Arakan.	Akyab.	Mr. A. M. B. Irwin, c.s., Deputy Commissioner.	365		81	Inspecting subordinate courts, persons deported police stations, sub-registrars and ywathugyis' books, selected site for new school, checking capitation-tax and stamps in vendors' hand, and general duties and field work.	It would be more convenient if this return, column 4, showed the period of the year. Mr Irwin has done very good inspection work, but falls short of the 90 days referred to in the circular. It is however difficult to do this where there is a large headquarter station.
		Mr. G. E. R. Grant-Brown, c.s., Assistant Commissioner, Subdivisional Officer	147		11	Examining ywathugyis' work and enquiring into the matter of Chin Po's gang
		Mr. T. C. Mitchell, c.s., Assistant Commissioner, Subdivisional Officer.	218		58	Enquiring into land, fishery, and murder cases and inspecting grazing ground, interviews with Chin chiefs, Minbva township, settlement of Chin tribute, arranging for expedition and other general duties, supplementary survey and registration work, and appointment of ywathugyis.	The two Subdivisional Officers between them have not travelled sufficiently, the blame seems to lie with Mr. Grant-Brown.
		Mr. G. E. Warde-Jones, Extra Assistant Commissioner.	295	Has no revenue duties except in come-tax	...
		Mr. J. D. Fraser, Assistant Commissioner.	127		7	Learning his duties	This officer has been very active and industrious. I am glad he has elected to stay in this subdivision.

Amherst.		Captain T. G. Johnson, I.S.C., Deputy Commissioner.	187	The time spent on tour by the Deputy Commissioner is quite inadequate. It is impossible for a Deputy Commissioner to be in touch with the people if he spends one day in every 8 days on tour. The fault, I believe, does not lie with the Deputy Commissioner as he is unable to travel owing to heavy work at headquarters and owing to the fact that for a great part of the year the Amherst sub-divisional office was left vacant.	29	Inspection duty, criminal and revenue work.
