WORKS ON MAHOMEDAN LAW.

BY

HON'BLE MOULVI MAHOMED YUSOOF KHAN BAHADOOR.

TAGORE LECTURES FOR 1891-92, AND CONTINUATION THEREOF.

PLAN OF THE SERIES.

Vol. I. (Ready) contains the 500 Texts of the Koran which form the basis of the entire range of Mahomedan Law. It also contains such of the Texts from the Hudees or Traditions of the Prophet as bear on the subject of Marriage and Divorce. These texts are produced both in English and Arabic with corresponding paragraphs numbered uniformly to facilitate reference and comparison. The Texts of the Koran are taken from the translation of Reverend Wherry, and those of the Hudees are taken from the translation of Captain Mathews. Criticisms of the translation and explanation of the texts are reserved to a future volume.

This volume is not sold separately, but it must be purchased along with some other volume of the series.

Errata.—Substitute para. for page in the Table of contents of Vol. I, from p. XI. to p. XXIV.

Price of Vol. I. is Rs. 10.

Note.—Certain texts of the Hudees have been objected to, on the ground that the language used is not decent enough for a publication of the University; but when it is remembered that the subject matter of those texts has already been treated of and dealt with by Baillie* and Hamilton† and that the texts lay down the occasion when certain texts of the Koran‡ were revealed, and further, that one of their objects is to point out the illegality of some of the practices

* See Baillie's Digest p. 165.

allowed by some of the sects of the Mahomedans* then it will be admitted that it was not necessary to mutilate the texts and mar the completeness of the subject.

Vol. II. (Ready) contains a faithful translation of the Fatawai Kazee Khan, regarding the subject of marriage and other cognate subjects. The texts are numbered both in English and in Arabic uniformly, so that every facility is afforded for the purpose of checking and verifying the translation and improving it: any obscurity or ambiguity in the original is cleared up by apt quotations and illustrations within brackets from other recognised authorities.

Price of Vol. II. is Rs. 10.

Vol. III. (In press) deals with the subject of Divorce on the same principles as Vol. II.

Vol. IV. Will deal with miscellaneous cases, such as the case of marriage with two living sisters and other cases which require a more detailed simultaneous and consecutive discussion than that bestowed on the subject in a single work such as the Fatawai Kazy Khan (manuscript is ready).

Vols. V. & VI. Will deal with the subject of Jurisprudence (of which the manuscript is ready) according to the Towzeeh and the Talweeh.

Vols. VII. & VIII. Will contain commentaries on the 500 texts of the Koran printed in Vol. I, of this series and on the Hudees, according to the Tufseer-i-Ahmedy and the Asha Atool Lumaat respectively. It will also contain criticisms on the translations contained in Vol. I, and where such translations are imperfect and incorrect, the imperfections and mistakes will be pointed out.

Vols. IX. & X. Will contain a translation of the complete subject of Mahomedan Law according to the Doorool Mookhtar.

Vol. XI. Will contain an Introduction and the Index.

(Note.—The above plan is subject to modification and alteration if necessary.)

THE TAGORE LECTURES, 1891-92.

BOOK I, PART I.

CHAPTER I.

1. The subject of these Lectures is the Mahomedan Law relating to Marriage, Dower, Divorce Legitimacy and Guardianship of minors according to the Soonnee sect of the Mahomedans. In order that this branch of the Mahomedan Law should be understood and appreciated, the sources of the Law and the reasons assigned by the lawyers for the deduction of rules according to the Mahomedan system of Jurisprudence from such sources must be explained and the process by which such rules are deduced must be stated.

2. One of the sources, indeed the chief source* of Mahomedan Law, is the Quran and only a portion thereof, consisting of five hundred texts, is all that it is necessary to know of the Quran. These five hundred texts constitute the source of the whole range of the Mahomedan Law, and not being very easily susceptible of division, and separation, all these five hundred texts are here given, without any attempt being made to omit those texts which do not bear on the subject of these Lectures.

3. The five hundred texts here given are taken verbatim from the translation of the Quran by the Rev. E. M. Wherry, M. A., who has produced the Quran in four Volumes. This translation is chiefly based on the translation of Mr. Sale. Criticisms of the translation will be noticed further on in the course of these Lectures as occasions arise.

4. The number within brackets indicates the consecutive number so as to make up the five hundred texts. The references to Sipara, Chapter, Page and Volume are references to the work of Rev. Wherry, and with the assistance of such references any particular texts will be easily found out and identified in that work. With a view to economise space the annotations to be found in Wherry's work, are not reproduced here and the student is referred to the work itself for further information.

* It is only in a qualified sense, that the Quran could be said to be the chief source of Mahomedan Law. As will appear further on, other sources rank equally under certain circumstances.

Those five hundred texts of the Quran are as follow :—

5 (1). No. 29.* Sipara I, Chapter II, p. 299, Vol. I.

It is he who hath created for you whatsoever is on earth, and then set his mind to the creation of heaven, and formed it into seven heavens; he knoweth all things.

6 (2). No. 42. Sipara I, Chapter II, p. 305, Vol. I.

Observe the stated times of prayer, and pay your legal alms, and bow down yourselves with those who bow down.

7 (3). No. 105. Sipara I, Chapter II, p. 328, Vol. I.

Whatever verse we shall abrogate, or cause thee to forget, we will bring a better than it, or one like unto it. Dost thou not know that God is almighty?

8 (4). No. 113. Sipara I, Chapter II, p. 331, Vol. I.

Who is more unjust than he who prohibiteth the temples of God, that his name should be remembered therein, and who hasteth to destroy them? Those men cannot enter therein, but with fear: they shall have shame in this world, and in the next a grievous punishment.

9 (5). No. 115. Sipara I, Chapter II, p. 332, Vol. I.

To God belongeth the east and the west; therefore whithersoever ye turn yourselves to pray, there is the face of God; for God is omnipresent and omniscient.

Thus have we placed you, O Arabians, an intermediate nation, that ye may be witness against the rest of mankind, and that the apostle may be a witness against you.

14 (10). No. 145. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 342, Vol. I.

We have seen thee turn about thy face towards heaven with uncertainty, but we will cause thee to turn thyself towards a Qibla that will please thee. Turn, therefore, thy face towards the holy temple of Makkah; and wherever ye be, turn your face towards that place. They to whom the Scripture hath been given, know this to be truth from their Lord, God is not regardless of that which ye do.

O true believers, eat of the good things which we have bestowed on you for food, and return thanks unto God, if ye serve him.

18 (14). No. 174. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 351, Vol. I.

Verily he hath forbidden you to eat that which dieth of itself, and blood and swine's flesh, and that on which any other name but God's hath been invocated. But he who is forced by a necessity, not lusting, nor returning to transgress, it shall be no crime in him if he eat of those things, for God is gracious and merciful.

19 (15). No. 177. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 352, Vol. I.

It is not righteousness that ye turn your faces in prayer towards the east and the west, but righteousness is of him who believeth in God and the last day, and the angels, and the scriptures, and the prophets; who giveth money for God's sake unto his kindred, and unto orphans, and the needy, and the stranger, and those who ask, and for redemption of captives; who is constant at prayer, and giveth alms; and of those who perform their covenant, when they have covenanted, and who behave themselves patiently in adversity, and hardships, and in time of violence; these are they who are true, and these are they who fear God.

20 (16). No. 178. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 353, Vol. I.

O true believers, the law of retaliation is ordained you for the slain: the free shall die for the free, and the servant for the servant, and a woman for a woman; but he whom his brother shall forgive may be prosecuted, and obliged to make satisfaction, according to what is just, and a fine shall be set on him with humanity. This is indulgence from your Lord and mercy.

26 (22). No. 183. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 354, Vol. I.

O true believer, a fast is ordained you, as it was ordained unto those before you, that ye may fear God. A certain number of days shall ye fast.

27 (23). No. 184. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 355, Vol. I.

But he among you who shall be sick, or on a journey, shall fast an equal number of other days. And those who can keep it, and do not, must redeem their neglect by maintaining of a poor man. And he who voluntarily dealeth better with the poor man than he is obliged, this shall be better for him. But if ye fast, it will be better for you, if ye knew it.

The month of Ramadhán shall ye fast, in which the Quran was sent down from heaven, a direction unto men, and declarations of direction, and the distinction between good and evil. Therefore, let him among you who shall be present in this month, fast the same month; but he who shall be sick, or on a journey, shall fast the like number of other days. God would make this an ease unto you, and would not make it a difficulty unto you; that ye may fulfil the number of days, and glorify God, for that he hath directed you, and that ye may give thanks.

It is lawful for you, on the night of the fast, to go in unto your wives; they are a garment unto you, and ye are a garment unto them. God knoweth that ye defraud yourselves therein, wherefore he turneth unto you, and forgiveth you. Now, therefore, go in unto them; and earnestly desire that which God ordaineth you, and eat and drink, until ye can plainly distinguish a white thread from a black thread by the day-break: then keep the fast until night, and go not in unto them, but be constantly present in the places of worship. These are the prescribed bounds of God, therefore draw not near them to transgress them. Thus God declareth his signs unto men, that ye may fear him.

33 (29). No. 190. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 358, Vol. I.

And fight for the religion of God against those who fight against you; but transgress not by attacking them first, for God loveth not the transgressors.

34 (30). No. 191. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 358, Vol. I.

And kill them wherever ye find them, and turn them out of that whereof they have dispossessed you; for temptation to idolatry is more grievous than slaughter: yet fight not against them in the holy temple, until they attack you therein; but if they attack you, slay them there. This shall be the reward of infidels.

35 (31). No. 192. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 359, Vol. I.

But if they desist, God is gracious and merciful.

36 (32). No. 193. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 359, Vol. I.

Fight therefore against them until there be no temptation to idolatry, and the religion be God's; but if they desist then let there be no hostility, except against the ungodly.

37 (33). No. 194. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 359, Vol. I.

A sacred month for a sacred month, and the holy limits of Makkah if they attack you therein, do ye also attack them therein in retaliation; and whoever transgresseth against you by so doing, do ye transgress against him in like manner as he hath transgressed against you, and fear God, and know that God is with those who fear him.

38 (34). No. 195. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 359, Vol. I.

Contribute out of your substance toward the defence of the religion of God, and throw not yourselves with your own hands into perdition; and do good, for God loveth those who do good.

39 (35). No. 196. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 360, Vol. I.

Perform the pilgrimage of Makkah, and the visitation of God; and, if ye be besieged, send that offering which shall be the easiest; and shave not your heads, until your offering reacheth the place of sacrifice. But, whoever among you is sick, or is troubled with any distemper of the head, must redeem the shaving his head, by fasting, or alms, or some offering. When ye are secure from enemies, he who tarrieth in the visitation of the temple of Makkah until the pilgrimage, shall bring that offering which shall be the easiest. But he who findeth not anything to offer, shall fast three days in the pilgrimage, and seven when ye are returned; they shall be ten days complete. This is incumbent on him whose family shall not be present at the holy temple. And fear God and know that God is severe in punishing.

40 (36). No. 197. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 361, Vol. I.

The pilgrimage must be performed in the known months: whosoever therefore purposeth to go on pilgrimage therein, let him not know a woman, nor transgress, nor quarrel in the pilgrimage. The good which ye do God knoweth it. Make provision for your journey; but the best provision is piety; and fear me, O ye of understanding.

41 (37). No. 198. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 361, Vol. I.

It shall be no crime in you, if ye seek an increase from your Lord, by trading during the pilgrimage. And when ye go in procession from Arafát remember God near the holy monument; and remember him for that he hath directed you, although ye were before this of the number of those who go astray.

42 (38). No. 199. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 362, Vol. I.

Therefore go in procession from whence the people go in procession, and ask pardon of God, for God is gracious and merciful.

43 (39). No 202. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 363, Vol. I.

Remember God the appointed number of days; but if any haste to depart from the valley of Mina in two days, it shall be no crime in him. And if any tarry longer, it shall be no crime in him, in him who feareth God. Therefore fear God, and know that unto him ye shall be gathered.

44 (40). No. 218. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 368, Vol. I.

They will ask thee concerning wine and lots: Answer, In both there is great sin, and also some things of use unto men; but their sinfulness is greater than their use.

45 (41). No. 219. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 369.

They will ask thee also what they shall bestow in alms: Answer, What ye have to spare. Thus God showeth his signs unto you, that peradventure ye might seriously think of this present world, and of the next.

46 (42). No. 220. Sipara II, Chapter II, p. 369, Vol. I.

They will also ask thee concerning orphans: Answer, To deal righteously with them is best.

47 (43). No. 220. Sipara II, Chapter II, p. 369, Vol. I.

And if ye intermeddle with the management of what belongs to them, do them no wrong; they are your brethren: God knoweth the corrupt dealer from the righteous; and if God please, he will surely distress you, for God is mighty and wise.

48 (44). No. 221. Sipara II, Chapter II, p. 370, Vol. I.

Marry not women who are idolaters, until they believe: verily a maid servant who believeth is better than an idolatress, although she please you more. And give not women who believe in marriage to the idolaters, until they believe: for verily a servant who is a true believer is better than an idolater, though he please you more.

49 (45). No. 221. Sipara II, Charter II, p. 370, Vol. I.

They invite unto hell-fire, but God inviteth unto paradise and pardon through his will, and declareth his signs unto men, that they may remember.

50 (46). No. 222. Sipara II, Chapter II, p. 370, Vol. I.

They will ask thee also concerning the courses of women: Answer, They are a pollution: therefore, separate yourselves from women in their courses, and go not near them, until they be cleansed. But when they are cleansed, go in unto them as God hath commanded you, for God loveth those who repent, and loveth those who are clean.

They who vow to abstain from their wives are allowed to wait four months: but if they go back from their vow, verily God is gracious and merciful.

55 (51). No. 227. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 371, Vol. I.

And if they resolve on a divorce, God is he who heareth and knoweth.

56 (52). No. 228. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, pp. 372 and 428.

The women who are divorced shall wait concerning themselves until they have their courses thrice, and it shall not be lawful for them to conceal that which God hath created in their wombs, if they believe in God and the last day; and their husbands will act more justly to bring them back at this time, if they desire a reconciliation. The women ought also to behave towards their husbands in like manner as their husbands should behave towards them, according to what is just: but the men ought to have a superiority over them. God is mighty and wise.

57 (53). No. 229. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 372, Vol. I.

Ye may divorce your wives twice; and then either retain them with humanity, or dismiss them with kindness. But it is not lawful for you to take away anything of what ye have given them, unless both fear that they cannot observe the ordinance of God. And if ye fear that they cannot observe the ordinance of God, it shall be no crime in either of them on account of that for which the wife shall redeem herself. These are the ordinances of God; therefore transgress them not; for whoever transgresseth the ordinances of God, they are unjust doers.

58 (54). No. 230. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 373, Vol. I.

But if the husband divorce her a third time, she shall not be lawful for him again, until she marry another husband. But if he also divorce her, it shall be no crime in them if they return to each other, if they think they can observe the ordinances of God, and these are the ordinances of God; he declareth them to people of understanding.

59 (55). No. 231. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 374, Vol. I.

But when ye divorce women, and they have fulfilled their prescribed time, either retain them with humanity or dismiss them with kindness; and retain them not by violence, so that ye transgress; for he who doth this surely injureth his own soul. And make not the signs of God a jest: but remember God's favour towards you, and that he hath sent down unto you the book of the Quran, and wisdom admonishing you thereby; and fear God, and know that God is omniscient.

But when ye have divorced your wives, and they have fulfilled their prescribed time, hinder them not from marrying their husbands, when they have agreed among themselves according to what is honourable. This is given in admonition unto him among you who believeth in God, and the last day. This is most righteous for you, and most pure. God knoweth but ye know not.

61 (57). No. 233. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 375, Vol. I.

Mothers, after they are divorced shall give suck unto their children two full years, to him who desireth the time of giving suck to be completed; and the father shall be obliged to maintain them and clothe them in the meantime, according to that which shall be reasonable. No person shall be obliged beyond his ability. A mother shall not be compelled to what is unreasonable on account of her child, nor a father on account of his child. And the heir of the father shall be obliged to do in like manner. But if they choose to wean the child before the end of two years, by common consent and on mutual consideration, it shall be no crime in them. And if ye have a mind to provide a nurse for your children, it shall be no crime in you, in case ye fully pay what ye offer her, according to that which is just. And fear God, and know that God seeth whatsoever ye do.

62 (58). No. 234. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 375, Vol. I.

Such of you as die, and leave wives, their wives must wait concerning themselves four months and ten days, and when they shall have fulfilled their term, it shall be no crime in you, for that which they shall do with themselves, according to what is reasonable. God well knoweth that which ye do.

63 (59). No. 235. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 375, Vol. I.

And it shall be no crime in you, whether ye make public overtures of marriage unto such women, within the said four months and ten days, or whether ye conceal such your designs in your minds: God knoweth that ye will remember them. But make no promises unto them privately, unless ye speak honourable words.

64 (60). No. 235. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 376, Vol. I.

And resolve not on the knot of marriage until the prescribed time be accomplished; and know that God knoweth that which is in your minds, therefore beware of him and know that God is gracious and merciful.

65 (61). No. 236. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 376, Vol. I.

It shall be no crime in you if ye divorce your wives, so long as ye have not touched them, nor settled any dowry on them. And provide for them (he who is at his ease must provide according to his circumstances, and he who is straitened according to his circumstances) necessaries, according to what shall be reasonable. This is a duty incumbent on the righteous.

66 (62). No. 237. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 376, Vol. I.

But if ye divorce them before ye have touched them, and have already settled a dowry on them, ye shall give them half of what ye have settled, unless they release any part, or he release part in whose hand the knot of marriage is; and if ye release the whole, it will approach nearer unto piety. And forget not liberality among you, for God seeth that which ye do.

Carefully observe the appointed prayers, and the middle prayer, and be assiduous therein, with devotion towards God.

68 (64). No. 239. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 377, Vol. I.

But if ye fear any danger, pray on foot or on horseback; and when ye are safe remember God, how he hath taught you what as yet ye knew not.

69 (65). No. 240. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 377, Vol. I.

And such of you as shall die and leave wives, ought to bequeath their wives a year's maintenance, without putting them out of their houses: but if they go out voluntarily, it shall be no crime in you, for that which they shall do with themselves, according to what shall be reasonable; God is mighty and wise.

70 (66). No. 241. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 377, Vol. I.

And unto those who are divorced, a reasonable provision is also due; this is a duty incumbent on those who fear God.

72 (68). No. 243. SIPARA II, CHAPTER II, p. 378, Vol. I.

Hast thou not considered those who left their habitations (and they were thousands) for fear of death? And God said unto them, Die; then he restored them to life, for God is gracious towards mankind; but the greater part of men do not give thanks.

73 (69). No. 255. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 382, Vol. I.

God! there is no God but he; the living, the self-subsisting: neither slumber nor sleep seizeth him; to him belongeth whatsoever is in heaven, and on earth. Who is he that can intercede with him, but through his good pleasure? He knoweth that which is past, and that which is to come unto them, and they shall not comprehend anything of his knowledge, but so far as he pleaseth. His throne is extended over heaven and earth, and the preservation of both is no burden unto him. He is the high, the mighty.

74 (70). No. 267. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 386, Vol. I.

O true believers, bestow alms of the good things which ye have gained, and of that which we have produced for you out of the earth, and choose not the bad thereof, to give it in alms, such as ye would not accept yourselves, otherwise than by connivance: and know that God is rich and worthy to be praised.

75 (71). No. 268. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 386, Vol. I.

The devil threateneth you with poverty, and commandeth you filthy covetousness; but God promiseth you pardon from himself and abundance: God is bounteous and wise.

76 (72). No. 269. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 387, Vol. I.

He giveth wisdom unto whom he pleaseth; and he unto whom wisdom is given hath received much good: but none will consider, except the wise of heart.

77 (73). No. 270. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 387, Vol. I.

And whatever alms ye shall give, or whatever vow ye shall vow, verily God knoweth it; but the ungodly shall have none to help them.

78 (74). No. 271. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 387, Vol. I.

If ye make your alms to appear, it is well; but if ye conceal them, and give them unto the poor, this will be better for you, and will atone for your sins; and God is well informed of that which ye do.

