TO

THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAMES GIBBS, JUDGE OF HER MAJESTY'S HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, BOMBAY,

THIS VOLUME

IS WITH PERMISSION

Respectfully Dedicated,

BY HIS HUMBLE AND MUCH OBLIGED SERVANT,

DUTTATRAY DAJEE ADHIKARY.

P R E F A C E .

THIS work consists of the provisions of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869) and the Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870) arranged in alphabetical order according to the subject, and the amount of the requisite Stamp or Fee stated in opposite column under each heading.

No pains have been spared to render the work accurate, exhaustive, and full. Not only has no requirement of the Stamp law itself been omitted, but every section, clause, or explanatory note, whether of that law, or of the Civil or Criminal Procedure, the Penal Code, or any other Act or law which has bearing on the text, and might serve to elucidate it, has been added in foot-notes for the sake of easy and ready reference ; and the Compiler hopes that the work, by thus bringing together the somewhat scattered and intricate provisions and requirements of the Stamp law in an intelligible shape, will prove acceptable to the lawyer and the man of business of every grade.

To the Guide are added, as Appendices A and B, the entire texts of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869) and of the Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870). The Addenda consist of the rulings of the High Court in the Presidency of Madras and the Notifications issued by the Government of Bombay from time to time in connection with these Acts. The rulings of the High Courts in the other Presidencies not having been received in time, the Compiler regrets his inability to embody them.

Should the reader of the Guide find any errors,—as errors may have crept in the work,—the Compiler would feel grateful to be informed of the same with the object of correcting them.

in a future edition. Any suggestions for the improvement of the work in any particular will be equally acceptable.

The Compiler has received a great deal of assistance from his friends in the preparation of this work, for which he begs in this place to offer his sincere and grateful acknowledgments.

ABETMENT OF OFFENCES.

General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869.)

Section 36.—Whoever abets within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code* any offence made punishable by this Act shall be punished with the punishment hereinbefore provided for such offence.

ACCOUNTANT GENERAL OF THE HIGH COURT AT FORT WILLIAM.

Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870.)

Section 36.—Nothing in Chapters II.† and V.‡ of this Act applies to the commission payable to the Accountant

* Section 107 of Act XLV of 1860. (Indian Penal Code.)

A person abets the doing of a thing who—

1st. Instigates any person to do that thing ; or,

2ndly. Engages with one or more other person or persons in any conspiracy for the doing of that thing, if an act or illegal omission takes place in pursuance of that conspiracy, and in order to the doing of that thing ; or,

3rdly. Intentionally aids, by any act or illegal omission, the doing of that thing.

Explanation.—1. A person, who by wilful misrepresentation, or by wilful concealment of a material fact which he is bound to disclose, voluntarily causes or procures, or attempts to cause or procure, a thing to be done, is said to instigate the doing of that thing.

Explanation.—2. Whoever, either prior to or at the time of the commission of an act, does anything in order to facilitate the commission of that act, and thereby facilitates the commission thereof, is said to aid the doing of that act.

† Chapter II.

Fees in the High Courts and in the Courts of Small Causes at the Presidency Towns.

Section 3.—The fees payable for the time being to the Clerks and Officers (other than the Sheriffs and Attornies) of the High Courts established by Letters Patent, by virtue of the power conferred by Statute 24th and 25th of Victoria, Chapter 104, Section 15, or chargeable in each of such Courts under No. 11 of the first, and Nos. 7, 12, 14, 16, 20 and 21 of the second, schedule to this Act annexed ;

and the Fees for the time being chargeable in the Courts of Small Causes at the Presidency Towns and their several offices ;

General of the High Court at Fort William, or to the Fees which any officer of a High Court is allowed to receive in addition to a fixed salary.

ACCOUNTS.

Suit for,

shall be collected in manner hereinafter appearing.

Section 4.—No document of any of the kinds specified in the first or second schedule to this Act annexed, as chargeable with Fees, shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or shall be received or furnished by, any of the said High Courts in any case coming before such Court in the exercise of its extraordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction ;

or in the exercise of its Extraordinary Original Criminal Jurisdiction ; or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the judgment of two or more Judges of the said Court, or of a Division Court ;

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the Courts subject to its superintendence ;

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as a Court of reference or revision ;

unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

Section 5.—When any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that any Fee is paid under this Chapter and any suitor or Attorney, as to the necessity of paying a Fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the difference arises in any of the said High Courts, be referred to the taxing-officer, whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the Chief Justice of such High Court, or of such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

When any such difference arises in any of the said Courts of Small Causes, the question shall be referred to the Clerk of the Court whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the First Judge of such Court.

The Chief Justice shall declare who shall be taxing-officer within the meaning of the first paragraph of this Section.

‡ Chapter V.

Of the mode of levying Fees.

Section 25.—All Fees referred to in Section three or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by Stamps.

Section 26.—The stamps used to denote any Fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed, or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the Governor-General of India in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, from time to time direct.

Section 27.—The Local Government may, from time to time, make Rules for regulating—

- (a) the supply of Stamps to be used under this Act,
- (b) the number of Stamps to be used for denoting any Fee chargeable under this Act,
- (c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled Stamps, and
- (d) the keeping accounts of all Stamps used under this Act :

Provided that, in the case of Stamps used under Section 3 in a High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

All such rules shall be published in the Local Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of Law.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF BALANCE OF ACCOUNT, OR OF DEBTS.

General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869, Schedule II.)

No. 5.—Note or memorandum written in any book or written on a separate paper, whereby any account, debt, or demand, or any part of any account, debt, or demand therein specified, and amounting to twenty Rupees or upwards, is expressed to have been balanced, or is acknowledged to be due

General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869.)

Section 51.—Every Local Government shall cause this Act and the schedules hereto annexed to be carefully translated into the principal vernacular languages of the territories subject to its control.

A full alphabetical index shall be added to every such translation, and the translation and index shall be printed and sold to the public at a price not exceeding four annas per copy.

ADDITIONAL FEES.

Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870.)

Section 10.—i.—If in the result of any such investigation (as

Section 28.—No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

But if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or Office without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the Head of the Office, as the case may be, or, in the case of a High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and on such document being stamped accordingly the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

Section 29.—Where any such document is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

Section 30.—No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or Office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such Officer as the Court or the head of the Office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

* This duty may be denoted by an adhesive stamp.

is referred to in Section 9*), the Court finds that the nett profits or market-value have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee : but if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the said market-value or nett profits been rightly estimated :

ii.—In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed :

iii.—Section one hundred and eighty of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be construed as if the words ‘the market-value of any property or’ were inserted after the word ‘ascertaining,’ and as if the words ‘or annual nett profits’ were inserted after the word ‘damages.’

Section 11.—In suits for mesne profits or for immoveable property and mesne profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

* Section 9.—If the Court sees reason to think that the annual nett profits or the market value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in Section 7, paragraphs 5 and 6, have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person, directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

Section 16.—When any appeal is presented to a Civil Court, not against the whole of a decision, but only against so much thereof as relates to a portion of the subject matter of the suit, and, on the hearing of such appeal, the respondent takes, under section *Three hundred and forty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure, an objection to any part of the said decision other than the part appealed against, the Court shall not hear such objection until the respondent shall have paid the additional fee which would have been payable had the appeal comprised the part of the decision so objected to.

ADHESIVE STAMPS.

General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869.)

Section 5.—(a).—All instruments chargeable under this Act with a duty of one anna, bills of exchange and promissory notes drawn or made out of British India, and transfers by endorsement of shares of Companies and Associations may (subject to the provisions hereinafter contained) be stamped with adhesive stamps.

Section 8.—The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note drawn or made out of British India, and not stamped as required by this Act, shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or for payment, or endorses, transfers, or otherwise negotiates such bill or note, affix thereto the proper adhesive stamp or stamps for denoting the duty with which it is chargeable under this Act.

Section 26.—(a).—When any bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, or order for the payment of money on demand by any banker or person acting as a banker, chargeable hereunder with the duty of one anna, comes to his hands unstamped, he may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and cancel the same in the manner required by this Act, and upon so doing, may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct such duty from the sum so directed to be paid.

- (b).—Such bill, note, cheque, or order shall, so far as relates to the stamp duty chargeable thereon, be valid ; but this shall not relieve any person or firm from liability to the penalty which he or it may have incurred by issuing or giving the said bill, note, cheque, or order unstamped.

Section 27.—(a).—Any person, or the agent of any person, from whom money exceeding in amount twenty rupees is due or claimed to be due, and who shall have paid such money, may provide a piece of paper with an adhesive stamp of one anna affixed thereto, and may require of the person entitled to such money or any agent to whom the same shall have been paid, a receipt for such money, and also the value of the said stamp.

- (b).—If any one to whom money shall have been so paid refuses to give such receipt upon demand thereof, or to pay the value of the said stamp thereon, he shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Section 31.—Any person or firm presenting for acceptance or payment a bill of exchange or promissory note to which an adhesive stamp has been affixed under section eight, and any person or firm endorsing, transferring, or in any manner negotiating such bill or note, shall, before delivering the same out of his or its hands, custody, or power, cancel the stamp so affixed, in such manner as to show that the stamp has been made use of, and so that the same shall not admit of being used again.

