July 11. and Mid. Osnabrug in Germany, the High and Mighty Prince, George I. King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Elector of Brunswick Lunenbourg, &c. His Majesty having settled the Government of his British Dominions during his Absence, [See May 31] set out from St. James's Palace on Saturday the 3d of June, about Seven of the Clock in the Morning, and two Hours after, embark'd at Greenwich on Board the Carolina Yacht, and about Eleven, that and the other Yachts that attended his Majesty, were all under Sail, with little or no Wind; but being tow'd by Boats, they proceeded as far as Gravesend, where they continu'd till Monday the 5th, in the Morning, when the Wind coming fair and fresh, they got under Sail at Ten a-Clock, and at Twelve pass'd by the Nore towards the Gensfleet, where they were join'd by the Squadron commanded by Rear-Admiral Morrice, appointed to attend his Majesty. The next Day, about Eight a-Clock in the Morning, his Majesty's Yacht pass'd in Safety over the Hinder, towards Goree, and so went up the Maese for Gravendael, where his Majesty went on board the States Yacht, and from thence to Paert, where his Majesty landed on Wednesday the 7th, at Night, and lay there. The next Morning, his Majesty proceeded from thence on his Journey to Hanover; Detachments of Guards being order'd by the States-General, to attend his Majesty through the Territories of the Republick, viz. from Vaert to Utrecht, Amersfort, Voerthuyfen, Appledoren, Deventer, Hoiten, Delden, to Ottmarfen, and Nordhorn. Being arriv'd at Delden, on Friday the 9th, between ten and eleven a-Clock at Night, in all Appearance, in perfect Health, his Majesty eat his Supper pretty heartily, and among other Victuals and Refreshments, part of a Melon: This, it seems, did not digest well; for having set out again at Three a-Clock the next Morning, his Majesty had not travell'd two Hours before he felt the Gripings of a Cholick. Being come to Linden, where his Dinner was provided, his Majesty could eat nothing, whereupon he was presently let Blood, and had such Remedies as were judg'd proper administered to him. Those about him wish'd he would have rested there; but his Majesty being desirous to reach his own Dominions with all possible Speed, he travell'd on; and falling into a kind of Dozing in his Coach, rested in the Arms of the Gentleman that sat alone in the Coach with him, to whom (as he rightly inform'd) he said in French, C'est fait, that is, I am a dead Man. About Ten that they arriv'd at his Highness the Duke of York's Palace at Osnabrug, where he was let Blood in the Arm and the Foot; but these Bleedings producing no Effect, and his Lethargy increasing, notwithstanding all the Physicians could do for his Recovery, he departed this Life on Sunday the 11th of June, about one in the Morning, aged 67 Years and 14 Days, being born the 28th of May 1660. This Prince was Son of Ernest-Augustus, Duke of Brunswick-Lunenbourg, first Elector of Hanover, and Great Treasurer of the Empire, who dy'd the 18th of January 1698, and of the Princess Sophia, who dy'd the 8th of June 1714. Which Princess was Daughter of Frederick V. Elector Palatine, elected King of Bohemia the 4th of November 1619, and dy'd the 19th of November 1632, and of the Princess Elizabeth, Daughter of James I. King of England. He came to the Crown the 1st of August 1714, and was crown'd the 20th of October following; so that he reign'd 12 Years, 10 Months, and 10 Days. He was marry'd the 21st of November 1682, to Sophia-Dorothy, Daughter of George-William, Duke of Zell; and she dy'd the 3d of November last. By this Marriage he had George-Augustus, Prince of Wales, who succeeded succeeded him in the Throne of Great-Britain, by the Name of George II. and Sophia-Dorothy, who was marry'd the 18th of November 1706, to Frederick-William King of Prussia. The present King George II. was born the 30th of October 1683. The 2d of September 1705, he was marry'd to the Princess Wilhelmina-Charlotte-Caroline, Daughter to John-Frederick Marquess of Brandenburg-Anspach, by whom he has had two Princes, Frederick-Louis, now Prince of Wales, born at Hanover the 31st of January 1707; and William-Augustus, born at London the 15th of April 1721. The Princesses Daughters of the King are, 1. Anne, born the 2d of November 1709. 2. Amelia, born the 10th of July 1711. 3. Carolina, born the 16th of June 1715. 4. Mary, born the 22d of February 1723. 26. Edward Howard, Esq; second Brother of Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, marry'd to Mrs. Blount, Daughter of Blount of Blagdon in the County of Devon, Esq;

— Dy'd in the 76th Year of his Age, Edward Russel, Earl of Orford, and leaving no Issue the Title became extinct. He was Son of Francis Lord Russel of Thornhaugh, Son of William 4th Son of Francis 2d Earl of Bedford. He marry'd the Lady Mary Russel, 3d Daughter of his own Brother William, who was first Duke of Bedford. In the Year 1688, he was one of the Number of the Nobility and Gentry, who went over to the (then) Prince of Orange in Holland, with whom he returned that Year; and upon that Prince's Advancement to the Throne, was made one of the Privy Council. In 1691, he was made Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Fleet, and Treasurer of the Navy, and in the Year following gave a total Overthrow to the French Fleet under the Com-

Command of Monsieur de Tourville at La Hogue; for which he had the Thanks of the House of Commons, and was also by the King made First Commissioner of the Admiralty. In the Year 1694, the French threatening to besiege Barcelona, King William interposed, and sent a Royal Fleet into the Streights, under the Command of Admiral Russel, who challeng'd the Dominion of the Mediterranean, as he had, two Years before, asserted that of the Narrow Seas to the British Nation; and as he revived the drooping Spirits of the Spaniards, so did he baffle and defeat the towering Projects of the French, whose Fleet he kept as it were block'd up in Thoulon. Marschal de Tourville did indeed once venture out to Sea, hoping to slip away by the English; but Admiral Russel had so watchful an Eye upon him, that Tourville was forc'd to return into Port, leaving all this while, all the Coasts of France exposed to the Insults of the Two Maritime Powers. Nothing is more remarkable in the whole Course of King William's Reign, than his Fleet riding triumphantly and uncontroll'd in the Mediterranean; for thereby not only a Stop was put to the conquering Arms of France in Catalonia, but all the Italian Princes were kept in Awe; and the cautious Venetians began now to think of sending a solemn Embassy into England, to court his Majesty's Friendship. In 1697, he was created Baron of Shingey in the County of Cambridge, Viscount Barjeur in the Duchy of Normandy, and Earl of Orford in the County of Suffolk. By Queen Anne, he was appointed one of the Commissioners to treat of an Union between England and Scotland, and one of her Privy Council; and upon her Decease, was made Choice of by his late Majesty, to be one of the Regents till he arrive from Hanover.
