

the sweeping away of British rule, under which the natural conditions that develop strong native rulers and powerful dynasties have disappeared. There is a world of difference between Babu S. N. Bannerji, or even Babu B. C. Pal, and Sivajee and Hyder Ali. "But the very increase of riches, population, and intelligence in India is producing an upward pressure upon the superstructure of foreign rule, so that alterations and modifications from time to time become necessary." Such are the wise reforms under consideration at the present time.

And, since "the words of the wise are as goads," Sir Alfred's warning that we, as possessors of India, are still interested to the last degree in the maintenance of the Empire of China should never be forgotten.

We must make up our minds upon the great education problem, and should, I think, follow Lord Curzon's courageous lead in refusing to subsidise the manufacture of half-baked Bachelors of Arts and full-fledged agitators. It is too late, I suppose, to go back upon the decision in favour of the Anglicists, but is there any particular reason why Herbert Spencer, for instance, should be given in the Indian system so prominent a place? Is there any need to fill Indian students with philosophy, the study of which, even in Oxford, induces a regrettable tendency towards vain speculative dreams and socialistic sophistries? Cannot our educationalists remember that even Jowett, who loved Plato, wrote: "The Socratic pang of philosophy—that is to say, the fascination of abstract ideas—may easily interfere with the growth of the mind in youth or in early manhood. Poetry, language, physical science, mathematics, the works of great writers—Greek, Latin, or English—are a much better basis of education than metaphysical philosophy."

Jowett, no doubt, read Plato, as we all should, for the beauty of his language, not for the value of his ideas. Indeed Plato persuades us to deplore the condemnation and execution of Socrates, which, as John Inglesant's friend the Cardinal said, appears to have been considered necessary by men of good judgment in that day, to preserve the framework of ordinary everyday society from falling to pieces. Rightly understood, the death of Socrates is an object lesson of great value in practical politics, and should be an example for all time to those who go about making the worser appear the better cause. The Indian youth wants Lord Kelvin, not Herbert Spencer; and philosophy, which does little good at Oxford, works positive mischief at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

We must clear our minds of cant, practise Imperial impartiality not only between the different peoples of India, but between India and our Colonial possessions, and ignore, as the Government wisely did in respect of the Transvaal Indians, with satisfactory results, pressure from either side. We must refrain from encouraging idle dreams called "autonomy under the British ægis," which means India for the classes, whilst peace is maintained amongst the masses, at the expense of the British taxpayer.

Among the Indian newspapers received as this book goes to press is the The Amrita Bazaar Patrika of Calcutta, which writes: "How can the Congress be called 'national' when it consists almost exclusively of English educated middle-class men? Unless other important sections of the community join, it cannot claim to be national, or to represent all interests in the country." In like manner Mr Welinkar, the Superintendent of Municipal Schools in Bombay, himself an Indian gentleman, when lecturing before the East India Association said: "The Indian graduate does not command much influence among the masses of his countrymen, and does not represent them."

Another late arrival is The Wednesday Review of Trichinopoly, in an editorial article in which it is stated that "the great masses are in happy ignorance of all that is said in their behalf, and in their name. Svaraj, without any quibbling, means complete independence of British rule, else Svaraj would be a misnomer."

Now if a lunatic in the plains of India wore the Canadian fur coat, of which Mr Morley lately spoke, he would inevitably melt away, and so, in the like case, would dissolve our Indian Empire, the possession of which is the greatest factor in the place of pride, power, and pre-eminence, which Great Britain fills within the world.

Methuen's Standard Library

In Sixpenny Volumes.

THE STANDARD LIBRARY is a new series of volumes containing the great classics of the world, and particularly the finest works of English literature. All the great masters will be represented, either in complete works or in selections. It is the ambition of the publishers to place the best books of the Anglo-Saxon race within the reach of every reader, so that the series may represent something of the diversity and splendour of our English tongue. The characteristics of THE STANDARD LIBRARY are four:—1. SOUNDNESS OF TEXT. 2. CHEAPNESS. 3. CLEARNESS OF TYPE. 4. SIMPLICITY. The books are well printed on good paper at a price which on the whole is without parallel in the history of publishing. Each volume contains from 100 to 250 pages, and is issued in paper covers, Crown 8vo, at Sixpence net, or in cloth gilt at One Shilling net. In a few cases long books are issued as Double Volumes or as Treble Volumes.

The Westminster Commentaries

General Editor, WALTER LOCK, D.D., Warden of Keble College, Dean Ireland's Professor of Exegesis in the University of Oxford.

The object of each commentary is primarily exegetical, to interpret the author's meaning to the present generation. The editors will not deal, except very subordinatedly, with questions of textual criticism or philology; but, taking the English text in the Revised Version as their basis, they will try to combine a hearty acceptance of critical principles with loyalty to the Catholic Faith.