Any person or firm who or which ought, as directed by this Act, to cancel such stamp in manner aforesaid, and refusing or neglecting so to do, shall be liable for every such offence to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Section 33.—Whenever an adhesive stamp is used as hereinbefore authorized, the person making or executing the instrument to which such stamp is affixed shall, before delivering the instrument out of his hands, custody or power, cancel the stamp so used so that it cannot be used again.

Any person making or executing such instrument, and failing to cancel the stamp affixed thereto in manner aforesaid, shall, for every such offence, be liable to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869.)

Section 20.—When any instrument chargeable with stamp duty executed on paper not bearing the stamp required by the law in force in British India at the time of its execution is produced in a Civil Court, the court, if satisfied that the omission to execute such instrument on paper bearing the proper stamp, did not arise out of any intention to evade payment of the proper duty, and on payment of such duty, or, in the case of an insufficiently stamped instrument of the sum required to make up the full amount chargeable on such instrument,

together with a penalty of the following amount (that is to say) :—

if the instrument is produced within one year from the date of its execution, five times, or, if it is produced after one year from such date, twenty times, such proper stamp duty or deficient portion thereof as aforesaid, shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the proper stamp duty has been levied thereon.

Provided that no such penalty shall exceed one thousand rupees.

Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence as to the amount of stamp duty leviable on such instrument, and the said instrument shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

Section 21.—(a)—An entry of every such payment showing the amount thereof shall be made in a book to be kept by the Court, and shall also be endorsed on the instrument in respect of which the payment is made, and such endorsement shall be signed by the presiding officer.

(b)—The Court shall at the end of every month make a return to the Collector of the money (if any) which it has so received, distinguishing between the sums received by way of penalty and the sums received by way of duty, stating the number and title of the suit, the name of the party from whom the money was received, and the date (if any) and description of the instrument.

(c)—The Court shall pay over all money so received to the Collector or to such person as he may from time to time appoint to receive the same.

Section 22.—If it appear to a Civil or Criminal Court that any instrument filed or exhibited in such Court was executed on unstamped or insufficiently stamped paper with the intention of evading payment of the stamp duty required by the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, the Court may impound the instrument and send it to the Collector, and he shall thereupon prosecute the offender.

CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870.)

Section 32.—The Code of Civil Procedure, Sections three hundred and eight* and three hundred and nine,† shall be read as if, for the words 'stamp-duty' and 'stamps,' the words and figures 'fees chargeable under the Court Fees' Act, 1870,' were substituted; Section three hundred and seventy-one‡ of the same Code shall be read as if, for the words 'a stamp of the value,' the words 'the payment of the fee,' were substituted; and Section three hundred and seventy-three§ of the same Code shall be read as if, for the words 'on a stamp paper of the value,' the words 'and shall be chargeable with the fee,' were substituted; and as if, for the words 'for the stamps,' the words 'the fees' were substituted.

* Section 308.—If the application of the petitioner be granted, it shall be numbered and registered, and shall be deemed the plaint in the suit, and the suit shall proceed in all other respects as an ordinary suit, except that the plaintiff shall not be liable to any further stamp duty in respect of any petition, appointment of a pleader, or other proceeding connected with the suit or with the execution of any decree passed on it.

† Section 309.—On the decision of the suit, the Court shall calculate the amount of stamps which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper, and such amount shall be recoverable by Government from any party ordered by the decree to pay the same, in the same manner as costs of suit are recoverable.

‡ Section 371.—The order passed by the Appellate Court on an application to be allowed to appeal in forma pauperis, whether for the admission or rejection of the application, shall be final; but if the application be rejected, the Appellate Court may, if it think proper, allow the applicant a reasonable time for preferring an appeal on a stamp of the value prescribed for appeals from decrees.

§ Section 373.—The application for the admission of a special appeal shall be presented in the Sudder Court within the period prescribed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal, and shall be accompanied by copies of the judgments and decrees of the Lower Appellate Court, and of the Court of first instance. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular appeals; but if the applicant be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of the appeal, the Sudder Court may admit him to appeal as a pauper, subject to all the rules contained in Chapter IX. in respect to appeals from decrees in forma pauperis in so far as the same may be applicable.

And the Indian Income Tax Act, Section twenty,* shall be read as if, for the words 'the value of the said stamp,' the words 'the fee on the petition,' were substituted.

Section 24.—(a).—When any instrument is produced before the Collector, otherwise than for the purpose of obtaining an adjudication under section thirty-nine, or has been sent to him under section twenty-three, he shall either proceed in accordance with the provisions of section twenty,† exercising the powers thereby conferred

* Section 20 of the Indian Income Tax Act (XVI of 1870).—The Collector shall from time to time determine what persons are chargeable under this Part (IV), and the amount that every such person shall be assessed in accordance with the said Schedule; and in making such assessment income exempted under section VII † shall be treated as chargeable under this Part (IV).

† Section VII.—No income amounting to less than forty-one rupees, ten annas, eight pies per mensem shall be chargeable under this Part (II).

‡ Section 20 of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869).—When any instrument chargeable with stamp duty executed on paper not bearing the stamp required by the law in force in British India at the time of its execution is produced in a Civil Court, the Court, if satisfied that the omission to execute such instrument on paper bearing the proper stamp, did not arise out of any intention to evade payment of the proper duty, and on payment of such duty, or, in the case of an insufficiently stamped instrument of the sum required to make up the full amount chargeable on such instrument, together with a penalty of the following amount (that is to say) :—

if the instrument is produced within one year from the date of its execution, five times, or, if it is produced after one year from such date, twenty times, such proper stamp duty or deficient portion thereof as aforesaid,

on a civil court; or if it appear to him that the instrument was executed on unstamped, or insufficiently stamped, paper with the intention of evading payment of the proper stamp duty, he shall prosecute all the persons that have executed the said instrument, or such of them as to him may seem fit;

Or if it appear to him that the instrument is properly stamped, or that it is not chargeable with stamp duty under the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is properly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable (as the case may be); and he shall thereupon return such instrument to the registering or other public officer by whom it was sent, or to the person by whom it was produced, and, subject to the provision contained in section forty, it shall be deemed to be properly stamped or not chargeable (as the case may be).

(b).—Provided that, in any case coming under this section, if the instrument is brought within one year from the date of its execution to the Collector, or other public officer by whom it has been sent to the Collector, under section twenty-three, and if the Collector is satisfied that such instrument has not been duly stamped previously to being signed or executed by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertence, or urgent necessity, he may remit the whole or any part of the penalty prescribed by section twenty.

(c).—Provided also that, in any case coming under this section in which an instrument, other than a bill of exchange or promissory note, purports to have been executed out of British India, if the Collector is satisfied that the instrument was so executed, and also that it has been brought to him within the three months next after its shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the proper stamp duty has been levied thereon :

Provided that no such penalty shall exceed one thousand rupees.

Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence as to the amount of stamp duty leviable on such instrument, and the said instrument shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

arrival in British India, he shall, on payment of the duty with which such instrument would have been chargeable if executed in British India, certify by endorsement thereon that the proper stamp duty has been levied upon it.

(d).—Subject to the provision contained in section forty, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of stamp duty leviable on the instrument, which shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

Section 25.—When the Collector elects to proceed under section twenty, he shall (if he imposes a penalty), after endorsing on the instrument the certificate thereby directed, or (if he remits the whole of the penalty) after endorsing on the instrument a certificate to that effect, return such instrument to the registering or other public officer by whom it was sent or to the person by whom it was produced.

Subject to the provision contained in section forty, the said instrument shall thereupon be, and be deemed to have been, as valid as if it was originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

In case any instrument sent or returned under sections twenty-two,* twenty-three,† or twenty-four, or the former part of this section, be lost, destroyed, or injured during transmission, the court or officer sending or returning the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction, or injury.

Section 39.—When any instrument chargeable with stamp duty under this Act, whether previously stamped or

† 23.—When any instrument is produced before any registering officer, or in any public office other than a Civil or Criminal Court, if it appear to the registering officer, or to the head of such public office that the instrument is chargeable with stamp duty under the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, but that it does not bear a stamp of a value equal to or exceeding the value of the stamp prescribed therefor by that law, he shall impound the instrument, and send it forthwith to the Collector.

The instrument shall thereupon be deemed to be duly stamped and shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise in all courts and public offices as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp :

Provided that nothing contained in the former part of this section shall authorise the Collector to make any such endorsement on bills of exchange, promissory notes, or instruments chargeable with the stamp duty of one anna when brought to him on unstamped or insufficiently stamped paper subsequent to the drawing or execution thereof.

Section 40.—All certificates and orders of the Collector under this Act shall be open to revision on appeal or otherwise by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to which the Collector is subordinate :

Provided that no order passed on such revision shall invalidate any registration or other proceeding previously made or taken of or upon an instrument endorsed by the Collector under section twenty-four or section twenty-five.

* Chapter VI of Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870.)

PROCESS FEES.