79 (75). No. 275. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 388, Vol. I.

They who devour usury shall not arise from the dead, but as he ariseth whom Satan hath infected by a touch: this shall happen to them because they say, Truly selling is but as usury: and yet God hath permitted selling and forbidden usury. He therefore who when there cometh unto him an admonition from his Lord abstaineth from usury for the future, shall have what is past forgiven him, and his affair belongeth unto God. But whoever returneth to usury they shall be the companions of hell-fire, they shall continue therein forever.

80 (76). No. 278. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 389, Vol. I.

O true believers, fear God and remit that which remaineth of usury, if ye really believe.

81 (77). No. 279. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 389, Vol. I.

But if ye do it not, hearken unto war, which is declared against you from God and his apostle: yet if ye repent, ye shall have the capital of your money. Deal not unjustly with others, and ye shall not be dealt with unjustly.

82 (78). No. 280. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 389, Vol. I.

If there be any debtor under a difficulty of paying his debt, let his creditor wait till it be easy for him to do it; but if ye remit it as alms, it will be better for you, if ye knew it.

83 (79). No. 282. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 389, Vol. I.

O true believers, when ye bind yourselves one to the other in a debt for a certain time, write it down; and let a writer write between you according to justice, and let not the writer refuse writing according to what God hath taught him; but let him write, and let him who oweth the debt dictate, and let him fear God his Lord, and not diminish aught thereof. But if he who oweth the debt be foolish, or weak, or be not able to dictate himself, let his agent dictate according to equity; and call to witness two witnesses of your neighbouring men; but if there be not two men, let there be a man and two women of those whom ye shall choose for witnesses: if one of those women should mistake, the other of them will cause her to recollect. And the witnesses shall not refuse, whensoever they shall be called. And disdain not to write it down, be it a large debt, or be it a small one, until its time of payment: this will be more just in the sight of God, and more right for bearing witness, and more easy, that ye may not doubt. But if it be a present bargain which ye transact between yourselves, it shall be no crime in you, if ye write it not down. And take witnesses when ye sell one to the other, and let no harm be done to the writer, nor to the witness; which if ye do, it will surely be injustice in you; and fear God, and God will instruct you, for God knoweth all things.

84 (80). No. 283. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 390, Vol. I.

And if ye be on a journey, and find no writer, let pledges be taken: but if one of you trust the other, let him who is trusted return what he is trusted with, and fear God his Lord. And conceal not the testimony, for he who concealeth it hath surely a wicked heart: God knoweth that which ye do.

85 (81). No. 284. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 390, Vol. I.

Whatever is in heaven and on earth is God's; and whether ye manifest that which is in your minds, or conceal it, God will call you to account for it, and will forgive whom he pleaseth, and will punish whom he pleaseth; for God is almighty.

86 (82). No. 286. SIPARA III, CHAPTER II, p. 391, Vol. I.

God will not force any soul beyond its capacity: it shall have the good which it gaineth, and it shall suffer the evil which it gaineth. O Lord, punish us not if we forget or act sinfully.

87 (83). No. 7. SIPARA III, CHAPTER III, p. 5, Vol. II.

It is he who hath sent down unto thee the book, wherein are some verses clear to be understood, they are the foundation of the book; and others are parabolical. But they whose hearts are perverse will follow that which is parabolical therein, out of love of schism, and a desire of the interpretation thereof; yet none knoweth the interpretation thereof, except God. But they who are well grounded in the knowledge say, We believe therein, the whole is from our Lord; and none will consider except the prudent.

O true believers, perform your contracts. Ye are allowed to eat the brute cattle, other than what ye are commanded to abstain from; except the game which ye are allowed at other times, but not while ye are on pilgrimage to Makkah; God ordaineth that which he pleaseth.

159 (155). No. 3. SIPARA VI, CHAPTER V, p. 121, Vol. II.

O true believers, violate not the holy rites of God, nor the sacred month, nor the offering, nor the ornaments hung thereon, nor those who are travelling to the holy house, seeking favour from their Lord, and to please him. But when ye shall have finished your pilgrimage, then hunt. And let not the malice of some, in that they hindered you from entering the sacred temple, provoke you to transgress, by taking revenge on them in the sacred months. Assist one another according to justice and piety, but assist not one another in injustice and malice: therefore fear God; for God is severe in punishing.

Ye are forbidden to eat that which dieth of itself, and blood, and swine's flesh, and that on which the name of any besides God hath been invocated; and that which hath been strangled, or killed by a blow, or by a fall, or by the horns of another beast, and that which hath been eaten by a wild beast, except what ye shall kill yourselves; and that which hath been sacrificed unto idols. It is likewise unlawful for you to make division by casting lots with arrows.

This is an impiety. On this day woe be unto those who have apostatised from their religion; therefore fear not them, but fear me. This day have I perfected your religion for you, and have completed my mercy upon you; and I have chosen for you Islam, to be your religion. But whosoever shall be driven by necessity through hunger to eat of what we have forbidden, not designing to sin, surely God will be indulgent and merciful unto him.

And whoso taketh God, and his apostle, and the believers for his friends, they are the party of God, and they shall be victorious.

172 (168). No. 63. SIPARA VI, CHAPTER V, p. 140, Vol. II.

Nor those who, when ye call to prayer, make a laughing-stock and a jest of it; this they do because they are people who do not understand.

173 (169). No. 91. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 148, Vol. II.

God will not punish you for an inconsiderate word in your oaths; but he will punish you for what ye solemnly swear with deliberation. And the expiation of such an oath shall be the feeding of ten poor men with such moderate food as ye feed your own families withal; or to clothe them; or to free the neck of a true believer from captivity: but he who shall not find wherewith to perform one of these three things shall fast three days. This is the expiation of your oaths, when ye swear inadvertently. Therefore keep your oaths. Thus God declareth unto you his signs, that ye may give thanks.

174 (170). No. 92. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 148, Vol. II.

O true believers, surely wine, and lots, and images, and divining arrows are an abomination of the work of Satan; therefore avoid them that ye may prosper.

175 (171). No. 93. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 148, Vol. II.

Satan seeketh to sow dissension and hatred among you by means of wine and lots, and to divert you from remembering God and from prayer: will ye not therefore abstain from them?

176 (172). No. 96. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 149, Vol. II.

O true believers, kill no game while ye are on pilgrimage; whosoever among you shall kill any designedly shall restore the like of what he shall have killed in domestic animals, according to the determination of two just persons among you, to be brought as offering to the Kaabah; or in atonement thereof shall feed the poor; or instead thereof shall fast that he may taste the heinousness of his deed. God hath forgiven what is past, but whoever returneth to transgress, God will take vengeance on him; for God is mighty and able to avenge.

God hath not ordained anything concerning Bahaira, nor Saiba, nor Wasila, nor Hami; but the unbelievers have invented a lie against God: and the greater part of them do not understand.

182 (178). No. 105. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 152, Vol. II.

O true believers, let witnesses be taken between you, when death approaches any of you, at the time of making the testament; let there be two witnesses, just men, from among you; or two others of a different tribe or faith from yourselves, if ye be journeying in the earth, and the accident of death befall you. Ye shall shut them both up after the afternoon prayer, and they shall swear by God, if ye doubt them, and they shall say, We will not sell our evidence for a bribe, although the person concerned be one who is related to us, neither will we conceal the testimony of God, for then should we certainly be of the number of the wicked.

183 (179). No. 106. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 153, Vol. II.

But if it appear that both have been guilty of iniquity, two others shall stand up in their place, of those who have convicted them of false- hood, the two nearest in blood, and they shall swear by God, saying, Verily our testimony is more true than the testimony of these two, neither have we prevaricated; for then should we become of the number of the unjust.

184 (180). No. 107. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 154, Vol. II.

This will be easier, that men may give testimony according to the plain intention thereof, or fear lest a different oath be given, after their oath. Therefore fear God and hearken; for God directeth not the unjust people.

185 (181). No. 67. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VI, p. 175, Vol. II.

When thou seest those who are engaged in cavilling at or ridiculing our signs, depart from them until they be engaged in some other discourse: and if Satan cause thee to forget this precept do not sit with the ungodly people after recollection.

186 (182). No. 68. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VI, p. 176, Vol. II.

They who fear God are not at all accountable for them, but their duty is to remember, that they may take heed to themselves.

187 (183). No. 118. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VI, p. 189, Vol. II.

Eat of that whereon the name of God hath been commemorated, if ye believe in his signs.

188 (184). No. 119. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VI, p. 189, Vol. II.

And why do ye not eat of that whereon the name of God hath been commemorated? since he hath plainly declared unto you what he hath forbidden you; except that which ye be compelled to eat of by necessity; many lead others into error, because of their appetities, being void of knowledge; but thy Lord well knoweth who are the transgressors.

189 (185). No. 120. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 189, Vol. II.

Leave both the outside of iniquity and the inside thereof: for they who commit iniquity shall receive the reward of that which they shall have gained.

190 (186). No. 121. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 189, Vol. II.

Eat not therefore of that whereon the name of God hath not been commemorated; for this is certainly wickedness: but the devils will suggest unto their friends, that they dispute with you concerning this precept; but if ye obey them, ye are surely idolaters.

191 (187). No. 136. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 192, Vol. II.

Those of Makkah set apart unto God a portion of that which he hath produced of the fruits of the earth, and of cattle; and say, This belongeth unto God (according to their imagination) and this unto our companions. And that which is destined for their companions cometh not unto God; yet that which is set apart unto God cometh unto their companions. How ill do they judge!

192 (188). No. 137. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 193, Vol. II.

In like manner have their companions induced many of the idolaters to slay their children, that they might bring them to perdition, and that they might render their religion obscure and confused unto them. But if God had pleased, they had not done this: therefore leave them and that which they falsely imagine.

193 (189). No. 138. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 193, Vol. II.

They also say, These cattle and fruits of the earth are sacred; none shall eat thereof, but who we please (according to their imagination); and there are cattle whose backs are forbidden to be rode on, or laden with burdens; and there are cattle on which they commemorate not the name of God when they slay them; devising a lie against him. God shall reward them for that which they falsely devise.

194 (190). No. 139. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 194, Vol. II.

And they say, That which is in the bellies of these cattle is allowed to our males to eat, and is forbidden to our wives: but if it prove abortive, then they are both partakers thereof. God shall give them the reward of their attributing these things to him: he is knowing and wise.

195 (191). No. 140. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 194, Vol. II.

They are utterly lost who have slain their children foolishly, without knowledge; and have forbidden that which God hath given them for food, devising a lie against God. They have erred, and were not rightly directed.

196 (192). No. 141. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 194, Vol. II.

He it is who produceth gardens of vines, both those which are supported on trails of wood, and those which are not supported, and palm trees, and the corn affording various food, and olives, and pomegranates, alike and unlike unto one another. Eat of their fruit when they bear fruit, and pay the due thereof on the day whereon ye shall gather it; but be not profuse, for God loveth not those who are too profuse.

197 (193). No. 142. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 194, Vol. II.

And God hath given you some cattle fit for bearing of burdens, and some fit for slaughter only. Eat of what God hath given you for food; and follow not the steps of Satan, for he is your declared enemy.

198 (194). No. 143. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 194, Vol. II.

Four pair of cattle hath God given you; of sheep one pair, and of goats one pair. Say unto them, Hath God forbidden the two males, of sheep and of goats, or the two females; or that which the wombs of the two females contain? Tell me with certainty, if ye speak truth.

199 (195). No. 144. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 195, Vol. II.

And of camels hath God given you one pair, and of oxen one pair. Say, Hath he forbidden the two males of these, or the two females; or that which the wombs of the two females contain? Were ye present when God commanded you this? And who is more unjust than he who deviseth a lie against God, that he may seduce men without understanding? Verily God directed not unjust people.

200 (196). No. 145. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER V, p. 195, Vol. II.

Say, I find not in that which hath been revealed unto me anything forbidden unto the eater, that he eat it not, except it be that which dieth of itself, or blood poured forth, or swine's flesh; for this is an abomination: or that which is profane, having been slain in the name of some other than of God. But whoso shall be compelled by necessity to eat of these things, not lusting, nor wilfully transgressing, verily thy Lord will be gracious unto him and merciful.

201 (197). No. 146. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VI, p. 195, 793.

Unto the Jews did we forbid every beast having an undivided hoof; and of bullocks and sheep, we forbade them the fat of both; except that which should be on their backs, or their inwards, or which should be intermixed with the bone. This have we rewarded them with, because of their iniquity; and we are surely speakers of truth.

202 (198). No. 154. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VI, p. 197, Vol. II.

And that ye may know that this is my right way: therefore follow it, and follow not the path of others, lest ye be scattered from the path of God. This hath he commanded you, that ye may take heed.

203 (199). No. 158. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VI, p. 198, Vol. II.

Do they wait for any other than that the angels should come unto them, to part their souls from their bodies, or that thy Lord should come to punsih them, or that some of the signs of thy Lord should come to pass, showing the day of Judgment to be at hand? On the day whereon some of thy Lord's signs shall come to pass, its faith shall not profit a soul which believed not before, or wrought not good in its faith. Say, Wait ye for this day; we surely do wait for it.

204 (206). No. 30. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VII, p. 208, Vol. II.

Say, My Lord hath commanded me to observe justice; therefore set your faces to pray at every place of worship, and call upon him, approving unto him the sincerity of your religion. As he produced you at first, so unto him shall ye return.

205 (201). No. 31. SIPARA VII, CHAPTER VII, p. 239, Vol. II.

A part of mankind hath he directed; and a part hath been justly led unto error, because they have taken the devils for their patrons besides God, and imagine they are rightly directed.

206 (202). No. 32. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VII, p. 209 Vol. II.

O children of Adam, take your decent apparel at every place of worship, and eat and drink, but be not guilty of excess; for he loveth not those who are guilty of excess.

207 (204). No. 47. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VII, p. 212, 822.

And between the blessed and the damned there shall be a veil; and men shall stand on Al Aráf who shall know every one of them by their marks; and shall call unto the inhabitants of Paradise, saying, Peace be upon you: yet they shall not enter therein, although they earnestly desire it.

208 (204). No. 48. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VII, p. 213, Vol. II.

And when they shall turn their eyes towards the companions of hell-fire, they say, O Lord, place us not with the ungodly people!

209 (205). No. 49. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VII, p. 213, Vol. II.

And those who stand on Al Aráf shall call unto certain men, whom they shall know by their marks, and shall say, What hath your gathering of riches availed you, and that you were puffed up with pride?

210 (206). No. 50. SIPARA VIII, CHAPTER VII, p. 213, Vol. II.

Are these the men on whom you swear that God would not bestow mercy? Enter ye into Paradise; there shall come no fear on you, neither shall ye be grieved.

Were they therefore secure from the stratagem of God? But none will think himself secure from the stratagem of God except the people who perish.

214 (210). No. 158. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VII, p. 237, Vol. II.

Who shall follow the apostle, the illiterate prophet, whom they shall find written down with them in the law and the gospel: he will command them that which is just, and will forbid them that which is evil, and will allow them as lawful the good things which were before forbidden, and will prohibit those which are bad; and he will ease them of their heavy burden, and of the yokes which were upon them. And those who believe in him, and honour him, and assist him, and follow the light, which hath been sent down with him, shall be happy.

215 (211). No. 173. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VII, p. 241, Vol. II.

And when thy Lord drew forth their posterity from the loins of the sons of Adam, and took them to witness against themselves, saying, Am not I your Lord? They answered, Yea: we do bear witness. This was done lest ye should say at the day of resurrection, Verily we were negligent as to this matter, because we were not apprised thereof.

216 (212). No. 174. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VII, p. 241, Vol. II.

Or lest ye should say, Verily our fathers were formerly guilty of idolatry, and we are their posterity who have succeeded them; wilt thou therefore destroy us for that which vain men have committed?

217 (213). No. 204. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VII, p. 247, Vol. II.

And when the Quran is read attend thereto, and keep silence that ye may obtain mercy.

218 (214). No. 205. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VII, p. 247, Vol. II.

And meditate on thy Lord in thine own mind, with humility and fear, and without loud speaking, evening and morning; and be not one of the negligent.

219 (215). No. 1. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 250, Vol. II.

They will ask thee concerning the spoils: Answer, The division of the spoils belongeth unto God and the Apostle. Therefore fear God, and compose the matter amicably among you: and obey God and his Apostle, if ye are true believers.

220 (216). No. 11. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 253, Vol. II.

When a sleep fell on you as a security from him, and he sent down upon you water from heaven, that he might thereby purify you, and take from you the abomination of Satan, and that he might confirm your hearts, and establish your feet thereby.

221 (217). No. 15. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 254, Vol. II.

O true believers, when ye meet the unbelievers marching in great numbers against you, turn not your backs unto them.

222 (218). No. 16. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 254, Vol. II.

For whoso shall turn his back unto them in that day, unless he turneth aside to fight or retreateth to another party of the faithful, shall draw on himself the indignation of God, and his abode shall be in hell; an ill journey shall it be thither!

223 (219). No. 27. SIPAR IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 257, Vol. II.

O true believers, deceive not God and his apostle; neither violate your faith against your own knowledge.

224 (220). No. 39. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 260, Vol. II.

Say unto the unbelievers, that if they desist from opposing thee, what is already past shall be forgiven them; but if they return to attack thee, the exemplary punishment of the former opposers of the prophets is already past, and the like shall be inflicted on them.

225 (221). No. 40. SIPARA IX, CHAPTER VIII, p. 260, Vol. II.

Therefore fight against them until there be no opposition in favour of idolatry, and the religion be wholly God's. If they desist, verily God seeth that which they do.

226 (222). No. 41. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 261, Vol. II.

But if they turn back, know that God is your patron; he is the best patron, and the best helper.

227 (223). No. 42. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 261, Vol. II.

And know that whenever ye gain any spoils, a fifth part thereof belongeth unto God, and to the Apostle and his kindred, and the orphans, and the poor, and the traveller; if ye believe in God, and that which we have sent down unto our servant on the day of distinction, on the day whereon the two armies met; and God is almighty.

228 (224). No. 58. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 265, Vol. II.

As to those who enter into a league with thee, and afterwards violate their league at every convenient opportunity, and fear not God.

229 (225). No. 59. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 265, Vol. II.

If thou take them in war, disperse, by making them an example, those who shall come after them, that they may be warned.

230 (226). No. 60. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 265, Vol. II.

Or if thou apprehend treachery from any people, throw back their league unto them with like treatment; for God loveth not the treacherous.

231 (227). No. 61. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 265, Vol. II.

And think not that the unbelievers have escaped God's vengeance, for they shall not weaken the power of God.

232 (228). No. 62. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 266, Vol. II.

Therefore prepare against them what force ye are able, and troops of horse, whereby ye may strike a terror into the enemy of God, and your enemy, and into other infidels besides them, whom ye know not, but God knoweth them. And whatsoever ye shall expend in the defence of the religion of God, it shall be repaid unto you, and ye shall not be treated unjustly.

233 (229). No. 63. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 266, Vol. II.

And if they incline unto peace, do thou also incline thereto; and put thy confidence in God, for it is he who heareth and knoweth.

234 (230). No. 66. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 267, Vol. II.

O Prophet, stir up the faithful to war: if twenty of you persevere with constancy, they shall overcome two hundred, and if there be one hundred of you, they shall overcome a thousand of those who believe not; because they are a people which do not understand.

235 (231). No. 67. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 267, Vol. II.

Now hath God eased you, for he knew that ye were weak. If there be an hundred of you who persevere with constancy, they shall overcome two hundred; and if there be a thousand of you, they shall overcome two thousand, by the permission of God; for God is with those who persevere.

236 (232). No. 68. SIPARA X, CHAPTER VIII, p. 267, Vol. II.

It hath not been granted unto any prophet that he should possess captives, until he hath made a great slaughter of the infidels in the earth.

Ye seek the accidental goods of this world, but God regardeth the life to come; and God is mighty and wise.

237 (233). No. 69. Sipara X, Chapter VIII, p. 268, Vol. II.

Unless a revelation had been previously delivered from God, verily a severe punishment had been inflicted on you for the ransom which ye took from the captives at Badr.

238 (234). No. 70. Sipara X, Chapter VIII, p. 269, Vol. II.

