thoughts expressed in several of the above verses, for the sake of a clearer understanding.

अधस्तात् प्रतिपादितं यद्यपि तथाऽपि बुद्धिसौकर्यार्थं पुनरप्याह

सुझ्मातिसुझ्मस् - Minuter than the minute. (सुझ्मात् अतिशयेन सुझ्मम् -- अयो-रतिशयेनाग्रः)।

कविजय—(a) कविजे literally means an impenetrable mass. This world of phenomena, the effect of Mâyâ, is compared to an impenetrable mass of fortifications which is hard to overcome. While the Supreme Being is spoken of as an untainted, unaffected, unattached Eye-witness of this confusing and formidable mass of phenomena.

कछिछस्य प्रकृतिप्राकृताख्यस्य संसारदुगेस्य गहनस्य मध्येऽन्तःसाधित्वेना ऽवस्थितम् ।

(b) Another Commentator translates कलिल as Darkness, and calls the Supreme Being as Hidden (understood) in darkness, i. e., invisible, owing to human ignorance or Mâyâ (कलिलस्य मध्ये तमसो मध्ये गृढमिति शेषः)।

शिवम्-blissful or benevolent (आनन्दसरूपम्, मंगलम्) ।

MANTRA IV. 15.

स एव काले अुवनस्य गोप्ता विश्वाधिपः सर्वभूतेषु गृढः । यस्मिन् युक्ता ब्रह्मर्षयो देवताश्च तमेवं ज्ञात्वा मृत्युपाशांशिद्यनात्ति १५

15. He alone is the Protector of the world at the (proper) time, the Lord of the universe, hidden in all the (created) beings, on whom the Brahmanical sages and Gods concentrate (their minds). Having known Him in this way, one breaks the bonds of death.

NOTES.

This verse refers to the great sages who realized the Supreme Being, and adds that we also, following the same methods, can attain salvation.

परस्य ब्रह्मादिदेचैः प्राप्यत्वं साधनयुतास्मदादीनां मेश्विसिद्धिं चाह ।

काले। (a) at the proper time, i. e., at the time of the ripening (or fruition) of the previous actions of living beings in the past worlds (अतीतकरपेयु जीवसंचितकर्मयरियाकसमये)।

(b) during the stability-time of the world (जगत: स्थितिकाले) ।

युक्त=(a) united, become one with (ऐक्यतामापजा:)।

(b) performed Yoga, or concentrated their minds on (केंगमाभिताः) devoted to.

CHAPTER IV, 16, 17.

16. One is released from all bonds, having known the Luminous Being who, being One, pervades the universe, who is hidden in all created beings, who is blissful (or benevolent), and who is extremely subtle (and valuable), just as the essence (of butter) is superior to (and subtler as well as more valuable than) butter.

NOTES.

This verse, in addition to the thoughts repeated above, speaks of God as the most valuable, the most lovely, and the subtlest object for the human mind (परस्य पुरुषाधरूपेया प्रीतिविषयःचं परमसुद्रमग्वं चाह)।

परम -(a) Superior, (b) or found above उत्कृष्ट' (उपरि वर्तमानम्)

चतात्-Clarified or molten butter (द्वीभूताज्यात्)

मंडम-- मंड ordinarily means cream ; here it means the most valuable, the most highly prized and subtlest essence (मंड सारं सूक्ष्म प्रीति विषयं च)

MANTRA IV. 17.

17. This Luminous Being, whose work is the universe, is the Supreme Soul, and always thoroughly enters the heart of human beings. He is known through (reason), the ruler of the mind, and situated in the heart, and through meditation. Those who know Him become immortal.

NOTES.

This verse describes the Supreme Being as the Creator of the Universe.

Qualifyresent, and attainable by those who become true Sannyasis. T 2nd part of this verse has already been annotated in III. 13.

आत्मने। विश्वकृत्वं तद्व्यापित्वं संन्यासिभिराप्तव्यमेाक्षरूपं चाह ।

विश्वकर्मा-कर्म means act or work, effect. Whose act or effect is the Universe; i.e., who is the Creator of the Universe (क्रियते इति कर्म कार्यम्-विश्वं कार्यसस्य इति, सर्वेत्पाद्कः)।

सहात्मा-The great or Supreme Soul (महांश्चडसी आत्मा च)

MANTRA IV. 18.

यदातमस्तन्न दिवा न रात्रिर्न सन्न चासच्छिव एव केवलः । तदक्षरं तत्सावितुर्वरोग्यं प्रज्ञा च तस्मात्प्रसृता पुराणी ॥१८॥

18. (In that condition) when there is no Avidyâ, there is neither (the conception of) the day nor night, neither existence nor non-existence; there is only the One (without a second) untainted Being—that Eternal, that Being who has the adorable nature (or form) of a Creator. From him wisdom (handed down) from time immemorial, has proceeded.

NOTES.

This verse emphasizes the monotheistic Ideal. In the condition of perfect and absolute wisdom, when ignorance has been entirely destroyed, dualism entirely vanishes, and the One Existence of the Supreme Being only is experienced. The conception of opposition is no more; for it is the Supreme Being alone who is really existing at all times.

Or, when the reading is an: instead of wan: the verse describes the condition of Universal destruction. At that time, as every thing is absorbed in the Primary Cause, Mâyâ, the dual conception of and difference between day and night does not hold.

प्रलगादौ मोक्षे च ईश्वरस्य बहितीयत्वावधारणात् इतरस्मिन् कालेऽ पि भ्रांत्या संदितीयत्वप्रतिभासः परमार्थतः सदा द्वैतरात्यत्वमेव इत्याह ।

अतम :- no darkness; destruction of Avidya (तमोनिवृत्तिः, वाचितमूलमकुत्या-व्याविद्यातमत्वात्) or (तसः) another reading-the state of the original cause, viz, Mava (मूलमकृति तमो मान्नतया)।

सन्-(a) Existence (conception of) भावः (सावकत्पना) (b) cause (कारणस) ।

असल -- (a) Non-existence (अभाव:) (b) effect (कार्यम्) ।

This means the dualism between existence and non-existence is no more.

दिवा-conception of the day (दिनकल्पना)।

शिवः-untainted, pure. (अविद्यादिमलास्प्रष्टः, निवि कारः, शुद्रस्तभावः)।

19. None can grasp Him above, in the intermediate directions (obliquely) or in the middle; He, whose name is "great fame," has no comparison.

NOTES.

This verse points out that Brahm is incomprehensible and incomparable (जन्मया अपरिप्राह्यत्वं अनुपमेयत्वं चाह) ।

न-Not (anybody understood) (न कश्चिद्पि) ।

तियंच्च --- obliquely (तियंक्) or in the intermediate directions (पदिसः) परिजयभत्-- can grasp. Subjunctive (Vedic) of मद् the द of मह and इ is changed to भ in the Vedas (हमदोभ: जन्दसि) परिमदीतुं सक्तुयात् ।

20. His Being does not stand in the range of vision; no one can see Him with the eye; those become immortal who know Him present in the heart, by reason and meditation, in this manner.

NOTES.

This verse points out that Brahm cannot be known by the organs of sense, but by Reason and Meditation, as described above in the Second Chapter.

परमेश्वरस्य इन्द्रियैर्प्राह्यत्वायीग्यतां प्रत्यक्त्वेनाऽवस्थानं चाह

संदर्श (a) in the range of vision, i.e., in a place which can be seen by the eye (चच्चरादीन्दियें: संदर्शनयोग्ये देशे)।

21. As Thou art free from birth, etc., in this way, therefore, some one (like myself) afraid (of birth, etc.) resorts (to Thee). O Rudra! O Destroyer of pain, always protect me by that face of thine which is benevolent.

NOTES.

This verse and the one following include prayers to God, as freedom from evil and attainment of God depend upon His grace.

इदानों ''तत्प्रसादात् एव इष्टानिष्टप्राप्तिपरिहारों'' इति मत्वा तमेव परमेश्वरं प्रार्थयते मंत्रद्वयैन अपने अजातः—Free from birth, etc. Birth here stands for six kinds of change or evils (a) birth (b) old age (c) death (d) hunger and thirst (e) sorrow (f) ignorance. So अजातः is Vocative Adjective addressed to God, meaning, "Thou art free from all changes and evils, as birth, etc. (जन्मजरा मरयायानापिशासाधोकमोहाल्येः पद्मि वर्जितः यस्मात् त्वम्)।

भोहः-afraid of birth, etc. (जन्मादिभीतः) ।

माहरो। कहिचत् त्वां शरणं प्रपद्यते अन्योऽपि कहिचत् मेक्षार्थं त्वां प्रपद्यते, ब्रहमपि मेक्षार्थं त्वामेव प्रपत्ने ।

Another reading is प्रयो, the meaning of which clearly is "I resort to Thee."

