

10. Miscellaneous.—I submitted a report in June last regarding the progress of towns in the colony. A cattle fair held in March at Lyallpur was very fairly attended, and 450 animals were sold. The tahsil has been completed at Lyallpur, and Lala Pindi Dás, who has had many valuable years' experience of the colony in the Khangah Dográn tahsil, has assumed charge.

Chaudhri Aurangzeb Khan, Khan Bahádur, Assistant Colonisation Officer, went on privilege leave on 15th August 1897, and Lala Pindi Dás was appointed to officiate for him. He was unfortunate in assuming charge at a time when he and everybody else at Lyallpur began getting fever, a habit which they have continued up to the time of writing.

Proposals for the establishment of a district head-quarters at Lyallpur are before Government. It has been decided to postpone the formation of a new district for the present. (Punjab Government letter No. 651, dated 20th October 1897).

J. MONTGOMERY,

colony is now by far too big and populous to be a mere adjunct to the district of Jhang with a head-quarters miles away from the line of railway. Police arrangements require a great deal and nothing as compared with either the income present, and prospective, derivable from the colony, or the sums which the Canal Department have spent and must continue to spend to bring about these tremendous results.

It is very important that something should be done to check the crime which is said to be increasing in the colony.

J. MONTGOMERY,
Settlement Commissioner.

recasting, and new thanás ought to be built. All this means money of course, but not a great deal and nothing as compared with either the income present, and prospective, derivable from the colony, or the sums which the Canal Department have spent and must continue to spend to bring about these tremendous results.

Captain Popham-Young deserves credit for the continued good work done by him during the year. And so does Chaudhri Aurangzeb Khan, Khan Bahádur, Assistant Colonisation Officer.

J. MONTGOMERY,
Settlement Commissioner.