Eat therefore of what ye have acquired, that which is lawful and good; for God is gracious and merciful.

239 (235). No. 73. Sipara X, Chapter VIII, p. 270, Vol. II.

Moreover, they who have believed, and have fled their country, and employed their substance and their persons in fighting for the religion of God, and they who have given the Prophet a refuge among them, and have assisted him, these shall be deemed the one nearest of kin to the other. But they who have believed, but have not fled their country, shall have no right of kindred at all with you, until they also fly. Yet if they ask assistance of you on account of religion, it belongeth unto you to give them assistance; except against a people between whom and yourselves there shall be a league subsisting: and God seeth that which ye do.

240 (236). No. 5. Sipara X, Chapter IX, p. 279, Vol. II.

And when the months wherein ye are not allowed to attack them shall be past, kill the idolaters wheresoever ye shall find them, and take them prisoners, and besiege them, and lay wait for them in every convenient place. But if they shall repent, and observe the appointed times of prayer and pay the legal alms, dismiss them freely; for God is gracious and merciful.

241 (237). No. 6. Sipara X, Chapter IX, p. 279, Vol. II.

And if any of the idolaters shall demand protection of thee, grant him protection, that he may hear the word of God, and afterwards let him reach the place of his security. This shall thou do, because they are people which know not the excellency of the religion thou preachest.

242 (238). No. 11. Sipara X, Chapter IX, p. 280, Vol. II.

Yet if they repent and observe the appointed times of prayer, and give alms they shall be deemed your brethren in religion. We distinctly propound our signs unto people who understand.

243 (239). No. 12. Sipara X, Chapter IX, p. 281, Vol. II.

But if they violate their oaths after their league, and revile your religion, oppose the leaders of infidelity (for there is no trust in them) that they may desist from their treachery.

244 (240). No. 17. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 282, Vol. II.

It is not fitting that the idolaters should visit the temples of God, being witnesses against their own souls of their infidelity. The works of these men are vain, and they shall remain in hell-fire for ever.

245 (241). No. 18. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 282, Vol. II.

But he only shall visit the temples of God who believeth in God and the last day, and is constant at prayer, and payeth the legal alms, and feareth God alone. These perhaps may become of the number of those who are rightly directed.

246 (242). No. 19. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 283, Vol. II.

Do ye reckon the giving drink to the pilgrims and the visiting of the holy temple to be actions as meritorious as those performed by him who believeth in God and the last day, and fighteth for the religion of God? They shall not be held equal with God; for God directeth not the unrighteous people.

247 (243). No. 28. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 285, Vol. II.

O true believers, verily the idolaters are unclean; let them not therefore come near unto the holy temple after this year. And if ye fear want, by the cutting off trade and communication with them, God will enrich you of his abundance, if he pleaseth; for God is knowing and wise.

248 (244). No. 29. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 286, Vol. II.

Fight against them who believe not in God nor the last day, and forbid not that which God and his Apostle have forbidden, and profess not the true religion, of those unto whom the scriptures have been delivered, until they pay tribute by right of subjection, and they be reduced low.

249 (245). No. 34. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 289, Vol. II.

O true believers, verily many of the priests and monks devour the substance of God in vanity, and obstruct the way of God. But unto those who treasure up gold and silver, and employ it not for the advancement of God's true religion, denounce a grievous punishment.

250 (246). No. 35. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 290, Vol. II.

On the day of Judgment their treasures shall be intensely heated in the fire of hell, and their foreheads, and their sides, and their backs shall be stigmatised therewith; and their tormentors shall say, This is what ye have treasured up for your souls; taste therefore what which ye have treasured up.

251 (247). No. 36. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 290, Vol. II.

Moreover, the complete number of months with God is twelve months, which were ordained in the book of God on the day whereon he created the heavens and the earth: of these four are sacred. This is the right religion; therefore deal not unjustly with yourselves therein. But attack the idolaters in all the months, as they attack you in all; and know that God is with those who fear him.

252 (248). No. 41. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 292, Vol. II.

Go forth to battle, both light and heavy, and employ your substance and your persons for the advancement of God's religion. This will be better for you, if ye know it.

253 (249). No. 60. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 296, Vol. II.

Alms are to be distributed only unto the poor and the needy, and those who are employed in collecting and distributing the same, and unto those whose hearts are reconciled, and for the redemption of captives, and unto those who are in debt and insolvent, and for the advancement of God's religion, and unto the traveller. This is an ordinance from God; and God is knowing and wise.

254 (250). No. 66. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 299, Vol. II.

And if thou ask them the reason of this scoffing they say, Verily we were only engaged in discourse, and jesting among ourselves. Say, Do ye scoff at God and his signs, and at his Apostle

255 (251). No. 67. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 299, Vol. II.

Offer not an excuse: now are ye become infidels, after your faith. If we forgive a part of you, we will punish a part, for that they have been wicked doers.

256 252. No. 85. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 306, Vol. II.

Neither do thou ever pray over any of them who shall die, neither stand at his grave, for that they believed not in God and his Apostle, and die in their wickedness.

257 253. No. 92. SIPARA X, CHAPTER IX, p. 307, Vol. II.

In those who are weak, or are afflicted with sickness, or in those who find not wherewith to contribute to the war, it shall be no crime if they stay at home, provided they behave themselves faithfully towards God and his Apostle. There is no room to lay blame on the righteous; for God is gracious and merciful.

258 254. No. 104. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 311, Vol. II.

Take alms of their substance, that thou mayest cleanse them and purify them thereby; and pray for them, for thy prayers shall be a security of mind unto them; and God both heareth and knoweth.

259 255). No. 105. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 311, Vol. II.

Do they not know that God accepteth repentance from his servants and accepteth alms, and that God is easy to be reconciled and merciful?

260 256. No. 108. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 312, Vol. II.

There are some who have built a temple to hurt the faithful, and to propagate infidelity, and to foment division among the true believers, and for a lurking-place for him who hath fought against God and his Apostle in time past; and they swear, saying, Verily we intended no other than to do for the best; but God is witness that they do certainly lie.

261 267. No. 109. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 313, Vol. II.

Stand not up to to pray therein for ever. There is a temple founded on piety, from the first day of its building. It is more just that thou stand up to pray therein: therein are men who love to be purified, for God loveth the clean.

262 258. No. 121. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 317, Vol. II.

There was no reason why the inhabitants of Madina, and the Arabs of the desert who dwell around them, should stay behind the Apostle of God, or should prefer themselves before him. This is unreasonable, because they are not distressed either by thirst or labour or hunger, for the defence of God's true religion; neither do they stir a step which may irritate the unbelievers; neither do they receive from the enemy any damage, but a good work is written down unto them for the same; for God suffereth not the reward of the righteous to perish.

263 259. No. 122. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 318, Vol. II.

And they contribute not any sum either small or great, nor do they pass a valley; but it is written down unto them that God may reward them with a recompense exceeding that which they have wrought.

264 (260). No. 123. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER IX, p. 318, Vol. II.

The believers are not obliged to go forth to war altogether: if a part of every band of them go not forth, it is that they may diligently interest themselves in their religion, and may admonish their people when they return unto them, that they may take heed to themselves.

265 (261). No. 87. SIPARA XI, CHAPTER X, p. 337, Vol. II.

And we spake by inspiration unto Moses and his brother, saying, Provide habitations for your people in Egypt, and make your houses a a place of worship, and be constant at prayer; and bear good news unto the true believers.

266 (262). No. 115. SIPARA XII, CHAPTER XI, p. 366, Vol. II.

Pray regularly morning and evening; and in the former part of the night, for good works drive away evil. This is an admonition unto those who consider.

267 (263). No. 116. SIPARA XII, CHAPTER XI, p. 366, Vol. II.

Wherefore persevere with patience; for God suffereth not the reward of the righteous to perish.

268 (264). No. 20. SIPARA XII, CHAPTER XII, p. 375, Vol. II.

And they sold him for a mean price, for a few pence, and valued him lightly.

269 (265). No. 72. SIPARA XIII, CHAPTER XII, p. 387, Vol. II.

They answered, We miss the prince's cup; and unto him who shall produce it shall be given a camel's load of corn, and I will be surety for the same.

270 (266). No. 88. SIPARA XIII, CHAPTER XII, p. 390, Vol. II.

Wherefore Joseph's brethren returned into Egypt; and when they came into his presence they said, Noble lord, the famine is felt by us and our family, and we are come with a small sum of money; yet give unto us full measure, and bestow corn upon us as alms, for God rewardeth the almsgivers.

271 (267). No. 32. SIPARA XIII, CHAPTER XIV, p. 8, Vol. III.

God shall confirm them who believe, by the steadfast word of faith, both in this life and in that which is to come: but God shall lead the wicked into error; for God doth that which he pleaseth.

272 (268). No. 5. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 27, Vol. III.

He hath likewise created the cattle for you; from them ye have wherewith to keep yourselves warm, and other advantages; and of them do ye also eat.

273 (269). No. 6. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 27, Vol. III.

And they are likewise a credit unto you, when ye drive them home in the evening, and when ye lead them forth to feed in the morning.

274 (270). No. 7. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 27, Vol. III.

And they carry your burdens to a distant country, at which ye could not otherwise arrive, unless with great difficulty to yourselves; for your Lord is compassionate and merciful.

275 (271). No. 8. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 27, Vol. III.

And he hath also created horses, and mules, and asses, that ye may ride thereon, and for an ornament unto you; and he likewise created other things which ye know not.

276 (272). No. 14. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 28, Vol. III.

It is he who hath subjected the sea unto you, that ye might eat fish thereout, and take from thence ornaments for you to wear; and thou seest the ships ploughing the waves thereof, that ye may seek to enrich yourselves of his abundance by commerce; and that ye might give thanks.

277 (273). No. 37. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 37, Vol. III.

And of the fruits of palm-trees, and of grapes, ye obtain an inebriating liquor, and also good nourishment. Verily herein is a sign unto people who understand.

278 (274). No. 77. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 38, Vol. III.

God propoundeth as a parable a possessed slave, who hath power over nothing, and him on whom we have bestowed a good provision from us, and who giveth alms thereout both secretly and openly: shall these two be esteemed equal? God forbid! But the greater part of men know it not.

279 (275). No. 82. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 39, Vol. III.

God hath also provided you houses for habitations for you; and hath also provided you tents of the skins of cattle, which ye find light to be removed on the day of your departure to new quarters, and easy to be pitched on the day of your sitting down therein: and of their wool, and their fur, and their hair, hath he supplied you with furniture and household stuff for a season.

280 (276). No. 83. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 40, Vol. III.

And God hath provided for you, of that which he hath created, conveniences to shade you from the sun, and he hath also provided you places of retreat in the mountains, and he hath given you garments to defend you from the heat, and coats of mail to defend you in your wars. Thus doth he accomplish his favour towards you, that ye may resign yourselves unto him.

281 (277). No. 100. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 43, Vol. III.

When thou readest the Quran, have recourse unto God, that he may preserve thee from Satan driven away with stones.

282 (278). No. 108. SIPARA XIV, CHAPTER XVI, p. 46, Vol. III.

Whoever denieth God, after he hath believed, except him who shall be compelled against his will, and whose heart continueth steadfast in the faith, shall be severely chastised: but whoever shall voluntarily profess infidelity, on those shall the indignation of God fall, and they shall suffer a grievious punishment.

283 (279). No. 1. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 55, Vol. III.

Praise be unto him who transported his servant by night from the sacred temple of Makkah to the farther temple of Jerusalem, the circuit of which we have blessed, that we might show some of our signs; for God is he who heareth and seeth.

284 (280). No. 35. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 61, Vol. III.

Neither slay the soul which God hath forbidden you to slay, unless for a just cause; and whosoever shall be slain unjustly, we have given his heir power to demand satisfaction; but let him not exceed the bounds of moderation in putting to death the murderer in too cruel a manner, or by revenging his friend's blood on any other than the person who killed him; since he is assisted by this law.

285 (281). No. 36. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 62, Vol. III.

And meddle not with the substance of the orphan, unless it be to improve it, until he attain his age of strength: and perform your covenant; for the performance of your covenant shall be inquired into hereafter.

286 (282). No. 80. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 69, Vol. III.

Regularly perform thy prayer at the declension of the sun, at the first darkness of the night, and the prayer of daybreak; for the prayers of daybreak is borne witness unto by the angels.

287 (283). No. 81. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 70, Vol. III.

And watch some part of the night in the same exercise, as a work of supererogation for thee: peradventure thy Lord will raise thee to an honourable station.

288 (284). No. 110. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 74, Vol. III.

Say, call upon God, or call on the Merciful: by whichsoever of the two names ye invoke, him it is equal; for he hath most excellent names.

Pronounce not thy prayer aloud, neither pronounce it with too low a voice, but follow a middle way between these.

289 (285). No. 111. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVII, p. 75, Vol. III.

And say, Praise be unto God, who hath not begotten any child; who hath no partner in the kingdom, nor hath any to protect him from contempt: and magnify him by proclaiming his greatness.

290 (286). No. 18. SIPARA XV, CHAPTER XVIII, p. 82, Vol. II.

And now send one of you with this your money into the city, and let him see which of its inhabitants hath the best and cheapest food, and let him bring you provision from him, and let him behave circumspectly, and not discover you to any one.

291 (287). No. 97. SIPARA XVI, CHAPTER XVIII, p. 97, Vol. III.

And Dhu-'l-Qarnain said, This is a mercy from my Lord: but when the prediction of my Lord shall come to be fulfilled, he shall reduce the wall to dust; and the prediction of my Lord is true.

292 (288). No. 72. SIPARA XVI, CHAPTER XIX, p. 111, Vol. III.

There shall be none of you, but shall approach near the same: this is an established decree with thy Lord.

293 (289). No. 73. SIPARA XVI, CHAPTER XIX, p. 111, Vol. III.

Afterwards we will deliver those who shall have been pious, but we will leave the ungodly therein on their knees.

294 (290). No. 13. SIPARA XVI, CHAPTER XX, p. 119, Vol. III.

And I have chosen thee; therefore hearken with attention unto that which is revealed unto thee.

295 (291). No. 14. SIPARA XVI, CHAPTER XX, p. 119, Vol. III.

Verily I am God; there is no God besides me; wherefore worship me, and perform thy prayer in remembrance of me.

296 (292). No. 130. SIPARA XVI, CHAPTER XX, p. 133, Vol. III.

Wherefore do thou, O Mohammad, patiently bear that which they say, and celebrate the praise of thy Lord before the rising of the sun, and before the setting thereof, and praise him in the hours of night and in the extremities of the day, that thou mayest be well-pleased with the prospect of receiving favour from God.

297 (293). No. 22. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXI, p. 140, Vol. III.

If there were either in heaven or on earth gods beside God, verily both would be corrupted. But far be that which they utter from God, the Lord of the throne!

298 (294). No. 26. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXI, p. 141, Vol. III.

They say, The Merciful hath begotten issue, and the angels are his daughters. God forbid! They are his honoured servants.

299 (295). No. 27. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXI, p. 141, Vol. III.

They prevent him not in anything which they say, and they execute his command.

300 (296). No. 78. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXI, p. 148, Vol. III.

And remember David and Solomon, when they pronounced judgment concerning a field, when the sheep of certain people had fed therein by night, having no shepherd; and we were witnesses of their judgment.

301 (297). No. 79. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXI, p. 148 Vol. III.

And we gave the understanding thereof unto Solomon. And on all of them we bestowed wisdom and knowledge.

302 (298). No. 25. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 160, Vol. III.

But they who shall disbelieve and obstruct the way of God and hinder men from visiting the holy temple of Makkah, which we have appointed for a place of worship unto all men, the inhabitant thereof and the stranger have an equal right to visit it: and whosoever shall seek impiously to profane it we will cause him to taste a grievous torment.

303 (299). No. 27. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 161, Vol. III.

Call to mind when we gave the site of the house of the Kaabah for an abode unto Abraham, saying, Do not associate anything with me, and cleanse my house for those who compass it, and who stand up, and who bow down to worship.

304 (300). No. 28. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 161, Vol. III.

And proclaim unto the people a solemn pilgrimage; let them come unto thee on foot, and on every lean camel, arriving from every distant road.

305 (301). No. 29. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 162, Vol. III.

That they may be witnesses of the advantages which accrue to them from the visiting this holy place, and may commemorate the name of God on the appointed days, in gratitude for the brute cattle which he hath bestowed on them. Wherefore eat thereof, and feed the needy and the poor.

306 (302). No. 30. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 162, Vol. III.

Afterwards let them put an end to the neglect of their persons, and let them pay their vows and compass the ancient house.

307 (303). No. 34. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 163, Vol. III.

This is so. And whoso maketh valuable offerings unto God verily they proceed from the piety of men's hearts.

308 (304). No. 35. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 163, Vol. III.

Ye receive various advantages from the cattle designed for sacrifices, until a determined time for slaying them : then the place of sacrificing them is at the ancient house.

309 (305). No. 38. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 164, Vol. III.

The camels slain for sacrifice have we appointed for you as symbols of your obedience unto God ; ye also receive other advantages from them. Wherefore commemorate the name of God over them when ye slay them, standing on their feet disposed in right order ; and when they are fallen down dead eat of them, and give to eat thereof both unto him who is content with what is given him, without asking, and unto him who asketh. Thus have we given you dominion over them, that ye might return us thanks.

310 (306). No. 39. SIPARA XVII, CHAPTER XXII, p. 165, Vol. III.

Their flesh is not accepted of God, neither their blood, but your piety is accepted of him. Thus have we given you dominion over them, that ye might magnify God, for the revelations whereby he hath directed you. And bear good tidings unto the righteous.

311 (307). No. 12. SIPARA XVIII. CHAPTR XXIII, p. 175; Vol. III.

We formerly created man in a finer sort of clay.

312 (308). No. 13. SIPARA XVIII. CHAPTER XIII, p. 175, Vol. III.

Afterwards we placed him in the form of seed in a sure receptacle.

313 (309). No. 14. SIPARA XVIII. CHAPTER XXIII, p. 175, Vol. III.

Afterwards we made the seed coagulated blood ; and we formed the coagulated blood into a piece of flesh ; then we formed the piece of flesh into bones : and we clothed those bones with flesh : then we produced the same by another creation. Wherefore blessed be God, the most excellant Creator !

314 (310). No. 2. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 189, Vol. III.

The whore and the whoremonger shall ye scourge with a hundred stripes. And let not compassion towards them prevent you from executing the judgment of God, if ye believe in God and the last day : and let some of the true believers be witnesses of their punishment.

315 (311). No. 3. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 190, Vol. III.
The whoremonger shall not marry any other than a harlot or an idolatress. And a harlot shall no man take in marriage, except a whoremonger or an idolater. And this kind of marriage is forbidden the true believers.

316 (312). No. 4. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 190, Vol. III.
But as to those who accuse women of reputation of whoredom, and produce not four witnesses of the fact, scourge them with fourscore stripes, and receive not their testimony for ever; for such are infamous prevaricators.

317 (313). No. 5. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 190, Vol. III.
Excepting those who shall afterwards repent, and amend; for unto such will God be gracious and merciful.

318 (314). No. 6. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 191, Vol. III.
They who shall accuse their wives of adultery, and shall have no witnesses thereof besides themselves, the testimony which shall be required of one of them shall be, that he swear four times by God that he speaketh the truth.

319 (314). No. 7. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 191, Vol. III.
And the fifth time that he imprecate the curse of God on him if he be a liar.

320 (316). No. 8. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 191, Vol. III.
And it shall avert the punishment from the wife if she swear four times by God that he is a liar.

321 (317). No. 9. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 191, Vol. III.
And if the fifth time she imprecate the wrath of God on her if he speaketh the truth.

322 (318). No. 10. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 191, Vol. III.
If it were not for the indulgence of God towards you, and his mercy, and that God is easy to be reconciled, and wise, he would immediately discover your crimes.

323 (319). No. 27. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 195, Vol. III.
O true believers, enter not any houses, besides your own houses, until ye have asked leave, and have saluted the family thereof; this is better for you, peradventure ye will be admonished.

324 (320). No. 28. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 195, Vol. III.

And if ye shall find no person in the houses, yet do not enter them until leave be granted you; and if it be said unto you, return back, do ye return back. This will be more decent for you; and God knoweth that which ye do.