द्वियां benevolent, encouraging, cheering, or capable (दत्र), of destroying the miseries of the world (उत्साहजननं, ध्यातमाहादकरम्, द्वं संसारदुःखदाह-समर्थम् वा)

22. Do not bring destruction on our children, on our sons, on our life, on our cows, and on our horses. Being full of anger, O Rudra, O Destroyer of pain, do not kill our brave (servants), (as) we always invoke Thee with oblations.

NOTES.

This verse contains a prayer to God, for the preservation of all material things as well as human relations, as they assist in the acquirement of true knowledge. Or, just as salvation-seekers pray to Him, in the same way Prosperity-Seekers can also pray to Him, in the manner indicated by this verse.

अस्मान् शिष्य प्रशिष्यान् कार्यकरणानि च सम्यग्हानायोग्यत्वेन मा हिंसी याग्यान्येष कुरु इति ईश्वरं प्रति प्रार्थनामाह । अथवा न केवळं निःश्रेयसार्थिभिरेवाऽसौ प्रार्थ्यः किं सर्हि अभ्युदयार्थिभिरपीत्याह

मामितः—Exasperated, from √ माम, to be angry (कोधितः सन्। भाम कोधे) मावधीः—Do not Destroy. Prohibitive use of the Aorist of √ इन् इविष्मन्तः—full of oblations, with offerings (इविषा युकाः) सदमित् (सदम=सदा, इन्=एवं)=सदैव, always-त्वा=त्वाम् Thee.

हवामहे worship or invoke (यजामहे, आह्वयामहे वा) इति इवेताभ्यतरोपनिषत्सु चतुर्थोऽध्यायः ॥ ४ ॥

Here ends the fourth Chapter.

CHAPTER V. MANTRA V. 1.

The state of the

पञ्चमोऽध्यायः ।

हे श्रचरे ब्रह्मपरे त्वनन्ते विद्याविद्ये निहिते यत्न गृढे। चरं त्वविया द्यमृतं तु विद्या विद्याविद्ये ईशते यस्तु सोऽन्यः॥१॥

1. The two (Ignorance and Knowledge). Ignorance is perishable, while Knowledge is imperishable; and He is different (from both of these) who governs Knowledge and Ignorance, and in whom, the Hidden Being, the Eternal, the Supreme Brahm, and the Infinite, both Knowledge and Ignorance exist.

NOTES.

In this 5th Chapter, the nature of the Jiva or the individual soul. already mentioned in the third Chapter, is described in greater detail.

तत्त्वं पदार्थों तृतीयेऽध्याये निरूपिती यद्यपि तथापि त्वं पदार्थों नात्यन्तं निरूपितः. तदर्थमयं पंचमाऽध्यायः ग्रारभ्यते ॥

This verse distinguishes between Action (for which ignorance or Avidyâ is another word) and Knowledge, The fruits of Actions, religious or moral, are always perishable. They may lead to a temporary Heaven : but Knowledge and Knowledge alone can bring eternal salvation to man. Therefore, the seekers of the Highest Ideal should give up actions, and resort to means for the attainment of Knowledge.

2. (He should be known) who, being One, governs the Causeless Cause, Mâyâ, all the forms, and all the secondary causes, who, at the beginning of creation, nourishes with Sciences the infallibly wise Hiranyagarbha (when) born, and who saw Him being born.

NOTES.

The thoughts expressed in this verse have already been explained in verses 11 and 12, Chapter IV. At the end of this verse "He should be known by Salvation-Seekers" is understood.

(स एव मुमुच्भिरात्मत्वेन ज्ञातव्य इति वाक्यशेषः)

अयोनि वोनिस (a) the causeless cause, Mâyâ (अनादिसिद्धां मायाख्यास्) or वोनि योनि (b) every place (स्थानं स्थानं)

MANTRA V. 3.

एकैकं जालं बहुधा विकुर्वन्नस्मिन् क्षेत्रे संहरत्येष देवः । भूयः सृष्ट्वा पतयस्तथेशः सर्वाधिपत्यं कुरुते महात्मा ॥३॥

3. Having transformed each group (of cause and effect) into various forms (in many ways), this Luminous Being withdraws (them to their) ground—Mâyâ; then again, having created the Lords as before, the Supreme Soul, God, holds supreme sway over all.

NOTES.

This verse describes God as the Creator and Destroyer of all the groups of causes, collectively and individually.

ग्रन्तःकरणसमधिं प्राणसमधिं चक्षुरादिश्वानेंद्रियसमधिं सृष्ट्वा परमेश्वरस्य तत्तदृय्यधीनां स्रष्टुत्वमाह—

जावं-each group of cause and effect, i.e., the groups of the organs of sense, breaths, etc., taken collectively (समष्टिरूपकार्यकारयानि).

विकुर्वन् -- transforming (विविधं कुर्वन्).

4. Just as the Sun, giving light to all the directions, above, below, and the intermediate sides, shines; in the same way, He, the Luminous Being, the Lord of Powers, Adorable, and One (without a second), governs (all) the causes.

NOTES.

This verse speaks of God as Self-Luminous and Controller of All. (परमेश्वरस्य स्वयंप्रकाशवपुष्ट्वं सर्वनियन्तृत्वं चाऽह).

तिर्यक-literally, obliquely,-the intermediate directions, as North-East, etc (प्रदिश:, पार्श्वदिश:)

आजते-shines (दीप्यते)

यदु = यद्वत्-just as.

अनड्वान्-the Sun (like a bull) yoked to the work of supporting the world (अनड्वानाडित्यो जगधकवाहने युक्तत्वात्).

योनिस्बमावान -(a) योनि means cause, स्वभाव means nature or quality. Those which have the characteristic of cause, i.e., "the causes," viz., the five elements, etc. (कारयास्वभावान् कारयाभूतान् प्रयिव्यादीन्)

(b) योनि: also means Mâyâ, the cause of the whole world, and caunara, the substances of the world belonging to Him. So it means, "Mâyâ and substances."

(c) Another important reading is योनिः स्वभावान् । योनिः refers to the Supreme Being Himself, the Cause of the Universe and स्वभावान् means, the substances (ether, etc.) or the nature of substances. So "the Supreme cause, who governs all the substances (and their qualities)." (योनिः सर्वस्वजगते। मुलकारणम् च स्वभावान् वियव्यमुखान् पदार्थसभावान्)

MANTRA V. 5.

यच्च स्वभावं पचति विश्वयोनिः पाच्यांश्च सर्वान्परिणामयेचः। सर्वमेतद्विश्वमधितिष्ठत्येको ग्रणांश्च सर्वान्विनियोजयेचः ॥४॥

5 And (He alone should be known) who develops the nature (of things), who is the cause of the Universe, who transforms all the things requiring development, who, being One (without a second), governs this whole universe, and who unites all the qualities.

NOTES.

This verse speaks of the Supreme Being as a Great Evolving and Progressive force, working out the development of Primary and Secondary causes. At the end of the verse "He alone should be known" is understood; or, the word बद in the beginning of this verse is connected with बद in the next verse. "That being who...develops."

परमेश्वरस्य मूळावन्तरप्रकृतीः प्रति तत्तर्कायोन्मुखत्वेन पाचकत्वं ग्राइ । स एव वेदितव्यो नान्य इति दोषः । ग्रथवा यच्छन्दस्यात्तरमंत्रगतेन तच्छन्देन संबन्धो द्रष्टव्यः ॥

तद्वेद गुद्योपनिषत्सु गृढं तद्वह्या वेदते ब्रह्मयोनिम् । ये पूर्व देवा ऋषयश्च तद्विदुस्ते तन्मया त्रमृता वे बमूवुः ॥६॥

6 He is hidden in the secret Upanisadas of the Vedas; Hiranyagarbha knows Him to be the cause of the Vedas (or of Hiranyagarbha); those, the gods and the sages, who, in former times, knew Him, being identified with Him, became certainly immortal.

NOTES.