20. The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters :—

I. The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil and Revenue Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction :

II. The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police officers may arrest without a warrant : and

III. The remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a court in the service or execution of processes.

The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

All such rules, alterations and additions shall, after being confirmed by the Local Government, and sanctioned by the Governor General of India in Council, be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Until such rules shall be so made and published, the fees now leviable for serving and executing processes shall continue to be levied, and shall be deemed to be fees leviable under this Act.

21. A Table in the English and vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution, shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each court.

22. Subject to rules to be made by the High Court and approved by the Local Government and the Governor General of India in Council—

Every District Judge and every Magistrate of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his court and each of the courts subordinate thereto,

And for the purposes of this section, every Court of Small Causes established under Act No. XI of 1865 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature) shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court of the District Judge.

23. Subject to rules to be framed by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, and approved by the Local Government and the Governor General of India in Council, every officer performing the functions of a Collector of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his court or the courts subordinate to him.

24. Every process served or executed under this chapter shall be held to be a process within the meaning of section one hundred and eighty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure, and of section two of Act No. XXIII of 1861 (to amend Act VIII of 1859).

† Section 188 of the Civil Procedure Code.—Under the denomination of costs are included the whole of the expenses necessarily incurred by either party on account of the suit, and in enforcing the decree passed therein, such as the expense of stamps, of summoning the defendants and witnesses, and of other processes, or of procuring copies of documents, fees of pleaders, charges of witnesses, and expenses of Commissioners either in taking evidence or in local investigations, or in investigations into accounts.

STAMPS.

Section 28.—Except as provided in sections eight* and twenty-six,† no stamp shall be affixed to, or impressed on, any bill of exchange, or promissory note, or any instrument chargeable hereunder with the duty of one anna, subsequent to the execution thereof, nor

* Section 8 of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869).—The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note drawn or made out of British India, and not stamped as required by this (General Stamp) Act, shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or for payment, or endorses, transfers or otherwise negotiates such bill or note, affix thereto the proper adhesive stamp or stamps for denoting the duty with which it is chargeable under this (General Stamp) Act.

† Section 26 of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869.) (a).—When any bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, or order for the payment of money on demand by any banker or person acting as a banker, chargeable hereunder with the duty of one anna, comes to his hands unstamped, he may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and cancel the same in the manner required by this (General Stamp) Act, and upon so doing, may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct such duty from the sum so directed to be paid.

(b). Such bill, note, cheque, or order shall, so far as relates to the stamp duty chargeable thereon, be valid; but this shall not relieve any person or firm from liability to the penalty which he or it may have incurred by issuing or giving the said bill, note, cheque, or order unstamped.

shall the provisions of sections twenty* and twenty-four † apply to any such instrument.

* Section 20 of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869).—When any instrument chargeable with stamp duty executed on paper not bearing the stamp required by the law in force in British India at the time of its execution is produced in a Civil Court, the court, if satisfied that the omission to execute such instrument on paper bearing the proper stamp, did not arise out of any intention to evade payment of the proper duty, and on payment of such duty, or in the case of an insufficiently stamped instrument of the sum required to make up the full amount chargeable on such instrument, together with a penalty of the following amount (that is to say) :—

If the instrument is produced within one year from the date of its execution, five times, or, if it is produced after one year from such date, twenty times, such proper stamp duty or deficient portion thereof as aforesaid,

shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the proper stamp duty has been levied thereon :

Provided that no such penalty shall exceed one thousand rupees.

Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence as to the amount of stamp duty leviable on such instrument, and the said instrument shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

† Section 24 of the General Stamp Act (XVIII of 1869).—(a).—When any instrument is produced before the Collector, otherwise than for the purpose of obtaining an adjudication under section thirty-nine,* or has been sent to him under section twenty-three,* he shall either proceed in accordance with the provisions of section twenty, exercising the powers thereby conferred, on a Civil Court; or if it appear to him that the instrument was executed on unstamped or insufficiently stamped paper, with the intention of evading payment of the proper stamp duty, he shall prosecute all the persons that have executed the said instrument, or such of them as to him may seem fit ;

or if it appear to him that the instrument is properly stamped, or that it is not chargeable with stamp duty under the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is properly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable (as the case may be); and he shall thereupon return such instrument to the registering or other public officer by whom it was sent, or to the person by whom it was produced, and, subject to the provision contained in section forty,* it shall be deemed to be properly stamped or not chargeable (as the case may be).

(b).—Provided that, in any case coming under this section, if the instrument is brought within one year from the date of its execution to the Collector, or other public officer by whom it has been sent to the Collector under section twenty-three, and if the Collector is satisfied that such instrument has not been duly stamped previously to being signed or executed by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertence, or urgent necessity, he may remit the whole or any part of the penalty prescribed by section twenty.

(c).—Provided also that, in any case coming under this section in which an instrument, other than a bill of exchange or promissory note, purports to have been executed out of British India, if the Collector is satisfied that the instrument was so executed, and also that it has been brought to him within the three months next after its arrival in British India, he shall, on payment of the duty with which such instrument would have been chargeable if executed in British India, certify by endorsement thereon that the proper stamp duty has been levied upon it.

(d).—Subject to the provision contained in section forty, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of stamp duty leviable on the instrument, which shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

where the subject-matter is land, and

(a) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such an estate and is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue, and such revenue is permanently settled—ten times the revenue so payable :

(b) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such estate and is recorded as aforesaid;

and such revenue is settled but not permanently—five times the revenue so payable :

(c) where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment, or is charged with any fixed payments in lieu of such revenue, and nett profits have arisen from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint—fifteen times such nett profits :

but where no such nett profits have arisen therefrom—the amount at which the Court shall estimate the land with reference to the value of similar land in the neighbourhood:

mated, the court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the court.

Section 12.—I.—Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this chapter (III) on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, shall be decided by the court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit :

II.—But whenever any such suit comes before a court of appeal, reference or revision, if such court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been but is not a definite share of such estate, and 'is not separately assessed as above-mentioned—the market-value of the land :

Provided that in the territories subject to the Governor of Bombay in Council, the value of the land shall be deemed to be—

(1) where the land is held on settlement for a period not exceeding thirty years and pays the full assessment to Government,—a sum equal to five times the survey assessment ;

(2) where the land is held on a permanent settlement, or on a settlement for any period exceeding thirty years, and pays the full assessment to Government,—a sum equal to ten times the survey assessment ; and

(3) where the whole or any part of the annual survey assessment is remitted, a sum computed under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this proviso, as the case may be, in addition to ten times the assessment, or the portion of assessment, so remitted.

Explanation.—The word 'Estate,' as used in this paragraph, means any land subject to the payment of revenue, for which the proprietor or a farmer or ryot shall have executed a separate engagement to Government, or which in the absence of such engagement shall have been separately assessed with revenue.

(e) where the subject-matter is a house or garden—according to the market-value of the house or garden.

Para. 6.—In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the value (computed in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Section) of the land, house, or garden in respect of which the right is claimed.

CHAPTER II.

STAMP DUTIES CHARGEABLE UNDER THIS ACT.

4. For every instrument mentioned in the first and second schedules hereto and executed in British India on or after the 1st day of January 1870, or executed out of British India on or after that day, but relating to any property within British India, there shall be payable to the Government of India, as stamp duty, the amount indicated in the first or second schedule hereto annexed, to be the proper duty for such instrument.

5. (a).—All instruments chargeable under this Act with a duty of one anna, bills of exchange and promissory notes drawn or made out of British India, and transfers by endorsement of shares of Companies and Associations may (subject to the provisions herein-after contained) be stamped with adhesive stamps.

(b). The stamp on every other instrument chargeable under this Act shall either be impressed on the paper whereon the instrument is written or be otherwise denoted by the Collector or the Superintendent of Stamps in accordance with such rules as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time prescribe in this behalf.

6. In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne—

1st.—In the case of any instrument mentioned in the first schedule to this Act

(other than a policy of insurance, a mortgage-deed, a settlement, a conveyance, a lease, an instrument of exchange or partition-deed where money is paid for equality of exchange or partition, an appraisement or valuation, an award and a copy, duplicate or extract), by the person drawing, making, or executing such instrument :

2nd.—In the case of a policy of insurance, by the insured :

3rd.—In the case of a settlement, by the settlor :

4th.—In the case of a conveyance, mortgage-deed, or lease, by the grantees, mortgagor, or lessee :

5th.—In the case of a counterpart of a lease, by the lessor :

6th.—In the case of a partition-deed, by the parties thereto in proportion to their respective shares in the property comprised therein ; and 7th.—In the case of an exchange where money is paid for equality of exchange, by the person paying such money.

7. The duty imposed by this Act on bills of exchange shall be chargeable Duties on bills of exchange. (a) on all bills drawn and payable in British India, (b) on all bills drawn in, but payable out of British India, and (c), on all bills drawn out of, but accepted, or paid, or endorsed, transferred, or otherwise negotiated within British India.

8. The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note drawn or made out of British India, and not stamped as required by this Bills drawn out of British India. Act, shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or for payment, or endorses, transfers, or otherwise negotiates such bill or note, affix thereto the proper adhesive stamp or stamps for denoting the duty with which it is chargeable under this Act.

9. Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, Instruments reserving interest. such instrument shall not be chargeable with a duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein.

10. When the consideration set forth in or the amount secured by any Consideration expressed in foreign currency. instrument chargeable under this Act is expressed in pounds sterling, pounds currency, francs, or dollars, such consideration or amount shall, for the purposes of this Act, be estimated according to the following scale :—

One pound sterling or pound currency is equivalent to ten rupees.

One hundred francs are equivalent to forty rupees.

One Mexican or China dollar is equivalent to two rupees four annas.

One Mauritius dollar is equivalent to two rupees.

11. When the amount or value of the subject-matter of any bond, mortgage-deed or settlement chargeable under this Act with an Optional stamps where value of subject-matter is indeterminate. ad valorem stamp duty, and referred to or mentioned in section six, cannot be ascertained, the proper stamp to be borne by such instrument may be determined by the person bound under that section to bear the expense of providing the stamp :

Provided that, under such instrument, nothing shall be recoverable more than the highest amount or value for which, if stated in an instrument of the same denomination, the stamp actually used under such option would have been sufficient.

12. The whole amount secured for the payment of an annuity, or other sum payable periodically for an indefinite time, by a bond, Promissory note, or mortgage-deed shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be ten times the amount of the payment calculated for one year.

Where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically for an indefinite time, such consideration shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be ten times the amount of the payment calculated for one year.

13. Where more instruments than one are required for the completion of any transaction involving the execution of a mortgage deed, settlement, conveyance, or lease, the proper stamp required by this Act for such mortgage-deed, settlement, conveyance, or lease, shall be borne by the principal instrument executed in such transaction, and each of the other instruments shall bear a stamp of one rupee.

The parties may determine for themselves which of such instruments shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be the principal instrument : Provided that, where the instruments are liable to different rates of duty under this Act, the instrument liable to the highest of such rates shall be deemed to be the principal instrument.

14. An instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the definitions in section three shall, when the instruments to which those definitions apply are liable to different rates of duty under this Act, be charged with the highest of such rates.

Provided that, when any one instrument purports, for distinct considerations, to convey by way of sale, to lease, to give or to mortgage two or more subject-matters, or to convey by way of sale, to lease, or to give one subject-matter and to mortgage another, such instrument shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties to which instruments effecting separately each of such conveyances, leases, gifts, or mortgages would be liable under this Act.

15. Nothing in this Act shall render the following instruments exempt from duty :—

(1). Receipt or discharge granted to a cultivator for the rent of land paying revenue to Government, or (in the Presidencies of Madras and Bombay) of inam lands.

(2). Receipt given for money or securities for money deposited in any Bank or in the hands of any Banker or person acting as a Banker to be accounted for :

Provided the same be not expressed to be received of or by the hands of any other than the person to whom the same is to be accounted for :

Provided further, that this exemption shall not extend to a receipt or acknowledgment for any sum paid or deposited for, or upon a letter of allotment of a share, or in respect of a call upon any scrip or share of or in any Company, or Association, or proposed or intended Company or Association.

(3). Receipt or discharge endorsed on or contained in any instrument duly stamped according to the law in force in British India at the date of its execution, acknowledging the receipt of the consideration-money therein expressed, or the receipt of any principal money, interest, or annuity or other periodical payment thereby secured.

(4). Transfer by endorsement of a negotiable instrument or a policy of marine insurance or of insurance against fire.

(5). Letters of hypothecation accompanying a bill of exchange.

(6). Transfers of securities of the Government of India.

(7). Bond to Government for the due performance of the duties of any salaried office.

(8). Agreement or memorandum of an agreement for or relating to the sale of goods or merchandise.

(9). Lease granted to a cultivator, unless a fine or premium be paid in consideration of such lease.

(10). Counterpart of such lease.

(11). Surrender of land executed by a cultivator to his landlord.

(12). Affidavit made for the sole purpose of enabling any person to receive any pension or charitable allowance.

(13). Copy of any paper which a public officer is by law required to make or furnish in his official capacity.

(14). Copies made for the private use only of any person having the custody of the original instrument, or of his counsel, attorney or vakil.

(15). Receipt or other instrument executed by or on behalf of Government, in cases where the Government would but for this exemption be liable to pay for the stamp thereon.

(16). Letter of cover or engagement to issue a policy of insurance :

Provided that, unless such letter or engagement bear the stamp prescribed by this Act for such policy of insurance, nothing shall be recoverable thereunder, nor shall it be available for any purpose except to compel the delivery of the policy therein mentioned.

16. The Government of India in Council may, from time to time, by order published in the Gazette of India, reduce or remit in the whole or any part of British India the duties chargeable under this Act on all or any of the instruments mentioned in the first and second schedules hereto annexed, or on any particular class of such instruments, or on any of the instruments belonging to such class, or on any of the instruments mentioned in the said schedules when executed or granted by or to any particular class of persons, or by or to any members of such class, and may in like manner cancel or vary such order to the extent of the powers hereby given.

Every such cancelment or variation shall be published in the Gazette of India.

17. Nothing in this chapter or in the schedules hereto annexed shall be deemed to affect the stamp duties chargeable under Act No. XXVI. of 1867, section six, or under any other enactment relating to stamps used in judicial proceedings.

Saving of Judicial stamp duties,

CHAPTER III.

UNSTAMPED OR INSUFFICIENTLY STAMPED DOCUMENTS.

18. (a).—No instrument chargeable with stamp duty shall be received in any court of justice, or by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, as creating, modifying, transferring or extinguishing, or purporting to create, modify, transfer or extinguish, any right or obligation,

Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence.

or as evidence in any civil proceeding, or shall be acted upon in any such court, or by any such person as aforesaid, or by any public officer, or shall be registered by any officer acting under any law for the registration of assurances, or in any public office, or shall be authenticated by any public officer, unless such instrument bears a stamp of a value not less than the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable under the law in force in British India at the time of its execution.

(b).—Every instrument chargeable with stamp duty shall be admitted in evidence in any criminal proceeding (other than proceedings under Chapter XXII. of the Code of Criminal Procedure)

Except in criminal proceedings.

although it may not have the stamp required by law impressed thereon or affixed thereto.

19. Subject to the provisions contained in section twenty-six, no person taking a bill of exchange or promissory note requiring a Foreign bill unstamped or with stamp uncanceled.

stamp under section eight, either in payment or as a security, or by purchase or otherwise shall be entitled to recover thereon, or to make the same available for any purpose, unless at the time when he so takes it, the proper stamp is affixed thereto and cancelled in manner directed by this Act.

20. When any instrument chargeable with stamp duty executed on paper not bearing the stamp required by the law in force in British India at the time of its execution is produced in a Powers of civil courts as to unstamped or insufficiently stamped instruments.

Civil Court, the Court, if satisfied that the omission to execute such instrument on paper bearing the proper stamp did not arise out of any intention to evade payment of the proper duty, and on payment of such duty, or, in the case of an insufficiently stamped instrument of the sum required to make up the full amount chargeable on such instrument, together with a penalty of the following amount (that is to say):—

if the instrument is produced within one year from the date of its execution, five times, or, if it is produced after one year from such date, twenty times, such proper stamp duty or deficient portion thereof as aforesaid, shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the proper stamp duty has been levied thereon.

Provided that no such penalty shall exceed one thousand rupees.

Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence as to the amount of stamp duty leviable on such instrument, and the said instrument shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

21. (a).—An entry of every such payment showing the amount thereof shall be made in a book to be kept by the Court, and shall also be endorsed on the instrument in respect of which the payment is made, and such endorsement shall be signed by the presiding officer.

Registration of payments and penalties levied by civil courts.

(b).—The Court shall at the end of every month make a return to the Collector of the money (if any) which it has so received, distinguishing between the sums received by way of penalty and the sums received by way of duty, stating the number and title of the suit, the name of the party from whom the money was received, and the date (if any) and description of the instrument.

Returns to Collector.

(c).—The Court shall pay over all money so received to the Collector or to such person as he may from time to time appoint to receive the same.

Payments to Collector.

22. If it appear to a Civil or Criminal Court that any instrument filed or exhibited in such Court was executed on unstamped or insufficiently stamped paper with the intention of evading payment of the stamp duty required by the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, the Court may impound the instrument and send it to the Collector, and he shall thereupon prosecute the offender.

Impounding unstamped instruments in civil or criminal courts.

23. When any instrument is produced before any registering officer, or in any public office other than a Civil or Criminal Court, if it appear to the registering officer, or to the head of such public office that the instrument is chargeable with stamp duty under the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, but that it does not bear a stamp of a value equal to or exceeding the value of the stamp prescribed therefor by that law, he shall impound the instrument, and send it forthwith to the Collector.

Impounding unstamped instruments in public office.