325 (321). No. 29. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 195, Vol. III.

It shall be no crime in you that ye enter uninhabited houses, wherein ye may meet with a convenience. God knoweth that which ye discover and that which ye conceal.

326 (322). No. 30. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 195, Vol. III.

Speak unto the true believers, that they restrain their eyes, and keep themselves from immodest actions; this will be more pure for them, for God is well acquainted with that which they do.

327 (323). No. 31. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 196, Vol. III.

And speak unto the believing women, that they restrain their eyes and preserve their modesty, and discover not their ornaments, except what necessarily appeareth thereof; and let them throw their veils over their bosoms, and not show their ornaments, unless to their husbands, or their fathers, or their husband's fathers, or their sons, or their husband's sons, or their brothers, or their brother's sons, or their sister's sons, or their women, or the captives which their right hands shall possess, or unto such men as attend them, and have no need of women, or unto children who distinguish not the nakedness of women. And let them not make a noise with their feet, that their ornaments which they hide may thereby be discovered. And be ye all turned unto God, O true believers, that ye may be happy.

Marry those who are single among you, and such as are honest of your men-servants and your maid-servants: if they be poor, God will enrich them of his abundance; for God is bounteous and wise.

329 (325). No. 33. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 197, Vol. III.

And let those who find not a match keep themselves from fornication, until God shall enrich them of his abundance. And unto such of your slaves as desire a written instrument allowing them to redeem themselves on paying a certain sum, write one, if ye know good in them; and give them of the riches of God, which he hath given you. And compel not your maid-servants to prostitute themselves, if they be willing to live chastely; that ye may seek the casual advantage of this present life; but whoever shall compel them thereto, verily God will be gracious and merciful unto such women after their compulsion.

330 (326). No. 57. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 202, Vol. III.

O true believers, let your slaves and those among you who shall not have attained the age of puberty ask leave of you, before they come into your presence, three times in the day, namely, before the morning prayer, and when you lay aside your garments at noon, and after the evening prayer. These are the three times for you to be private: it shall be no crime in you, or in them, if they go in to you without asking permission after these times, while ye are in frequent attendance, the one of you on the other. Thus God declareth his signs unto you; for God is knowing and wise.

331 (327). No. 58. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 203, Vol. III.

And when your children attain the age of puberty, let them ask leave to come into your presence at all times, in the same manner as those who have attained that age before them ask leave. Thus God declareth his signs unto you; and God is knowing and wise.

332 (328). No. 59. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 203, Vol. III.

As to such women as are past child-bearing, who hope not to marry again because af their advanced age, it shall be no crime in them if they lay aside their outer garments, not showing their ornaments; but if they abstain from this, it will be better for them. God both heareth and knoweth.

It shall be no crime in the blind, nor shall it be any crime in the lame, neither shall it be any crime in the sick, or in yourselves, that ye, eat in your houses, or in the houses of your fathers, or the houses of your mothers, or in the houses of your brothers, or the houses of your sisters, or the houses of your uncles on the father's side, or the houses of your aunts on the father's side, or the houses of your uncle's on the mother's side, the houses of your aunts on the mother's side, or in those houses the keys whereof ye have in your possession, or in the house of your friend. It shall not be any crime in you whether ye eat together or separately. And when ye enter any houses, salute one another on the part of God with a blessed and a welcome salutation. Thus God declareth his signs unto you, that ye may understand.

334 (330). No. 63. SIPARA XVIII, CHAPTER XXIV, p. 205, Vol. III.

Let not the calling of the Apostle be esteemed among you, as your calling the one to the other. God knoweth such of you as privately withdraw themselves from the assembly, taking shelter behind one another. But let those who withstand his command take heed lest some calamity befall them in this world, or a grievous punishment be inflicted on them in the life to come.

Muhammad is the Apostle of God: and those who are with him are fierce against the unbelievers, but compassionate towards one another. Thou mayest see them bowing down, prostrate, seeking a recompense from God, and his good-will. Their signs are in their faces, being marks of frequent prostration. This is their description in the Pentateuch, and their description in the Gospel: they are as seed which putteth forth its stalk and strengtheneth it, and swelleth in the ear, and riseth upon its stem; giving delight unto the sower. Such are the Muslims described to be: that the infidels may swell with indignation at them. God hath promised unto such of them as believe and do good works pardon and a great reward.

If two parties of the believers contend with one another, do ye endeavour to compose the matter between them: and if the one of them offer an insult unto the other, fight against that party which offered the insult, until they return unto the judgment of God; and if they do return, make peace between them with equity: and act with justice; for God loveth those who act justly.

As to those among you who divorce their wives by declaring that they will thereafter regard them as their mothers, let them know that they are not their mothers. They only are their mothers who brought them forth; and they certainly utter an unjustfiable saying and a falsehood: but God is gracious and ready to forgive.

442 (438), No. 4. SIPARA XXVIII, CHAPTER LVIII, p. 124, Vol. IV.

Those who divorce their wives by declaring that they will for the future regard them as their mothers, and afterwards would repair what they have said, shall be obliged to free a captive before they touch one another. That is what ye are warned to perform: and God is well apprised of that which ye do.

443 (439). No. 5. SIPARA XXVIII, CHAPTER LVIII, p. 124, Vol. IV.

And whoso findeth not a captive to redeem shall observe a fast of two consecutive months before they touch one another. And whoso shall not be able to fast that time shall feed threescore poor men. This is ordained you that ye may believe in God and his Apostle. These are the statutes of God: and for the unbelievers is prepared a grievous torment.

444 (440). No. 2. SIPARA XXVIII, CHAPTER LIX, p. 129, Vol. IV.

It was he who caused those who believed not, of the people who receive the Scripture, to depart from their habitations at the first emigration. Ye did not think that they would go forth; and they thought that their fortresses would protect them against God. But the chastisement of God came upon them from whence they did not expect; and he cast terror into their hearts. They pulled down their houses with their own hands, and the hands of the true believers. Wherefore take example from them, O ye who have eyes.

And as to the spoils of these people which God hath granted wholly to his Apostle, ye did not push forward any horses or camels against the same; but God giveth unto his apostles dominion over whom he pleaseth: for God is almighty.

447 (443). No. 7. SIPARA XXVIII, CHAPTER LIX, p. 130, Vol. IV.

The spoils of the inhabitants of the towns which God hath granted to his Apostle are due unto God and to the Apostle, and to him who is of kin to the Apostle, and the orphans, and the poor, and the traveller; that they may not be for ever divided in a circle among such of you as are rich. What the Apostle shall give you, that accept; and what he shall forbid you, that abstain from: and fear God; for God is severe in chastising.

450 (446). No. 9. SIPARA XXVIII, CHAPTER LX, p. 137, Vol. IV.

But as to those who have borne arms against you on account of religion, and have dispossessed you of your habitations, and have assisted in dispossessing you, God forbiddeth you to enter into friendship with them: and whosoever of you entereth into friendship with them, those are unjust doers.

451 (447). No. 10. SIPARA XXVIII, CHAPTER LX, p. 137, Vol. IV.

O true believers, when believing women come unto you as refugees, try them: God well knoweth their faith. And if ye know them to be true believers, send them not back to the infidels: they are not lawful for the unbelievers to have in marriage; neither are the unbelievers lawful for them. But give their unbelieving husbands what they shall have expended for their dowers. Nor shall it be any crime in you if ye marry them, provided ye give them their dowries. And retain not the patronage of the unbelieving women; but demand back that which ye have expended for the dowry of such of your wives as go over to the unbelievers; and let them demand back that which they have expended for the dowry of those who come over to you. This is the judgment of God, which he establisheth among you, and God is knowing and wise.

O Prophet, when ye divorce women, put them away at their appointed term; and compute the term exactly: and fear God your Lord. Oblige them not to go out of their apartments, neither let them go out, until the term be expired, unless they be guilty of manifest uncleanness. These are the statutes of God; and whoever transgresseth the statutes of God assuredly injureth his own soul. Thou knowest not whether God will bring something new to pass, which may reconcile them after this.

CHAPTER II.

Summary of the contents of the five hundred Texts of the Quran given in Chapter I.

505. According to the "Tufseer-i-Ahmedy" (see pages 6 to 12 of the said Tufseer, Calcutta Edition of 1847), the following is a summary of the contents of the five hundred texts of the Quran given in the preceding Chapter, and a concise statement of what is established by those texts.

506. The opening Chapter or Soora (I) called the Soorai Fatiha,[1] or Prefatory and Introductory Chapter, does not contain any Hookm or command and obligation of the Shera.

The Soorai (II) Buqr[2] or the Soora called The Cow contains a large number of texts relating to commands.

Text 1. Ibahut, or permissibility of use, is the normal condition of all things (that is, all things are primâ facie allowable unless their use is disallowed by some text or authority).

Text 2. That Sulaat or Prayers are Furz[3] or obligatory; that Zukaat or poor rate is also Furz; that to make Rookoo or to bend down whilst saying prayers is also Furz; and that Jumaut, or forming an assembly for the purpose of saying prayers, is Wajib or obligatory.

Text 3. Nuskh or abrogation of the Quran is Jaiz, or permissible and possible, that is, such abrogation may be effected by some other text of the Quran or by the authority of the traditions.

Text 4. To demolish a mosque for the purpose of destruction is Huram or prohibited.

[3] The difference between "Furz" and "Wajib," as explained further on, consists in this, that the observance of both is obligatory, and the non-performance involves sin in both cases. "Furz" being laid down by what is called "Dalil-qutuyee," belief in it is essential, and the denial thereof involves Koofr, or fhfidelism; whereas "Wajib" being established by what is called Dalil-i-Zunnee, a belief in it is not essential, and the denial thereof does not involve Koofr.

Text 5. Regarding the Nuskh or abrogation of the rule respecting Qibla or direction towards which prayers were said, (that is to say, the practice of directing prayers facing the Kaaba was abrogated in favor of the practice of directing prayers facing Jerusalem, or Bytool Mooquddus). (Note—This text was subsequently abrogated.)

Text 6. A child becomes free by being owned by the father. (That is to say, every thing on earth being owned by God, God could have no son : therefore ownership and sonship are used in the text as contrary notions ; and therefore when ownership and sonship combine, the former must give way and the slave son must become free).

Text 7. The prophets are Masoom or innocent and sinless ; that is, they are incapable of doing what is called the Goonah-i-Kubeera or grave sin, and God protects them from incurring such sin : an infidel (Kafir) has not the capacity or fitness to be an Imam or leader for the purpose of promulgating laws.

Text 8. Certain commands relating to Bytoollah or Mecca ; and that the same is a place of security and immunity (Amun) to a refugee.

Text 9. That 'Ijmaa, or the concurrence of the Law Doctors, is a source or authority of law.

Text 10. It is Furz or obligatory to direct prayers towards the Kaaba.

Text 11. Fazail or Excellence awaits those who have become Shaheed, that is, who have lost their lives in the path or cause of God ; the Naimut or the benign influence of God is on them (they being really alive though apparently dead).

Text 12. In making pilgrimage to Mecca it is necessary to run between the two hills called the Safa and the Marwa.

Texts 13 and 14. Certain things the eating of which is forbidden.

Text 15. Iman-i-Moofussal, or faith in detail, and the Ahkam or commandments of Islam.

Texts 16, 17 and 18. Qisas or retaliating and avenging homicide is Wajib or obligatory ; and how Qisas may be pardoned and forgiven.

Texts 19, 20 and 21. Relate to Wills.

507. Texts 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26. To fast is Furz,[1] that is, Wajib[1] or obligatory ; and how fast is to be observed. That the Sheikh-i-fanee, or an old man, incapable of fasting, is relieved of the obligation by paying a Fidea, that is, maintaining a poor man; and that the sick and the travellers are relieved of the obligation of fasting immediately, provided they fast afterwards by way of Qaza; that is, by observing the fast when they are relieved of the disability. Whether prayers offered are granted. What is the period of fasting. It is prohibited to have sexual intercourse during the period of Aitqaf, that is, whilst a person is confining himself in a mosque with an intention for that purpose.

[1] Furz and Wajib, although really distinguishable as in a previous note, are sometimes used indiscriminately one for the other.

508. Text 27. It is Huram or unlawful to misappropriate property. It is also unlawful to eat, if edible, a misappropriated thing.

Text 28. Abrogation of some of the practices observed during pilgrimage before the time of our Prophet.

Texts 29, 30, 31, 32, 33 and 34. Lay down some of the provisions relating to Jehad or religious war.

Text 35. Relates to Hujj or pilgrimage, and Oomra (also a kind of pilgrimage). What ought to be done when one is prevented (Ihsar) from accomplishing them. The text also deals with Ahkam or commands relating to Tumutto, that is, to make Hujj and Oomra in the same journey, but with the double intention of accomplishing both of them.

Texts 36, 37 and 38. Deal with the appropriate time for making Hujj, and with the conditions relating to the same; and how to make Wuqoof, or stay in the Arfa and Moozdulifa.

Text 39—Deals with the Tukbeer or formula which should be uttered during prayers in the days of Tushreeq (which are the 11th, 12th and 13th days of Zilhij): it also deals with Rum-i- Jimar or throwing of small stones in making a pilgrimage.

Texts 40, 41, 42 and 43—Deal with the Hoormut or unlawfulness and sinfulness of wine and gambling; what property should be given by way of Zukat or charity: how the rights of orphans are to be secured and preserved to them.

509. Texts 44 and 45—Deal with the prohibition relating to the Nikah or marriage of Momineen or Mussulman males, with Mooshrikat or female infidels (i. e., idolators); and of Mominat or Mussulman females, with Mooshrikeen or male infidels (whether idolators or otherwise).

Texts 46 and 47—Deal with the Hoormut or unlawfulness of sexual intercourse whilst a woman is in her courses.

510. Texts 48 and 49—Deal with the Hoormut or unlawfulness of taking an oath to do an unlawful act: and that it is unlawful to be constantly swearing. The divisions of oaths; and which of them is sinful and which is not.

511. Texts 50 and 51—Deal with Eela.

THE TAGORE LAW LECTURES, 1891-92.

BOOK I, PART II.

CHAPTER I.

609. The following traditions relating to the subject of these Lectures are to be found in a work of recognised authority called the Mishkat-ool-Masabeeh, and the translation here given is taken from the work of Captain A. N. Mathews, published in Calcutta in 1829, excepting a few texts which were omitted in the said work, and of which also a translation is here given in Smaller Type.

SECTION 1.

On Marriage.

610. (1.) Abdullah-Ibn-Masuud. The Apostle of God Said, "O youths! He amongst you who is able to cohabit, must marry; for verily marriage prevents the eye falling on strange women, and withholds you from fornication: but he who cannot marry, must keep fast; and that is verily equal to castration for him."

611. (2.) Sad-ibn-Abu-Wakkas said, "The Prophet forbade Othman-bin-Madhuun from avoiding women; and if he had permitted that to him, verily we (the other Muslemans) would have become eunuchs."

612. (3.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "A woman may be married by four qualifications; one on account of her money; another, on account of the nobility of her pedigree; another, on account of her beauty; the fourth, on account of her faith: therefore look out for a religious woman; but if you do it from any other consideration, may your

613. (4.) Abdullah-Bin-Omer, A. G. S. "The world and all things in it are valuable; but the most valuable thing in the world is a virtuous woman."

614. (5.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "The best women, that ride on camels, I mean the women of Arabia, are the virtuous of the Koraish; they are the most affectionate to infants, whether they be their own or their husbands' by other women; and they are most careful of their husbands' property."

615. (6.) Usamah-Bin-Zaid, A. G. S. "I have not felt any calamity more detrimental to man than woman."

616. (7.) Abu-Said-Khudhri, A. G. S. "The world is sweet in the heart and green to the eye; and verily God has brought you, after those that went before you; then look to your actions, abstain from the world and its wickedness, and abstain from women; for verily the first sin which was in the children of Israel, was on account of women."

617. (8.) Ibn Omer, A. G. S. "A bad omen is in three things, a woman, a house, and a horse."

618. (9.) Jabir said, "We were with the Prophet in a war with infidels; and when we returned, and were near Medinah, I said, 'O messenger of God! I am newly married; if you order me I will go on before to my house.' His Highness said, 'have you married?' I said, 'yes.' He said, 'is she a virgin or not?' I said, 'she is not.' The Prophet said, 'why did you not marry a virgin? for she would have had more affection for you; contrary to the other, for her heart will sometimes incline towards her first husband, if she does not find her second like him.' Then, when we arrived at Medinah, we went to our houses, and the Prophet said, 'Delay entering them till night; in order that the women may comb their dishevelled hair.'"

SECTION 2.

(10.) Abuhurairah. "Verily the Prophet said, 'There are three persons whom God assists: one a Mucatab desirous of discharging his bond to obtain his freedom; the second, one wishing to marry to avoid fornication; the third, one who fights in the road of God.'"

620. (11.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "When any one demands your daughter in marriage, whose disposition and observance of religion you are pleased with, then give her to him, but if you do not, there will be contention and strife on the earth, because many women will be without husbands, and many husbands without wives, and there will be much fornication."

621. (12.) Maqal, A. G. S. "Marry women that will love their husbands, and be very prolific; and these two qualifications may be known in maidens from their relations; because, generally speaking, kindred are similar in disposition and habits; and because I wish that my sects should be more numerous than those of the other Prophets."

622. (13.) Abdul-Rahman-Bin-Salim relates from his forefathers, that the Prophet said, "May it be yours to marry virgins; because their mouths are sweet, and their wombs more prolific, and they are more easily satisfied with little."

3.

623. (14.) Ibn-Abbas, A. G. S. "You will not see anything to increase the friendship of two men so much as marriage."

624. (15.) Anas, A. G. S. "He who wishes to meet God pure and made pure, must marry illustrious and free women.",

625. (16.) Abu-Umamah said, "Verily the Prophet said, 'A Musleman has not obtained (after righteousness) anything better than a good dispositioned, beautiful wife: such a wife, who, when ordered by her husband to do anything, obeys; and if her husband looks at her, is happy; and if her husband swears by her to do a thing, she does it to make him a swearer to the truth; and if he is absent from her, she wishes him well, in her own person, by guarding herself from adultery, and takes care of his property.'"

626. (17.) Anas, A. G. S. "When a servant marries, verily he perfects half his religion; then let him practice abstinence before God for the remaining half."

627. (18.) Aayeshah, A. G. S. "Verily the best of women are those that are most content with little."

645. (36.) Ibn-Omer, A. G. S. "Keep yourselves far from nakedness, although ye be in private; because they are with you who are not separate from you, excepting during the time of your necessary evacuations, and when a man has connexion with his wife; therefore, have shame before them, and respect them?"

646. (37.) Omm-Salmah said, "Myself and Maimunah were sitting near the Prophet, and Ibn-Omm-Mactum abruptly presented himself; and the Prophet said to us, 'Go behind the curtain.' I said, 'O Prophet! is he not blind, and cannot see us?' He said, 'but do not you see him? I mean, if he is blind, you are not.'"

647. (38.) Bahz-Bin-Hacim relates, from his forefathers, that the Prophet said, "Cover your private parts, except from your own wife, or female slave." I said, "O Messenger of God! inform me, when a man is alone in private, whether he must cover his Awrut there also?" He said, "God is most worthy of modesty from you."

648. (39.) Omer said, from the Prophet of God, "A man doth not retire privately with his wife, but the third of them is the devil."

649. (40.) Jabir, A. G. S. "Do not visit the wives of men absent, because the devil circulates within you, like your blood." I said, "O Messenger of God! in you likewise?" He said, "In me also; but God has given me aid over him, therefore, I am safe from his wickedness."

650. (41.) Anas said, "His Highness came to Fatimah's house, with a slave-boy whom he had given to her; and at that time Fatimah had a cloth upon her, with which when she covered her head, it did not reach her legs, and when she covered her feet with it, it left her head bare. And when the Prophet observed the trouble Fatimah was put to, in covering her body, he said, 'Fear not, there is nothing here, but thy father, and thy slave.'"

Section 3.

651. (42.) Omm-Salmah said, "I was near the Prophet, when there was an eunuch in the house; and the eunuch said to Abdullah, my brother, "O Abdullah! if God should give you victory over Tayef tomorrow, verily I will shew you the way to the daughter of Ghailan, for verily she is fat." Then, when His Highness heard the eunuch say this, he said to his wives, 'You must not allow this eunuch to come into your house again.'"