This verse speaks of the Supreme Being as an extremely profound object of thought and cites those—the sages and the gods—who knew Him. (परमेश्वरस गुडरवं देवेस विभिन्न सामान्द्रतवमाह)

वेदगुबोपनिषसु-(a) The secret Upanisads of the Vedas, as the Upani-

are a profound portion of the Vedas (बेदानां गुडारेपनिषदः, वेदेषु गुडाा गोप्यत उपनिषदः जहाविद्या)

(b) More profound than the profound Vedas (वेदश्र गुडाश वेदगुयहः तसादपि रहस्वभूतोपनिषस्तु) for उपनिषत् also means mystery or secret (confidential session).

(c) (Hidden) in the Vedas, ceremonial portion of the Aranyakas गुह्य and the Upanisads (the Vedanta) वेदे कर्मभागे यष्टव्यत्वेन गुह्ये आरण्यके डपास्यत्वेन डपनिपसु, वेदान्दोधु गृढ़म् ।

ब-certainly, verily, as is well-known (वे इति शाखादिप्रसिद्धं दर्शयति)

MANTRA V. 7.

गुणान्वयो यः फलकर्मकर्ता कृतस्य तस्यैव स चोपभोक्ता। स विश्वरूपस्तिगुणस्तिवत्मी प्राणाधिपः संचरति स्वकर्मभिः ॥७॥

7 He, who, connected with qualities, performs action for the sake of fruit, is alone the experiencer of the (fruit) of the same action. He, assuming all forms, and having three qualities and three paths, the Master of the breaths, wanders by his own deeds.

NOTES.

The last verses have described the Supreme Being, on the knowledge whereof the welfare of the individual soul depends. This and the following verses describe the nature of the individual soul, —the special subject of this Chapter. (द्वानीं ययुरुषार्थसिद्धये ईश्वरस्वरूपं निरूपितं तं जीवं वयर्थयितुम् इतरे मंत्राः प्रस्तुयन्ते)

This 7th verse indicates that action and experience of its fruit are not the essential qualities of the individual soul, but that these qualities are due to the obstruction caused by that soul's connection with the body, the organs of sense, and other qualities, Sattva, Rajas, &c.—the creations of Mâyâ.

जीवस्य कर्त्त्वभोक्तृत्वादिसंसारः स्वाभाविको न भवति किंतु देहेन्द्रियाद्यु-पाधिकत इत्याह ।

CHAPTER V. 8.

A fruit (wanties whu: wai gunes:) shows the cause of ction, and means, "whose connection (ures:) is with the qualities called we, we, and we.". A little of Rajas, mixed with a predominance of Sattva, leads to actions for the sake of knowledge or salvation. A little of Sattva, mixed with a predominance of Rajas, leads to actions, for the sake of (temporary Heaven.) A little of Rajas, mixed with a predominance of Tamas, leads to actions, the fruit whereof is Hell.

गुणान्वयः सत्त्वरजस्तम आख्येगुं णैरन्वये। यस्य सगुणान्वयः। ईषद्रज्ञेन्वित सरवगुणपरवद्यः सन् ज्ञानद्वारेण मोक्षार्थं कर्म करोति। ईषत्सत्त्वान्वित रज्ञोगुणपरवद्यः सन् स्वर्गीदिफलसाधनं कर्म करोति। ईषद्रजेन्वित तमागुणपरवद्यः सन् नरकादिसाधनं कर्म करोति॥

इतस्य तस्यैव—तस्यैव qualifies इत्तस्य = कर्मयाः after which फलस्य is understood. Experiencer of the fruit of the same action (स्वकृतस्य तस्यैव कर्मयाः फलस्य)

च = प्रa alone (He alone) स प्रa !

विश्वरूपः-Having many forms (नानारूपः)

त्रिवत्मा-Having three paths (त्रिमार्गः) fully explained in I. 4.

प्राणाधिपः----the Master of the breaths and the organs of sense (पंचवूत्ते-मु क्य प्राणस्य करणाक्ष्येतर प्राणानां चाचिपः स्वामी)

संचरति—wanders in this and other worlds. The Vedic peculiarity here is the use of Parasmaipada, instead of Åtmanepada (for the rule is that the $\sqrt{\exists \mathbf{q}}$ with सम, when connected with a word in the instrumental case, always gets the Åtmanepada terminations) इह बोके परबोके च संचरति संचरते परिअमति । ज्ञान्दसं परस्मेपदम् । (समस्तृतीयायुकात्) रथेनसंचरते ।

MANTRA V. 8.

त्रंगुष्ठमात्रो रवितुल्यरूपः संकल्पाहंकारसमन्वितो यः । बुद्धेर्गुर्णनात्मगुर्णेन चैव त्राराग्रमात्रोऽप्यपरोऽपि दृष्टः ॥⊏॥

8 The lower self, which, about the size of a thumb, and luminous like the sun, is connected with desire and egoism, is also known to be about the size of a probe's edge, on account of the quality of Reason and the quality of the Soul.

NOTES.

This verse also indicates the essential as well as the phenomenal (apparent) attributes of the individual soul. The essential attributes mentioned are the self-luminous nature and "the quality of the Soul," i.e.

pure consciousness. The phenomenal or apparent attributes are due to the super-imposition of Reason—the home of desires and the creation of Mâyâ (also called the inner organ or अन्तःकरण) upon the true, pure consciousness, the Soul. So, essentially, the individual soul is identical with the Self-Luminous Brahm जीवत्य जीवत्यस्य दुद्ध्याधुपाधि—आरोपेण आभासस्व काताज्ञातत्वया सर्वसाजित्यात् स्वयंग्रकाशस्यं चाह ।

अंगुष्टमात्र:-Explained in III. 13.

रवितुल्यस्य:—Luminous like the Sun. This expression indicates the essentially divine nature of the Self. Just as the Supreme Being is Self-Luminous like the Sun, in the same way is the individual soul essentially Self-Luminous like the Supreme Being रवितुल्यस्पः स्वयंप्रकाशः उपोतिः स्वस्पः । Now, in what way can the individual soul be called Self-Luminous? In the sense of being the witness of knowledge and ignorance, i.e., he knows that he knows something, and also knows that he does not know some other things. So he has a knowledge of knowledge as well as a knowledge of ignorance.

रवितुत्यरूप "इदं जानामि" इति वाततया "तद्तिरिक्तं सर्वं न जानामि" इति ग्रहाततया च वातूवानवेयादि सर्वस्य साक्षित्वात् स्वयंप्रकाशरूपः॥

संकल्पाइंकारसमन्वितः--Connected with (or full of) desire (संकल्प). The operations of the mind ("may I get this") and egoism. These are the apparent or phenomenal attributes.

(संकल्पो मनसो ज्यापारः) मनेारथः (इदं मे स्यादितिरूपः) बुद्धेगु र्यान-(a) the quality of Reason or inner organ-desire, &c. बुद्धेः अन्तःकारयस्य गुयाः कामादिः

(b) the quality of the subtle body, finiteness, division, &c. (बुद्धेलिंग शरीरस्य गुयोन परिच्छेदभेदादिना)

These also are the apparent or phenomenal qualities of the individual soul.

unruguin-By the quality of the Soul, i.e., the Supreme Being. This essential divine attribute is Self-Consciousness.

(स्वरूपसूतविद्गुरोन) This quality and expression should be connected with रह: ॥ The nature of the individual soul is revealed only by self-consciousness, and not by any other method. (स्वरूपसूतविद्गुरोनेव रष्टः नाउन्येनेव रष्टः प्रकाशितः) आराजमात्रः — आरः or आरं = a probe or a pricking instrument. आ means edge. The edge of a probe is very fine. So the size of the individual soul is very minute. Now, what makes this size so minute? Connection with the Buddhi, or reason, the lower consciousness, which is so narrow in scope. जा प्रतादः (pricking instrument) तद्ग्रपरिमागः । बुद्धिधर्म परिच्छेदेनैव आराग्रमात्रो न स्वतः ।

अपर:---The lower Self. अवर: is another reading, meaning the same thing. आपि to be connected with आराग्रमात्र: (अपे: आराग्रमात्रेयाऽन्वयः)

MANTRA V. 9.

वालाग्रशतभागस्य शतधा कल्पितस्य च । भागो जीवः स विज्ञेयः स चानन्त्याय कल्प्यते ॥६॥

9. When the one-hundredth part of the edge of a hair is (further) divided (in imagination) into one-hundred sub-portions, the individual soul should be known to be as minute as that sub-portion, and it (the Soul) is capable of Infinity.

NOTES.

This verse is a further explanation of both the sides of the individual soul, phenomenal as well as essential. The phenomenal, owing to the obstruction caused by ignorance, &c., is very minute and narrow; while the essential aspect is fit for Infinity, i.e., is the Supreme Being Himself—One, without a second.