24. (a).—When any instrument is produced before the Collector, otherwise than for the purpose of obtaining an adjudication under section thirty-nine, or has been sent to him under section twenty-three, he shall either proceed in accordance with the provisions of section twenty, exercising the powers thereby conferred on a civil court; or if it appear to him that the instrument was executed on unstamped, or insufficiently stamped, paper with the intention of evading payment of the proper stamp duty, he shall prosecute all the persons that have executed the said instrument, or such of them as to him may seem fit;

Powers of Collector as to unstamped or insufficiently stamped instruments.

or if it appear to him that the instrument is properly stamped, or that it is not chargeable with stamp duty under the law in force in British India at the time of its execution, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is properly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable (as the case may be); and he shall thereupon return such instrument to the registering or other public officer by whom it was sent, or to the person by whom it was produced, and, subject to the provision contained in section forty, it shall be deemed to be properly stamped or not chargeable (as the case may be).

been sent to the Collector under section twenty-three, and if the Collector is satisfied that such instrument has not been duly stamped previously to being signed or executed by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertence, or urgent necessity, he may remit the whole or any part of the penalty prescribed by section twenty.

(c).—Provided also that, in any case coming under this section in which an instrument, other than a bill of exchange or promissory note, purports to have been executed out of British India, if the Collector is satisfied that the instrument was so executed, and also that it has been brought to him within the three months next after its arrival in British India, he shall, on payment of the duty with which such instrument would have been chargeable if executed in British India, certify by endorsement thereon that the proper stamp duty has been levied upon it.

(d).—Subject to the provision contained in section forty, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of stamp duty leviable on the instrument, which shall thereupon be admissible as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

25. When the Collector elects to proceed under section twenty, he shall (if he imposes a penalty), after endorsing on the instrument the certificate thereby directed, or (if he remits the whole of the penalty) after endorsing on the instrument a certificate to that effect, return such instrument to the registering or other public officer by whom it was sent or to the person by whom it was produced.

Subject to the provision contained in section forty, the said instrument shall thereupon be, and be deemed to have been, as valid as if it was originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp.

In case any instrument sent or returned under sections twenty-two, twenty-three, or twenty-four, or the former part of this section, be lost, destroyed, or injured during transmission, the Court or officer sending or returning the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction, or injury.

Loss of instruments sent under sections 22, 23, 24, or 25.

26. (a).—When any bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, or order for the payment of money on demand by any banker on person acting as a banker, chargeable hereunder with the duty of one anna, comes to his hands unstamped, he may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and cancel the same in the manner required by this Act, and upon so doing, may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct such duty from the sum so directed to be paid.

Power to stamp instruments chargeable with one anna.

(b).—Such bill, note, cheque, or order shall, so far as relates to the stamp duty chargeable thereon, be valid; but this shall not relieve any person or firm from liability to the penalty which he or it may have incurred by issuing or giving the said bill, note, cheque, or order unstamped.

27. (a).—Any person, or the agent of any person, from whom money exceeding in amount twenty rupees is due or claimed to be due, and who shall have paid such money, may provide a piece of paper with an adhesive stamp of one anna affixed thereto, and may require of the person entitled to such money or any agent to whom the same shall have been paid, a receipt for such money, and also the value of the said stamp.

Procedure where receipts are required.

(b).—If any one to whom money shall have been so paid refuses to give such receipt upon demand thereof, or to pay the value of the said stamp thereon, he shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Refusal to give receipts.

28. Except as provided in sections eight and twenty-six, no stamp shall be affixed to, or impressed on, any bill of exchange, or promissory note, or any instrument chargeable hereunder with the duty of one anna, subsequent to the execution thereof, nor shall the provisions of sections twenty and twenty-four apply to any such instrument.

After-stamping when inadmissible.

CHAPTER IV.

CRIMINAL PENALTIES.

29. Any person or firm making, signing, or issuing, or, except as provided in section twenty-six, accepting, endorsing, paying, or receiving payment of any bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, or other similar instrument liable to any of the duties hereby imposed, without the same being duly stamped,

Penalty for executing instrument on paper not duly stamped.

and any person making, executing, or signing otherwise than as a witness any other instrument liable to any of such duties without the same being duly stamped, shall, for every such offence, be liable to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, if ten times the value of the proper stamp exceeds one hundred rupees, to fine not exceeding ten times such value, or, where an insufficient stamp has been used, if ten times the deficient amount exceeds one hundred rupees, to fine not exceeding ten times such amount.

30. Any person or firm presenting for acceptance or for payment, or accepting, paying, endorsing, transferring, or in any manner negotiating any bill of exchange or promissory note drawn or made out of British India whereon there is not such stamp as is required by this Act, shall be liable for every such offence to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty for presenting, &c., unstamped foreign bills or notes.

31. Any person or firm presenting for acceptance or payment a bill of exchange or promissory note to which an adhesive stamp has been affixed under section eight, and any person or firm endorsing, transferring, or in any manner negotiating such bill or note, shall, before delivering the same out of his or its hands, custody, or power, cancel the stamp so affixed, in such manner as to show that the stamp has been made use of, and so that the same shall not admit of being used again.

Cancelling stamps on foreign bills by holder.

Any person or firm who or which ought, as directed by this Act, to cancel such stamp in manner aforesaid, and refusing or neglecting so to do, shall be liable for every such offence to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty for failure to cancel such stamps.

32. Any person or firm drawing or executing within British India a bill of exchange, or a policy of marine insurance purporting to be drawn or executed in a set of two or more, and not at the same time drawing or executing on paper duly stamped as required by this Act the whole number of bills or policies of which such bill or policy purports the set to consist, shall, for every such offence, be liable to fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Penalty for not drawing full number of bills or marine policies purporting to be in sets.

33. Whenever an adhesive stamp is used as hereinbefore authorised, the person making or executing the instrument to which such stamp is affixed shall, before delivering the instrument out of his hands, custody or power, cancel the stamp so used so that it cannot be used again.

Cancellation of adhesive stamp by maker or executant.

Any person making or executing such instrument and failing to cancel the stamp affixed thereto in manner aforesaid shall, for every such offence, be liable to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty for failure to cancel such stamps.

34. (a).—When any moveable or immoveable property is sold, the full consideration-money directly or indirectly paid or secured, or agreed to be paid or secured, for the same, shall be truly set forth in words at length in the principal or only instrument whereby the property sold is conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser or in any other person by his direction.

Consideration to be stated.

(b).—When any property is sold and conveyed subject to any mortgage, or bond, or other debt, or to any gross or entire sum of money, such debt or sum shall be deemed the consideration-money or part of the consideration-money (as the case may be) in respect whereof the duty chargeable under the first schedule to this Act shall be paid,

Mortgage money to be deemed purchase money.

notwithstanding the purchaser is not or does not become personally liable for such debt or sum, or does not agree to pay the same or to indemnify the seller against the same.

(c).—If the full consideration-money is not set forth as aforesaid, the purchaser and the seller shall each be liable to fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, and shall also pay a fine of five times the amount of the excess of duty with which such instrument would have been chargeable under this Act, if the full consideration-money had been duly set forth in such instrument, in addition to the duty actually paid for the same.

Penalty for not stating consideration.

35. Any attorney, vakil, pleader, mukhtar, or other person employed in or about the preparing of any instrument in or upon which the full consideration-money is hereby required to be truly set forth, Penalty on attorneys, &c. not inserting true consideration.

or employed for any of the parties thereto in anywise about or relating to the transaction therein mentioned.

who knowingly inserts or sets forth, or causes to be inserted or set forth, in or upon any such instrument any other than the full consideration-money, shall for every such offence, pay a fine not less than five hundred rupees and not exceeding five thousand rupees.

Every attorney, vakil, pleader, and mukhtar convicted under this section shall, from the date of such conviction, be disabled to practise as an attorney, vakil, pleader, or mukhtar :

Provided that no person shall be liable to any penalty or disability under this section, unless the duty actually paid for the instrument is less than would have been payable for the same in case the consideration-money had been truly set forth as aforesaid.

36. Whoever abets within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code any offence made punishable by this Act shall be punished with the punishment hereinbefore provided for such offence.

37. All fines imposed under this Act may be recovered, if for offences committed outside the local limits of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, in the manner prescribed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, and if for offences committed within those limits, in the manner prescribed by any Act regulating the Police of such towns in force for the time being.

In the case of a firm, the Magistrate imposing the fine may issue a warrant for the levy of the amount by distress and sale of any moveable property belonging to the firm, or to all or any of the members thereof.

38. Whenever an offender is sentenced to pay a fine under this Act, the convicting Magistrate may award any portion not exceeding one-half to the person on whose information the offender has been convicted.

CHAPTER V. JURISDICTION.

39. When any instrument chargeable with stamp-duty under this Act, whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it desires to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty with which it is so chargeable, and pays a fee of five rupees, the Collector shall assess and charge the duty to which, in his judgment, the instrument is liable ; and upon payment of such duty or of such a sum as, with the duty already paid thereon, is equal to the duty so assessed and charged, and of the penalty, if any, incurred through the instrument having been executed on insufficiently stamped paper, shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty with which it is chargeable under this Act has been paid.

The instrument shall thereupon be deemed to be duly stamped, and shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise in all courts and public offices as if originally executed on paper bearing the proper stamp :

Provided that nothing contained in the former part of this section shall authorise the Collector to make any such endorsement on bills of exchange, promissory notes, or instruments chargeable with the stamp duty of one anna when brought to him on unstamped or insufficiently stamped paper subsequent to the drawing or execution thereof.