652. (43.) Miswar-Bin-Makhramah said, "I lifted up a heavy stone; and while I was carrying it, my garment fell upon the ground, and I was not able to take it up; then His Highness saw me, and said, 'Take up your garment, and go not naked.'"

653. (44.) Aayeshah said, "I never looked at the Prophet's private parts."

654. (45.) Abu-Umamah, A. G. S. "Every Musleman who looks at the beauties of a woman, after which shuts his eyes; God creates for him an obedience, from which he will taste the sweets."

655. (46.) Hasan Basri said, "It reached me, that verily the Prophet of God said, 'God curseth the looker at the wife of another; and curseth the woman looked at, if it be by her wish.'"

CHAPTER III.

Section 1.

In explanation of those without whose consent marriage cannot take place.

656. (47.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "A widow shall not be married, until she be consulted; nor shall a virgin be married, until her consent be asked." The companions said, "In what manner is the permission of a virgin?" He said, "Her consent is by her silence."

657. (48.) Ibn-Abbas, A. G. S. "A widow has more right over her own person, than her father has; and a virgin's consent shall be asked, which is her silence."

658. (49.) Khansaa-Bint-Khidham said, "My father married me to a man, when I was a widow; and I was displeased with it, and came to the Prophet, and represented my case; when His Highness forbade the marriage."

659. (50.) Aayeshah relates that, "The Prophet married me, when I was seven years old; I was sent to his house when nine years of age; and my dolls were along with me; and His Highness died, and was separated from me, when I was eighteen years old."

Section 2.

660. (51.) Abumusa, A. G. S. "There is no marriage without the permission of the father."

661. (52.) Aayeshah, A. G. S. "Every woman, who marries without the consent of her father, her marriage is null and void, is null and void, is null and void; then if her husband hath had connexion with her, for her is the settlement: and if her guardians dispute about her marriage, then the king is her guardian, and will decide upon it."

662. (53.) Ibn Abbas, A. G. S. "Those women commit fornication, who marry themselves without witnesses."

663. (54.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "A woman, ripe in years, shall have her consent asked, in her marriage: and if she remain silent, her silence is her consent; and if she refuse, she shall not be married by force."

664. (55). Jabir, A. G. S. "Every slave, who marries, without the permission of his master, is a fornicator."

Section 3.

665. (56.) Ibn Abbas said, "Verily a maiden came to the Prophet, and said, 'My father has given me, in marriage, to a man I do not like.' Then the Prophet left her to her choice."

666. (57.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "One woman shall not give another woman in marriage; nor a woman give herself in marriage; because she is a fornicatrix who giveth herself to a man."

667. (58.) Abu Said and Ibn Abbas, A. G. S. "Whoever hath a child born, must give it a good name, and teach it the orders of the law; and when it shall arrive at puberty, marry it: but if it arrive at puberty without being married, and commit a sin, it is on the father."

668. (59). Omer Ibn-al-Khattab and Anas, A. G. S. "It is written in the Bible, that whosoever's daughter hath reached twelve years, and her father doth not marry her, and she commits a fault, it is upon her father.

CHAPTER IV.

SECTION 1.

In explanation of publishing Marriages.

669. (60.) Rubaiyya-Bint-Muawwidh said, "The Prophet came to my house, when they were about sending me to my husband's, and His Highness sat down upon my bed, just as you are sitting upon it; and the women began to beat the drum for my going away, and making lamentations on account of my forefathers, who had been killed in the battle of Bedr; and all of a sudden one of their women said in her ditty, 'We have got a Prophet amongst us, who knows what will happen to-morrow.' Then the Prophet said to her, 'Let this alone; and repeat what you were repeating before.'"

670. (61.) Aayeshah said, "A young bride was sent to the house of one of the assistants, her husband; and the Prophet said, 'Have you no singing along with you?' because the assistants are fond of singing."

671. (62.) Aayeshah said, "The Prophet married me in the month of Shawwal, and I was sent to his house, in Shawwal; then which of the Prophet's wives hath benefited more than me?"

672. (63.) Ukbah-Bin-Aamir, A. G. S. "The most worthy of agreements to be performed, are marriage settlements."

673. (64.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "A man must not demand in marriage the woman demanded by another, till the other abandons her."

674. (65.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "One wife must not ask for the divorce of another, with the view of being particularly for the husband herself; because for her is her lot."

675. (66.) Ibn-Omer said, "Verily the Prophet has forbidden one person giving his daughter to another, with the agreement of the other's daughter being given to him, and no other settlement between them."

676. (67.) Ali. "Verily the Prophet prohibited, on the day of the battle of Khaiber, a Mutah marriage, which is for a fixed time, and he forbade the eating of the flesh of the domestic ass."

677. (68.) Salmah-Bin-Acwa said, "His Highness permitted (in the year in which he went to Awtas) Mutah for three days; after which he forbade it."

SECTION 2.

678. (69.) Abdullah-Bin-Masuud said, "The Prophet taught me this supplication, to be made in prayer, 'Salutations to God! and supplications and praises; peace to thee, O Prophet! and the mercy of God, and his blessing; peace be to us, and to the righteous servants of God. I bear witness that there is no God but God; and I bear witness that verily Muhammed is his servant and his apostle.' And he taught me this form of confession, to be repeated at my marriage, and other necessary occasions. 'Praise be to God! we implore his aid, and beg forgiveness of him; and we fly to God for refuge from the evil of our desires; whomsoever God guideth, no one can lead astray; and whomsoever he causeth to err, no one can direct into the right path. I bear witness that there is no God but God, who is one; he hath no partner: and I bear witness that Muhammed is his servant and his apostle;' and to repeat these three revelations; the first, 'O believers! fear God with his true fear; and die not unless ye also be true believers.' The second is this: 'O believers! fear God, by whom ye beseech one another; and respect the wombs (that have borne you); verily God is watching over you.' The third is this: 'O true believers! fear God, and speak words well directed; that God may correct your works for you, and may forgive you your sins; and whoever shall obey God and his apostle, shall enjoy great felicity.'"

679. (70.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "Every khutbah in which is not the praise of God, is like a cut-off hand."

680. (71.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "Every noble work, not begun with the praise of God, is incomplete." And in some traditions it is, that every noble work, not begun with these words, "In the name of God the most merciful," is imperfect.

681. (72.) Aayeshah, A. G. S. "Publish marriages, and perform them in Masjids, and beat drums for them."

682. (73.) Muhammed-Bin-Hatib, A. G. S. "The difference between the lawful and unlawful, in marriage, is proclamation and the beating of drums."

683. (74.) Aayeshah. "I had a daughter of an assistant, and gave her in marriage; and the messenger of God said, 'O Aayeshah! what! don't you sing? because the tribes of the assistants are fond of singing.'"

684. (75.) Ibn Abbas said, "Aayeshah gave a woman, who was nearly related to her, in marriage to one of the assistants; and the Prophet came and said, 'Have you sent the young woman to her husband?' She said 'Yes.' The prophet said, 'Have you sent any singers with her?' She said, 'No.' On which the Prophet said, "Verily the assistants are a tribe fond of singing: therefore, had you sent any one with her to have sung *Atainacum, Atainacum, then he would have prayed for your life and mine.'

685. (76.) Samurah-Bin-Jundub said, "Verily the messenger of God said, 'Every woman who is given in marriage by two guardians, is for the man to whom the first guardian married her; and if any one sell a thing to two men, the thing is for the first purchaser.'"

Section 3.

686. (77.) Ibn Masuud said, "We fought against the infidels with the Prophet, when our wives were not along with us; and we said, 'May we castrate ourselves.' The Prophet forbade us; and after that permitted us to marry for a limited time: and one of us married a woman for his garment for a fixed period: after that Ibn Masuud repeated this revelation, "O ye, who have believed! make not unlawful those pure things which God has made lawful for you.'"

687. (78.) Ibn Abbas said, "Mutah was only in the beginning of Islam, at which time there was a man who arrived in a town, in which he had no acquaintance; and he married a woman for the time which he knew it would be necessary for him to remain there, that she might take care of his things, and dress his victuals nicely; till at length, this revelation came down, 'Except their wives, or the captives which their right hands possess.' Ibn Abbas said, 'Every connexion, besides these, is unlawful.'"

688. (79.) Aamir-Bin-Sad said, "I went to Kardhah-Bin-Cab, and Abu-Masuud-Ansari, in an assembly, in which was a bridal feast; and some women were singing; and I said, 'O ye two companions of the Prophet of God! and O ye men of Bedr! shall this act (that is, singing) be done near you?' They said to me, 'Sit down, if you please, and hear with us, but if you please, go away, because the Prophet permitted us to hear nuptial songs.'"

* We are come to you, We are come to you; the words of a song sung in marriage processions.

V.

Section 1.

In explanation of women, with whom it has been made unlawful to marry.

689. (80.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "A man shall not marry a woman and her paternal aunt; nor shall a man marry a woman and her maternal aunt."

690. (81.) It is reported from Aayeshah (wife of the Prophet) that she said that the apostle of God said, that the woman whom it is unlawful to marry, on account of birth, cannot likewise be married on account of fosterage or Rizaut. This tradition is to be found in the work called the Saheeh Bookharee.

691. (82.) Aayeshah said, "The brother of the woman's husband who had nursed me, came and asked permission to come to me; but I refused him, till asking the Prophet; then the Prophet came, and I asked him; and he said, 'Verily he is your uncle, then allow him to come in.' I said, 'O messenger of God! the woman nursed me, not the man.' The Prophet said, 'Verily he is your uncle, then tell him to come in, because the man whose wife hath suckled you, is your foster father and his brother your uncle;' and this his coming happened after the orders for shutting up women."

692. (83.) Amir-al-Momminin Ali said, "O messenger of God! have you a desire for the daughter of your father's brother, Hamzah? for verily she is the handsomest of women amongst the Koraish. His Highness said, 'Do not you know that Hamzah is my brother, on account of our having been suckled by the same nurse? and verily God has made unlawful for a child, the woman who suckled him; also her daughter, her sister, and her mother, in like manner as he hath forbidden it in near relationship.'"

693. (84.) Omm-ul-Fazl, wife of Abbas, A. G. S. "It is not unlawful for a boy to marry his nurse, having been suckled by her once or even twice; nor to marry any of the nurse's relations."

694. (85.) It is reported from Aayeshah that she said that at first the Quran ordained unlawfulness by fosterage to arise from ten sucks; then the provision regarding ten sucks was abrogated and rescinded for five sucks; and this latter provision remained in force until the death of

695. (86.) Aayeshah said, "Verily the Prophet came to me when a man was sitting with me; and he seemed to think it wrong: and I said, 'This is my brother, by having been suckled by the same woman.' Then the Prophet said, in the presence of all his women, 'The rules of sucking the same woman are in infancy, not in those of riper years.'"

696. (87.) Ukbah-Bin-Haris said, "I married the daughter of Abu-Ihab; and a woman came and said to me, 'I suckled you, and that woman you have married.' I said, I do not know this; you never told it me, nor did I hear so.' Then I sent a person on to the family of Abu Ihab, to ask them if this woman had suckled their daughter; and they said they did not know that she had. Then I rode to Medinah, to His Highness, and asked him the orders. He said, 'How can you marry this woman, since it has been said that you were suckled by the same woman, notwithstanding it is not established?' Then I separated myself from her, and married her to another husband."

697. (88.) Abu Said Khudhri said, "Verily the messenger of God sent an army to Awtâs on the day of the battle of Honain, and they met an enemy, and fought them, and conquered them, and made their men and women captives for slaves; and some of His Highness' companions abstained from connexion with these women, on account of their husbands being present. Then God sent this revelation, 'Ye are also forbidden to take to wife free women who are married, except those women whom your right hands shall possess as slaves; therefore those women are lawful for their conquerors, although their husbands be present, after having passed their stated period.'"

Section 2.

698. (89.) It is reported from Abuhurairah that "Verily the Apostle of God, on whom be peace, prohibited marriage with a woman whose aunt on the father's side is already the wife of the husband; and that he also prohibited marriage with a woman whose niece, that is brother's daughter, is already the wife of the husband; and that he also prohibited marriage with a woman whose aunt on the mother's side is already the wife of the husband; and that he also prohibited marriage with a woman whose sister's daughter is already the wife of the husband: that is to say, whilst the senior or higher in degree (or the aunt) is already the wife, the lower in degree (or the niece) cannot be married over her; neither, whilst the inferior in degree of relationship is already the married wife, could the superior be married over her." This tradition is reported by Tirmigy an d Aboo Daood and Dármy and Nisai : the last stops with the words "whos e sister 's daughter is already the wife of the husband."

699. (90.) Baraa-Bin-Aazib said, "My maternal uncle passed by me, having a standard, which His Highness had sent with him, as a sign that he was sent on business; and I said, 'Where are you going?' He said, 'His Highness has sent me to a man who has married one of his own father's wives, to bring his head.' (And in one tradition, it is that 'His Highness ordered me to strike off his head and take his property).'"

700. (91.) It is reported from Oommi Salma (one of the wives of the Prophet) that she said that the Prophet, on whom be peace, said, no sort of fosterage establishes prohibition (of marriage) except that sort of fosterage of the breast by which the milk forces entrance into the intestines (the intestines of the child during the period of fosterage which is two and a half years according to Aboo Huneefa, and two years according to Shafei, being supposed to be closed up before milk is received and then again after the milk is received) when the fosterage takes place before the time of weaning (the period of weaning being two and a half years after birth according to Aboo Huneefa and two years according to Shafei). (Note—The tradition says "fosterage of the breast" and not "by the breast"; because it is not a condition that the child should suck from the breast: the prohibition of fosterage is established even if the milk is poured down the throat of the child, as long as this is done within the period of fosterage.)

701. (92.) Hajjaj-Ibn-Hajam-al Aslami said, "My father said, 'O Messenger of God! how shall I discharge my duty to my nurse.' He said, 'Either by giving her a slave boy or slave girl, to wait upon her.'"

702. (93.) Abu Tufail-Ghanawi said, "I was sitting with His Majesty; and, all on a sudden, a woman presented herself; and the Prophet spread his cloth for her to sit down upon. Then, when she went away, it was observed, 'that woman suckled the Prophet.'"

703. (94.) Ibn Omer said, "Verily Ghailan-Bin-Salmah became a Musleman, and he had married ten women, in the days of his ignorance; and they all became of the faithful along with him. Then His Highness said 'keep four of them, and send the remainder away.'"

704. (95.) Nawfal-Bin-Muawiah said, "I became a Musleman when I had five wives; and I asked the Prophet about this matter. He said, 'send one away and keep four.' Then I wished to send the woman away who was sixty years of age, and had not bred; and I turned her off."

705. (96.) Zahhac-Bin-Firoz. "My father said, 'O Messenger of God! I am become a Musleman, and have two wives that are sisters.' His Highness said, 'Choose whichever of the two you like.'"

706. (97.) Ibn Abbas said, "A woman embraced Islam, and married a man; and her first husband came to the Prophet, and said, 'O Messenger of God! verily I have embraced Islam, and you know it.' Then the Prophet drew away the woman from her last husband, and returned her to her first. (And it is related in the Shereh Sunnat, that the Prophet determined the right of the first husbands to them when they also embraced Islam.) Among those women was a daughter of Walid-Bin-Mughairah: she had married Safwan-Bin-Umuyyah; she embraced Islam, and her husband avoided it: and the Prophet sent the son of Safwan's uncle to him, with his own clothes, as a security to him. Then, when Safwan came, His Highness ordered him to travel four months; but at the expiration of one month, Safwan embraced Islam; and then the woman was fixed for him. And Omm Hacim, daughter of Harith, wife of Acrimah, embraced Islam on the day of the conquest of Mecca, and her husband Acrimah ran away from it, till he went to Yemen. Then Omm Hacim marched in search of her husband, by His Highness' orders, till she met with him in Yemen, and called him to embrace Islam, to which he consented; then the marriage of Omm Hacim and Acrimah stood good."

707. (98.) It is reported from Ibn-i-Abbas that he said that by reason of nusub or descent, seven women are made Huram or prohibited for marriage and that by reason of Sihur or marriage seven women are made Huram or prohibited for marriage: he then read (in proof of what he laid down), the text of the Quran commencing with, "It is made unlawful to you, your mother, etc.," up to the end of the text. This tradition is to be found in the Bookhary.

Section 3.

708. (99.) Amer-Bin-Shuaib relates, from his forefathers, that verily the Prophet said, "Every man who marries a woman, and has had connexion with her, then it is not right for that man to marry the daughter of that woman by another husband; but if he has not had connexion with the woman, then tell him to marry her if he likes; after separation from the woman; because it is not right for a man to connect himself with both mother and daughter: and every man who marries a woman, then it is not right for him to marry her mother; whether he has had connexion with that woman or not."

CHAPTER VI.

SECTION 1.

In explanation of having connexion with women.

709. (100.) Jabir. "The Jews would say, 'If a man has connexion with his wife from behind, the child will squint;' then this revelation came down, 'Your wives are your tillage: go in therefore unto your tillage in what manner soever ye will.'"

710. (101.) Jabir. "We used to drop our seed upon the ground, to prevent its going into the womb, at which time instructions from above were descending, but none forbidding it.' (And in one tradition it is thus, that 'the Prophet heard of it, and did not forbid it.'")

711. (102.) Jaber said, "Verily a man came to the Prophet and said, 'I have a slave girl with whom I have connexion, and do not wish her to become pregnant.' His Highness said, 'Avoid emitting into her womb, if you do not wish her to conceive; but there is nothing to be gained by it, because she will soon have a child.' Then the man delayed some time, after which he came to the Prophet and said, 'verily the slave girl is pregnant.' His Highness said, 'Verily I told thee, that she would soon bring forth a child.'"

712. (103.) Abu-Said-Khudhri said, "We went out with His Highness, to the war with Beni-Mustalak, and we got Arabian slave girls, and had a desire for them, as we were sorely distressed for want of our wives, and we approved of emitting upon the ground, in preference to having children by slaves, and we said, 'shall we do so, without asking the Prophet first?' Then we asked His Highness, who said, 'there will be no fault upon you if you do it; there is no man that is to be born, to the day of Resurrection, but will be so.'"

713. (104.) Abu-Said-Khudhri, said, "The Prophet was asked about emitting upon the ground, whether it was lawful or not; he said, 'A child is not produced by every emission; but when God wishes to create anything, nothing can prevent it.'"

714. (105.) Sad-ibn-Abu-Wakkas said, "A man came to His Highness, and said, 'Verily I emit on the ground when having connexion with my own wife.' The Prophet said, 'Why do you do so?' He said 'I am afraid it may be hurtful to the child she is suckling: lest she should become pregnant, and her milk dry up.' Then the Messenger of God said, 'If this were detrimental, it would be so to all Persia and Greece.'

715. (106.) It is reported from Joozama, daughter of Wahab that she said "I appeared before the Prophet, on whom be peace, whilst he was sitting with people, and the Prophet, on whom be peace, said, 'Verily did I intend to prevent that women should suckle during pregnancy; but I observed that the people of Persia and Turkey do suckle their infants during pregnancy and no evil consequences resulted by the practice to those children.' Then people asked the Prophet, on whom be peace, regarding Azl (emission outside), and the Prophet said "This is in effect a concealed way of burying infants alive which is referred to in the Text of the Quran 'When the infants who were buried alive will be questioned.'" This tradition is reported by Mooslim.

716. (107.) Abu-Said-Khudhri, A. G. S. "The most wicked man, before God, on the day of Resurrection, is a man who has connexion with his wife, after which he makes public her secrets."

Section 2.

717. (108.) Ibn Abbas said, "This revelation was sent to His Highness, 'Your women are your tillage: go in therefore unto your tillage in what manner soever ye will; that is, from before or behind, contrary to the Jews; but abstain from preposterous venery, or connexion when they are in a menstrual state.'"

718. (109.) Khuzaimah-Bin-Sabit, A. G. S. "Verily God is not ashamed of the truth. Ye must not use preposterous venery with women."

719. (110.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "He is cursed who useth preposterous connexion with his wife."