(श्रविद्याद्युपाधिकत्वात् जीवस्य तस्वोक्तपरिच्छेदस्य श्रोपाधिकत्वेन आभासत्वं स्वतोऽ द्वितीयत्वं चाह)

वालामशतभागस्य-Of the hundredth part of the edge of a hair (वालाप्रस्य यः शततमो भागः तस्य)

शतधा कलिपतस्य च-further divided into one hundred sub-portions in imagination (कलिपत), because actually it cannot be divided. So the individual soul is as minute as the one hundredth portion of the edge of a hair.

केराशतांशशतांशः कतु मशक्यः, तथापि तं मनसा परिकल्प्य तद्वत् जीवेाऽतिसूक्ष्मः)

च-used for emphasis (अवधारगे) (धानन्त्याय) धानन्त्याय-For infinity, for being Brahm, i.e., essentially it is only the Supreme Being, the One, without a second (ब्रह्मसावाय, स्वरूपेग्रऽद्वितीय एव)

कल्पते-is fit for, capable of (समर्थ:)

MANTRA V. 10.

नैव स्त्री न पुमानेष न चैवायं नपुंसकः । यद्यच्छरीरमादत्ते तेन तेन स रक्ष्यते ॥१०॥

10. It is neither woman, nor is it man, nor is it neuter (hermaphrodite). It is influenced (or connected, bound) by whatever particular body it takes.

NOTES.

This verse points out that the sexual or non-sexual qualities do not essentially form part of the nature of the soul. These qualities are physical, and the individual soul attributes these to itself owing to ignorance.

जीवस्य स्वतः स्थूलदेहतद्वर्मशून्यत्वं स्वाविद्यया स्थूलदेहोपाधिकत्वं तत्तद्धर्म-भाकत्वं चाह ।

नपुंसनः-A hermaphrodite (neither man nor woman).

रङ्यते—is influenced (attributes those qualities to itself). Another reading is युज्यते—is bound or connected रक्ष्यते संरक्ष्यते तत्तद्धर्मान् आरमनिऽध्ययाभि-मन्यते । युज्यते—संवध्यते ।

MANTRA V. 11.

संकल्पनस्पर्शनदृष्टिमोहेर्प्रासांबुवृष्टयात्मविवृद्धजन्म । कर्मा-नुगान्यनुक्रमेण देही स्थानेषु रूपाग्यभिसंप्रपद्यते ॥११॥

11. The growth and birth of the individual soul are produced by (depend upon) feeling, contact, sight, attachment (or ceremonial sacrifice), as well as by the gift (showering) of food and water. The individual soul successively attains forms in bodies, in accordance with its actions.

NOTES.

This verse describes in detail the causes of the soul's journey in the world in various bodies.

केन तहाँसो शरीराणि आदत्ते इति आत्मनः कतृत्वादिसंसारधर्मभाक्ते निमित्तमाह । संकल्पनं—The first cause of the attainment of good or bad bodies is feeling or desire (संकल्प). Bad feelings (or desires) lead to bad births, and good feelings to good births. The radical cause of the bondage to births, good or bad, therefore, is feeling or desire. A similar thought is expressed in the Gita—"आगरते विषयान् पुँसः संगस्तेपुरानायते" &c.

(संकल्पनं मनसे। व्यापारः इष्टानिष्टविषयः, पुण्यहेतुः पापहेतुनी)

प्रयोत-is the contact (संग) with, or attainment of, external things. This is the next stage. When the mind has been longingly thinking of some external thing, it generally happens that the thing is actually at tracted to the Soul. Now, contact, similarly, may be good or bad, according to the nature of the things, and so will be the birth, &c., resulting therefrom (स्पर्शनं बाहयविषये।पलग्भः, स्वगिन्द्रियव्यापार: पुण्यहेतुः पापहेतुवी)

दष्टि—The sight of the same external thing. It is a Psychological fact that in the Process of our cognition of the external world, touch precedes sight. This sight, similarly, may be good or bad (दष्टि: द्वरांन चचुन्यांपार: पुण्यहेतु: पापहेतुवाँ)

मोह:---Attachment, good or bad. Another reading is होने:----the ceremonial हवन, which may be good, as Agnihôtra, &c., and bad, if performed for magical or malicious purposes (in general any manual action or physical deed).

This stands for other external actions done by other organs also.

होमे। हस्तव्यापारोऽझिहात्राविहोमः पुण्यहेतु भवति । अभिचारादिहामः पापहेतुः । इतरेन्द्रिय व्यापाराणामपि डपठक्षणमेतत् ॥

प्रासाम्बुबुष्ट्या च (a) ग्रास (literally, morsel), means food. ज्ञम्बु water. By the showering or giving of food and of water. This charity may be good or misguided.

प्रासवृष्टत्रा अम्बुवृष्टत्रा च । प्रासोऽन्नम् । अम्बुवृष्टिः उद्दकदानं, याग्यायाग्येषु दानात् पुण्यहेतुः पापहेतुर्चा ॥

(b) food, water, and removal of pain or pleasure (312, from / and to cut).

प्रासः, ग्रम्बु, तथा दृष्टिः—ग्रथीनर्थोच्छेदनम् ग्रनर्थवतामनर्धोच्छेदनं पुण्यहेतुः । ग्रथवतामर्थोच्छेदनं पापहेतुः

(c) Or, Sankaracharya combines प्राराम्य उष्टया with धारमयुद्धिजन्म as an analogy. Just as the growth of the body (धारमन्) depends upon food and water; in the same way does the soul attain different bodies, in accordance with actions.

तत्र दृष्टान्तमाह-प्रासाम्बुनाेः ग्रन्नपानयाेः वृष्टिः ग्रासेचनं निदानमात्मनः शरीरस्य वृद्धिर्जायते यथा तहत् इत्यर्थः ।

आत्मविशृद्धिजनम—the birth and growth of the individual soul. The word "growth" is significant and stands for other changes, as decay, old age, &c., also. (आत्मनः विशृद्धिश्च जन्म च विशृद्धयादीतरभावविकारश्च भवति । विशृद्धिति उपलचयाम्)

कमौचुगानि-according to actions. This and the following words of the same verse are an explanation of the first half in easier style.

(इममेवार्धं स्पष्टतया व्यावर्णयति-कर्मानुगानि कर्मानुसारीणि)

अनुकमेया-कम means order. अनु = following (every action) successively. (अनुक्रमेया अनुकर्मपाकम अनुसरय कमेया)

रही-the individual soul characterized by the subtle body (देही-चिंगारारीरोगाधिक आरमा)

स्यानेषु---in positions or bodies, as of Gods, men, animals (देवतियंड्म-व्यसिसंप्रपचते-attains (all the (organs of sense, &c.) collective and individual forms.

12 The individual soul accepts many (bodily) forms, gross and delicate, by its own qualities, by the qualities of its actions, and by the qualities of its thoughts; another cause, also, of their combination has been seen.

NOTES.

This verse particularizes the forms mentioned in the above verse.

(रूपाणि अभिसंप्रपचते इत्युक्तं कानि तानि इत्यत आह)

स्यूलानि-(a) gross, as of stones, or even those in which earthly element is predominant.

(b) large, as of elephants, &c.

अपर:--Another, i.e., Previous Consciousness, i.e., wisdom acquired in the Previous birth. The cause of a particular birth is not simply the qualities of knowledge and actions possessed immediately by the deceased spirit, but also the nature of the mind or consciousness in the previous birth. It is an allusion to a statement common among the Upanisads that the form of a particular birth depends upon the present (1) knowledge (निया) (2) actions (कमें) and (3) the nature of mind or mental calibre in the previous birth (प्रवेषजा)

NOTES.

This verse has already been translated and annotated in VI. 14, except that, instead of "minuter than the minute," translate "without beginning and without end."

In the above verses, the causes and forms of the soul's imprisonment and journey in the world have been described. This verse points out the way of the soul's salvation.

NOTES.

This verse, in conclusion, briefly describes the Chief End and its means. (इदानी संचेपेय डरामयुपाययुपेर्य चेपसंहरति)। wanter -- sign = to be attained or grasped.

भावः-purified heart. (परिश्रदान्तःकरणप्राह्म)।

भ्रनीहाल्यम्-(a) नीड means place, support, receptacle or body. आख्या means name or spoken of in the Upanisadas as "whose name is Bodiless" or "who is called as having no body or support."

(b) who is without place or body (नीड) and without name (आख्या)

CHAPTER VI.