40. All certificates and orders of the Collector under this Act shall be open to revision on appeal or otherwise by the chief controlling Revenue Authority to which the Collector is subordinate.

Revision of Collector's certificates and orders.

Provided that no order passed on such revision shall invalidate any registration or other proceeding previously made or taken of or upon an instrument endorsed by the Collector under section twenty-four or section twenty-five.

41. (a).—The chief controlling Revenue Authority may state any case coming before it under this Act, and refer such case with its own opinion thereon, if the case arise in the Presidency of Fort Saint George or the Presidency of Bombay, to the local High Court, and if it arise in any other part of British India, to the High Court at Fort William.

Reference to High Court.

(b).—Every such case shall be decided by at least three Judges of the High Court to which it is referred, and in case of difference the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

(c).—If the High Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue Authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

(d).—The High Court upon the hearing of any such case shall decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon, containing the grounds on which such decision is founded; and it shall send to the Revenue Authority by which the case was stated, a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar, and the Revenue Authority shall, on receiving the same, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

42. The chief controlling Revenue Authority may, upon petition, remit wholly or in part any penalty imposed under this Act.

Power to remit penalties.

43. All prosecutions in respect of any offence punishable by this Act, shall be instituted and conducted by the Collector or such other officer as the local Government generally, or the Collector specially authorises in that behalf.

Institution and conduct of prosecutions.

44. Offences punishable under this Act may be tried within the limits of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay by a Magistrate of Police, and beyond those limits by the Magistrate of the District or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate (as defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure), or of a Subordinate Magistrate of the first class: Provided that, in imposing penalties under this Act, no such person shall exceed the limits of jurisdiction prescribed for him by the said Code.

Jurisdiction of Magistrate.

CHAPTER VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

45. If any person possessing any stamped paper which has been obtained in the manner allowed by this Act or Act No. X. of 1862 (to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Stamp Duties), or any paper on which the stamp has been denoted by the Collector or the Superintendent of Stamps, does not require the same for use;

Refund in case of useless or spoiled stamped paper.

or if the paper so possessed becomes spoiled or unfit for use as hereinafter mentioned, the Collector of the District in which the paper has been purchased may, upon application made to him, within one year after such purchase, and upon delivery to him of such paper, refund the amount paid to Government for the same, whether by the applicant or any other person ; or in case the owner of the paper so spoiled or unfit for use, desires to be supplied with stamped paper of similar or equal value, the Collector may cause such paper to be delivered to him or his agent upon payment of the value of the paper on which the new stamp or stamps shall be impressed.

46. Stamped paper and paper on which the Stamp has been denoted by the Collector or the Superintendent of Stamps, shall be held to be spoiled or unfit for use within the meaning of section forty-five when—

When stamped paper shall be held to be spoiled.

by accident happening to the same before any writing thereupon has been finally signed and executed, it is rendered unfit for use ;

or when, because of some error in the drawing up or copying of any writing thereon, discovered before such writing has been finally signed and executed, it is rendered of no avail ;

or when, by reason of death or refusal of the party whose signature may be necessary to effect the transaction intended by such writing, it remains incomplete and of no avail ;

or when, by refusal of any office or trust granted by a writing thereon, it has failed of the purpose intended ; or when, by reason of failure of consideration the transaction intended to be effected or evidenced by a writing thereon cannot be effected or evidenced ; or when the transaction intended to be effected by a writing thereon has been effected by some other instrument duly stamped ;

or when, in the case of a negotiable instrument, such instrument is, by reason of non-delivery to the payee or person acting in his behalf, or other cause, never brought into use ;

or when, in the case of a bill of exchange other than a bill drawn in a set, it has not been presented for acceptance or payment.

47. Where in case of a sale, or an exchange upon which money is paid for equality of exchange, or a lease for a premium, the full consideration-money is not truly set forth in the manner hereby directed, the purchaser, or the person paying money for equality of exchange, or the lessee (as the case may be), or his representative in interest, may sue for and recover back from the seller, or the person receiving such money, or the lessor (as the case may be), or his representative in interest, so much of the consideration-money as is not set forth as aforesaid, or the whole thereof, if no part of the same is so set forth ; and in such suit, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the conveyance, instrument of exchange, or lease shall be admissible in evidence.

48. Every Local Government shall frame rules for regulating the sale of stamps and stamped paper required by this Act or by Act No. XXVI of 1867 (to amend the law relating to stamp duties) for determining the persons by whom such sale is to be conducted, and for fixing the remuneration of such persons within the territories subject to its control ; and may from time to time alter and add to such rules.

Power to make rules for sale of stamps.

Such rules, alterations, and additions shall, when approved by the Governor General of India in Council, and after publication in the local official Gazette, have the force of law.

Any person appointed to sell such stamps and stamped paper, who knowingly disobeys any such rules, shall be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or with both.

49. When an impressed stamp is used under section five to denote the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, such amount shall be denoted by a single stamp, except when such amount exceeds one thousand rupees, in which case it may be denoted by two or more impressed stamps of which the aggregate amount is the amount so required :

Provided that, when a single impressed stamp of any amount less than one thousand rupees is not procurable on application to the Collector or stamp-vendor appointed under section forty-eight, it shall be lawful, on such officer making a certificate to that effect, for the person requiring such stamp to denote the amount by two or more impressed stamps, of which the aggregate amount is the amount so required.

50. When more stamped papers than one are used under section forty-nine for an instrument chargeable with stamp duty under this Act, each paper so used shall contain a part of the instrument.

51. Every Local Government shall cause this Act and the schedules hereto annexed to be carefully translated into the principal vernacular languages of the territories subject to its control.

A full alphabetical index shall be added to every such translation, and the translation and index shall be printed and sold to the public at a price not exceeding four annas per copy.

| Levy of fees in High Courts on their original sides. | 3. The fees payable for the time being to the clerks and officers (other than the sheriffs and attorneys) of the High Courts established by Letters Patent, by virtue of the power conferred by Statute twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth of Victoria, chapter one hundred and four, section fifteen, or chargeable in each of such Courts under No. eleven of the first, and Nos. seven, twelve, fourteen, sixteen, twenty and twenty-one of the second, schedule to this Act annexed ; and the fees for the time being chargeable in the Courts of Small Causes at the Presidency Towns and their several offices ; shall be collected in manner hereinafter appearing. |
| Levy of fees in Presidency Small Cause Courts. | 4. No document of any of the kinds specified in the first or second schedule to this Act annexed, as chargeable with fees, shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or shall be received or furnished by, any of the said High Courts in any case coming before such Court in the exercise of its extraordinary original civil jurisdiction ; or in the exercise of its extraordinary original criminal jurisdiction ; or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the judgment of two, or more Judges of the said Court, or of a Division Court ; |
| Fees on documents filed, &c. in High Courts in their extraordinary jurisdiction. | |
| In their appellate jurisdiction. | |

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the Courts subject to its superintendence ;

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as a Court of reference or revision ; As Courts of reference and revision.

unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

5. When any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that any fee is paid under this chapter and any suitor or attorney, as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the difference arises in any of the said High Courts, be referred to the taxing-officer, whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the Chief Justice of such High Court, or of such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf. Procedure in case of difference as to necessity or amount of fee.

When any such difference arises in any of the said Courts of Small Causes the question shall be referred to the Clerk of the Court, whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the First Judge of such Court.

The Chief Justice shall declare who shall be taxing-officer within the meaning of the first paragraph of this section.

CHAPTER III.

FEES IN OTHER COURTS AND IN PUBLIC OFFICES.

6. Except in the Courts hereinbefore mentioned, no document of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in the first or second schedule to this Act annexed shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice, or shall be received or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document. Fees on documents filed, &c., in Mofussil Courts or in public offices.

7. The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suits next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows :— Computation of fees payable

I. In suits for Money (including suits for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically)—according to the amount claimed : for money :

II. In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically—according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year : for maintenance and annuities :

III. In suits for moveable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market-value—according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint : for other moveable property having a market-value :

IV. In suits—

for moveable property of no market-value: (a) for moveable property where the subject-matter has no market value, as, for instance, in the case of documents relating to title, to enforce a right to share in joint family property: (b) to enforce the right to share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property, for a declaratory decree and consequential relief: (c) to obtain a declaratory decree or order, where consequential relief is prayed, for an injunction: (d) to obtain an injunction, for easements: (e) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land, and for accounts: (f) for accounts—according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal.