720. (111.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "He who has preposterous connextion with his wife, God will not look kindly at, on the day of Resurrection."

721. (112.) Ibn Abbas, A. G. S. "God doth not look favourably on a man who useth preposterous venery with man or woman."

722. (113.) It is reported from Asma, a daughter of Yezid, that she said "I heard the Prophet, on whom be peace, say 'Do not kill your children in a concealed way (referring to the practice of Gheela or suckling infants whilst pregnant, which is, in effect, an indirect way of killing them); because Gheela or suckling in a pregnant condition, prevails amongst the Persians and (its effects remain lasting in their youth so that it enervates them) causes them to fall from horses (and deprives them of strength)?'" This tradition is reported by Aboo Daood.

Section 3.

723. (114.) Omer Ibn-al-Khattab said, "The Prophet forbade emitting on the ground, in connexion with a free woman, unless by her permission."

CHAPTER VII.

Section 1.

In completing what hath preceded.

724. (115.) Urwah relates, from Aayeshah, that "Verily the Prophet said to me, 'buy Barirah, and then set her free.' I did so, and her husband was a slave; and His Highness gave her an option to remain as his wife or not, as she pleased; and she chose to be separated from him. But if Barirah's husband had been a free man, the Prophet would not have given her this option."

725. (116.) Ibn-Abbas said, "The husband of Barirah was a black slave, his name Mughith. I think I still see him following her about in the streets of Medinah, crying, and his tears running over his beard. Then the Prophet said to me, 'O Abbas! do not you wonder at the love of Mughith for Barirah and the hatred of Barirah to Mughith?' Then the Prophet said to Barirah, 'If you make Mughith your husband, it will be better.' She said, 'O Messenger of God, do you order it?' He said, 'No. I recommend it.' Barirah said 'I have no need of Mughith.'"

Section 2.

726. (117.) Aayeshah said, "I intended to free two slaves, that were married to each other; and asked the Prophet which I should free first, the man or the woman, and His Highness ordered me to begin by freeing the man first."

727. (118.) Aayeshah said, "Barirah was emancipated when married to Mughith; and the Prophet of God gave her an option, and said to her, if your husband has connexion with you, after being freed, you have then no choice."

CHAPTER VIII.

SECTION 1.

In explanation of Marriage Settlements.

728. (119.) Sahal-Bin-Sad said, "Verily a woman came to the Prophet, and said, 'I have given myself to you.' The Prophet gave no answer; and the woman remained standing a long time; then a man stood up and said, 'O Messenger of God, if you have no occasion for her, give her in marriage to another.' His Highness said, 'Have you anything to settle upon her?' He said, 'No, except my trousers.' His Highness said, 'Procure a thing, although it be but an iron ring.' But the man could find nothing. The Prophet said, 'Have you any part of the Koran.' He said, 'Yes, I have such a Chapter.' The Prophet said, 'Then verily I have given the woman to you in marriage, by the part you have of the Koran; that is, I have made it her portion that you teach her the Koran.' (And in one tradition it is thus, that His Highness said to the man 'get up and go away I have made that woman your wife; then teach her the Koran ')."

729. (120.) Abu-Salmah said, "I asked Aayeshah 'what did His Highness settle upon his wives?' she said, 'Five hundred Dirhems on each.'"

SECTION 2.

730. (121.) Omer Ibn-al-Khattab, A. G. S. "Beware! make not large settlements upon women; because, if great settlements were a cause of greatness in the world, and motives of righteousness near God, surely it would be most proper for the Prophet of God to make them." Omar Ibn-al-Khattab, says, "I do not know that His Highness married any of his wives, or gave any of his own daughters in marriage, with settlements of more than five hundred Dirhems, nay, the portion of Fatimah was four hundred Dirhems."

731. (122.) Jabir, A. G. S. "That person who gives two handfuls of dates or meal, in a settlement on his wife, verily has made her lawful for him."

732. (123.) Aamir-Bin-Rabia said, "A woman of the tribe of Beni Fazarah married on a settlement of a pair of shoes; and the Prophet said to her, 'Are you pleased to give yourself and your property for these two shoes!' she said 'Yes,' then His Highness approved of the marriage."

733. (124.) Alkamah relates from Ibn-Masuud, who said, 'I was asked about the orders for a man who married a woman, and did not fix any settlement for her, and had no connexion with her till he died. I said, the settlement of this woman is the same as those of the women of her own tribe; neither more nor less; and for her is a legacy.' Then Makil got up and said, 'The Prophet of God ordered as you have done, O Ibn-Masuud!'"

Section 3.

734. (125.) Omm-Habibah said, "I was the wife of Abdullah-Bin-[illegible], and he in Ethiopia; and the King of Ethiopia married me to the Prophet, and made my settlement four hundred Dirhems; and he sent me to the Prophet, accompanied by Surahbil."

735. (126.) Anas said, "Abu-Talhah-Ansari married Omm-Salim, and the settlement between them was Islam; Omm-Salim embraced Islam before Abu-Talhah, and he demanded her in marriage; but she said 'If you become a Musleman I will marry you.' Then Ibu-Talhah embraced Islam, which was the settlement between them."

CHAPTER IX.

Section I.

In explanation of victuals prepared or the nuptial day.

736. (127.) Anas said, "Verily His Highness saw upon Abdul Rahman Bin-Awf yellow marks, and said, 'What is this?' He said, 'Verily I have married a woman on a settlement of five Dirhems weight of gold.' The Prophet said, 'God prosper thee, and give a feast, although it be little.'"

737. (128.) Anas said, "His Highness did not give a feast, on the marriage of any one of his wives, equal to that with Zainab, and that was with one goat."

738. (129.) Anas said, "When Zainab-Bint-Jahash was sent to the Prophet's house, he filled the people with bread and meat."

739. (130.) Anas said, "Verily the Prophet emancipated Safiah and married her, and made her freedom her settlement, and gave a feast of sweetmeats."

740. (131.) Anas said, "His Highness halted three nights between Medinah and Khaiber; and Safiah was sent to him; and I called the Muslemans to His Highness' feast, in which there were neither bread nor meat; but the Prophet ordered the tables of leather to be spread: which was done, and dates were thrown upon them, and butter put upon them."

741. (132.) Safiah-Bint-Shaibah said, "His Highness gave a feast, on the marriage of some of his women, with two Mudds of barley."

742. (133.) Abdullah-Bin-Omer, A. G. S. "When any one of you shall be called to eat of a marriage feast, then let him accept it." (And in one tradition, it is thus, "You must accept the invitation, whether it be a nuptial entertainment, or otherwise").

743. (134.) Jabir, A. G. S. "When any one of you shall be invited to a dinner, he must accept the invitation, but eat or not as he likes."

744. (135.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "The worst of feasts are marriage feasts to which the rich are invited and the poor left out; and he who abandons the acceptation of an invitation, then verily disobeys God and his Messenger."

745. (136.) Abu-Masuud-Ansari said, "There was a man of the assistants, whose name was Abu-Shuaib; and he had a slave who sold meat, and Abu-Shuaib said to him, 'Make a dinner ready for me, sufficient for five people; perhaps I may invite the Prophet, who shall be the fifth.' Then the slave made a dinner. Then Abu-Shuaib came to the Prophet and invited him; and a man followed the Prophet, and he said to Abu-Shuaib, 'Verily a man is following me: permit him, if you like; if not, let it alone.' Abu-Shuaib said 'I shall not leave him out, but allow him.'"

Section II.

746. (137.) Anas said, "Verily the Prophet made a feast of dates and meal on his marriage with Safiah."

747. (138.) Safinah said, "Ali-Ibn-Abu-Talib invited a man, and made a dinner for him; and Fatimah said, 'If we invite the Prophet, and eat with him, it will be better.' Then they invited His Highness; and he came and put his hands upon the door, then he saw a painted cloth, which was put to cover the wall of the house, and he returned home. Then Fatimah said, 'I went after the Prophet, and said, O Messenger of God! what has made you go away?' He said, 'Verily it is not right for any Prophet to go into a house which is sculptured or ornamented.'"

748. (139.) Abdullah-Bin-Omer, A. G. S. "Any one that shall be invited to a dinner, and does not accept it, verily disobeys God and His Messenger; and any one who comes uninvited, you may say is a thief and returns a plunderer."

749. (140.) There is a tradition, by a man of the companions of His Highness, who said, the Messenger of God said, "When two people invite a person, he must accept the invitation which is nearest to his own house; but if one hath invited before the other, then the invitation of the first must be accepted."

750. (141.) Ibn-Masuud, A. G. S. "The giving of a feast on the nuptial day is enjoined by divine authority, and on the second day, Sunnat; and on the third day, it is to gain the praises of men: and he who celebrates himself for generosity, God will make him noted for falsehood on the day of resurrection."

751. (142.) Acrimah relates from Ibn-Abbas, who said, "The Prophet forbade eating of the victuals dressed by two persons in opposition to each other."

Section III.

752. (143.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "The meat of two persons prepared for ostentation, must not be partaken of."

753. (144.) Imran-Bin-Husain said, "The Prophet forbids the acceptation of the invitations of the wicked."

754. (145.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "When any one of you comes to the house of his brother Musleman, he must eat of his victuals, and not ask him, whence is it; and drink of his drink, and not ask whence is it; because it is clear that a Musleman would neither give to eat nor drink anything unlawful."

CHAPTER X.

Section I.

Concerning equal partition of cohabitation with women.

755. (146.) Ibn-Abbas said, "Although the wives of His Highness were a great many more than nine; still at his death, there were only nine present; and he made eight turns of them, and the ninth wife had no turn, because she had given hers up to Aayeshah; for her were two nights, and for each of his other wives one alternately."

756. (147.) Aayeshah said, "Verily when Saudah became an old woman, she said, 'O Messenger of God! my turn I give up to Aayeshah;' therefore the Prophet used to spend two days with me."

757. (148.) Aayeshah said, "Verily the Prophet said, in the illness in which he died, 'Where shall I be to-morrow? Where shall I be to-morrow?' Then his wives allowed him to be at the house of whichever he pleased." Aayeshah says, "His Highness was in my house until he expired."

758. (149.) Aayeshah. "When His Highness intended to travel, he would throw up a piece of wood, on which was the name of each, and determine by it which of his wives to take with him."

759. (150.) Abu-Kilabah relates from Anas, who said, "When a man marries a maiden after a widow, he shall stay with her seven nights after marriage; after which, alternately: and, when a man marries a widow, he shall spend three nights with her; after that by turns."

760. (151.) Abu-Bacr-Bin-Abd-ul-Rahman said, "When the Prophet married Omm-Salmah, and spent the night with her, he said, 'Do not suppose that my spending only three nights with you is from a want of desire; but the order of the law is so; but, if you wish it, I will spend seven nights with you, and the like with my other wives; or, if you choose, I shall stay three nights with you, and one night with each of my other wives:' she said, 'Stay three nights with me.'"

Section II.

761. (152.) Aayeshah. "Verily the Prophet used to divide equally between his wives; and would say, 'O Lord! I divide impartially that which Thou hast put in my power, then impute not blame to me for that which is not at my disposal.'"

762. (153.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "When a man has two wives, and does not treat them equally, he will come, on the day of resurrection, with half his body fallen off."

763. (154.) Attaa said, "I was present with Ibn-Abbas, at Maimunah's bier, and he said, 'This is the wife of the Prophet of God; therefore, when you take her up, do not shake her, but take her up, and carry her away gently, because verily His Highness had nine wives, and he used to take eight of them by turns, but not the ninth.' Attaa says, 'The ninth wife, whom the Prophet did not take in her turn, I have been told was Safiah, and she was the last of them that died;' and Razin says, 'That the wife with whom the Prophet did not connect himself, was Saudah; because when His Highness intended to divorce her,' she said, 'Keep with your wives and do not divorce me, peradventure I may be of the number of your wives in Paradise; and give up my turn to Aayeshah.'"

CHAPTER XI.

SECTION I.

On intercourse with women, and the respective rights of each.

764. (155.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "Admonish your wives with kindness; because women were created from a crooked bone of the side; therefore if you wish to straighten it, you will break it: and if you let it alone, it will always be crooked."

765. (156.) It is reported from Abuhurairah that he said that the Prophet, on whom be peace, said, "Verily a woman was created from the rib, and she will not walk straight in the right path. Therefore if you get benefit from her it will be whilst she is still crooked, and if you wish to make her straight you will break her, and breaking her is divorcing." This tradition is reported by Mooslim.

766. (157.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "A Musleman must not hate his wife; and if he be displeased with one bad quality in her, then let him be pleased with another which is good."

767. (158.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "If the children of Israel had not been, there would have been no bad smell in meat; and if Eve had not been, no woman would have disobeyed, and been untrue to her husband."

768. (159.) Abdullah-Bin-Zamah A. G. S. "No one of you must whip your wife, like whipping a slave, and after that have connexion with her, in the latter part of the same day." And in one tradition it is thus, "Do you whip your own wife as you would your slave? You must not do so, for peradventure you might sleep with her in the latter part of the day."

769. (160.) Aayeshah said, "I was playing, with puppets near the Prophet, and other girls along with me; and when the Prophet came into the house, the girls hid themselves; and he would send them to me, and they would play with me."

770. (161.) Aayeshah said, "I swear by God, I saw His Highness standing at the door of my room, when Ethiopians were playing by throwing darts at a pillar in the Masjid; and he covered me with his own garment, that I might look at their play from behind his shoulder and ear; and His Highness remained standing until they went away. Then imagine what ambition young girls have to see play: I stood all that time, and His Highness remained standing to please me."

771. (162.) Aayeshah said, "The Prophet said to me, 'Verily I know when you are pleased and when displeased with me.' I said, 'From what do you know it?' He said, 'When you are pleased, you say, I swear by the Lord of Muhammad, and when you are displeased, you say, I swear by the Lord of Ibrahim.' I said, 'Yes, it is so, O Prophet of God! in displeasure I leave out your name.'"

772. (163.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "When a man calls his wife to his bed, and she does not come, and the man spends the night in anger; the angels curse the woman until the morning." (And in one tradition it is said, that His Highness said, 'I swear by God, in whose hands is my life, there is no man who calls his wife to his bed, and she refuses, but the angels that are upon the regions are displeased with her, until the husband becomes pleased with her.')

773. (164.) It is reported from Asmaa (a lady traditionist) that a woman said, "Oh! prophet, verily have I a co-wife; is it sinful in me that I should misrepresent (and create a false impression in my co-wife) regarding the husband giving to me in excess of what he does?" The Prophet said, "One who misrepresents (and makes a shew of) what he has not been given is like a person who wears a double garment of falsehood." This tradition is agreed upon by all (and is attributed to the prophet without any difference).

774. (165.) Anas said, "His Highness swore that he would not go near his wives for one month; and he had sprained his noble foot by a fall from his horse; then he remained in a room, on the top of his house, twenty-nine nights; after that, he came down, and the people said: 'O Messenger of God! you swore for a month, which is thirty days; and why did you come down after twenty-nine.' His Highness said, "Verily this month is of twenty-nine days.'"

775. (166.) Jabir said, "Abu Bacr came to the door of the Prophet's house, and asked permission to go in; and he found other people sitting at the door, waiting for leave to go in, but not one of them was allowed: but Abu Bacr was, and he came in. After which, Omer came to the door and begged leave to go in, which was granted; and he found His Highness sitting with his wives around him silent, and sad, and Omer said, 'Verily, I will say something to make the Prophet laugh;' and he said, 'O Messenger of God! if my wife asks me for bread, and I give her a blow on the neck, to hinder her from doing so again,' then the Prophet laughed, and said, 'These women, who are sitting around me, ask me for bread.' Then Abu Bacr stood up near Aayeshah, and gave her a blow upon the neck; and Omer stood up near Hafsah, and struck her upon the neck; and they said, 'Do you ask the Prophet for what he has not got.' Then Aayeshah and Hafsah said, 'We swear by God, we never ask him for anything which he has not got.' After that His Highness secluded himself from his wives one month. After which this revelation came down. 'O Prophet! say unto thy wives, if ye seek this present life, and the pomp thereof, come, I will make a handsome provision for you, and I will dismiss you with an honorable dismission; but if ye seek God and his apostle, and the life to come, verily God hath prepared for such of you as work righteousness, a great reward.'" Jabir says, "His Highness told this to Aayeshah first; and said, 'O, Aayeshah, I wish to say a word to you, and shall be glad that you do not hurry in answering it; until you consult with your father and mother;' she said, 'what is it, O Messenger of God!' Then His Highness repeated to Aayeshah, the afore-mentioned revelation. She said, 'In my choice of you, must I consult my father and mother? No; but I make choice of God, his Messenger, and the last dwelling.' And Aayeshah said, 'I ask of you, not to inform any of your wives of what I have said to you.' The Prophet said, 'I shall inform every one that asks me what you have said; verily, God has not sent me to chagrin any one; but has sent me an instructor of the orders of religion to man, and a worker of good to him.'"

776. (167.) Aayeshah said, "I was reflecting on those women who had given themselves to the Prophet, and said, 'What! does a woman give herself away?' Then, when this revelation descended, 'Thou mayest postpone the turn of such of thy wives as thou shalt please, in being called to thy bed; and thou mayest take unto thee her whom thou shalt please, and her whom thou shalt desire of those whom thou shalt before have rejected; and it shall be no crime in thee.' I said I see nothing in which your lord doth not hasten to please you; whatever you wish he doth."

Section II.

777. (168.) Aayeshah said, "I was with His Highness on a journey, and we ran together, to try which could beat; and I beat him; but when I grew fat, we ran together again, and His Highness beat me, and said, 'My beating you now is in return for your beating me.'"

778. (169.) Aayeshah, A. G. S. "The best of you, before God and his creation, are those who are best in their own families, and I am the best to my family; when your friend dies, mention not his vices."

779. (170.) Anas, A. G. S. "When a woman performs the five times of prayer, and fasts the month of Ramdan, and guards her private parts, and obeys her husband, then tell her to enter Paradise by whichever door she likes."

780. (171.) Abuhurairâh, A. G. S. "If I were to order men to worship each other, Verily I would order a wife to worship her husband."

781. (172.) Omm-Salmah, A. G. S. "Every woman who dies, and her husband is pleased with her, shall enter into Paradise."

782. (173.) Talak, A. G. S. "When a man calls his wife for his own wants, she must come, although she be at an oven."

783. (174.) Muadh, A. G. S. "No one woman vexes her husband in the world, but the husband's wife in Paradise says, 'Vex not thy husband, may God destroy thee; because he is nothing more than a traveller with thee; he will soon come to me in Paradise.'"

784. (175.) Hacim-Bin-Muawiah relates from his father, thus, "I said, 'O Messenger of God! what is my duty to my wives?' He said, 'That you give them to eat when you eat yourself, and clothe them when you clothe yourself, and do not slap them on the face, nor abuse them, nor separate yourself from them in displeasure, except in your own house.'"

785. (176.) Lakit-Bin-Sabirah said, "I said, 'O, Messenger of God! I have got a foolish prating wife.' He said, 'divorce her.' I said, 'How shall I divorce her? for I have children by her, and am pleased with her company.' His Highness said, 'Give her advice; and if she has goodness in her, she will soon take it, and leave off idle talking; and do not beat your noble wife like your slave girl."

786. (177.) Ias-Bin-Abdullah, A. G. S. "Beat not your wives." Then Omer came to the Prophet and said, "Wives have got the upper-hand of their husbands from hearing this." Then His Highness permitted beating of wives. Then an immense assemblage of women collected round the Prophet's family, and complained of their husbands beating them. And His Highness said, "Verily a great number of women are assembled near my family, complaining of their husbands, and those men who beat their wives do not behave well. He is not of my way who teaches a woman to stray; and who entices a slave from his master.'"

787. (178.) It is reported from Abuhurairah that he said that the Prophet of God on whom be peace, said, "He is not from amongst us who manœuvres so as to prejudice the wife in the eyes of her husband (by telling stories to him concerning her) or the slave in the eyes of his master." This is reported by Aboo Daood.

788. (179.) Aayeshah, A. G. S. "He is of the most perfect Muslemans, whose disposition is most liked by his own family."

789. (180.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "That is the most perfect Musleman whose disposition is best; and the best of you is he who behaves best to his wives."

