THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

INSTITUTED 1861.

STAR, COLLAR AND BADGE.

INSIGNIA.

THE BADGE is an onyx cameo of Her Majesty's effigy, set in a gold and ornamented oval, enamelled in light blue, inscribed with the motto of the Order "HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE" in diamonds, surmounted by a Star of five points in Silver. The Riband of the Order is light blue, having a narrow white stripe towards either edge, and is worn from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE COLLAR is composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches, in saltire, tied together by a Riband, and of the united Red and White Rose in the centre of the Imperial Crown. All richly enamelled on gold, in their proper colours, and linked together by chains of gold to the said Crown.

THE STAR is composed of rays of gold issuing from a centre, having thereon a Star in diamonds resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, et c., "HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," also in diamonds.

THE MANTLE—Light blue satin, lined with white silk, and fastened with a cord of white silk, having blue and silver tassels attached thereto, and a representation of the Star of the Order.

THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA was instituted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, 23rd February, 1861; and enlarged, 28th March, 1866; and again in 1875 and 1878.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, the Grand Master and 246 Ordinary Members, together with such Extra Honorary Members as His Majesty, His heirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint. The 246 Ordinary Members are divided into three classes. The First Class are styled Knights Grand Commanders, and consist of thirty Members (eighteen Natives and twelve Europeans); the Second Class, of seventy-two Members, styled Knights Commanders; the Third Class, of one hundred and forty-four Members, styled Companions. His Majesty's Viceroy and Governor-General of India is Grand Master.

The Statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of Knight Grand Commander of the Order upon such Princes and Chiefs of India as shall have entitled themselves to His Majesty's favour, and upon such of His Majesty's British subjects as have, by important and loyal services rendered by them to the Indian Empire, merited the Royal favour; and the Second and Third Classes upon persons who, by their conduct or services in the Indian Empire, have merited the Royal favour.—(Foster's Peerage.)

THE MOST EMINENT ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.

INSTITUTED 1877.

THE STAR is composed of five rays of silver, having a smaller ray of gold between each of them, the whole alternately plain and scaled, issuing from a gold centre having thereon Her late Majesty's effigy within a purple circle, inscribed with the motto of the Order "Imperatricis Auriculis," in letters of gold, the circle surmounted by an Imperial Crown, also gold.

The COLLAR is composed of Elephants, Lotus Flowers, Peacocks in their pride, and Indian Roses, having in the centre of the said collar an Imperial Crown, the whole lined together by chains, all of gold.

The BADGE is an enamelled gules barbed vert, having in the centre Her late Majesty's effigy within a purple circle, inscribed with the motto of the Order in letters of gold, surmounted by an Imperial Crown, also gold. The Riband is Imperial purple, four inches in width, and is worn from the right shoulder to the left side.

The MANTLE is of purple satin, lined with white silk, fastened with a cordon of white silk, having two purple silk and gold tassels attached thereto, on the left side of which mantle is embroidered a representation of the Star of Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a Riband of the same colour and pattern as that of the First Class, but two inches in width, and pendant therefrom the Badge, which is of smaller size than that appointed for the Knights Grand Commanders. On their left breast they wear a Star like that of the First Class, except that it is of silver, and is composed of rays alternately bright and chipped, issuing from a gold centre.

The Companions wear a Badge of the same form and appearance as that appointed for the Knights Commanders, but of smaller size, pendant to a Riband of the same colour and pattern, one and-a-half inches in width, attached by a buckle from their left breast.

THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE was instituted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, 1877, to reward services rendered to Her Majesty and Her Indian Empire and to commemorate the proclamation of Her Style and Title of Empress of India, and consists of the Sovereign, Grand Master and Companion. It was enlarged in 1886 and 1887.

The ORDER consists of the Sovereign, the Grand Master, and three several classes of Knights Grand Commanders (25), Knights Commanders (50) and Companions, together with such Honorary and Extra Members as His Majesty, His heirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint. His Majesty's Viceroy and Governor-General of India for the time being is Grand Master.

The Statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of a Knight Grand Commander upon such persons as have, by their services, official or other, to His Majesty's Empire in India, merited the Royal favour, and upon such distinguished Representatives of Eastern Potentates as His Majesty, His heirs and successors, may think fit.

The Knights Grand Commanders, Knights Commanders and Companions of this Order have place and precedence next to, and immediately after, the Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders and Companions, respectively, of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

THE KAISAR-I-HIND MEDAL.

FRONT.

REVERSE WITH RIBBON.

The medal consists of an oval-shaped Badge or Decoration—in gold for the First Class and in silver for the Second Class—with the Royal Cypher in the centre on one side and on the reverse the words "Kaisar-i-Hind For Public Service in India," and is suspended on the left breast by a dark blue ribbon.

THE KAISAR-I-HIND MEDAL FOR PUBLIC SERVICE IN INDIA was instituted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, on the 10th April 1900, as a reward for important and useful services rendered in Her late Majesty's Indian Empire in the advancement of public interest.

See Gazette of India, 11th May 1900.

THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA.

THE decoration of BADGE consists of Her late Majesty's Royal and Imperial Cypher "V.R. and I." in diamonds, pearls and turquoises, encircled by a border set with pearls, surmounted by the Imperial Crown, jewelled and enamelled in proper colour, attached to a light blue watered ribbon edged white, of one inch and a-half in width, tied in a bow, and is worn on the left shoulder.

THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA was instituted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, 1st January 1878, to commemorate the assumption of Her Majesty's Imperial title of Empress of India, and is to consist of the Sovereign and of such Princesses of Her Majesty's Royal and Imperial Household, the Wives and other Female Relatives of Princes of the Indian Empire and other Indian Ladies, and of the Wives and other Female Relatives of any of the persons who have held or may hold the offices of Viceroy and Governor-General of India, Governors of Madras or Bombay, or of Principal Secretary of State for India, as the Sovereign may think fit.

The first day of January in every year is the Anniversary of the institution of the Order.

Sovereign of the Order, HER MAJESTY QUEEN ALEXANDRA, EMPRESS OF INDIA.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

It is ordered that the Badge of the Order, which shall consist of a gold cross, enamelled white, edged gold, having on one side thereof in the centre, within a wreath of laurel enamelled green, the Imperial Crown in gold, upon a red enamelled ground, and on the reverse, within a similar wreath and on a similar red ground, Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, V. R. L., shall be suspended from the left breast by a red ribbon edged blue, of one inch in width.—London Gazette, 9th November 1886.