In all such suits the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, section thirty-one, shall apply as if, for the word 'claim,' the words 'relief sought,' were substituted.

for possession of land, houses and gardens: V. In suits for the possession of land, houses, and gardens—according to the value of the subject-matter; and such value shall be deemed to be—

where the subject-matter is land, and—

(a) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such an estate and is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue, and such revenue is permanently settled—ten times the revenue so payable:

(b) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such estate and is recorded as aforesaid;

and such revenue is settled, but not permanently—five times the revenue so payable:

(c) where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment or is charged with any fixed payment in lieu of such revenue,

and nett profits have arisen from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint—fifteen times such nett profits:

but where no such nett profits have arisen therefrom—the amount at which the Court shall estimate the land with reference to the value of similar land in the neighbourhood:

(d) where the land forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, but is not a definite share of such estate, and is not separately assessed as above-mentioned—the market-value of the land:

Provido as to Bombay Presidency. Provided that, in the territories subject to the Governor of Bombay in Council, the value of the land shall be deemed to be—

(1) where the land is held on settlement for a period not exceeding thirty years and pays the full assessment to Government—a sum equal to five times the survey-assessment ;

(2) where the land is held on a permanent settlement, or on a settlement for any period exceeding thirty years, and pays the full assessment to Government—a sum equal to ten times the survey-assessment ; and

(3) where the whole or any part of the annual survey-assessment is remitted—a sum computed under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this proviso, as the case may be, in addition to ten times the assessment, or the portion of assessment, so remitted :

Explanation.—The word 'estate,' as used in this paragraph, means any land subject to the payment of revenue, for which the proprietor or a farmer or royt shall have executed a separate engagement to Government, or which, in the absence of such engagement, shall have been separately assessed with revenue.

(e) Where the subject-matter is a house or garden—according to the market-value of the house or garden : for houses and gardens :

vi. in suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the value (computed in accordance with paragraph v of this section) of the land, house or garden in respect of which the right is claimed : to enforce a right of pre-emption :

vii. In suits for the interest of an assignee of land-revenue—fifteen times his nett profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint : for interest of assignee of land-revenue :

viii. In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached : Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest : to set aside an attachment :

ix. In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged. to redeem :

and in suits by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage. to foreclose :

or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage :

x. In suits for specific performance—for specific performance :

(a) of a contract of sale—according to the amount of consideration :

(b) of a contract of mortgage—according to the amount agreed to be secured :

(c) of a contract of lease—according to the aggregate amount of the fine or premium (if any) and of the rent agreed to be paid during the first year of the term :

(d) of an award—according to the amount or value of the property in dispute :

xi. In the following suits between landlord and tenant :—

between landlord and tenant.

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counterpart of a lease,

(b) to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy,

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease,

- (d) to contest a notice of ejectment,
- (e) to recover the occupancy of land from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord, and
- (f) for abatement of rent—

according to the amount of the rent of the land to which the suit refers, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.

8. The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes, shall be computed according to the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

Power to ascertain nett profits or market-value.

9. If the Court sees reason to think that the annual nett profits or the market-value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in section seven, paragraphs five and six, have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

Procedure where nett profits or market-value wrongly estimated.

10. i. If in the result of any such investigation the Court finds that the nett profits or market-value have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee : but if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the said market-value or nett profits been rightly estimated :

ii. In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

iii. Section one hundred and eighty of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be construed as if the words 'the market-value of any property or' were inserted after the word 'ascertaining' and as if the words 'or annual nett profits' were inserted after the word 'damages.'

Procedure in suits for mesne profits or account when amount decreed exceeds amount claimed.

11. In suits for mesne profits or for immoveable property and mesne profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed, or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

12. i. Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit :

Decision of questions as to valuation.

ii. But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided, and the provisions of section ten, paragraph ii, shall apply.

13. If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal, on any of the grounds mentioned in section three hundred and fifty-one of the same Code, for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal :

Refund of fee paid on memorandum of appeal.

Provided that, if, in the case of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

14. Where an application for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

Refund of fee on application for review of judgment.

15. Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the second schedule to this Act, No. one, clause (b) or clause (d).

Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake.

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

16. When any appeal is presented to a Civil Court, not against the whole of a decision, but only against so much thereof as relates to a portion of the subject-matter of the suit, and, on the hearing of such appeal, the respondent takes, under section three hundred and forty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure, an objection to any part of the said decision other than the part appealed against, the Court shall not hear such objection until the respondent shall have paid the additional fee which would have been payable had the appeal comprised the part of the decision so objected to.

Multifarious suits.

17. Where a suit embraces two or more distinct subjects, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints or memoranda of appeal in suits embracing separately each of such subjects would be liable under this Act.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to affect the power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure, section nine.

Written examinations of complainants.

18. When the first or only examination of a person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which police officers may arrest without a warrant, and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act, is reduced to writing under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the complainant shall pay a fee of eight annas, unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

Exemption of certain documents.

19. Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee :—

- i. Power-of-attorney to institute or defend a suit when executed by an officer, warrant-officer, non-commissioned officer or private of Her Majesty's army not in civil employment.
- ii. Declarations mentioned in section one hundred and eighteen and section one hundred and sixty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure.

- ix. Application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land-revenue, or to a Board of Revenue, or a Commissioner of Revenue, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land, or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.

- x. Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.
- xi. Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land-revenue by a person holding, under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled but not permanently.
- xii. Application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.
- xiii. Written authority to an agent to distrain.
- xiv. First application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court.
- xv. Bail-bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence, and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise.
- xvi. Petition, application, charge, or information respecting any offence, when presented, made or laid to or before a Police officer, or to or before the Heads of Villages or the Village Police in the territories respectively subject to the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay.
- xvii. Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officers.
- xviii. Complaint of a public servant (as defined in the Indian Penal Code), a municipal officer, or an officer or servant of a Railway Company.
- xix. Application for permission to cut timber in Government forests or otherwise relating to such forests.
- xx. Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.
- xxi. Petition of appeal against the chaukidāri assessment under Act No. XX of 1856, or against any municipal tax.
- xxii. Applications for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes.
- xxiii. Petitions presented to the Special Commissioner appointed under Bengal Act No. II of 1869 (to ascertain, regulate and record certain tenures in Chota Nagpore).
- xxiv. Petitions under the fourteenth and fifteenth of Victoria, chapter forty (An Act for Marriages in India), section five, or under Act No. V of 1852, section nine.

CHAPTER IV.

PROCESS FEES.

Rules as to costs of processes.

20. The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters :—

i. The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil and Revenue Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction :

ii. The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police officers may arrest without a warrant ; and

iii. The remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

Confirmation and publication of rules.

All such rules, alterations and additions shall, after being confirmed by the Local Government and sanctioned by the Governor General of India in Council, be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Until such rules shall be so made and published, the fees now leviable for serving and executing processes shall continue to be levied, and shall be deemed to be fees leviable under this Act.

Tables of process-fees.

21. A Table in the English and Vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution, shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

Number of peons in District and subordinate Courts.

22. Subject to rules to be made by the High Court and approved by the Local Government and the Governor General of India in Council, every District Judge and every Magistrate of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court and each of the Courts subordinate thereto,

Number of peons in Mofussil Small Cause Courts.

and for the purposes of this section, every Court of Small Causes established under Act No. XI of 1865 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature) shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court of the District Judge.

Number of peons in Revenue Courts.

23. Subject to rules to be framed by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and approved by the Local Government and the Governor General of India in Council, every officer performing the functions of a Collector of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court or the Courts subordinate to him.

Process served under this chapter to be held process served under Civil Procedure Code.

24. Every process served or executed under this chapter shall be held to be a process within the meaning of section one hundred and eighty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure, and of section two of Act No. XXIII of 1861 (to amend Act VIII of 1859).

CHAPTER V.

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES.

25. All fees referred to in section three, or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps. Collection of fees by stamps.

26. The stamps used to denote any fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed, or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the Governor General of India in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, from time to time direct. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.

27. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating— Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps.

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act,

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act,

(c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps, and

(d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act :

Provided that, in the case of stamps used under section three in a High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

28. No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped. Stamping documents inadvertently received.

But if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of a High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct ; and on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

29. Where any such document is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp. Amended document.

30. No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled. Cancellation of stamp.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

CHAPTER VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

31. i. Whenever an application or petition containing a complaint or charge of an offence, other than an offence for which Police officers may arrest without warrant, is presented to a Criminal Court, the Court, if it convict the accused person, shall, in addition to the Repayment of fees paid on applications to Criminal Courts.

penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay to the complainant the fee paid on such application or petition.

ii. In the case mentioned in section eighteen, the Court, if it convict the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay to the complainant the fee, if any, paid by the latter for the examination.

iii. When the complainant has paid fees for serving processes in either of the cases mentioned in the first and second paragraphs of this section, the Court, if it convict the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay such fees to the complainant.

iv. All fees ordered to be repaid under this section may be recovered as if they were fines imposed by the Court.

Amendments of Act VIII of 1859, sections
308, 309, 371, 373

32. The Code of Civil Procedure, sections three hundred and eight and three hundred and nine, shall be read as if, for the words 'stamp-duty' and 'stamps,' the words and figures 'fees chargeable under the Court Fees Act, 1870,' were substituted; section three hundred and seventy-one of the same Code shall be read as if, for the words 'a stamp of the value,' the words 'the payment of the fee,' were substituted; and section three hundred and seventy-three of the same Code shall be read as if, for the words 'on a stamp paper of the value,' the words 'and shall be chargeable with the fee,' were substituted; and as if, for the words 'for the stamps,' the words 'the fees,' were substituted.