790. (181.) Aayeshah said, "His Highness arrived from the expedition of Tabuc, and there was a curtain in my house let down, and wind blew and opened the side where my puppets were; and the Prophet said, making a sign to the puppets, 'What are these, O Aayeshah?' I said, 'They are my daughters.' And His Highness saw amongst the puppets the image of a horse with two wings and said, 'What thing is this, which I see amongst the puppets?' I said, 'It is a horse.' He said, 'What thing is that upon him?' I said 'Two wings.' The Prophet said with astonishment, 'This is a wonderful horse that has two wings!' I said, 'Have you not heard that Sulaiman had horses with wings, which flew?' Then His Highness laughed, to such a degree as to shew his grinders."

Section III.

791. (182.) Kais-Bin-Sad said, "I came to Hirah, and saw the inhabitants worshipping their chief; and I said, 'Verily, the Prophet of God is worthy of being worshipped.' Then I came to the Prophet and said, 'I saw the people of Hirah worshipping the chief of their tribe, and you are most worthy of being worshipped.' Then His Highness said to me, 'Tell me that if you should pass by my grave, would you worship it?' I said, 'No,' and His Highness said, 'Worship not me; if I were to order men to worship each other, verily, I would order wives to worship their husbands; because God has ordained duty from woman to man.'"

792. (183.) Omer, A. G. S. "A man will not be interrogated in the world of futurity about the thing with which he has beaten his own wife, when it is in duty to the law."

793. (184.) Abu Said Khudhri said, "A woman came to the Prophet when I was by him, and said, my husband, whose name is Safwan, beats me when I am saying my prayers; and makes me break my fast when I am keeping it; and he does not say morning prayers until the sun has risen." Abu Said says, that Safwan was near the Prophet, when his wife made this complaint, and His Highness asked him about what his wife had said. Safwan said, 'O Messenger of God! her saying that I beat her when she is saying her prayers is because she repeats two chapters in her prayers, and I forbade her.' The Prophet said, 'One chapter is sufficient.' And her saying that I make her break her fast when she is keeping it, is for this, that she is always keeping fast, and I am a young man and cannot refrain from connection.' Then the Prophet said, 'No wife must keep fast without the permission of her husband.' 'And the woman's saying that I do not say my prayers till after sunrise, is for this reason, that it is customary with our tribe to remain awake at night, and water our fields; then it is by necessity that I sleep till after sunrise. His Highness said, 'O Safwan! perform your prayers when you awake.'

794. (185.) Aayeshah said, "Verily, the Prophet was in the middle of a crowd of the refugees and assistants, and a camel came and prostrated itself before him; and his friends said, 'O Messenger of God! beasts and trees worship you; then it is proper for us to worship you?' His Highness said, 'worship God, and honor your brother: that is, me.

If I were to order men to worship one another, verily I would order wives to worship their husbands; and if I were to order women to carry stones from yellow mountains to black, and from black mountains to white, it would be incumbent on them to do it.'"

795. (186.) Jabir, A. G. S. "There are three people, not one of whose prayers will be accepted, nor their good works carried upwards; one, a run-away slave, until he returns to his master's service; the second, a woman whose husband is angry with her; the third, an intoxicated person, until he gets sober."

796. (187.) Abuhurairah said, "It was said to the Prophet, 'What is the best woman?' He said, 'That is the best of women who pleases her husband most, when he looks at her, and obeys him when he orders her to do anything, and is not an enemy to him in his property; and doth not oppose him in her person, or in anything which he likes.'"

797. (188.) Ibn-Abbas, A. G. S. "There are four qualities, such that to whomsoever they are given, verily to him hath been given the good of the world and futurity; one of them, a grateful heart, and a tongue repeating the name of God; and a patient body in calamity; and a woman who does not disobey her husband, in her person or his property."

CHAPTER XII.

Section I.

On Khula or Repudiation of a wife, when desired by herself; and on a man's divorcing his wife.

798. (189.) Ibn-Abbas said, "The wife of Sabit-Bin-Kais came to the Prophet, and said, 'O Messenger of God! I am not angry with Sabit from his temper or religion; but I am afraid that something may happen to me contrary to Islam; on which account I wish to be separated from him.' The Prophet said, 'Will you give back to Sabit the garden which he gave you as your settlement?' She said, 'Yes.' Then the Prophet said to Sabit, 'Take your garden, and divorce her at once.'"

799. (190.) Abdullah-Bin-Omer said, "I divorced my wife when she was menstruous, which Omer mentioned to the Prophet, who was angry at it, and said, 'Ibn-Omer must take her back, and take care of her until she be pure, then let her menses come on again, and be pure from it; and then, if he pleases to divorce her, let him do so when she is pure, and before having connection with her; then this mode of repudiation she as much as has been fixed by God.'"

800. (191.) Aayeshah said, "The Messenger of God gave me a choice, saying, 'If you desire the world I will send you away; but if you wish for God and his Prophet, with God are great rewards for you; and I chose God and his Messenger; but His Highness did not reckon this option anything in the way of divorce.'"

801. (192.) It is reported from Ibn-Abbas that he said that, if a person makes a vow making Huram on himself that which is Hulal, he shall be bound to make Kuffara or atonement (and the thing Hulal shall not become Huram): it is verily proper for thee to follow the Prophet, on whom be peace, (he having made atonement when he made honey huram on himself).

802. (193.) Aayeshah said, "Verily the Prophet would sit near Zainab-Bint-Jahash, after she had had her turn; and one day he ate honey near her. Then myself and Hafsah agreed that in whosesoever house the Prophet came, we should say, 'Verily I smell in you the smell of the Maghafir; have you eaten of it?' Then the Prophet came to one of us, and she asked him the question agreed upon. Then he replied, 'There is no fear; I ate honey with Zainab-Bint-Jahash; by God I will not do it again. I make it unlawful for myself: do not tell this secret to any of my other wives.' (Aayeshah says, the Prophet said this to please his wives). Then this revelation came down: 'O Prophet! Why holdest thou that to be prohibited which God hath allowed thee, seeking to please thy wives.'"

Section II.

803. (194.) Thawban, A. G. S. "Every woman who asks her husband to be divorced without cause, the smell of paradise is forbidden to her."

804. (195.) Ibn Omer, A. G. S. "The thing which is lawful, but disliked by God, is divorce."

805. (196.) Ali, A. G. S. "There is no divorce before marriage; and there is no setting free till after possession; and it is not right to fast the day and not eat at night; and there is no orphan after puberty; and there is no sucking child after two years and a half; and it is not right to be silent all day long."

806. (197.) Omer-Ibn-Shuaib A. G. S. relates from his forefathers "It is not right for the sons of Adam to make vows in things not their own property; nor in freeing what they do not possess; and there is no divorce for what is not possessed."

807. (198.) Rucanah-Bin-Abd-Yezid said, "I divorced my wife Suhaimah, and informed the Prophet of the case, and only gave her one divorce. Then the Prophet said, 'Did you only repeat one divorce?' I said, 'Yes.' Then His Highness ordered her to return to me. Then I divorced her a second time, in the reign of Omer; and a third time in the reign of Othman."

808. (199.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "There are three things which, whether done in joke or in earnest, shall be considered as serious and effectual. One, marriage; the second, divorce; the third, taking back."

809. (200.) Aayeshah said, "I heard the Messenger of God say, 'There is no divorce, and no emancipating by compulsion; that is, for one man to say to another, free your slave, and divorce your wife.'"

810. (201.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "Every divorce is lawful except a mad man's."

811. (202.) Ali-Ibn-Abutalib, A. G. S. "There are three persons whose actions are not written: One, a person asleep, until he awakes; the second, a boy, till arriving at puberty; the third, a mad man, till recovering his reason."

812. (203.) Aayeshah, A. G. S. "A slave-girl is unlawful for a man after his saying to her twice, 'I put you away;' like as a free woman, by three divorces; and the period of a slave-girl, after being turned away, is two menstrual periods, when she may marry another, as that of a free woman is three.

Section III.

813. (204.) It is reported from Nafai who reports from the Moulat, or slave-girl of Sufeea, daughter of Aboo Oohyd, that Sufeea obtained Khula from her husband in consideration of whatever belonged to her. Abdoollah son of Oomar (who was one of the Sihabees) did not refuse to recognise this. This is contained in the traditions collected by Malik.

814. (205.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "The wives that disobey their husbands and ask to be separated from them are hypocrites."

815. (206.) Mahmud-Bin-Labid said, "The Prophet was informed of a man who divorced his wife by three times at once, and he got up in anger and said, 'What! do you play with the book of God, while I am amongst you?' till a man stood up and said, 'O Messenger of God! shall I kill him?'"

816. (207.) Malic. "It reached me that a man said to Abdullah Bin-Abbas, 'Verily I have divorced my wife a hundred times: then what do you order for me?' He said, 'That woman is unlawful for you on three divorces; and the other ninety-seven, you have played with the book of God.'"

817. (208.) Muadh-Bin-Jabal said, "The Prophet said to me 'O Muadh! God has not created anything upon the face of the earth, which he loves better than emancipating; nor has he created anything upon the face of the earth which he dislikes more than divorce.'"

CHAPTER XIII.

Section I.

In explanation of women having been divorced by three repetitions.

818. (209.) Aayeshah said, "The wife of Rifaah came to the Prophet, and said, 'Verily I was married to Rifaah, and he divorced me by three repetitions; after which I married Abdul-Rahman-Bin-Zubair, and he has nothing but what is like the fringe of a garment.' Then His Highness said, 'Do you wish to return to Rifaah?' She said, 'Yes.' The Prophet said, 'Your return to Rifaah is not lawful, until you taste the honey of Abdul-Rahman, and he tastes yours.'"

Section II.

819. (210.) Abdullah-Bin-Masuud said, "The Prophet has cursed the second husband, who makes the wife lawful for her first husband; and has cursed the first husband for whom she is thus made lawful."

820. (211.) Sulaiman-Bin-Yesar said, "I was in company with about ten of the Prophet's companions, and every one of them said, "A man who swears that he will not go near his wife for four months shall be imprisoned until he return to her or divorce her."

821. (212.) Abu-Salmah, said, "Verily Sulaiman-Bin-Sakhr said to his wife, 'You are to me as the back of my own mother until after Ramdan.' Then, when half of the month of Ramdan had passed, Sulaiman slept with his wife one night, and mentioned the case to the Prophet, who said, 'Free a slave,' He said, 'I have not one.' The Prophet said, 'Fast two months successively.' He said, 'I am not able.' His highness said, 'Feed six poor people,' He said, 'I have not victuals for six poor men.' Then the Messenger of God said to Ferwah, Bin-Amer, give to Sulaiman fifteen Saas of dates, so that he may feed six poor people.'"

822. (213.) Sulaiman-Bin-Yesar said, "That Sulaiman-Bin-Sakhr said, 'I was more insatiable of connection with women than others, on which account I could have no patience.' Sulaiman-Bin-Yesar said that Sulaiman-Bin-Sakhr asked the Prophet, 'If a man says to his wife, you are to me like the back of my mother, and he has connection with her before making atonement for it; what is to be done?' His Highness said 'For him is freeing one slave, fasting two months, or feeding six poor people.'"

Section III.

823. (214.) Acrimah said, "Verily a man said to his wife, 'You are to me as the back of my own mother,' and had connection with her before making atonement for it, and went to the Prophet and mentioned the matter; who said, 'What caused you to do it before making atonement for it?' He said, 'O Messenger of God! I saw the whiteness of the ornaments round her legs by moonlight, and was not able to govern myself, and had connection with her. Then His Highness laughed, and ordered him not to have connection with her until after making atonement for it.'"

CHAPTER XIV.

Section I.

In Explanation of the foregoing.

824. (215.) Muawiah-Bin-Hacam said, "I came to the Prophet and said, 'O Messenger of God! verily my slave-girl was driving out my goats, and I went near her, and found one goat deficient, and asked her what had become of it, she said a wolf ate it. Then I was angry with her, and being of the children of Adam, gave her a slap on the face. And it became incumbent upon me to free a slave; then is it right for me to free her or not?' The Prophet said to the slave-girl, in order to try her faith, 'Where is God? She said, 'In heaven.' The Prophet said, 'Who am I? She said, 'You are the Messenger of God.' Then the Prophet said, 'Free her.'"

CHAPTER XV.

Section I.

On Lian.

825. (216.) Sahal-Ibn-Sád said, "Verily Uwaimir-ul-Ajlani said, 'O Messenger of God! inform me, if a man finds another with his wife, may he put him to death? and will his relations kill him in retaliation, or how shall he act? The Messenger of God said, 'Verily I have received instructions from above in ordering between you and your wife; bring your wife.' Then Sahal says, 'Uwaimir and his wife were confronted in the Masjid; and myself, with other men, were near the Prophet; and when they had finished, Uwaimir said, 'If I keep this wife, I shall be called a liar.' Then Uwaimir divorced her thrice; after which the Messenger of God said to his companions, 'Attend, if she brings forth a black child, with very black eyes, large buttocks, and fleshy legs, I shall not suppose but that Uwaimir spoke the truth; but if she produce a red child, I shall suppose Uwaimir lied.' Then the woman brought forth a child of the first description which was called its mother's child.'"

826. (217.) Ibn-Omer said, "Verily the Prophet pronounced judgment between a man and woman that had been confronted before him; and he separated them, and gave the child to the mother. And it is related in another tradition, that His Highness advised the man, saying, 'Verily the punishments of the world are easier than those of futurity.' Then he called the woman, and admonished her, saying, 'Verily the punishments of the world are easier than those of futurity.'"

827. (218.) Ibn-Omer said, "Verily the Messenger of God said to a man and woman, that had been confronted, 'Your account is with God; one of you is a liar.' Again he said to the man, 'This woman is forbidden you for ever.' The man said, 'O Messenger of God! what is the case with respect to the money I settled upon her? He said, 'It is not yours, if you have said true; it is gone in lieu of the use you have had of her; but if you have lied, then it is much further from you.'"

828. (219.) Ibn-Abbas said, "Verily Hilal-Bin-Umaiyyah, confronted his wife before the Prophet, and accused her of adultery with Shirric-Bin-Samhaa. The Prophet said to him, 'Bring witnesses, or take eighty lashes upon your back.' Then Hilal said, 'O Messenger of God, when one of us sees a man upon his wife, must he go away to look for witnesses?' The Prophet said, 'Bring witnesses, or receive eighty lashes upon your back.' Then Hilal said, 'I swear by God, who has sent you on earth, verily I am a teller of truth; and verily God will quickly send down an order which will save my back from being flogged." Then Gabriel brought a revelation in explanation of Lian. Then Hilal gave his oath, and the Prophet said, Verily God knows which of you is the liar; then do either of you repent.' Then the woman stood up, and made her oath; and when she came to, 'May the anger of God be upon me if I lie,' the people present forbade her repeating it, and said, 'Verily this fifth asseveration is a cause of punishment.' Ibn-Abbas says, 'Then the woman stopped, so that we imagined she would not repeat it; after which she said, 'I will not disgrace my family all my life; and she finished the fifth asseveration; and His Highness ordered a separation, and said, 'See the woman, if she brings a child with eyes the colour of antimony, large buttocks, and fleshy legs, it is for Shirric-Bin-Samhaa (because he was of this description).' Then the woman brought forth such a child; and the Prophet said, 'Verily, had not there been an order about it in the book of God, I would have done with the woman what I would have done.'"

829. (220.) Abuhurairah said, "Sad-Bin-Ubadah said to the Prophet, 'If I find a man with my wife, shall I not do anything till I bring four witnesses.' He said 'No.' Sad said, 'It is not so, I swear by the God who has sent you on earth, verily I should quickly punish him with the sword.' The Prophet said to the people, 'Hear what your chief says; verily he is very jealous, and I am more jealous than he, and God is more jealous than I.'"

830. (221.) Mughairah said, "That Sad-Bin-Ubadah said, 'If I see a man with my wife I shall certainly kill him with a sword,' which the Prophet heard, and said, 'Are ye astonished at Sad's jealousy, by God, I am more jealous than he, and God is more jealous than I, on account of displeasure. God has declared unlawful, faults external and internal; and God loves apologies; on which account he has sent Prophets, in order that his servants might fear him, and apologize to him; and God is fond of praise, for which he has promised paradise, that his servants might speak in his praise.'"

831. (222.) It is reported from Abuhurairah that he said that the Prophet of God, on whom be peace, said, "Verily shame (as an attribute) is found in God, and verily true believers also possess shame. Shame (to be avoided) in God requires that the true believers should not be guilty of what God has forbidden. This tradition is concurred in by all.

832. (223.) Abuhurairah, "Verily an Aarabi came to the Prophet, and said, 'Verily my wife is brought to bed of a black child; and I disown it.' The Prophet said to him, 'Have you any camels?' He said, 'Yes.' The Prophet said, 'What colour are they?' He said, 'They are red.' His Highness said, 'Is there ever a black one amongst them?' He said, 'Yes.' His Highness said, 'Where is the black one from.' The Aarabi said, 'Probably from its progenitors.' His Highness said, 'Perhaps this child is also from the like cause,' and told the Aarabi not to be displeased with the child."

833. (224.) Aayeshah said, "Atabah-Bin-Abu-Wakkas said to Sad his brother, 'The son of the slave-girl of Zamah is mine, do you take him.' Aayeshah says, in the year of the conquest of Mecca, Sad took the boy, saying, 'This is my brother's son.' And Abd-Bin-Zamah said, 'This is my brother.' Then Sad and Abd both went to the Prophet; and Sad said, 'O Messenger of God! Verily my brother Atabah said the son of the slave-girl of Zamah is mine; and Abd-Bin-Zamah said 'This is my brother, and the son of my father's slave-girl, and was born upon his bed.' Then the Prophet said, 'This boy is your brother, O Abd-Bin-Zamah because the child is for the man under whom the slave-girl is, and for a fornicator is bad luck and disappointment.' Then His Highness said to Saudah-Bint-Zamah, 'Come not before this child, keep yourself shut up from him, on account of his resemblance to Atabah. Then Saudah never saw him till he died.'"

834. (225.) Aayeshah said, "One day the Prophet came home in high spirits, and said, 'O Aayeshah! verily Mujazziz Mudliji came and saw Usamah and Zaid covered over with a cloth, except their feet; and he said, verily I know from these feet the relationship of father and son.'"

835. (226.) Sad-Bin-Abu-Wakkas and Abu-Bacr said, "The Prophet said, 'The child who calls another his father, knowing him not to be so, for him paradise is forbidden.'"

836. (227.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "Turn not from your own father, for he who doth so, verily is ungrateful."

Section II.

837. (228.) Abuhurairah. "I heard the Prophet say, when the revelation concerning Lian came down, 'Every woman who brings into a family a person not of it, there is none of God's mercy for her, nor will he take her into paradise; and every man who denies his own child when knowing it to be so, God will hide his grace from him and will disgrace him in the presence of his creation in the day of resurrection.'"

838. (229.) Ibn-Abbas said, "A man came to the Prophet and said, 'Verily I have got a wife who refuses nobody that wishes to have connexion with her.' The Prophet said, 'Divorce her.' The man said, 'I am fond of her, on account of her beauty.' His Highness said, 'Then keep her, and prevent her from committing adultery.'"

839. (230.) Amer-Ibn-Shuaib relates, from his fore-fathers, that "Verily the Prophet ordered (in the right of a child by a slave-girl after the death of its father), that if the child is by a slave-girl, the property of the man having connexion with her, then it is to inherit his effects as his other children, if they own it as one of his descendants; but is not to partake in what his legitimate children may have divided previous to acknowledging it as a child of their father, but have its share in what may remain undivided. But a man's illegitimate child shall not be one of his posterity, if he shall have disowned it in his life-time. And if the child be by a slave-girl, not the property of its father, it will not inherit any part of his estate, or be his posterity, notwithstanding the adulterer should say in his life-time, 'that is my child.'"

840. (231.) Jabir-Bin-Atic, A. G. S. "There is a kind of jealousy, which God likes; and there is another kind which he abominates; then that jealousy which God likes, is the doubtful, such as, when the wife or slave-girl of a man comes and sits by a stranger; but the jealousy which God abominates is the suspicious, such as a man's harbouring in his heart a bad opinion of his wife. And verily there are some kinds of pride which God loves, and others which he hates; then the pride which God loves, is when fighting with infidels, and in not accepting of things offered in charity; but the pride which God hates is in tyrannizing."