षष्ठोऽध्यायः ॥६॥

MANTRA VI. 1.

स्वभावमेके कवयो वदन्ति कालं तथान्ये परिमुह्यमानाः । देवस्येष महिमा तु लोके येनेदं भ्राम्यते ब्रह्मचकम् ॥१॥

1. Some wise men speak of Nature (of things) as the (cause of the Universe); others, being full of delusion, speak of Time (as the cause); but it is the greatness of the Luminous Being in this world by which the wheel of Brahm (or the Universe) is revolved.

OTES.

In the previous Chapters the dependence of self-control, &c., on the grace of God and the need of prayer have been pointed out. The attributes of God, therefore, whose grace has been so much glorified, and prayer to whom so much emphasized, are the most important subjects which a salvation-seeker likes to know. This Chapter, therefore, first rejecting the other imaginary causes of the Universe, describes in detail the attributes of the Supreme Being. Although this subject has been already dealt with in the previous Chapters, yet this subject being profound, requires fuller explanation, which is given herein.

धातुप्रसादे।पाये। धातुः प्रार्थनादिकं च दर्शितम् । ततः कस्यचिद्धातुः प्रसादे। मया संपादनीय इति अधिकारिणमवले।क्य श्रुतिः कालादिपक्षान् पूर्वपक्षीकृत्य ज्ञानन्दा-त्मानं फलरूपं प्रतिपादयितुम् अन्तिममध्यायमारभते । यद्यप्ययं ज्रर्थः प्रथमेऽध्याये उक्तः तथापि तद्व्याख्यानत्वादुत्तरस्य सर्वस्य ततः पुनरमिधानं न देगपाय ॥

स्वभाव---The nature of things (already explained in I. 2). This stands for all other non-Vedic theories, i.e., theories propounded by those who do not believe in the Vedas. (स्वभावमिति वेदवाडावगरकारयावादानाम् अपलज्याम्).

कवयः-Literally speakers, (from √क to speak), wise men. (बकारः, सेघा-विनः कुशाव्दे)।

माम्यते ब्रह्मचक्रम्-Explained in I. 6.

येनावृतं नित्यमिदं हि सर्वं ज्ञः कालकारो गुग्गी सर्वविद्यः । तेनेशितं कर्म विवर्ततेह पृथ्व्याप्यतेजोऽनिलखानि चिन्त्यम् ॥२॥

2. Governed by Him who always pervades this whole (world), who is consciousness itself, the Creator of Time, possessing faultless qualities, and Omniscient, the world of effects (as is well-known) assumes different forms (of) Ether, Air, Fire, Water and Earth—this should be considered (by seekers after the Trutb).

NOTES.

This verse emphatically declares that the Omniscient God alone is the Supreme cause of the world, and that the so-called causes of the world (ether, heat, &c.) are merely the different forms of effects produced by the operation of Mâyâ and its Lord.

परप्रेश्वरस्यैव सर्वव्यापकत्वेन ज्ञातृत्वं सर्वस्नष्टृत्वं नान्यस्य इत्याह । लोके कारख-त्वेन प्रसिद्धानां चादिप्रसिद्धानां च कारखानां सर्वेषां मायोपाधिकपप्रेश्वर विचर्तत्वमेष न तु स्वातंत्र्यमिति चिन्त्यं परीक्षकैरिति वाक्यशेषः ॥

आवृतं-Encompassed, pervaded (व्यासम्) ।

ज्ञ:-Consciousness itself (बाधस्वरूपः) ।

इालकार:--Creator of Time. Another reading is "कालकालः" The Governor or Destroyer of Time. (कालस्यापि कालो नियन्ता उपहत्तां च)।

गुग्री-Having faultless qualities, as sinlessness, &c., or having the quality of Power in the form of Mâyâ. (गुग्री अपहतपाप्मत्वादिगुग्राको मायाशक्तिगुगाके वा)।

सर्वविद्यः---Omniscient or the Lord of all sciences. (सर्व जानातीति, "सर्वा विद्या आरुग" इति वा) ।

कर्म-The world of effects; literally, that which is made. कार्यजातं, जगत, कियते इति कमें।

Agaid assumes many forms. The word Agai is significant. It means unreal change, just as gold when formed into different ornaments is said to have changed. Really the gold has not changed. So all phenomena present unreal changes to the true thinker, and the world is also called a fact of the true Reality Brahm. The world assumes different forms by the Mâyâ or Power of the Lord.

CHAPTER VI, 2, 3.

विवर्तते नानारूपं भवति । विवर्तते इत्यनेन खर्वोऽपि प्रपंचेा विवर्तात्मक इत्युक्तं भवति । ग्रतात्त्विको ग्रन्यथाभावेा विवर्तः । साक्षात् वा परम्परया वा ब्रह्मण एव सर्वः प्रपंचेा विवर्त इत्याह ॥

प्रयिव्यसेनेाऽनिवासानि—These should be translated in the real order of their creation—ether, air, fire, water and earth. Now these are the original forms or चिवतेंs. Or, the grammatical connection is - (प्रविध्यसेन &c. standing in apposition with कमें) "The effect called ether assumes different forms under the control of God" and so on.

विवर्तरूपाण्याह—पृथ्वीति—पृथिव्यादिरूपं अवति । ग्रथवा ईश्वरमायया आका-ग्राख्यं कर्म विवर्तते । तता वायुस्तता तेज इत्यादि चिंत्यम ॥

ह = as is well-known (ह इति प्रसिद्धों)।

चिंद्यम — This should be considered by the Seekers after the Truth. That is, the true process of causes is in the manner indicated above, and thinkers should follow this process while meditating on causality. Other so called independent causes are only subject to the Supreme Being. (चिंन्तनीयं चिन्दाई - ईथरपरीज केंदिति योप:) |

MANTRA VI. 8

तत्कर्म कृत्वा विनिवर्त्य भूयस्तत्त्वस्य तत्त्वेन समेत्य योगम्। एकेन द्राभ्यां त्रिभिरष्टभिर्वा कालेन चेवात्मगुर्गेश्च सूक्ष्मेः ॥३॥

3. Having done His work, having renounced (all attachment to) works, and then having brought about the communion of the individual soul with the Supreme Soul, (one gets salvation) by means of one, two, three or eight, and by (the lapse of) Time, as well as by the subtle spiritual (moral) qualifications.

Or,

Having created that world of (original) effects, having looked at (them), and having brought about the combination of the individual soul with (various) substances, either with one, two, three or eight, and with Time, as well as with the subtle qualifications of the mind (the Creator completed the Creation).

SVETAŠVATARA UPANISAD.

This verse has been quite differently interpreted. According to the majority of commentators, it describes the process of the attainment of true knowledge and salvation resulting therefrom. According to Sankar acharya, however, this verse describes the evolution of original effects (the five elements, &c.) in the process of creation and their grouping into various combinations, as the verse repeats the "क्रम्मे" referred to in the 2nd verse, which undoubtedly deals with creation. (सम्याज्ञानप्रकारमाइ (b) तत चिन्द्यम् इति प्रपंचयति) !

तकर्म (a) God's works performed for the sake of pleasing God. The performance of religious acts like जोतिष्टोम, &c. (तत्कर्म तदर्थ ईश्वरसमाराधनार्थ कर्म ड्योतिष्टोमादि)।

(b) (The world of various original effects as the five elements) (प्रधिव्यादि).

हत्वा-(a) Having performed (अनुष्टाय)।

(b) Having created (agi)!

विनिर्वत्य---(a) Having thoroughly renounced (all attachment to) works or controlled the mind. (सर्वकर्म संन्यासं कृत्वा, विशेषेयानिवृत्तिं कृत्वा वा)।

(b) Having looked beforehand at the world to be created (प्रखवेचणं कृत्वा).

तत्वस्य तत्त्वेन---(a) तत्त्वस्य = of the individual soul (in both the interpretations) तत्त्वेन with the Supreme Soul. (त्व पदार्थस्य तत्पदार्थेन) |

(b) Of the individual soul with the five elements (तत्त्वेन अम्यादिना)

समेल योगम -(a) Having brought about union or communion in the form of unity or identity (ऐक्यजज्ञ यों येगां सम्यक भाष्य)।

(b) Having combined (संगमच्य) ।

पुक्रेन-(1) With the 1st interpretation, पुक्रेन, &c., have two meanings (a) the communion is obtained either in the course of one life, or two or three or eight (पुक्रेन जन्मना कश्चित् द्वयादिभिजेन्मसिरप्टपर्यन्तैः)।

(b) पुढेन = devotion to the Guru. द्वाभ्यास = devotion to Guru and to God. जिभिः--the three spiritual systems or stages hearing, reflecting, and repeating. ज्ञष्टभिः--the eight elements of Yoga व्यमनियम, &c.