And the Indian Income Tax Act, section twenty, shall be read as if, for the words 'the value of the said stamp,' the words 'the fee on the petition,' were substituted.

Admission in criminal cases of documents for which proper fee has not been paid.

33. Whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in section four or section six shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

Rules for sale of stamps.

34. In the General Stamp Act, 1869, section forty-eight shall be read as if, for the words and figures Act No. XXVI of 1867 (to amend the law relating to Stamp Duties) the words and figures 'The Court Fees Act, 1870,' were substituted.

Power to reduce or remit fees.

35. The Governor General of India in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of British India, all or any of the fees mentioned in the first and second schedules to this Act annexed, and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

Saving of fees to certain officers of High Courts.

36. Nothing in chapters II and V of this Act applies to the commission payable to the Accountant General of the High Court at Fort William, or to the fees which any officer of a High Court is allowed to receive in addition to a fixed salary.

GOVERNMENT AND HIGH COURT CIRCULARS, ORDERS, &c. UNDER ACT XVIII OF 1869 (GENERAL STAMP ACT) AND ACT VII OF 1870 (COURT FEES' ACT), Published in the "Bombay Government Gazette."

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

The following Notification by the Government of India is re-published for general information :—

Separate Revenue.—[Stamps.]

The 15th March 1870.

No. 1865.—In exercise of the power conferred by Section 26 of the Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870) and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor General in Council is pleased to issue the following directions :—

1. When the exact amount of any fee chargeable under the said Act can be denoted by a single impressed Bi-color Stamp, such fee shall be denoted accordingly. When the exact amount of the fee cannot be denoted by a single impressed Bi-color Stamp, the next lower available Bi-color Stamp shall be used, and the deficiency made up by one or more additional stamps, which may be either Bi-color or Adhesive.

2. The Bi-color Stamps referred to in this Notification are the red and black printed stamps, and the Adhesive Stamps are those across which the words 'Court Fees' have been printed.

3. Should the amount of the Fee in any case involve a fraction of one anna, such fraction shall be remitted.

(Signed) R. B. CHAPMAN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

Bombay Castle, 23rd March 1870.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

The following Notification by the Government of India is re-published for general information :—

Separate Revenue.—[Stamps.]

The 23rd March 1870.

No. 2060.—Under the provisions of Section 5 of Act XVIII of 1869, the Governor General in Council is pleased to notify that where the special Adhesive Stamps referred to in Financial Notification No. 319 of 13th January 1870, are not available for the purpose of denoting the stamp to be affixed to the Instruments mentioned, in Clause (b) of the above-mentioned Section, the stamp on such Instruments may be denoted by embossed stamp impressed by a cold steel die.

This Notification and Notification No. 319 of 13th January 1870 shall be held to apply only to those offices where stamping presses at present exist.

(Signed) R. B. CHAPMAN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

By order,

(Signed) F. R. S. WYLLIE,

Acting Under Secretary to Government.

Bombay Castle, 30th March 1870.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

As Bi-color Stamps can now be obtained at all Treasuries, the further use of the present Adhesive Stamps for Petitions under Clause I of Schedule II of Act VII of 1870 shall cease from the 1st of May next.

By order,

(Signed) F. S. CHAPMAN,

Chief Secretary to Government.

Bombay Castle, 13th April 1870.

Under the provisions of Section 27 of the Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870) the Right Honourable the Governor in Council is pleased to notify that two or more separate Bi-color Stamps may be used to make up a single value. When any of these stamped papers may also have been impressed with a cold steel die stamp denoting an additional value, the part so impressed by the cold steel die shall be en faced with the word "cancelled," and for Court Fee purposes, only the value expressed by the Bi-color Stamp shall be taken notice of, and the value of the cold steel die stamp shall not be considered.

By order,

(Signed) F. S. CHAPMAN,

Chief Secretary to Government.

Bombay Castle, 13th April 1870.

No. 106.—Under the provisions of Section 26 of the Court Fees' Act, No. VII of 1870, the Governor General in Council directs that the fees referred to in Section 3 of the above-mentioned Act may be denoted by Adhesive Stamps of the same kind as hitherto have been in use in the Courts therein mentioned.

(Signed) R. B. CHAPMAN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

22nd April 1870.

No. 184.—Under the provisions of Section 26 of the Court Fees' Act, No. VII of 1870, the Governor General in Council directs that the Adhesive Share Transfer Stamps of fractions of rupees may be used under the above-mentioned Act, the words 'Court Fees' being printed across them.

(Signed) R. B. CHAPMAN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

28th April 1870.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

The following Circular No. 811, dated 28th May 1870, from the Financial Department of the Government of India, is published for general information :—
Circular No. 811.

Government of India.—Financial Department.

Separate Revenue.—[Stamps.]

Simla, the 28th May 1870.

SIR,—I am directed to request that with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council you will issue the necessary instructions with a view to the renewal or refund of the value of the old stamps which had been issued for use previous to the introduction of the General Stamp Act XVIII of 1869, and which have been rendered useless in consequence of the subsequent changes in the rates of duty prescribed by that Act.

2. I am also to suggest that the arrangements for refund and renewal of the stamps in question may be so made as not to admit of the necessity for the presentation of any written application on the part of the holders of the old useless stamps, as every such application under the Court Fees' Act of 1870 would entail expense on the applicants.

3. As there seems to exist some misapprehension with regard to the application of Section 45 of the General Stamp Act XVIII of 1869, I am to take this opportunity of explaining that the rules under that section apply exclusively to cases in which stamps have become unfit for the purpose for which they were procured, through some act or omission on the part of the persons possessing them, and not to cases in which stamps obtained for use under the old law have been rendered useless in consequence of the subsequent changes in the law.

I have, &c.

(Signed) G. H. M. BATTEN,

Under Secretary to the Government of India.

Bombay Castle, 15th June 1870.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council has made the following Rules under Section 27 of the Court Fees' Act VII of 1870, for the Bombay Court of Small Causes :—

1st.—On and after the 1st day of April 1870, the Fees of the Court shall be paid by means of stamps.

2nd.—All stamps to be used under these Rules shall be adhesive.

3rd.—Applications for Summonses, Subpœnas, Writs of execution, and all Processes and other Documents issued by the Court, or used therein, in respect of which fees are, or shall be properly levied or leviable, shall be made on paper having affixed thereto a stamp or stamps of the value of the sum which would have been levied or may be leviable as a fee in respect of such document according to law.

4th.—Several Stamps may be used to make up the amount of the stamp required, but they shall, as far as practicable, be of such values that no greater number of stamps shall be used than is actually necessary.

5th.—Stamps may be obtained from the licensed vendor, and an office for the sale of stamps shall be provided at or near the Court House.

6th.—The Clerk of the Court, or such one of his Clerks as he shall appoint to receive applications for summonses and other processes, shall cancel the stamp affixed thereto in the manner provided by Section 30 of Act VII of 1870, and shall thereupon file such applications; he shall also grant a receipt for every application so filed, and no money shall be paid out of Court, or certificate for refund granted, unless on production of such receipt, or by order of a Judge.

7th.—The Clerk of the Court shall keep an account of all stamps filed in the Court, and of all refunds made under the preceding Rules, and shall on the 1st day of each month, or as near thereto as possible, render such account to the Superintendent of Stamps.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council,

(Signed) W. WEDDERBURN,

Acting Secretary to Government.

Bombay Castle, 27th June 1870.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

The 6th January 1871.

The following Notification by the Government of India is re-published for general information :—

Separate Revenue.—[Stamps.]

No. 47.—In exercise of the power conferred by the Court Fees' Act (VII of 1870) Section 35, the Governor General of India in Council hereby remits throughout British India the fees with which bonds and other instruments executed by salaried officers of Government to secure the due performance of their duties are chargeable under that Act, Schedule II, No. 6.

(Signed) R. B. CHAPMAN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

By order,

(Signed) E. W. RAVENSCROFT,

Acting Chief Secretary to Government.

RULINGS OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS ON THE COURT FEES' ACT (VII OF 1870).

No. 839.

Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, 28th April 1870.

Read letter dated 14th April 1870 from the Acting Civil Judge of Coimbatore, requesting the opinion of the High Court as to the necessity for requiring supplementary sheets added to a Plaint, Memorandum of Appeal, copy of Decree or Judgment to be stamped.

Opinion.

The High Court are of opinion that the additional sheets which, under the general rule at the end of Schedule B of Act XXVI of 1867, were required to bear a stamp of the value required for Petitions are, under the present Act (VII of 1870), exempted from stamp duty.

No. 1344.

Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, 20th July 1870.

Read letter dated 9th June 1870 from the Magistrate of Cuddapah, requesting instructions whether fees which a Court may order to be repaid to a complainant under section 31 of Act VII of 1870 should be paid over immediately that the sentence is pronounced, or retained in deposit for two months.

Opinion.

The High Court are of opinion that the order to re-pay is an integral part of the sentence, and that the fee should be treated as a fine imposed by the Court. Section 44 of the Code of Criminal Procedure provides for retaining fines in deposit pending an appeal where an appeal lies.

Particulars regarding immoveable property with reference to para. V of Section 7 of Act VII of 1870 (Court Fees' Act).