Section III.

841. (232.) Amer-Ibn-Shuaib, relates, from his fore-fathers, that a man stood up and said, 'O Messenger of God! verily such a person is my son; because I committed adultery with his mother in the days of my ignorance.' The Prophet said, 'It is not right to claim a child of adultery in Islam, the doings of ignorance are gone, in which time children of adultery and fornication were claimed. The child is for him under whom its mother is, and for the fornicator is a stone.'

842. (233.) Amer-Ibn-Shuaib, relates from his fore-fathers, that "Verily the Prophet said, 'There are four kinds of women, between whom and their husbands Lian cannot be; a Christian woman married to a Musleman, and a Jewish woman to a Musleman, and a free woman to a slave, and a slave-girl to a free man.'"

843. (234.) Ibn-Abbas said, "Verily the Prophet ordered a man (when a man and his wife were confronted), to put his hand upon their mouths, when they came to the fifth asseveration, because it is a cause of punishment."

844. (235.) Aayeshah said, "Verily the Prophet left me one night, which was the night of my turn; and I was jealous, lest he might go to any of his other wives; and he came, seeing what I was doing (that is, following him), and said to me, 'What is come to you, O Aayeshah, art thou jealous?' I said, 'What is for me, if such a one as I am was not jealous of such a one as you are?' Then the Messenger of God said, 'Verily your devil is come to you and instilled into you such imaginations.' I said, 'O Messenger of God! is there a devil with me?' He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'And is there a devil with you also, O Prophet?' He said, 'Yes, but God assists me over him, so that I remain safe from his wickedness.'"

CHAPTER XVI.

Section I.

In explanation of Iddat, or the number of days a woman counts after being divorced.

845. (236.) Abu-Salmah relates from Fatimah-Bint-Kais who said, "Abu-Amer-Bin-Hafs divorced me when he was absent, and Abu-Amer's agent sent to me a little barley to eat during my Iddat; and I was dissatisfied with it; and the agent said, 'By God! you have no title to any subsistence from me.' Then I came to the Prophet, and mentioned the circumstance; and he said, 'There is no subsistence for you; leave your husband's house and finish your Iddat in Omm-Sharic's. After which the Prophet said, 'Omm-Sharic is a rich woman, virtuous, generous; many of my kindred go to visit her, and dine with her; then go to the house of Omm-Mactum, because her son is blind, throw off your fine clothes in the day of Iddat; then when you are pure, and come out of Iddat inform me, that I may consider about your marriage.'" Fatimah says "When I had completed my Iddat, I said to His Highness, "Muawiah-Bin-Abu-Sufian and Abu-Jahm, have demanded me in marriage; what is the order?" The Prophet said, 'Abu-Jahm never puts down his stick from his shoulder, and Muawiah is a poor man; marry Usamah-Bin-Zaid.' Fatimah says 'I dislike him.' Again His Highness said, 'Marry Usamah.' "Then I approved of the Prophet's order, and married him; and God prospered it so much that people envied me." (And in one tradition it is thus related, that Fatimah said, "My husband divorced me by three repetitions of it; and I went to His Highness, and he said, 'There is no subsistence for you unless you are pregnant).'"

846. (237.) Aayeshah said, "Verily Fatimah-Bint-Kais was in an empty house, in which nobody dwelt; and His Highness was alarmed at her situation, and ordered her to remove to another house." (And in another tradition it is related that Aayeshah said, "What is come to Fatimah; doth she not fear God and his punishments? She told a lie by saying she had no place to stay in, in her husband's house, and no subsistence during the time of her Iddat)."

847. (238.) Said-Bin-al-Musaib said, "Fatimah was not removed in her Iddat, from her own place to another, but on account of her scurrilous and abusive tongue to her husband's relations and friends."

848. (239.) Jabir said, "My maternal aunt was divorced by three repetitions of it; and she sat down for her Iddat, and wished to go out, and gather the fruit of her date trees; but a man forbade her; then she went to the Prophet, and said, 'I am sitting in Iddat, and have occasion to come out to gather my fruit; what is the order? May I come out or not?' His Highness said, 'Come out, and gather in your fruits: for verily it is near that you shall discharge your legal alms, if the fruits amount to Nisab, otherwise you may bestow from them a voluntary benevolence.'" was brought to bed of a child, a few days after her husband's decease; and she came to the Prophet, and asked permission to marry another husband; and the Prophet permitted her; and she married."

879. (240.) Miswar-Bin-Makhramah said, "Verily Subaiah Aslamiah

850. (241.) Omm-Salmah said, "A woman came to His Highness and said; 'O Messenger of God! the husband of my daughter is dead; and her eyes ache; may she put Collyrium to them.' He said, 'No;' after which His Highness said, 'Iddat is not more than four months and ten days; whereas, in the time of ignorance, it was a complete year.'"

851. (242.) Omm-Habibah and Zainab-Bint-Jahash, A. G. S. "It is not right for a woman who believes in God and the last day to sit mourning more than three nights, except for her husband, which is four months and ten days."

852. (243.) Omm-Atiyah, A. G. S. "A woman must not sit in mourning on account of the dead more than three nights, unless for her husband, which is four months and ten days; during which period she must not wear coloured cloths, except those coloured before weaving; and she must not use Surmah,* nor perfume herself; but when she becomes pure from the menses, she may use a little Costus and Ungues Odorati."†

Section II.

853. (244.) Zainab-Bint-Cab said, "Verily Furaiah-Bint-Malic informed me, saying, 'I went to the Prophet, to ask him if I should return to my family in the tribe of Beni Khudrah, because my husband had gone there to look for some slaves that had run away, and was killed, either by them or by thieves; and I said, my husband has not left me in a house of his own, nor have I any subsistence.' The Prophet said, 'Return to your family.' Then I returned from the Prophet, and had reached the court of the house, when he called me to him, and said, 'Stay in your house till the time of your Iddat be complete.' Then I did so four months and ten days."

854. (245.) Omm-Salmah said, "His Highness came to me when my husband Abu-Salmah died, and verily I had rubbed aloes upon my head; and he said, 'What is this, Omm-Salmah?' I said, 'It is nothing but

* Antimony applied as an ornament round the eyes.

† A little shell resembling the nail of a finger which yields a perfume in burning.

aloes; there is no perfume in it.' His Highness said, 'The rubbing of aloes upon the face increases its colour; then do not rub aloes upon your face except at night, and remove it in the day time; and do not comb your hair with a scented comb, nor with Henna, because it colours the hair.' I said, 'What shall I comb with, O Messenger of God?' He said, 'Wet your comb in the water of boiled Lotus leaves, and then comb your hair, and wet your hair well with the water.'"

855. (246.) Omm-Salmah, A. G. S. "A woman whose husband has died must not wear a red garment, nor one coloured with red clay, nor gold or silver ornaments, nor colour her face or hands, nor use surmah."

Section III.

856. (247.) Sulaiman-Bin-Yesar said, "Ahwas died in Syria, when his divorced wife was in her third menses, and she was in a perplexing state of uncertainty whether to do Iddat on account of the death of her husband for four months and ten days or not; then Muawiah wrote to Zaid-Ibn-Thabit, to ask the rule in this case; and Zaid wrote him an answer, saying, that, 'When the woman entered on her third menses, she was free from her husband, and the man became separated from her; I mean, the Iddat of divorce was completed; the woman cannot be his heir; and if the woman had died, the husband would not have been her heir.'"

857. (248.) Said-Bin-al-Musaib said, "Omer-Ibn-al-Khattab said, 'Every woman that is divorced, and has had her menses once or twice, and stopped, then verily she must wait nine months, and if she should shew signs of pregnancy, then her Iddat ends with the birth of her child, but if she should not appear to be pregnant, she must do Iddat three months more, after the nine months; after which she will come out of it.'"

CHAPTER XVII.

Section I.

In explanation of Istibra.

858. (249.) Abu-Dardáa said, "The Prophet passed by a pregnant woman, and asked, 'Whose is she.' They said, 'The purchased slave-girl of such a person.' His Highness said, 'Has he connexion with her.' They said, 'Yes.' His Highness said, 'I have a great mind to curse him for ever; because he has had connexion with her without attending to Istibra; therefore when she brings forth a child, it is possible to be his, or the person's who had connexion with her before. If it is this person's, how can he take the service of the child? because it is not right to take service from one's own child; and if it is the others, and this person should claim it, then he makes a stranger his heir, and this is not right. Then he deserves to be cursed in both points of view.'"

Section II.

859. (250.) Abu-Said-Khudhri, A. G. S. "Concerning the slave-girls taken at the battle of Autas, that a pregnant woman should not be touched till she was brought to bed: nor should one not having arrived at puberty, till after a month."

860. (251.) Ruwaifi-Bin-Thabit, A. G. S. "After the victory at the battle of Hunain, it is not right for a man who believes in God and the last day, to give his own water to the field of another; that is, to have connexion with a pregnant woman; and it is not right for a man who believes in God and the last day, to have connexion with a woman without observing Istibra; and it is not right for a man who believes in God and the last day, to sell plundered property until divided."

Section III.

861. (252.) Malic said, "It has reached me that His Highness ordered the Istibra of slave-girls by one menses, for those that have them, and forbade giving water to strangers' fields."

862. (253.) Ibn-Amer said, "When a slave-girl with the menses is given, sold, or freed, she must Istibra herself by one menses, and a virgin is not to Istibra."

CHAPTER XVIII.

Section I.

In Explanation of Subsistence, and the duty of Slaves.

863. (254.) Aayeshah said, "Verily Hind-Bint-Utbah said, 'O Messenger of God! verily Abu Sufian is a miser, and does not give me and my children sufficient to live upon, except what I take without telling him.' His Highness said, 'Take what will suffice you and your children.'"

864. (255.) Jabir-Bin-Samurah, A. G. S. "When God gives to any one of you great riches, he must first take care of himself, and give to his family and relations what is more than necessary to supply his own wants."

865. (256.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "It is incumbent upon the master of slaves to find them in victuals and clothes; and not order them to do what they are not able."

866. (257.) Abudhar Ghaffari, A. G. S. '"God has ordained that your brothers should be your slaves; therefore, him whom God hath ordained to be the slave of his brother, his brother must give him of the food of which he eats himself, and of the clothes with which he clothes himself, and not order him to do anything beyond his power; but if he doth order such a work, he must assist him himself in doing it."

867. (258.) Abdullah-Bin-Omer said, "My treasurer came to me, and I said to him, 'Have you given my slaves their subsistence?' He said, 'No.' I said 'Go and give it them; because the Prophet of God has said, it is fault enough for a man to withhold the subsistence of his slaves.'"

868. (259.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "When your slave prepares your dinner, and brings it smoking hot, you must make him sit down with you and partake; then, if the victuals be little, put one or two mouthfuls into his hand."

869. 260. Abdullah-Bin-Omer, A. G. S. "When a slave wishes well to his master, and worships God well, for him are double rewards."

870. (261.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "It is good for a slave who worships God well, and discharges his master's work properly."

871. (262.) Jarir, A. G. S. "When a slave runs away, no prayer shall be accepted from him." (And in one tradition it is thus, "Every slave that runs away, then verily the security of Islam is broken on him." And in one tradition it is thus, "Every slave that runs away from his master, verily is an infidel, until he returns)."

872. (263.) Abuhurairah said, "I heard Abul Kasim say, 'He who abuses his own slave, being pure from such abuse, shall be whipped on the day of resurrection, unless the slave should merit the abuse.'"

873. (264.) Ibn-Omer said, "I heard the Prophet say, 'He who beats his slave without fault, or slaps him on the face, his atonement for this is freeing him.'"

874. (265.) Abu Masuud Ansari said, "I beat my slave one day, and heard a voice behind me saying, 'O, Abu Masuud! know that verily God has more power over you than you have over this slave,' and I saw that the voice proceeded from the Prophet of God; and I said to him 'I set him free for God's pleasure.' Then His Highness said, 'Beware, had you not freed him, verily the fire would have burnt you.'"

Section II.

875. (266.) Amer-Ibn-Shuaib relates from his fore-fathers, "That verily a man came to the Prophet, and said, 'Verily I have money, and my father is in want of it. His Highness said, 'You and your money are both your father's; verily your children are your purest earnings; eat of your children's earnings.'"

876. (267.) Amer-Ibn-Shuaib relates from his fore-fathers, "That a man came to His Majesty and said, 'Verily I am a poor man, and do not possess anything; and I have an orphan that I nourish, and he has money.' His Highness said, 'Eat of the orphan's money, so long as you do not lavish it away or take before or more than you want, or accumulate from it.'"

877. (268.) Omm-Salmah, A. G. S. "In the illness in which he died, he said, 'Be constant at prayer, and discharge your duty to your slaves.'"

878. (269.) Abu-Bacr, A. G. S. "A man who behaves ill to his slave will not enter into paradise."

879. (270.) Rafi-Bin-Macith, A. G. S. "Behaving well to slaves is a means of prosperity; and behaving ill to them is a cause of loss." The author of the Masabih adds, "Giving alms prevents sudden death; and doing good is a means of property in life."

880. (271.) Abu-Said-Khudhri, A. G. S. "When any one of you beats his servant, and he asks pardon in the name of God, then withhold yourself from beating him."

881. (272.) Abu-Ayub said, "I heard the Prophet say, 'Whoever is the cause of separation between mother and child, by selling or giving, will separate from his friends on the day of resurrection.'"

882. (273.) Ali-Ibn-Abu-Talib said, "The Prophet gave me two slaves, that were brothers, and I sold one of them, and the Prophet said to me, 'O Ali! What is become of the slave?' Then I informed him of having sold him; and His Highness said, 'Take him back! take him, back!'"

883. (274.) Ali-Ibn-Abu-Talib said, "I separated a slave girl and her son, by selling him; and the Prophet forbade it, and I took him back."

884. (275.) Jabir, A. G. S. "There are three qualities, which being possessed by any one, God will make easy to him the hardness of death, and bring him into paradise: the first, kindness to the decrepit, and affection to father and mother, and doing good to mankind."

885. (276.) Abu-Umamah said, "Verily the Messenger of God gave Ali a slave, and said, 'Don't beat him, because I have been forbidden from beating the performer of prayers; and verily I saw this slave saying his prayers.'" Omer Ibn-al-Khattab said, "The Prophet forbade me striking those that said their prayers, and disgracing them."

886. (277.) Abdullah-Ibn-Omer said, "A man came to the Prophet and said, 'O Messenger of God! how many times are we to forgive our servant's faults.' He was silent, again the man asked, but His Highness gave no answer; but when the man asked a third time, he said, 'Forgive your servants seventy times every day.'"

887. (278.) Abudhar Ghaffari, A. G. S. "Those of your servants who please you, give to eat what you eat yourself; and clothe them as yourself; but those who do not please you, sell them, and punish not God's creatures."

888. (279.) Sahal-Bin-Handhaliyah said, "The Prophet passed by a camel, the belly of which was drawn up to its back, and His Highness said, 'Fear God, in these dumb quadrupeds, and ride them when they are fit to be rode, and get off them when they are tired.'"

Section III.

889. (280.) Ibn-Abbas said, "When these revelations came down, 'meddle not with the substance of the orphan, otherwise than for the improving thereof, and surely they who devour the possession of orphans unjustly, shall swallow down nothing but fire into their bellies, and shall broil in raging flames;' all those who had orphans in their care went home, and separated their own food from that of the orphans, and also their water; fearful lest they might be mixed. Then, when the orphans left any of their meat or drink, it was taken care of for them to eat afterwards, or spoilt. Then this method was unpleasant to the orphans, and they mentioned it to the Prophet, then God sent down this revelation, 'O, Muhammed! they will ask thee concerning orphans; answer, 'To deal righteously with them is best, and if ye mix your things with theirs, verily they are your brethren,' then they mixed their meat and drink together."

890. (281.) Abu-Musa-Ashari said, "His Highness cursed him who separated father and son, and brother from brother."

891. (282.) Abdullah-Bin-Masuud said, "His Highness used (when slaves were brought to him) to give them all to the people of the house, that is, his own family, on account of a dislike to separating them."

892. (283.) Abuhurairah, A. G. S. "Shall I tell you the very worst amongst you? Those who eat alone, and whip their slaves, and give to nobody."

893. (284.) Abu-Bacr, A. G. S. "He will not enter into paradise who behaves ill to his slaves. The companions said, 'O Messenger of God! have you not told us, that there will be a great many slaves and orphans in your sects?' He said, 'Yes; then be kind to them and to your own children, and give them to eat of what you eat yourselves.' They said, 'Then what will benefit us in the world.' His Highness said, 'The horse which you tie up for the purpose of fighting in the cause of God will benefit you; and slaves serving you sufficiently; then if the slaves say their prayers, they are as your brothers.'"

CHAPTER XVIII.

SECTION I.

In explanation of the Young arriving at Puberty, and on bringing them up.

894. (285.) Ibn-Omer said, "I was mustered before the Prophet in the year of the battle of Ohud, at which time I was fourteen years old; and he rejected me on account of my age; after that I was mustered, in the year of the battle of the ditch, when I was fifteen years old; and His Highness permitted me to go, because fifteen years is the boundary of puberty: then Omer Bin Abdul Aziz said, 'This age separates the fighting man from the child.'"

895. (286.) Bara-Ibn-Aazib said, "His Highness made peace (on the day he arrived at Hudaibiah) with the polytheists on three conditions; one of them was, that any polytheist going to the Prophet should be sent back; the second, that any Musleman going to them, should not be sent back by them; the third, that His Highness should return and come to Mecca the following year, and stay there three days: then, when the next year came, His Highness entered Mecca, and left it at the expiration of three days; and he had Hamzah's daughter along with him, and she said, 'O uncle! O uncle!' and Ali took her by the hand to bring her up; then Ali, Zaid-Bin-Harithah, and Jafer-Bin-Abu-Talib disputed which should have her. Then Ali said I took her by the hand first, and she is my uncle's daughter; and Jafer said, she is my uncle's daughter and her mother's sister is married to me, and Zaid-Bin-Harithah said, 'She is the daughter of my brother. Then the Prophet ordered saying, 'She is for her mother's sister; and said a mother's sister is as a mother;' after which she comforted all of them by saying to Ali, 'You are of me, and I am you'; and said to Jafer, 'Your temper and person resemble mine,' and he said to Zaid, 'You are my brother and friend in Islam.'"

Section II.

896. (287.) Amer-Bin-Shuaib relates, from his fore-fathers, "verily a woman came and said, 'O Messenger of God! Verily my belly was a vessel to this son, and my breasts as a water bag, and my lap a cradle, and his father divorced me; and wishes to take him from me,' His Highness said, 'You are most worthy of him so long as you do not marry."

897. (288.) Abuhurairah said, "Verily the Prophet gave an option to a boy, of his father or mother."

898. (289.) Abuhurairah. "A woman came to the Prophet, and said, 'My husband wants to take away my son; and now he is arrived at that age from which I am benefited.' The Prophet said to the boy: 'This is your father, and this is your mother, take which you like; and the boy took hold of his mother's hand, and she took him away.'"

Section III.

899. (290.) Hilal-Bin-Usamah relates, from Abu-Maimunah, who said, "I was sitting with Abuhurairah, and a Persian woman came to him, who had a son with her, when her husband divorced her, and they both claimed the boy; and the woman spoke to Abuhurairah in Persian, saying, 'O Abuhurairah! my husband wants to take away my son.' Then Abuhurairah said, 'Consult an omen, and see which is to have him.' Then her husband came and said, 'Who is it disputes with me about my son,' and Abuhurairah said, 'O God! verily I do not order you to consult an omen but on this account, that I was sitting with the Prophet when a woman came to him and said, 'O Messenger of God! verily my husband wants to take away my son; and now verily the boy has benefitted me and given me sweet water;' and the Prophet said to both of them 'Consult an omen;' and her husband said, 'Who is it disputes with me about my son?' And the Prophet said, to the boy, 'This is your father, and this is your mother, then take by the hand which you like,' and he took hold of his mother's hand."