पकेन गुरूपसदनेन, द्वाभ्यां गुरुभक्तीश्वरभक्तिभ्यां, त्रिभिः अवण्यमनननिद्ध्या-सनैः, ग्रष्टभिः, यमनियम-ग्रासन प्राणायाम प्रत्याहार धारणाध्यानसमाधिभिः ॥

(2) Or, with Sankaracharya's interpretation, एकेन, &c., means the various combinations of the different elements, एकेन = प्रविच्या, while the "eight" are (1) the five elements, (2) mind and Buddhi, (3) Ego.

कालेन-By the lapse of time. In this or the next birth (इह जन्मनि जन्मान्तरे वा)--(combination) with time.

आत्मगुर्योः---(a) Moral qualities as kindness, forbearance, &c. (दयाजान्ति शौचादिभिः)।

(b) Mental qualifications (of the mind) as desires, &c. (अन्तः करवगुर्यः कामादिसिः)।

MANTRA VI. 4.

श्रारभ्य कर्माणि गुणान्वितानि भावांश्च सर्वान्विनियो-जयेयः । तेषामभावे कृतकर्मनाशः कर्मचये याति स तत्त्व-तोऽन्यः ॥४॥

4. At the non-existence of (the things of the world) there will be destruction of (all) the performed actions of him, who, having performed deeds of godly merit absorbs all (created) things into (their final cause). At the destruction of (those) actions, he goes (quite a divine being) different essentially from matter and material things.

NOTES.

This verse further describes the process of meditation and Samadhi —the means of True Knowledge and Divinity. The process of Samadhi consists in tracing back all the worldly phenomena and effects to their True and Primary Cause—the Supreme Being. The mind goes on absorbing the gross effects into the Subtle Causes, e.g., the world into five elements, these into Mâyâ, and Mâyâ into Brahm. When the one true existence has been realized, separate existences vanish away, and Divinity is realized.

5. He has been realized as the Original Cause (of all); the cause of the causes of (bodily) attainment, beyond the three-fold time, and also independent of (the sixteen) powers. (He goes) having worshipped Him, having many forms, the cause of all existence, the True, Praiseworthy. Luminous and already situated in his (the worshipper's heart).

NOTES.

आदिः-The cause of all (सर्वस्य कारणम्) ।

संदेशनविभित्तहेतु: -(a) संदेशन is the attainment of different bodies, connection with various physical forms. चिभिन्न means the causes of that attainment or connection. Now it is well-known that the causes of good or bad bodies are good or bad deeds performed by the individual soul. हेतु means the cause. God is said to be the cause of a man's good or bad deeds, i.e., He is said to stimulate men to good or bad actions. So it really means, He who stimulates men to good or bad actions, which are the causes of the attainment of various bodies.

(b) संदेशन also may mean union with the Supreme Being, and in this case the expression will mean "the cause of the causes of union with the Supreme Being."

(c) The cause of bodily connections (or connection with Avidya is also said to be Mâya and so the Supreme being is the cause of Mâya, which Mâya is the cause of bodily connections.

(d) The causes of connection or combination are nature, time, &c., and the Supreme Being is the cause of all these causes of connection.

This verse describes the worship of God as a means of true knowledge (सम्यग्ज्ञानसिद्धवर्धं परमेश्वरोपासनमाह)।

पूर्वं स्वचित्तस्यम्—Already present in his (the worshipper's) heart (पूर्वमेव तसिन् प्रसन्तया स्थितम्)

डपास्य after this याति of the above verse, or चिदाम of the 7th verse is understood. (याति इति पूर्वत्र संयन्धः । "विदाम" इति परत्र वा)।

ईवतायाम्-The Great gods or governors-refers to Brahma, Visnu and Siva. (व्रह्म विष्णुरुद्रायाम्)।

परसात्-Beyond Mâyâ and its creatures (प्रकृति माकृतेभ्यः परस्तात्-आविधायाः परतः)।

विदास—This word has two-fold meaning. (a) It may be parsed as an imperative mood and in that case the verse becomes a prayer to the Almighty for knowledge. (b) It can be parsed as imperative mood in the sense of the Present Tense. Here the Author gives expression to his own experience that he knows the Supreme Being. The lack of Guna in a creation is due to peculiarity of Vedic Grammar.

8. His body or organ does not exist; His equal or superior has not been seen; His supreme power has been heard to be varied; and his knowledge, power and action (are) natural.

NOTES.

This verse points out the Perfect Freedom of God, His absolute independence of means and motives, as well as of the body and its organs. परमेश्वरस्य नैरपेक्ष्यसाह । त्यक्तसर्वपरिच्छेदा जनन्तसत्ता ईश्यरस्य स्वामाविकी न जन्यायत्ता ॥

स्वाभाविकी-Natural, inherent from Eternity, not received accidently from outside, not depending on any organ (अनगन्तुका, अनादिसिद्धा) (अनगवत्ता)।

ज्ञानवककिया च-This expression, being a collective compound, should have been in the Neuter Gender; but it is retained in the feminine owing to peculiarity of Vedic Grammar. This expression has been variously interpreted :--

(a) Knowledge, power (of control) and action (of changing the different qualities).

(b) The movement of knowledge and the movement of power,

9. In this world there does not exist any Lord of His, nor any Governor, nor (there is) any characteristic proof of His (existence); He is the Cause, the Lord of the guardiandeities of organs; (there does not exist) any Creator or Superintendent of His.

NOTES.

The eighth verse has scope for an objection. The Lords of Power (mentioned in the 8th verse) as Prajapati, &c., have a Superintendent Hiranyagarbha over them. Similarly there may be a Superintendent of God. This verse is an answer to this probable objection. No such Superintendent of God exists. ननु शक्तिसतां प्रजापतीनां द्यादीनां पतिर्हिरण्यगर्भो दृष्ट: सहदरयापि स्यादित्यत आह ॥ fein - (a) This word literally means a symbol or sign, a characteristic and inseparable attribute which may suggest the existence of its possessor. Now God is really unqualified, therefore no quality can be a proof of his characteristic existence. Again, by the inferential or inductive method, some cause is no doubt inferred from this world which apparently and clearly is an effect, but the nature of the cause cannot be inferred, so a characteristic proof is wanting. Only the Vedas give us the characteristic nature of God.

(b) लिंग also means the body, literally, that which goes (लिंग्यले गम्यतेऽनेन इति शरीरीसित्यर्थः)।

With this sense, the expression means, "Lord of the individual soul."

एको देवः सर्वभूतेषु गूढः सर्वव्यापी सर्वभूतान्तरात्मा । कर्माध्यत्तः सर्वभूताधिवासः साक्षी चेता केवलो निर्गुणश्च ॥११॥

11. There is one Self-Luminous Being, hidden in all creatures, pervading all, the inner soul of all, the Superintendent of actions, living in all creatures, direct seer, conscious without (organs, &c.) and free from any quality.

NOTES.

This verse very elaborately lays down the Vedantic theory of the Soul, refuting or rejecting the counter-theories and objections.

एक:-One. The Vedantic theory of the soul is that it is one and thus excludes the theory of Nyâya and Sânkhya which believe in many souls. (आयमभेद निराकरोति एकेति)।

देव:---Self-Luminous or animate. Some philosophers, as the materialists, believe in the soul as merely inanimate or essentially unconscious. The Vedanta rejects the theory and lays down that the soul is all animate and conscious ("आरमाजड्समाव" इति निराकरोति)।

सर्वभूतेषु गुड़:-Hidden in all creatures. This is a reply to those who ask why, then the self-Luminous soul is not seen-the reply is--that it is hidden from ordinary human observation by the veil of Mâyâ, though it is certainly present in all creatures. स्वयंप्रकाशरचेत कयं न भातीत्यत याह सर्वभूतेति । existing Now the next objection arises. Granted that the soul is hidden in all creatures, but it may be so like thread in the pearls of a garland, and thus may be divided into limited portions like that thread (which is excluded by the pearls). The answer is, the Soul is "All-pervading." No doubt the thread becomes limited, because it does not pervade every portion of the pearl; the Soul, however, is unlimited because it thoroughly pervades all things.

