CATALOGUE OF PERIODICALS,
NEWSPAPERS & GAZETTES

PRINTED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA PRESS, CALCUTTA, INDIA 1956

PREFACE

This is the first time that a systematic compilation of a catalogue of Periodical publications in European languages has been undertaken in this Library. The catalogue has been divided into three parts, viz. Part I : Periodicals proper, i.e., those with distinctive titles, e.g. 'Indian Review', 'Textile India', 'Harper's Magazine' etc. ; Part II : Serials other than periodicals proper, e.g. Annals, Serial bulletins, Journals, Memoirs, Proceedings, Reports, Transactions of societies, institutions, conferences. etc. [Serials, sponsored and published by the Government and mostly routine or statistical in nature have, however, been excluded] ; and Part III : 'A'. Newspapers, 'B'. Gazettes. A consolidated alphabetical index, containing author, title and subject references, is provided.

The entries have been arranged in the Dewey order (Second Summary) with relevant feature headings but without Dewey notations. The existing 'PP' Call numbers have been retained for facility in servicing this material. The entries have been serially numbered and the number is given in a square bracket on the left at the end of each entry. The feature headings given at the head of each page cover the entries therein and these headings embrace the classes, divisions and subdivisions as they may be applicable. Thus, 'PURE SCIENCE. Astronomy' ; 'SOCIAL SCIENCES. Education, Teaching, etc.'.

The holdings of the Library in respect of most of the items being incomplete, an all-out attempt is being made to fill in the lacunae and in certain cases it has been possible to fill in the lacunae before the final print order could be given to the Printers. As such, instead of making a closed entry in case of periodicals that have ceased publication, the entry has been kept open as in the case of periodicals currently received in the Library, recording the number and date of the first issue after the title or subtitle. For example, instead of writing 'Anglo-Indian, v.3-8', the entry has been made thus : 'Anglo-Indian, v.1- , 1880- ', recording the holdings of the Library in the contents note under "Library has :". This method of entry gives the reader an idea of the extent of the complete set.

Annotations have been freely given wherever necessary. The full history of particular newspapers and gazettes having a chequered career has also been given.

Finally, it may be pointed out that very recently certain outstanding scientific and technical periodicals have been subscribed and certain issues of some of these periodicals have started coming. Without waiting for the full year's set entries have been inserted in the Galley Proofs for such items with a note "In Progress."

This catalogue has been compiled by Mr. Benoy Sen Gupta, the Head of the Library's Cataloguing Division I which deals with books & periodicals in the European languages.