मणिषु स्त्रवत्सर्वभूतादेरैकदेशवर्तित्वेन ग्रात्मनस्तैगूढत्वाभ्युपगमे परिच्छिन्न-त्वादिदेाषाः प्राप्नुयुरिस्तत्वाह ॥ and an anter Now arises another objection. Granted that the Soul "pervades all things," even then the Unity so emphatically laid down by Vedanta breaks down, for the Vedanta believes in and teaches only one

CHAPTER VI, 11.

Existence, the Soul; while "pervades all things" shows that there are at least two existences—the Pervader and the things pervaded. The reply is "सर्वभूतान्सराज्या He is the Soul, the essence, the inner Reality of all things. The "thingness" of those things is not a separate, independent entity, this "thingness" is the Soul itself. For the soul, pervading all things, exists also as the soul or real nature (स्वरूप) of those things.

तर्हि व्याप्यव्यापकसेदवरवात् आत्मनः सद्वितीयत्वं प्राप्नेतित्यत आह— सर्वभूतेति । सर्वभूतानामन्तः स्थितः सन् आत्मत्वेन स्वरूपत्येन वर्तमान इति सर्वभूतांतरात्मा इत्युच्यते ॥

• कर्माच्यवः — The above expression "सर्वभूतान्तरास्मा" suggests another objection. If the Supreme Soul is the soul or reality of particular creatures also, it must undergo the pain and pleasures of those creatures also. The reply is, no !, because the soul is "कर्माच्यवः" superintendent of actions and their fruits. All Actions and their fruits (pleasure and pain) are the work of Mâyâ and the soul stands as only the superintendent of those fruits, &c.

ननु तथा चेत् सुबादुःखयेार्भोक्ता संसार्येवायमित्यत प्राह—कमीध्यक्षः । कर्मखां राभाराभफळानां धर्माधर्मरूपाणामध्यक्षो नियन्ता ।

सर्वभूताधिवास: — The above expression "कार्यवः" suggests another great objection. Granted that the Soul is the mere Superintendent of pain and pleasure, he becomes an absentee soul quite aloof from the Universe, as is believed by the Mâya Philosophy. The reply is, no! because the soul is "सर्वभूताधिवास:" living in all creatures as their essence,

तथा चेत् नैयायिकाद्यभिमतः तटस्थएवाऽयम् इत्यत ग्राह सर्वभूताधिवासः । सर्वाणि भूतानि ग्रात्मत्वेन ग्राविकृत्य वस्रतीति सर्वभूताधिवासः सर्वात्मस्वरूप इत्यर्थः ।

Another objection arises to the "Essence living in all." If he is not an absentee soul, and is on the other hand, the soul of all, then he must undergo pleasure and pain and say "I am happy" "I am the doer", &c. The reply is, no. The Soul is the direct seer of all those feelings which arise in the human mind. It is an interested (though not attached) "Eye-witness."

नजु सर्वात्मा चेत् ''ग्रयमहं कर्ता मेका'' इत्यादि प्रत्ययेरजुसूयमानः कथं स्वयं-प्रकाशः स्यात् इत्यत ग्राह—''ग्रहं सुखी दुःखी इत्यादि प्रत्ययानां साझात् द्रष्टा स्वयमन्यः सुबदुःखरहितः ''॥ have eyes to see; the reply is, no, for it is conscious (चेता) without having any organs, &c.

केवल = only; free from all dependence on other things.

(नजु साची चेत् करयादिमानपि स्यादित्यत आह । चेता केवलः बोद्धा एव न तु श-रीरादिमान्) ।

Augureen-Now comes another objection from the Nyâya Philosophy. If the Supreme Soul is the knower or a conscious Being, you believe in the possessor of the qualification called "consciousness"—a separate entity; (for the Nyâya Philosophy believes in consciousness as a separate entity from the knower). The reply is, no, because the Supreme Soul is without any quality. Strictly speaking, the Supreme Soul is not "conscious," but consciousness. The quality and its possessor are one and the same thing, only different ways of looking at it.

12. He is the one Controller of Actionless Beings, who shapes one germ (of Mâyâ) into many forms; those wise men who see Him present in the Reason,—theirs is eternal happiness—and not of others.

NOTES.

In this verse the fruit of the realization of Unity has been mentioned. The advantage of realizing the Unity of the Supreme Soul as described in the 11th verse is eternal happiness. (नजु एके।ऽय' देवेा यैज्ञांतः तेषां का जाम इतरेषां च का हानिरिवल आह)

13. He who, being One, creates the means of enjoyment (for) the many, is the Eternal of the Eternals, and the Intelligent of the Intelligents; having known that cause, knowable by knowledge (Sâńkhya) and self-control (Yoga) (a man) is released from all bonds.

NOTES.

In this verse, as Prof. MacDonnell holds, there is an attempt to harmonize the Sâńkhya, Yoga and the Vedânta Philosophy with one another, as there is mention of ateu and Yoga in the verse. The Vedantist commentators, however, do not hold this view, and they interpret ateu and an as knowledge and self-control respectively.

This verse has been variously read by different commentators. Some read it as follows :---

''नित्यो......कामान् । तमात्मस्थं येऽनुपश्यन्ति धीराः तेषां शान्तिः शाश्वती नैतरेपाम् । तदेतदिति मन्यन्ते निर्देश्यं परमं लुखम् । कथं जु तब्रिजानीयां किमु भाति न भाति वा तत्कारणं सांख्ययागाधिगम्यं.बात्वा देवं मुच्यते सर्वपादीः ।

14. Neither the sun shines there, nor the moon and the stars, nor these lightnings, (then) how this fire? Everything shines after His shining; (in short) this whole world shines by His light.

NOTES.

This verse has two-fold signification. In the first place, it points out that God is Self-Luminous and quite independent of any external light. Moreover, nothing external can reveal Him. Being Self-Luminous, He can reveal to man only by Himself. Secondly, in continuation of the last verse where God is spoken of as the Eternal of the Eternals; in this verse He is described as the Light of all Lights, thus (He is Self-Luminous and Illuminator) of all.

NOTES.

In the 13th verse it has been pointed out that man is released from all bonds by knowing God. This verse explains why this release is effected by knowing God alone.

There is also an allusion to the swan who lives in the lake; this particular swan is the only one who lives in the whole world which may be compared to a lake. (इन्ति अविद्यादिवन्धकारय-मिति इंसो मुवनस्य सर: स्थानीयस्य मध्ये)।

आनिन: (a) Fire—in the order of creation according to Hindu Cosmology, from Fire water is produced; moreover the Vedânta Philosophy believes in the identity of cause and effect; i.e., when fire the cause is changed into water the effect, it is really fire which has assumed a different shape, and so it does exist in the form of water. So with this sense of आसि: सनिवचे means "in water."

सनित -(a) in water (as explained above), (b) in the human body

MANTRA VI. 19.

निष्कलं निष्क्रियथं शान्तं निरवर्यं निरझनम् । श्रमृतस्य परथं सेतुं दग्धेन्धनमिवानलम् ॥१६॥

19. (I resort to Him who is) without parts, free from action, Unchangeable, Faultless, Untainted, the Supreme bridge (for the attainment of) salvation, (manifested) like fire which has consumed the fuel.

ŚVETAŚVATARA UPANISAD.

NOTES.

While the Phenomenal Brahm as revealed through creation has been mostly described in the above verses, this verse describes Brahm in itself -the True Unqualified Brahm.

एवं तावत् सृष्टधादीनां यछक्ष्यं स्वरूपं दर्शितम् । प्रथेदानीं तत्त्वरूपेग दर्शयति ।

शान्तम्—undisturbed, that which cannot be modified, Unchangeable (निविकारस् अपरियामिनस्)।

निरवर्ध-From whom all faults (अवधं) are gone ; faultless, without defect. (निर्गतम अवद्य दोषो यत्मात्)।

निरंजनम्—(a) Untainted, unaffected, unmixed थंजनम् means a mixture or darkness. (b) Causeless.

(a) निर्त्तेपम् (b) निर्गतम् अंजनम् कार्यां यस्मात् ॥

अमृतस्य --- (for the attainment of) salvation = अमृतस्य मोजस्य प्राप्तये ॥

 $\hat{\mathbf{eq}}_{\mathbf{i}}$ (a) A means of crossing the ocean of the world; a bridge for reaching salvation by crossing this ocean like world.

Or (b) in अम्रतस्य सेतुं = सेतु also may mean an embankment (which supports a country from floods). So the Supreme Being is called an embankment which supports salvation, i.e., on whom this immortality depends (a) सेतुः संसारमहोदधेरुत्तारयोपायत्वात् तम् (b) मोडस्य सेतुं विधारयारूपं मर्यादाकारयाम् ।

द्रग्वेन्यानसिवानलम् — Just as fire, first hidden in the fuel, becomes manifested by consuming that fuel, in the same way the Supreme Being becomes manifested and its Unity is realized when dualism, with its radical cause, ignorance, has been consumed and destroyed. Compare I. 13.

जीवपरैक्यं तत्त्वं स्वतिरस्कारकाविद्यातन्मूळं द्वैतप्रपंचं स्वतावन्मात्रतया दृग्धाऽ नन्तसुखचिन्मात्रतयाऽवस्थितम् इति दग्ध इत्यादि ॥

"I resort to " is understood here from the last verse. ("सरसं प्रपधे"

MANTRA VI. 20.

यदा चर्मवदाकाशं वेष्टयिष्यन्ति मानवाः । तदा देवमवि-ज्ञाय दुःखस्यान्तो भविष्यति ॥ २० ॥

20. When human beings, not knowing the Luminous Being, will put on the sky (ether) like skin, then there will be the end of (their) misery.

CHAPTER VI, 20, 21.

NOTES.

This verse, as interpreted by Śańkarâchârya in the Gîtâ, suggests and teaches the absolute impossibility of termination of human misery so long as man does not know God. Just as it is impossible for a human being to put on the sky like the skin which covers him, so it is impossible for his misery to terminate if he does not know God.

चर्मवदाकाद्यावेष्टनासंभववदविदुषो मेक्षासंभवश्रुतेरिति द्यांकरणीताभाष्ये उक्तत्वास् अयमर्थः आचार्यसंमतः । यथा अमूर्तस्याकाद्यस्य चर्मवत्परिधानासंभवस्तथा देवाबाने मेक्षासंभवः॥

वेष्टविष्यन्ति-will put on or cover. चर्मवत्-like the skin. यविज्ञाय-Having not known.

MANTRA VI. 21.

तपः प्रभावादेवप्रसादाच ब्रह्म ह श्वेताश्वतरोऽथ विद्वान् । श्रत्याश्रामिभ्यः परमं पवित्रं प्रोवाच सम्यर्याषसंघज्रष्टम् ॥ २१ ॥

21. By the power of penance (and self-control) and by the grace of God, Svetâśvatara (first) knowing Brahm, thoroughly expounded to the most respectable Sannyâsis (called Paramahamsa) the Holy, Supreme Being well-served by groups of sages.

NOTES.

This verse contains the only historical and personal reference in the book, and that also, as the commentators say, in order to point out briefly the methods of realizing the Supreme Being.

(श्वेताश्वतरस्य मुनेर्ज्ञानसाधनानि परानुपदैष्टुम् आख्यायिकारूपेयाह) ।

तपः प्रमावात्---The word तपः implies three things here (a) Penance; the performance of hard austerities like the fast called चान्द्रावय (b) The regular performance of daily duties. (c) Self-control (called the chief of Penances).

(a) कुच्छ्चान्द्रयगादिलक्षगस्य (b) निराकर्मानुष्ठानम् (c) मनस पेकाझ्यं (परमं तपः)। नस विद्वान्—Knowing, i.e., having known Brahm (नस विवन् सन्)। अध-After (having known); then. (अध-पश्चात्)।

ग्रत्याञ्चसित्यः-The Upasarga ग्रति is used here in the sense of extreme respectability, ग्राजमिन् परमं-means here a Sannyâsin; these are divided

ŚVETAŚVATARA UPANISAD.

Into four types, the highest and the most respectable type being called Paramhansa. So it means, "to the most respectable Sannyâsis called Paramhansa."

ग्रतिः पूजायाम् पूज्यतमाश्रमिभ्यः परमहंससंन्यासिभ्यः । चतुर्विधा भिक्षवश्च बहुदक कटीचकौ । हंसः परमहंसश्च येा यः पश्चात्स उत्तमः ।

परमं-The Supreme Being, referring to Brahm परमं प्रकृतं वस तदेव परमम्)। योवाच-expounded, propounded, described (प्रोक्तवान्)।

सम्यक-is connected both with प्रोवाच and जुष्टम् (a) " thoroughly or well described" and " well served."

(सम्यगिति काकाचिन्यायेन उभयत्रानुपंगः । सम्यक प्रोवाच सम्यग्जुष्टम्) ।

त्रापिसंघजुष्टम् = संचः-group or collection.

served (an adjective of Brahm understood)

"Served by groups of sages." (ऋषीयां संत्रैः समूहेई छम् सेवितम्) ।

MANTRA VI. 22.

वेदान्ते परमं गुद्धं पुराकल्पे प्रचोदितम् । नाप्रशान्ताय दातव्यं नापुत्रायाशिष्याय वा पुनः ॥ २२ ॥

दातव्य नापुत्रायाशिष्याय वा पुनः ॥ ९९ ॥

22. This knowledge, extremely confidential in the Vedânta, and taught in the previous creation, should not be imparted to one whose (heart) has not been purified, nor to one who is not a (pure-hearted) son, nor to one who is not a (pure-hearted) disciple.

NOTES.

This verse points out the extremely profound nature of the Science of Brahm and adds that only the pure have a right to be taught this knowledge. (aufauta: गुसलं अनथिकारिपें! अदेवल्यमित्याह) | dana dana: are the concluding portions of the Vedas; the word Vedanta is used here in the singular to denote the class of those portions in general. In this Vedanta many other subjects (as worship, meditation, &c.) in addition to the Supreme knowledge of Brahm have been taught.

(वेदानाम् ग्रवसागानि वेदान्ताः तज्जातौ वेदान्ते । जातौ युक्वयचनम्) । and gan-gan = that which ought to be kept secret, confidential. This Supreme knowledge of Brahm is extremely confidential portion aven of the Vedanta, which, as pointed out above, contains other subjects also.

CHAPTER VI, 22, 23,

(उपासनादिव्यात्रत्त्यर्थमाह-गुहाम्-गोप्यम्)।

प्रचोदितम taught, propagated उपदिष्टम (पुराकल्पे) (a) In the previous creation. Showing that the subject is very sublime and worthy of reverence, as coming down from times without beginning.

(b) In the portion of the Veda called and "praise" in which the Vedanta has been eulogized as worthy of acceptance.

(अर्थवादे उपादेशत्वेन उपदिष्टं स्तुतम्) ।

अप्रशान्ताय-whose passions have not been subdued (or pacified); whose heart has not been purified (सकलरागादिमलरहितं चित्तं न यस्य तस्मे)।

अपुत्राय-to one who is not a (pure or worthy) son (अप्रधान्तपुत्राय) ।

अशिष्याय—to one who is not a (pure or worthy) disciple (अप्रशान्तशिष्याय)। पुन: indicates that (otherwise) the non-observance of this restriction will lead to Evil. (अन्यथा प्रत्यवायापत्तिरिति पुनः शव्दार्थः)।

MANTRA VI. 28.

यस्य देवे परा भक्तिर्यथा देवे तथा गुरौ । तस्यैते कथिता ह्यर्थाः प्रकाशन्ते महात्मन प्रकाशन्ते महात्मन इति ॥ २३ ॥ इति ब्वेताश्वतरोषनिषत्सु षष्ठोऽध्यायः ॥ ६ ॥

23. These subjects, as described (above) are revealed to that great soul who has devotion to God, and as much devotion to (his) preceptor as God.

NOTES.

The above verse has described purity of heart as an indispensable condition of gaining Supreme knowledge; this verse requires another condition :--merely Purity is insufficient; devotion to God and equal devotion to the preceptor is equally necessary.

अत्रापि देवतागुरुभक्तिमतामेव गुरुणा प्रकाशिता विद्याऽनुभवाय भवतीति प्रदर्शयति)।

तस्य-Genitive in the sense of accusative-to him, the deserving seeker and the devotee of his preceptor (तस्य योगयाधिकारिया: गुरुभकस्य) ।

महात्मनः--(connected with तस्य) (Of great Soul or mind महानुभावस्य) । प्रकाशन्ते---are revealed or manifested प्रतीयन्ते) (स्वाजुभवाय भवन्ति) ।

ŚVETÂŚVATARA UPANISAD.

The repetition indicates the conclusion as well as the grandeur of and extreme reverence shown to the subject. (द्विरक्तिरध्यायपरिसमाप्त्यर्थमादरार्धं च)। Here ends the Sixth Chapter as well as the Śvetâśvatara Upanişad. PEACE CHANT.
